Michigan Plays Fighting Illini on Saturday

Warriors Make Final Road Appearance at Memorial Stadium

ANN ARBOR, Oct. 27: The final road appearance at Memorial Stadium has been all that the latter suggests for the Michigan basketball team. In Saturday's game against Illinois, the Big Ten's last road game, the Wolverines were forced to face the facts of the season.

The Golden Gaters of Ann Arbor, led by the famous Michigan football team, have been defeated in their last two road games. The team has lost its last two road games and faces a tough challenge in Saturday's game.

The game against Illinois will be a tough one for the Wolverines, but they will give their best effort.

U.S. Air Officers Discredit Raid Tip-off Rumors

London, Oct. 27: All American pilots have been tipped off by top British officers that the German raiders are not making progress in their attacks on this country. The pilots have been told that the raids are being stopped by the British defenses.

The British have been relieved by the news, but the Americans are still cautious.

Reds Keep Germans Moving

Grind Across 18 More Miles of 'The Loop'

LONDON, Oct 27 AP—Russians racing through Italy as they swept south to the beaches at a beaten German army captured 18 additional miles in the Muldenb area today and took 14 more populated places in the frontier belt. Moscow announced yesterday.

A German resistance broke in the north to drive back in the Crimea, the Russians farther north tightened their stranglehold on the Germans, 14 and the southern front was held in front of the four miles The Russians have said.

The Russians were advancing the northwestern ring area center and the one that held together the whole German front in south Russia.

In the southern Ukraine, the Russians have captured themselves 14 superhot million-born and are advancing west in White Russia where the front has been extremely mobile. In the southern Ukraine, the Russians were also pulling up from the north toward Belgrad on the Dnieper river, where manganese mines—important for making steel—were among the 14 million Red Line.

Mexicans Enroll in Vet Division

Five Mexican student veterinarians are now enrolled in the Veterinary Sciences department at Michigan State College, according to Dean Dehn. The universities from the Kellogg school have been previously employed in the United States. They are now enrolled in the school.

The Mexicans are graduate students, and are taking courses in farm, dairy and meat hygiene. They are sponsored by the U.S. government.

New Music Club Elects Officers

For the first time in the history of the college, an organization supervising the activities of the music department has been formed. Every one of the 100 music majors is automatically a member, although the group too large to stimulate mutual interest and activity among students of the diverse variety of music practiced in the Music building be done for the meeting of the group. Officers elected for this year are: Fred Truesdell, president; Leonore Hadden, vice-president, and Jackie Balder, secretary-treasurer.

Numerous activities, both social and educational, are being planned for the coming months. The first on the calendar is a reception for the veterans, followed by Balder, who will appear in the music concert next month.
