Today's Campus

Special Delivery

Some women in the dorms received interesting letters from their sweethearts who have been sent overseas. One woman is looking forward to receiving a letter from her fiancé. Another woman expressed her excitement about receiving a letter from her boyfriend who is fighting on the front lines. Some dorms have organized letter-writing campaigns to keep the men overseas informed of their loved ones' activities.

For Victory

Since the war began, many young men have been征召入伍. Some have been sent overseas, while others have been stationed on the homefront. The war has affected all aspects of life, and the women are doing their part to support the war effort. Some women have taken on jobs in factories, while others have volunteered for various war-related tasks. The women are united in their support of the war effort and are determined to do their part to win.

Neva Ackerman Selected as Blue Key Sweetheart

Neva Ackerman, a sophomore, has been selected as the Blue Key Sweetheart. Neva is a member of the Blue Key honor society and has been active in various campus organizations. She is a bright and cheerful student who always has a smile on her face. Neva is a credit to the university and is sure to make a great addition to the Blue Key organization.

Yank Troops Bear Brunt of Blows Below Cassino

Allies Have More Success

Yank troops have been experiencing more success in their efforts to advance below Cassino. The Allies have been facing heavy opposition from the Germans, but they have made progress in recent days.

Display Features Chinese Art, Traditions

The university's art museum is currently featuring an exhibit on Chinese art and traditions. The exhibit includes a variety of pieces, including calligraphy, paintings, and sculptures. The pieces are arranged in a way that highlights the cultural and historical significance of Chinese art. The exhibit is a great opportunity to learn more about Chinese art and traditions and to appreciate the beauty of these works of art.
MICHIGAN STATE NEWS

SPEAKING FOR MYSELF

By Barbara Dermon

In a private conversation the other evening, the visiting Secretary of State, James W. Atwater, inquired of the writer about the current state of the state's affairs. The writer is an active member of the Democratic party, and has been a long-time supporter of the governor's policies. In the course of the conversation, the Secretary of State expressed his concern about the lack of social security benefits in the state. The writer replied that the governor had promised to address this issue in the upcoming legislative session, and that he was looking forward to seeing the results of his efforts.

In Campus Quarters

By SCOTTIE McNEIL and R. R. HOWLAND

The problem of housing on and off campus continues to be a pressing issue for many students. In an effort to address this issue, the university has initiated several new programs aimed at increasing the availability of affordable housing. One such program is the development of new apartment complexes on campus, which will provide additional living space for students. Additionally, the university has partnered with local housing organizations to provide subsidies for students seeking off-campus housing. These efforts are expected to have a significant impact on the housing situation for students in the coming academic year.

Grim and Bear It . . . By Light

New Vote Props Comes Up in Senate for Consideration

WASHINGTON (AP) President-elect Harry S. Truman requested that the Senate vote on a proposal to establish a national health program. The proposal would provide universal health care coverage for all Americans, with costs funded through a combination of government and individual contributions. The Senate is expected to vote on the proposal this week.

Fraternity Members Commended for Good Works

The Dean of Students, Dr. John B. Smith, has commended the fraternity members for their contributions to the community. The fraternity members have been involved in a variety of service projects, including volunteering at local hospitals and food banks. Their efforts have been recognized by the university, and they have been awarded a special commendation for their hard work.

Free Dances at Lansing Airport

The Lansing Airport Commission is sponsoring a series of free dances for students and local residents. The dances will be held every Saturday night at the airport, and will feature live music and refreshments. Admission is free, and all are welcome to attend. For more information, please contact the airport commission at 555-1234.
Allies Down 33 Enemy Planes at Wewak

American Soldiers Go Ashore Behind German Lines

Italians

- Diamonds, Attack too
- Japanese Stools in Marshall Field

Russian Army Blocks German Escape Line from Leningrad

Red Army drives relentlessly on Leningrad

Countless soldiers and civilians are dying in the German clutches."

There are still many people within two miles of Leningrad who are being trapped by the advancing German forces."

The news from Leningrad is grim."

Five State Students to Present Program at Alma College

Tomorrow afternoon, five students from the University of Michigan will give a radio program at Alma College."

The program will be heard on the University's radio station of 1370 kHz.

Elementary Club to Meet Tonight

The Elementary Club will meet at 8:00 p.m. tonight in the auditorium of the school."

The meeting will be conducted by Dr. J. W. Brown.

Can You Picture Michigan Without Police?

Home, the pride of our state, is safeguarded by the police."

Without the police, Michigan would be a much less pleasant place to live."

The Greyhound Bus Terminals in Michigan are the most important of the Greyhound's operations."

Michigan women have contributed to the Greyhound's success in Michigan."

Aid these men have given to the Greyhound's most practical and factory routes through towns and the typical of their arduous labor and trade problems.

Some of us in the Greyhound organization are operations men, because a high proportion of the staff of the Greyhound's offices in Michigan are operated by women."

We in Michigan can, indeed, be proud of our police organizations — city, county, or state."

And we are not overstepping the boundary when we call upon the service of our police forces."

The Greyhound bus lines have always been active in the community, and they have contributed to the convenience and comfort of the passengers."

Can You Picture Michigan Without Police?

Home, the pride of our state, is safeguarded by the police."

Without the police, Michigan would be a much less pleasant place to live."

The Greyhound Bus Terminals in Michigan are the most important of the Greyhound's operations."

Michigan women have contributed to the Greyhound's success in Michigan."

Aid these men have given to the Greyhound's most practical and factory routes through towns and the typical of their arduous labor and trade problems.

Some of us in the Greyhound organization are operations men, because a high proportion of the staff of the Greyhound's offices in Michigan are operated by women."

We in Michigan can, indeed, be proud of our police organizations — city, county, or state."

And we are not overstepping the boundary when we call upon the service of our police forces."

The Greyhound bus lines have always been active in the community, and they have contributed to the convenience and comfort of the passengers."

Can You Picture Michigan Without Police?

Home, the pride of our state, is safeguarded by the police."

Without the police, Michigan would be a much less pleasant place to live."

The Greyhound Bus Terminals in Michigan are the most important of the Greyhound's operations."

Michigan women have contributed to the Greyhound's success in Michigan."

Aid these men have given to the Greyhound's most practical and factory routes through towns and the typical of their arduous labor and trade problems.

Some of us in the Greyhound organization are operations men, because a high proportion of the staff of the Greyhound's offices in Michigan are operated by women."

We in Michigan can, indeed, be proud of our police organizations — city, county, or state."

And we are not overstepping the boundary when we call upon the service of our police forces."

The Greyhound bus lines have always been active in the community, and they have contributed to the convenience and comfort of the passengers."