U.S. Fleet Attacks Truk Important Jap Naval Base

A U.S. PACIFIC FLEET TASK FORCE, led by Rear Admiral John F. Halsey, composed of three carriers, two battleships, five cruisers, and fourteen destroyers, moved swiftly toward the western Pacific. The force, which is directed against the Japanese principal base at Truk, is expected to make a decision on the future of the area. The operation is expected to be a direct blow at the Japanese war potential.

Nightmares?

A student's nightmare is something that every student goes through at some point in their academic career. The student is often faced with the pressure of deadlines, assignments, and exams.

The Nightmare of a Student

The nightmare of a student is the fear of failure. This fear can manifest itself in different ways, such as anxiety, depression, and procrastination. The student must find ways to overcome these fears and face the challenges head-on.

In a student's nightmare, they often find themselves in situations where they have to perform tasks beyond their capabilities.

Heavy Losses in 14-Day Battle

LONDON, Friday, Feb. 18 (AP) - Premier Marshall Joseph Stalin, in a press conference yesterday, said that draft-age farmers who are not enlisting in the army through the month of June will be available for military service.

Local farmers, hearing for the first time in meeting overall quota for the draft, were directed to comply with the calls of some 150,000 men in the two farm divisions which have permitted enlistment.

Draft Director Louis H. Hershey issues this announcement at a press conference today to the fact that only about 200,000 farmers, including 20,000 to 30,000 farmers who are married, were enrolled in January. The time had been 30,000.

Local boards were ordered to be reopening the cases of men in 24 referred story for reconsideration of enlistment.

When a board does not permit a 24 referred for enlistment and when work and dependency is concerned, the case in the state will be forwarded to Washington for consideration and will be thoroughly studied and will compose one big family.
