Nazi Credit Russians With Penetration Into Hungary

LONDON, Sept. 27 (AP)—The Russians drew their ring tighter around Riga today, northeast and southwestern portions of Latvia, including the capital, but they were unable to make an immediate advance. The reason for this failure was a ten-mile penetration in the line of the Latvian Army around Riga. According to the reports of the Latvian press, the Russians are making preparations to take the city, the last key to the Baltic Sea, which they have been trying to capture for three days. The Latvian Army is reported to be on the move to the south and southeast of Riga. A weak Latvian position was reported to be the main factor of the advance towards the capital.

Harrier Squad Will Run OSU, Oct. 14
Cage, Track Coaches Call Meeting

With a small but talented squad of men Coach Lauren Brown is priming his cross-country squad for their initial meet with the Ohio State Harriers next Saturday. Brown has six men with experience behind them who he can work with, and is hoping for more.

Bob Price, Belling Junior College's cross-country coach, will be the monstrosity of the group. Price took the team last fall to one of the top ten finishes in the nation. Another veteran of the sport is Wayne Phalkner, head football and track coach at Western Michigan college.

Brown will have to be a very lucky man indeed to take the Harrier team to the state meet this year. Five men made the state meet last year.

There will be another meet for all track, field, cross-country and basketball this Friday night at home. Many men are expected to attend.
