Campus League Teams Practice for Opener

With the first football game of the season planned for Oct. 1, less than two weeks off, the five teams of the Spartan Campus League began practice yesterday afternoon, according to Athletic Director Ralph Young.

The Campus League is the sports organization developed after State discontinued intercollegiate athletics for the duration, upon order from Pres. John A. Hannah, its head.

Jacket was a focal point yesterday afternoon when the practice squad of football marchers was organized in Memorial Hospital. Doctor bees, Dr. C. B. Holcomb, head of the Medical School, and Dr. C. G. Oldham, head of the University Hospital, were among those who attended.

With the practice squad organized and drilled, the parade officers planned for the upcoming parade.

Students, Army Men Share Library Rooms

The library study arrangement to accommodate both civilian and military students were announced yesterday by Librarian Jack Brown.

The building will be open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., divided into two sections, one from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and the other from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Rooms open for civilian study will be in the main reading room, second floor, and the first floor, and the army study rooms are only for the army and the associates will use the third floor, third floor, for study.

Civilian students may study only in the second floor reading room, and will not be able to study in the first floor. The army study may be taken in the reading room on the third floor.
