Yank Amphibious Forces Invade Marshall Islands

Kelly, Strohm to Speak for Farmers' Program

1000 Persons Expected at Meeting Today

Economic Afternoon Program

Today's Weather

The weather conditions are expected to remain exceptionally fine for the opening of the Michigan State Fair, which begins tomorrow and continues until Tuesday. Persons are being recommended to be prepared for the event and to bring along an umbrella or other rain protection.

Agricultural Economics Symposium

Kelly, Strohm, and other speakers will be featured in this program, which is expected to attract a large audience. The meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m., followed by a luncheon at 12:00 noon.

World War II News

American forces have invaded the Marshall Islands, which are located in the Pacific Ocean. This is the second invasion of the islands in recent months, with the first occurring in January.

Yank Amphibious Forces Invade Marshall Islands

Allied Troops Open Offense East of Rome

Reinforced Units Tighten Grip on German Front

The invasion of the Marshall Islands by American forces has been met with resistance by the Japanese, but the initial assault was successful. The invasion is expected to be followed by further attacks on other islands in the region.

Spotlight Recruit Will Give Final Campus Show

Greatest Sea Artists

Hollywood's finest and most famous artists will be featured in the final campus show. The event will include music, dance, and other performances.

Russo Parliament Gives Republics More Freedom

The Soviet government has granted more freedom to the republics, allowing them to have greater control over their affairs.

Farmhouse Ballroom Unmasks Yesterday's History

The Farmhouse Ballroom will present a historical performance, featuring the history of the Marshall Islands.

Grounding to Take Peak at Terrain, Probably Sink Back for More Sleep

Marion Heckel

Marion Heckel is the author of the column, and she discusses the problem of grounding and how it may affect the terrain. She also suggests that the problem may be solved by sinking back for more sleep.

McNutt Recovers, Favors Labor Draft

Washington, D.C., March 21—The draft is considered a necessary part of our national defense, and we are prepared to cooperate with the government in this matter.

No Bones About It

A humorous column discussing the absence of bones in the human body, and how it affects the way we think and feel.

TIME TABLE

TODAY—

La Cofradia. 5 p.m. Or. room 1, Union
Activities board. 6:15 p.m. Or. room 1, Union
Sigma Epsilon. 6:45 p.m. Or. room 1, Union

WEDNESDAY—

Or. room 1, Union
Or. room 2, Union
Or. room 2, Union
SPARTANS At War

M. I. S. N. A. Y. night at a CIP. Fraternity.

M. I. S. N. A. Y. hosted the Greek Fraternity for this final courageous missionary night of the year. The event was a success, with the Greek Fraternity providing entertainment and food. The night was filled with camaraderie and a sense of community.

The next change in this film has been more significant, with the film's theme shifting from Greek Fraternity events to broader issues. The film now explores the impact of Greek Fraternity culture on campus life and society as a whole.

From Dead. Neighbors of the Dakan's at Speedo have been interviewed by the over 1000 War Prisoners to Begin Work, in an attempt to Ease Pulp Shortages.

MUNSEMAH, Jan. 22—Army hospital patients who are near American military bases in Southeast Asia have been interviewed by the over 1000 War Prisoners to Begin Work, in an attempt to Ease Pulp Shortages.

The interview is expected to last for six weeks, during which time the patients will be interviewed.

The interview will be conducted in English and will involve questions about their experiences while in captivity.

WELCOME FARMERS—We hope your stay will be entertaining as well as profitable.

Michigan State News

State Theater, Inc.

I.000 War Prisoners to Begin Work, in an attempt to Ease Pulp Shortages.

MUNSEMAH, Jan. 22—Army hospital patients who are near American military bases in Southeast Asia have been interviewed by the over 1000 War Prisoners to Begin Work, in an attempt to Ease Pulp Shortages.

The interview is expected to last for six weeks, during which time the patients will be interviewed.

The interview will be conducted in English and will involve questions about their experiences while in captivity.

MARCHALLS

For Life or Education to be Subject

W.L. A. Address

Postall or Education to be Subjed

W.I.L. A. Address

Heart Lockets for Valentines

Swain Jewelry Store
Official Fifth Army Battle Films Featured in Talk

General's Message Made Public for First Time

General van Dorn's message has been made public for the first time. The three-star general's message was broadcast on the air by the Army's War Information Bureau on Tuesday morning.

House Rules Down Roll Call Count on Soldier Vote

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 17 -- A roll call vote on the reduction of the roll call requirement on the Senate floor was ordered by a House of Representatives committee, but the vote was not taken.

Banquet to Commemorate Fiftieth Anniversary of Short Courses

The next year of the victory will be celebrated as the national Short Course Association in the nation's capital.

Production Resumes After 900 Wall-Out at 8 Bells Race Plant

NATIONAL RACETRACK, April 17 -- Production has resumed at the 8 Bells Race Plant, after a 900-day wall-out.

G.O.P. Leader Suggests Starstruck-'At Him

WASHINGTON, April 17 -- Senator H. J. Moore, called for a full investigation of the incident of the recent hurling of a stone into the Senate chamber, following the death of Mr. Moore, 80.

STATE COLLEGE BOOK STORE
DEPT. OF MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE

ARMY and AIR CORPS

Pins - Compacts

Necklaces - Pennants

STATE COLLEGE BOOK STORE
Near the Peoples Church
Hours: Monday through Friday 8:30-6:30, Saturdays 9:00-1:30

DANCE
Sponsored by AST

Dem Hall

30¢ a Couple

Open to Everyone
Red Army Captures Vital Kingisepp, Railway Town

Troops Reported to Have Reached Estonian Border

LONDON, Feb. 3 (AP). The Red army captured the strategic railway station of Kingisepp (Yamuri) today and started north according to reports from Moscow. The Moscow broadcast, broadcast by the Novosti news agency, said more than 100 communications were captured by the Soviet soldiers' cavalry and 150 guns.