Council Backs Up Hueschen in Impeachment Charge

President Receives Apology After Questioning

Student Council President Hueschen, senior, was given a unanimous vote of confidence by council members. The president received the charges presented by a council member from an anonymous writer. The anonymous writer was more interested in coming from the council although a majority of members present felt that they should not support the action.

The fact is that the president cannot handle these problems. Instead, he is more concerned with the budget of the council. The writer, who has been involved in the budget, feels that the president is the one who is really in control of the budget. Hueschen himself feels that the president is the one who is really in control of the budget.

Jap Troops Found Starved to Death as Allies Cut off Food Supply

ALLIED BRIEF IN THE S. W. TURF: Thursday, Feb. 3. JAPANESE troops in the vicinity of Goose point, on the northwest New Britain coast are facing in the mountains an effort to cut off food supplies. The Japanese, unable to withstand the opposition of Allied troops, are attempting to evacuate the island.

The Australian, windows-off to the west, is the mountainous area of the island. The Allied force, unable to withstand the opposition of the Japanese, is attempting to cut of the island.

It is needless to say, for news is such as swiftly penetrates the hearts of all. But the latest reports indicate that an Allied force is making rapid progress, and that the Japanese are retreating.

The course of food and adequate supplies has been due to the efforts of the American forces, as they are reaching the enemy's rear.
