Reds Crack German Defense Line in Dnieper Bridgehead

LONDON, Oct. 7 (AP)—The Red army in a smashing breakthrough of its 1944 offensive has cracked the valiant Dnieper Bridgehead defense line, established and extending them "step by step" despite furious German resistance, which are being "repulsed with heavy losses," Moscow announced tonight.

The Russians also were reported to have driven into a two thousand of Germans in the Defensive line, and have announced that they have announced a victory.

The Dnieper River divides
the Ukraine, and is 1,400 miles long.

The German attacks were reported to have attracted the attention of the Red Army, and were reported to have attacked the strategic point of the Dnieper.

In a phone broadcast to the European News Agency, Prof.
J. V. Stalin, the leading Communist at Moscow, declared that the Red Army has beaten the Germans in the Dnieper Bridgehead.

"The Dnieper Bridgehead is a strategic point for the Red Army, and the German attacks have been repulsed with heavy losses," Stalin said.

"The Red Army has beaten the Germans
in the Dnieper Bridgehead, and will continue its offensive," Stalin said.

"The Red Army has
offensive."

Radio Honorary Group Elects New Officers

Officers for the coming term were elected at a recent meeting of Alpha Phalanx (Phi, rho, phi) members. Miss Ruby Tomlinson was chosen head of the group. Miss Edythe Jenkins, Mary Jane Simms, and Clotilde Street were also elected into the group.

Squadrons

Squadrons of the Phi, rho, phi group opened in October with the following officers: Captain of Cadets, Professor; Lieutenant, Miss Alice West; Assistant Cadets, Miss Margaret McCall; and Lieutenant, Miss Mildred Anderson. The group was organized in the fall of 1943, and has been growing rapidly since then. It is expected to continue to increase in membership as the year progresses.

Blind Date Bureau

The Bureau was created to help students who have difficulties finding a suitable partner for their social engagements. The bureau will match students based on their preferences and interests, ensuring a smooth and enjoyable experience for all.

Two Squadrons Plan Last Social Flying at Semi-Formal Dance

Squadron C and D will hold their last social event of the season in the form of a semi-formal dance. This event will be held in the evening, providing a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere for all attendees. The dance promises to be a memorable experience, with dancers likely to be the highlight of the evening.

Higher Payments Loom for Service Wives

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) — A retired first lieutenant has been charged with fraud in a scheme to defraud the government of $50,000. The lieutenant, who has been charged with mishandling government funds, allegedly stole the money from the government over a period of several months. The scheme involved the transfer of funds from government accounts to personal bank accounts.

Stewart Will Address Orientation Group

Stewart, director of alumni relations, will address the entire group of alumni relations on the morning of October 30. The purpose of the address is to update the group on the latest developments in alumni relations, including the progress of the upcoming reunion. Stewart will also take questions from the group regarding the upcoming events.
