Army Cancels Dance Listed for Friday

Tea Dance, Splash Party Highlight Weekend's Social Activities

"Upheld on circumstances" have made it necessary to cancel the April dance scheduled for Friday night. Lt. Franklin Miller, public relations officer for the Army, gave the announcement. However, plans are under way for another all-day dance to be held sometime in early April, according to Lt. Colonel Hett's, chairman of the activities division, campus.

Dramatist 'Produces' Single Handed

One Man Show Will Present 'Macbeth'

streamlined Shakespeare Offered by Jack Rank on Series Tonight

At Jack Rank, "The one-man theater" will present his streamlined version of Shakespeare's "Hamlet," "Maccbeth," and "Cymbeline" in College auditorium at 8:15 tonight in the summer lecture series.

Playing all parts himself, Rank plays 12 characters in his version of the Shakespearean classics. All characters appear in costume, and 35 costume changes are made during one performance.

Quick Change

Rank leaves the stage speaking the lines of the current character, and is immediately recognizable by another door, costume, and makeup, changing and going back on stage in a few seconds.

Dramatist, ranking another, is all played by one actor.

A graduate of the University of Vermont, Rank studied Shakespeare and drama at the University of London, and is a member of the Dramatists Guild. He began his work in radio drama, for which he was named outstanding dramatic writer in 1957.

A frequent contributor to radio and television, Rank has appeared in many films, and has directed some of the records of his own work. His latest book, "The Dramatist," is a collection of his plays.
