SPARTANS AT WAR

By JOHN HICKLEY

W HILE the days are numbered, the word of female in the armed forces and, incidentally, among them, can be found among the MSC women. The motto of Spartans has not changed since they have been behind the scenes.

Catherine Jackson, 47, completed her training as a deputy at Michael Reese hospital. The young woman was assigned to an army field in Madison, Wisconsin. Lieutenant Jackson, of the army's director of staff, was the first female in the position.

December 20, Lieutenant Jackson was awarded the medal of Merit by the president of the United States.

From September 30, she was named by the president of the United States, and is now in the service of Camp Lejeune, New York, N.Y., 7,000 people.

The list of women in the service is growing and it is due to the efforts of the director of staff at Camp Lejeune, New York, N.Y., 7,000 people.

Opportunity Knocks as Coeds Take Initiative for Girl-Bid Dance

Leap year will dominate tonight when four women's organizations sponsor the annual semi-formal "Spinster" dance at the historic Old Mill, which faces the Union ballroom. The only all-girl bid dance of the year, the formal will open the spring social season, and feature music by the popular Metroites, an orchestra from the University of Michigan. A Rosenburg will be held at 10:30 p.m. tonight in the Grand Ballroom, while the dance will begin at 11 p.m. in the Union ballroom. The event is open to students and guests of both sexes.

At the request of the women's groups, students are encouraged to attend in appropriate semi-formal attire, including dresses, suits, and tuxedos. Refreshments will be served throughout the evening, and a cash bar will be available in the Grand Ballroom.

The proceeds from this year's Spinster will go toward the support of the University of Michigan's Greek life and cultural programs. Attendees are asked to purchase tickets in advance for $5 per person. Tickets are available at the Senate Building and at local bars and restaurants.

The event is being coordinated by the Spinster Dance Committee, made up of representatives from all of the sponsoring organizations. The committee is working to ensure a fun and enjoyable evening for all attendees.

So don't miss out on this opportunity to join your friends and classmates for a night of dancing, music, and fun at the historic Old Mill. Remember, tickets are limited, so be sure to purchase yours today!
