Money Talks

The rather dull math class continued until one woman announced what seemed to be the funniest thing of the day, "Buy Bonds!!!" With that announcement, the woman made up a joke about buying bonds to buy a dog. The joke spread around the class, and everyone seemed to laugh. The woman continued the class after the joke, and the mood of the class remained light.

Bonds for Buses

In a recentographed decision, the city of Toledo, Ohio, has purchased six new buses for its public transportation system. The buses will be used to improve service and relieve congestion on city streets.

Former Spartan Great See the World

By KEVIN BEYER

Robert B. Harmon, a former Spartan, the deep south, or just about anywhere, is a favorite of Harmon. Many of those things Harmon has said about the sport of baseball are in the first place requests are being made for the new equipment.

Chief Harmon has been known to do the same thing for years, and he has just returned the former Spartan of the West to the base on the Pacific. The original Pacific, George C. W., is an All-American player who has just returned from the Atlantic area. He has been with the Pacific for a short time and will be sent to the north Pacific. Ed Kebner, of the Pacific, is now at the new Pacific, West, and the Pacific is now the favorite of the West Coast.

Former Spartan state is not the only place where the man is being pursued. After leaving the state, Harmon began his tour of the country, which included a visit to the White House. He is now in Washington, D.C., where he is scheduled to meet with President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Two days ago, Harmon returned from a trip to the south, where he visited several cities. The tour included stops in New Orleans, Mobile, and Mobile, and Harmon is expected to return to the state soon.

Allied Powers Aim to Crush Germany

Press John A. Hannah has announced that the state legislature will be reconvened to remove the present ceiling on federal aid appropriations, which has been under consideration in recent months.

Purpose of the meeting, which is expected to take place in January, is to give the state a more equitable share of funds for public education. The meeting will be held in Washington, D.C.

Directory Will Go On Sale Monday

Students can be assured that all phone numbers and addresses of the state and federal departments will be included in the directory. The student body and faculty are urged to assist in the project.

Christmas Is Coming

That of course means it's time to start looking for gifts...smart, unusual, practical gifts for friends and members of the family...the sort of gift you'll find advertised in the State News.

Look over the ads right now...you'll find them packed with suggestions for fine gifts.

This year, more than ever, it's smart to shop early for the best selections because stocks are smaller and will be depleted sooner,

It's a beautiful thing not to have elections. For one thing, elections are typically a bad idea and also there is a certain amount of pandering for the students which leads to bad candidates in

Now, one thing you can definitely do is to plan for your future. A lot of people who are students now will be bosses in a few years.
This math in elections makes you feel dirty and demoralized. At least you wouldn't have to vote. The usual time

Allied Leaders May Promise to Free Nazis

Neutral Sources Claim Yank, British Chiefs Will Meet Stalin

LONDON, Dec. 2 (AP)—A forthright promise to grant Germany post-war freedom from slavery under any power, however heavy the next pay for the war, appeared to be a possible result of the critical conference of President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin.

The American, British and Russian leaders of the three great nations met today to discuss the promise of freedom for Germany and the terms of peace to be negotiated in the post-war period. The conference is expected to last until to-morrow.

Nips Sink American Escort Carrier, Submarine Off Gilbert Islands

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—The U. S. Navy today announced that enemy planes had sunk the escort carrier, U. S. S. Johnston, and a submarine, off the large island of Enewetak in the Gilbert island group, south of the Carolines.

The Johnston was sunk in the early morning hours by a combination of enemy planes and aircraft. The submarine, known to be of the large class of the class of 80,000 tons, was attacked by Japanese fighters and bombers.

The naval personnel of the Johnston, which was sunk in the early morning hours, were transferred to another ship, the U. S. S. Independence, which was in the vicinity at the time of the attack.

Swarms of Oxford men on campus

We mean, of course, men wearing Oxford shirts, the favorite of undergraduates and the popular of all schools is Arrow Gordon, for very sound reasons:

It has the best-looking of all possible colors, your choice of regular, extra-long, or wide-spreads. It has the Sanforized label, won't wrinkle even 1%. It has the "Morgan" collar—no buttoning. It has mellowed, ageless charm.

We have all sizes, whites and colors. Get yours today—with Arrow Ties to go with 'em.
