Knew her Oats

The Faithful building, being in the state it is, two doors had to be opened for a ride downtown yesterday with a man who very strongly toward one political camp. Summing all their petitions, they let him urge talk until he reached the first climax. "Never move horses in the middle of the stream," he said. "This is not so good a horse for president." [..]

Nature Lover

There's nothing like a college education, especially a speedway one. And the street female in the woman has made a good start in summer school, for she is fast learning what goes on here, even though she says she hates it. Evidently she widened her dancing nails by signing out last night for the "basket garden."[..]

Military Review Honors Cadets

At a military review of the 85th Service Battalion on June 18, the Chicago Tribune smith annual ROTC awards were presented by the college. E. C. Tillman, a Cadet leader, announced that the 1,200 men and women present were encouraged to continue their studies and were presented with awards of the ROTC detachment. Erickson received a bachelor of education degree at the State Teachers college, DeKalb, III., in 1930 with majors in administration, physics, supervision and studies. He specialized in college and universities. Erickson was a member of the class of 1930 and was presented with the award of the ROTC detachment.

Students who have not picked up their 1944 Wolverine yearbook may do so at the Wolverine office in the Union beginning today and until noon, after 3:30 p.m. daily, until 5 p.m., every afternoon.

Summer Directory

Beginning in the near future the State News will print a directory of the names of all the persons in the summer school living in residence halls, Houses or dormitories in the State. The directory will be divided into alphabetical order of the names. Each dean or house should send its name, address and telephone number to the State. Each dean or house should be able to name a complete alphabetical list of the names. The directory will be published for the first time tomorrow.

700 High School Students Acquire Practical Governmental Experience at Seventh American Legion Civic Project

by JERRY KENNY

Seven hundred Wolverine Boys’ State citizens will climan a nine day stay on the campus this afternoon by taking a trip to the state capitol, where they will take over the government of Michigan for the afternoon.

Chief executive of Boys’ State is Charles Mead, of Milan, who was elected governor last Saturday, deat-ing Keith Crocker, of Bad Axe.
Mead will take over Gov. Harry F. Kelly’s post for the summer.

Boys’ State, a civic project sponsored by the American Legion, has been held on campus for the past seven years. The 700 citizens of the state are 16 and 17-year-old Michigan high school students. They are organized in to cities and counties within the state. They govern themselves completely, having their own politicians, courts and attorneys.

All Get Pets

Every boy is given at least one governmental post while at the “44th state.” Purpose of the state is to “give practical and lasting experience in government to future citizens of Michigan and the United States.”

Besides taking part in civic affairs the boys participate in other activities. A softball tournament is being held, a daily paper is being published by the citizens and there is a band and glee club.

Arriving last Thursday

Spartans were leaving for summer vacation, the first concern of the boys’ state was to cam-design for their favorite political figure. The boys are divided into two parties by the Legion, the Athenians and the Trojan.

Party conventions similar to those of the state and national parties were held to nominate gubernatorial candidates.

Kelly Spoke

The governor was inaugurated Saturday evening at ceremonies at which Governor Kelly spoke and Supreme Court Justice Walter North administered the oath of office to the boy governor.

Graded demonstrations have been given by Spartan varsity leaders to the Boys’ State citizens. John Kohn talked on baseball while Head Coach Charlie Buchanan demonstrated football highlights and Charles MacCaf-fer showed the boys of swimming.
Track Coach Karl Schademann gave a demonation also.

Boys’ State is under the direction of officials of the American Legion, headed by Carl C.
Mead, of Dearborn.
