WINING wa ek the Midwest" is the theme of a trim line issued by the American Student Association of the University of Michigan. It indicates the fact that the Midwest is the original home of the United States and that the University of Michigan is the oldest land-grant college in the Midwest.

The line is the work of the American Student Association, which is a student government organization on the University of Michigan campus. It is composed of students from all of the University's colleges, and its purpose is to promote the interests of the students.

The line is printed in red and black, and it is distributed on the University campus. It is also available for purchase at the University Bookstore.

The line is available in a variety of sizes, including small, medium, and large. The small size is 3 x 5 inches, the medium size is 5 x 7 inches, and the large size is 8 x 10 inches.

The line is also available in a variety of colors, including red, black, white, and blue.

The line is an excellent way to show your support for the University of Michigan and its students.

The line is available for purchase at the University Bookstore or online at the University of Michigan's website.
Dormitories Top Capacity Under 'Double-Up' Program

Women Will Elect Residence Officers Tonight

Last week's capacity registration in the three women's dormitories on campus has topped this year with 286 more women students than at the residences, according to WP E. Peterson, women's housing supervisor.

To meet the increased dormitory capacity, all residence halls on campus have been opened. Women's housing will be as follows: Nunn and the Athenaeum residence halls for junior and senior women; Michigan Avenue dormitory for freshmen; and the new residence hall for sophomores.

Fraternities Resume
Active Status Make
Plans for Rushing

Despite the fact that only a fraction of the former main line enrollment in still on campus, all of the fraternities are on an active status and are planning fall rushing activities.

Pamphlets will be carried on campus eventually, a man or two each term to keep a nucleus on campus, said Dean Fred Mitchell, fraternity advisor.

RAF council members will hold a meeting this week to elect a new president. Tom Banner, former president, is new to the army, while all other members have returned from the BOVY weeks.

The fraternities are now emphasizing new member groups and meeting at different locations to make the military members feel at home.

RUSHING INVITATIONS

All men and women living in the Oak ridge area are participating in this, rushing activities, as the fraternities are gradually taking over the fraternal life in Oak Ridge.

The efforts will be seen throughout this week with new members from the freshmen class in the competition for membership and eligibility to play.

AITS, AWS, and others are also extending their membership to the freshmen class in the Oak ridge area.

BELL SYSTEM

...in peace and war

This emblem is familiar throughout the nation as the symbol of a well-trained team, integrated for service in peace or war. The Bell Telephone System.

1. American Telephone & Telegraph Co, coordinates all Bell System activities.

2. Twenty-one Associated Companies provide telephone service in their own territories.

4. Bell Telephone Laboratories carries on scientific research and development.

5. Western Electric Co. is the manufacturing, purchasing and distributing unit.

The benefits of the nationwide service provided by these companies are never so clear as in time of war.
