Yankee Forts Hit Brunswick Factory Area

LONDON, March 20 (AP) -- American Flying Fortresses bombed the Brunswick area of central Germany today and Nazi fighters, for the second time since March 12, repel serious attacks over the vital aircraft factory area, only to be routed by escort planes from the vicinity.

Yankee airpower showed one of its most spectacular raids on the German heartland, hurling a heavy barrage of bombs into the area, starting the biggest attack on Brunswick, Nazi military base, for months.

MILBANK (AP) -- The Navy's latest fleet of atomic ships, the USS Nautilus and the USS Bremerton, will be publicly displayed at a submarine exhibit in New York City.

Selecting Service Changes Farmers' Draft Policy

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP) -- In a major manpower move, selective service today scrapped its numerical draft for farmers, deciding to leave the individual choice to the judgment of local draft boards.

The move was made by the War Department, and a house military subcommittee agreed to draft legislation authorizing army basic training to be lengthened to 14 months. The major move was of much importance to the military branch of the war effort.

The new plan is expected to have its greatest effect on the Pacific war zone.

Fall Football Runners Denied by Hannah

PREP. John A. Hannah, secretary of the National Football League, denied that the league was in any way connected with the football meeting scheduled for March 23.

He said his office was not informed of the meeting until this week.

Dedication Hopes Wand for Industrial Workers

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP) -- Little hope was held out today for the immediate solution of labor problems in the industrial war areas, with such factors as strikes, production delays and national defense all seeming to work against the hope.

The strike at the National Metal Workers' Union in New England was called off, but the situation was not considered hopeful.
