No Other Class Officers

Will Be Elected Unlesa

Spokesmen Appear

Four senior class officers will be chosen for the class of 1944 in the coming days following student council members this year's election. The matter was last night.

The main reason for the outcome was that the word had it that the elections were being handled in such a manner that the student council leaders were not being given the opportunity to campaign for the positions, which will result in good candidates not being elected.

The faculty members are said to be disturbed at the lack of enthusiasm displayed by the student council leaders in their campaigns.

Column Hall Rights

A resolution was passed by the Student Senate to allow the student council to use the Column Hall for their meetings without charge.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Roy Hume, who said that the Student Senate had the right to grant such permission.

Labor Leaders Appeal for Food Subsidy

Price Retention

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor leaders today made an appeal for price retention in the food industry.

The labor leaders said that they were concerned over the price of food, which they said was too high.

They said that they were willing to accept a reduction in the price of food, as long as the reduction was not too severe.

Allies Prepare for Possible Push on Rome

British Eighth Advances Up Adriatic Coast Toward Pesara

ALLIED HQ, ALGERS, Dec 1 (AP)—Under the gobbling darkness of most of the entire Italian coastline, the British eighth army struggled through German defenses. In the face of坚决的 Italian counterattacks, American forces today, for the first time, captured three miles in the central sector, possibly breaching the start of an "oil out" Allied line from Rome.

Already the Eighth Army had seized a number of determined Nazi strongholds as it fought to the Adriatic coast plateau to attacked important sectors of Rome, only 20 miles away.

The three-division Italian attack of Modigliana in the south and through the Anzio beachhead by Major General A. D. Clark, an American and his fifth army forces and tanks were moving to 25 miles southward toward Cassino and a battle other run to Rome.
