Petition Names Von Dette As Presidential Nominee

Primaries Tentatively Set for Thursday

Bothy Von Dette and Dorothy Geyer, both of Saginaw, have been nominated for the offices of president and treasurer respectively, of the senior class, by a petition signed by more than the required five percent of the class.

Jim Bibbins, Student Council president, revealed yesterday.

Both candidates withdrew their names as vice-presidential nominees a short time ago. Shirley Simmons, Detroit, and Kay Jones, East Lansing, have declined nomination for treasurer of the class.

Both candidates wish to be elected by checking off voters, and have been prepared by the Student Council, although it is expected that they will be ready to campaign, the day set for primary elections.

Difficulty in obtaining use of the voting machine may delay primary elections for an indefinite length of time, until the lists are ready, Bibbins pointed out.

The official list of candidates for office, including the recent changes, is as follows:

President: Mac Cropsey, Marcellus; Bob Kampins, Lansing; Tom Reutner, St. Louis, Mo.; and Miss Von Dette.

Vice-president: Connie Campbell, Algonac; Marge Smith, Durand; and Marilyn Wilson, Huntington Woods.

Secretary: Joan Hunt, Oakfield, N. Y.; Scottie McNeal, Grand Rapids; Billie Morley, New Troy; Colleen O'Connor, Brown City; and Millie VanWestrienen, East Lansing.

Treasurer: Ginny Jackson, Alma; Carolyn Kelly, Danville, N. Y.; and Miss Geyer.

Navy Hits Four Jap Convoys

Nazi Resistance Ceases At West Ardennes Salient

PARIS, Jan. 12 (AP)—All organized enemy resistance ceased today at the western end of the Ardennes salient and the Germans were falling back to the east abandoning nearly 100 square miles of Belgium and Luxembourg to the Allies.

As the British second and U.S. third armies joined lines and lopped off the westernmost seven miles of the Ardennes salient, the Germans accelerated the rate of withdrawal along the southern flank while throwing in small-scale holding actions on the north.

One front dispatch said tonight the German withdrawal might continue all the way to the Reich frontier, although there were indications the enemy might elect to anchor strong positions on St. Vith, four miles inside Belgium.

Supreme headquarters conceded that skilled Field Marshal Karl Van Rundstedt had been able to pull the bulk of his mangled armor back to the valley of the Ourthe River.

Allied armies were racing swiftly forward to close up the abandoned sector, which is seven to ten miles long and nearly ten miles wide.

Van Rundstedt was believed now withdrawn behind a line running seven miles south from La Roche to Amberloop.

Gulf Invaders Move Inland, Solidify Lines

MACARTHUR'S HDQ., LUZON, Saturday, Jan. 13 (AP)—Sixth army invaders of Luzon have penetrated inland 12 miles from their Langayen gulf beachheads, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today.

This represented a gain of three miles in one day.

The Yanks have seized the terminals of four major highways leading to Manila as well as more than 10 miles of the only railroad from Langayen inland down the flat valley to the Philippine capital.

Enter Enemy Zones

Increasing contact with the enemy was noted in MacArthur's communique, indicating that U. S. forward elements were entering zones of enemy concentrations.

The important city of San Carlos, where five main highways intersect, was captured. It is in the center of the valley at the deepest point of penetration. Malabon, another highway junction to the east, also was captured, both on Thursday.

Hit Jap Shipping

American naval units sank or damaged 46 small freighters and coastal vessels attempting to unload at San Fernando in Langayen gulf above the most northerly Yank beachhead.

Sharp fighting was reported along the Manaoag-Pozorrubio road on the east flank, where MacArthur yesterday reported first appreciable contact with the enemy.

Carrier Air Force Sinks 25 Enemy Ships, Damages 13

PEARL HARBOR, Jan. 12 (AP)—American carrier airmen sank 25 Japanese ships and heavily damaged 13 more yesterday in the third fleet's bold attack on four enemy convoys off the French Indo-China coast nearly 1,600 miles west of Manila.

Fleet Adm. C. W. Nimitz communique said the third fleet has suffered no damage and is pressing its attack on the Japanese convoys.

Superbattleship Sunk

Nimitz also announced that the destruction of the new superbattleship the 45,000-ton Musashi, by air attack last Oct. 24 in the second battle of the Philippine sea, had been confirmed.

The admiral disclosed also that the Musashi's sister ship, the Yamato, was damaged by bombs in the Oct. 24 action. These two vessels were the two most powerful battleships in the Japanese navy.

Expedition Hinted

The four Japanese convoys intercepted by Adm. William F. Halsey's audacious thrust across the south China sea apparently were organizing into an expedition for reinforcement of Luzon from the French Indo-China port of Saigon and Camranh bay.

Halsey's airmen sank on Katori class light cruiser and several destroyers and destroyer escorts guarding the convoys.

While the convoys were being slashed, Halsey's fliers also swept inland Indo-China air bases from Saigon 250 miles northeast to Gumbon harbor. Thirty-nine planes were destroyed.

... It Ain't the Best

Karl Roehn, East Lansing student, is beginning to wonder whether Shakespeare and his "What's in a name" idea aren't a bit tight. After suffering through her sorority sister's disapproval of her name, she got so attached to the new version, that when she was asked to play a supporting roll in one of the plays, she corrected the director when he called her name and said, "Oh, no, it's pronounced 'Rome'."

... Some Draft

Two years in the army is a long time—so a sergeant stationed in the cadre at Abbott hall thinks. Someone has his wires crossed though, because only yesterday he received his greetings telling him to report to the local draft board. Classification? F.A. which to our way of thinking means over age.

State Continues Manhunt For Hooper Killer

LANSING, MICH., Jan. 12 (AP)—Investigating officials said tonight they were convinced state Senator Warren G. Hooper, key witness in grand jury graft cases, was shot and killed by a person who was driving Hooper's car at the time.

Jackson county prosecutor Murl Aten, Capt. William Hansen and Detective Lieut. Lyle Morse of state police announced this conclusion after they had taken statements at Jackson from those who found Hooper's body in the smoldering right front seat of his car on a lonely stretch of highway near Springport, Mich., late Thursday.

Only footprints found in the snow near the car, they pointed out, indicated someone had left the driver's seat after the machine skidded off the pavement, and had walked around the front of it to reach the road.

Whether the slayer then was picked up by an accomplice, walked away from the scene, or hitchhiked a ride, the officers declined to speculate.

M. B. Howard, bus line employe who pulled Hooper's body from the death car, said Hooper was seated squarely in the right front seat and did not appear to have been shoved into that position.

Registration Report Shows Increase to 3,616 Students

Final enrollment figures show a 16 per cent increase over the registration highmark for winter term last year, Registrar Robert S. Linton announced yesterday.

At the close of official registration Jan. 2, the number of civilians was 3,646, 909 men and 2,737 women, had enrolled as compared with the total of 3,134 for winter term 1944.

In addition 463 army trainees are stationed on campus, and 231 persons have been enrolled in short courses since October.

High school students who graduate at mid-year will be permitted to register on Feb. 5, especially to enable men to get as much education as possible before going into the service. Linton said.

President's Secretary to Visit SHAEF Soon

SHAEF, Jan. 12 (AP)—Stephen Early, secretary to President Roosevelt, will come to Europe early next month at the request of supreme headquarters' public relations division to consult with public relations officials for several weeks, supreme headquarters announced tonight.

It is expected that Early will make arrangements for a visit by President Roosevelt to France which is generally anticipated here.

Philippine President Returns to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—President Sergio Osmeña of the Philippine commonwealth has returned to the United States, the war department announced tonight.

Osmeña will confer with various government officials concerning relief and rehabilitation measures for the Philippines as a result of destruction wrought by the Japanese.

Because of the hardships he experienced during the re-entry of General MacArthur and his forces into the Philippines, President Osmeña, now at Jacksonville, Fla., will undergo a physical check-up there before returning to Washington.

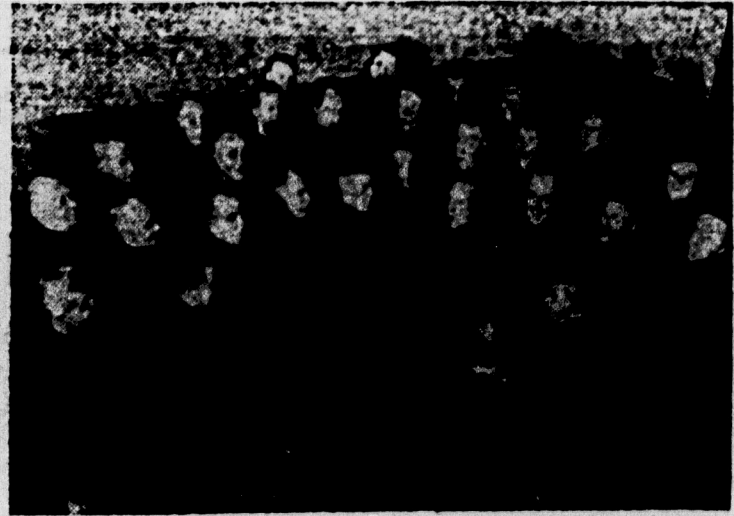

He will return to the Philippines as soon as he completes his conference here, the war department said.

Don Cossack Chorus Scheduled Tonight On Concert Series

When the original Don Cossack chorus comes to College Auditorium tonight at 8:15 for another of its performances, it will be celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of its founding.

The founding of the group is a colorful and dramatic. It started when a group of Russian war veterans were assembled about a year ago in a field near Constantinople. To help alleviate their homesickness, it was inevitable that these Cossacks should be singing songs from their home in the Don River valley.

Among these Cossack giants was another Cossack who, despite the fact that he was the "Ten Pound" of the group, was an outcast because of his being the officer, Serge Jaroff. Studied to be a choir-master, thus when he heard the songs of his comrades, the inspiration came to him that others might enjoy these choruses. After that evening, the Cos-sack chorus became the official choir of the Orthodox Cathedral of St. Sofia.

Don Cossack chorus, with leader Serge Jaroff, will appear tonight in College Auditorium at 8:15 on first concert-lecture series of winter term.

A worshipper of the church heard the Cossacks and sent them on their first concert tour. Since that time they have traveled a million miles the world over.

The program presented this evening is as follows:

"Credo," Kastalsky; "Hallelujah," Tchesnokoff; "Ave Maria," Rachmaninoff; "O, God, Save Thy People," Tchesnokoff; "The Exchange of Diplomatic Notes Between the Turkish Sultan and the Zaporozhsky Cossacks," Shvedoff; and "Who Knows," Zakharoff.

Others are "The Plain, The Steppe," Knipper; selections of Gretchaninoff's songs; "Tachanka," Listoff; infantry marching songs—"In the Dark Forest," Partchenko; recruiting and folk songs; "Dark Eyes," arranged by Shvedoff; and "The Cossack Song."

LETTERS . . . To The Editor

TWO MSC coeds:
On the 20th of December, 1944, I was discharged from the naval hospital at Great Lakes, after spending four and a half long months in bed. Now having returned to MSC it has been brought to my attention that they are seeking girls for a few hours work for Red Cross. Perhaps the kids at home don't realize just what this organization is doing for the boys away now.

We all know that in the last World War the Red Cross betell a reputation that it really didn't deserve because of the actions of a few that can be found in any group, but today the story is different and I would like to tell you some of the things that are done for the boys in the military hospitals.

To begin with, there are something short of 100 men to a ward in these hospitals, about 60 percent of which are Purple Heart cases. Most of them are confined to bed as was my case. I couldn't begin to tell you of the magnitude of the entire encampment, but believe me, it's large.

Twice during the week women from the Red Cross visit each and every ward of the hospital, bringing with them books, magazines, cigarettes, cards, games, and huge amounts of things to make leathercrafts, plastic works, bracelets and so forth. Our time in bed was put to interesting pastimes so that the days could be shorter.

They even came into the separate wards with movies, new ones, at least once a week I saw "The Princess and the Pirate" at least three months ago, and it hasn't come here yet.

Another thing that we enjoyed was the times that they had different kinds of games in the words and they brought cases and cases of coke, etc. along. No matter what our smallest desire was, they would see to it that it was satisfied. The women range from the ages of 20 to 60, and if you could see these elderly ladies chasing around on some small errand for a fellow

TWO the talent of the campus:
Several questions have come up concerning the Spartan Spotlight Revue, the CDC Percy Jones show, so may I take this opportunity to answer them.

What is wanted? Variety in entertainment, especially the unusual offering, cartoonists, rope twirlers, marmabophonists, readers of light numbers. Anything that is out of the ordinary can be used. PLUS: singers of either the long or short hair variety, instrumentalists—piano, violin, horns, with anything from Shostakovich to Shag, dancers, either solos or teams, with emphasis on zap, softshoe, or eccentric.

What type of material? The lighter entertainment is used, with a time limit of not more than five minutes. Avoid the overly sentimental or the flag waving type of material. The boys want to forget what they have been through.

Where and when will the shows play? The request has come from Percy Jones hospital that we play the main hospital in Battle Creek and the annex at Fort Custer. The next show is set for Monday, Feb. 5, but following that the dates will be booked for Sunday afternoons and evenings. There is a request for one show a month. The Feb. 5 show will also be shown on the campus during Farmers' Week, on Wednesday night, Jan. 31st in the auditorium.

Who can try out? Anyone who feels that he has talent which

DEAREST JOHNNY,
Last Sunday I went skating for the first time in about four years. Although the skates were on my feet as is customary, they might better have been elsewhere as most of the action took place in another region.

I did pick up a lovely cold, however, and my nose has resembled a dripping faucet ever since. I'm a poor plumber, I guess, because I can't seem to turn the darned thing off.

If you're not too busy over there—but from what I read I'm afraid you are—you might be interested in signing up for a Red Cross class by correspondence, of course. You might strike up a lifelong friendship in the bargain.

Last week's basketball game was exciting but disappointing. The boys from Cincinnati turned on plenty of steam to win by two points, thus extending our losing streak. Monday night, however, the Spartans took off over icy roads to Albion where they fairly trounced the Britons, 72-36.

The Don Cessack chorus—minus the vodka—is coming to College auditorium for another of its long awaited concerts. The program will include religious chants, love songs, and marches.

On the lighter side, Party-party will be held as usual this afternoon with Spartan Varieties being broadcast over WKAR at 4 p.m. The Varieties have uncovered quite a bit of campus talent so far and I'm just waiting for them to uncover me—figuratively, I mean.

Hurry up and write and don't forget to call me Sonja.

Frigidly,

Spartans Face Wildcats Tonight

U. of K. Men Rated Over State Men In Speed, Height

By JOE HEAGANY

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Jan. 13 (AP)—MSC's traveling basketball team was dealt another blow last night that resulted in a 54-50 defeat at the hands of the University of Cincinnati. The Spartans, in squeezing by the Wildcats, made it two straight over their inter-state rivals.

Starting the last leg of their weekend pilgrimage into the middle west and south the Michigan State basketball team will tackle the University of Kentucky tonight at Lexington, Kentucky. Last night the Spartans finished off their two game series with the University of Cincinnati at Cincinnati.

Rated an even chance with the Wildcats last night State will be the distinct underdog in their battle with the Wildcats who currently lead all the nation's college quints with ten straight wins. The boys from the blue grass country possess speed, height and experience, all that is characteristic of a good squad.

Spartans Lack Height

The Spartans have speed and a little bit of experience, and no height. Coach Ben Van Alstyne sticks to the same line-up that took the floor against Cincinnati last night there will be only one Spartan that tops six feet.

Bill Krall, 6'7" pivot man for the green and white, may be inserted into the line-up to throttle the terrific scoring bender that the Wildcats' brilliant center, Alex Groza has been on. Krall told Arnold "Stults" Rosen, Ohio State's line center to four points.

Groza Heads Wildcats

Groza has been the kingpin in the Kentucky attack all season and this is his last game before induction into the armed service, so in all cases he should be out to end in a blaze of glory. Groza is also of the elongated nature standing 6'6".

The Wildcats are not all defense as was shown when they beat Arkansas State to 6 points when they were racking up 75. Groza was not even in uniform by the debacle so that should give some indication of the all-around distribution of talent and reserve power Kentucky has.

Van Alstyne will probably stick to his same line-up of Sam Fortino and Robin Roberts forwards, Bill Rapchak center, and Nick Hasna and Joe Beyer guards.

Coach Announces Baseball Tryouts For Next Week

Expecting some 30 men out for practice, Coach John Kobs will hold the first baseball workouts Monday at 4:15 p.m. in Dem. hall in preparation for this spring's schedule.

Practice for the first week will be devoted mostly to pitchers and catchers, Kobs said, although all candidates may attend. The workouts will be held daily from 4:15 to 6 p.m. or later.

Batting nets and special lights have been installed in Dem. hall for the practice. Candidates must have a physical OK from the hospital before they may draw suits.

Kobs also warned that all candidates must meet college athletic eligibility requirements. More managers are also needed for the team.

Schedule makers have been busy working on a full 18 game slate for the Spartan diamond squad but results are doubtful.

Spartan Matmen Engage Wheaton Team Tonight

An eight man wrestling squad will carry State's colors into the wrestling field for the first time in two years when it meets the grapplers of Wheaton college, at Wheaton, Ill., tonight at 6:45 in the opening match of the schedule.

Coach Fendley Collins' squad includes: Cliff Fletcher, 121 pounds; Gordon Cole, 128; Dick Howell, 136; Al Borkowski, 145; Jim Grams, 155; Gale Mikles, 165; Don Anderson, 175; and Harold Dachtler, heavy weight. Also accompanying the team will be manager Fred Campau.

The Wheaton team has the experience of one defeat behind them as they meet Spartan onslaughts. Indiana defeated them 25 to 5.

The team left East Lansing yesterday at 3:45 p.m. and spent last night in Chicago. They will return at 3:15 p.m. tomorrow after another night in Chicago.

Dr. Stanley Coors to Address Group On Present-Day Christian Resources

Featured on the vesper hour of Student Christian Union at 6:15 p.m. Sunday in the Sanctuary of Peoples church will be Dr. Stanley Coors, pastor of Central Methodist church, Lansing. This is the second in a series of vespers on "Resources of the Christian Faith for Our Day."

Dr. Coors will discuss the "Bible—A Resource of Christian Faith." The vesper student choir directed by Ava Jean Humphrey will sing "Book of Books, Our People's Strength."

Dr. Coors Heads Council

Dr. Coors is the president of the Michigan council of churches and Christian education. He was the leader of the delegation of the Michigan conference of the Methodist church to the general conference that met in Kansas city this summer.

He serves Albion college as a member of its Board of Trustees. Recognition has been given to his leadership through the award of the Phi Beta Kappa key.

Students to Participate

Mar Jean Kettunen, East Lansing freshman, will be the student leader. A choral reading group under the chairmanship of Colleen Vandershice will read a special arrangement of the might be used. The shows are thoroughly rehearsed before going out and individual coaching is given if necessary. We don't expect to find a Bea Lillie next Monday or Tuesday, but we are hoping that a potential Miss L. won't stay away just because she is timid.

What is the need for these shows? This is the third year that variety shows have been going to Battle Creek and anyone who has been on any of these trips can vouch for the reception of the programs and the need of these boys for entertainment. If we can bring even an hour of pleasure to these men who have been through so much, the effort will have been amply rewarded. If you have the talent, you owe it to yourself to try out in the Spartan room on either Monday or Tuesday afternoons.

Tavares to Speak on Latin-American Relations Monday

Dr. Hermane Tavares De Sa, Brazilian scientist and lecturer on inter-American affairs will be on campus Monday to discuss with students, faculty and townspeople such problems as "Is the United States Losing Its Best Friend in Latin America?"

Dr. Tavares will speak at 7:30 p.m. Monday, in the music building auditorium. He learned the English language during a visit to the United States when he was a child. At 24, he received the degree of docteur en médecine at the University of Louvain, Belgium, and at the time he came to the United States in 1942 he was professor of biology at the University of Sao Paulo.

Although Dr. Tavares was trained as a doctor of medicine he is experienced in many other fields. He has been adviser to Walt Disney at Hollywood in producing educational films for use in Brazil.

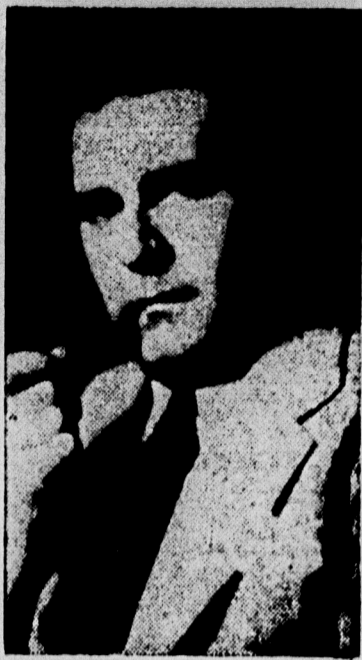

Believing that his personality, his tolerance, and breadth of view should go far toward promoting good cultural relationships among the nations of the western hemisphere he was sent on an educational mission to his native Brazil by the coordinator of inter-American affairs.

It was while on this mission that he gathered notes on the rapid changes in the life of his people by talking to state men, leading business men, educators, workers in industry and on farms. His lecture in East Lansing is being sponsored by the institute of international education.

Mardi Gras, Blue Key Dances Postponed

The Mardi Gras dance usually held each fall is further postponed until spring term according to Jack Breslin, Battle Creek junior, and Bob Price, Belding junior, co-chairmen of the dance.

The dance was planned to be rescheduled last term when it conflicted with a basketball game. "No evening is available winter term," continued Breslin. Scheduled for Jan. 20, the Blue Key dance has been temporarily cancelled said Jim Robbins, Snyder, N. Y., senior. "It is doubtful that it will held at all, as there are only two Blue Key members on campus," he concluded.

Comprehensive Exam Results Announced by Board of Examiners

Results on the first comprehensive exam taken under the Basic college program at Michigan State college were announced yesterday by Paul Dressel, chairman of the board of examiners.

Dressel stressed that the exam which covered three terms of English with a nine-credit result, was given more or less on a voluntary basis because the greater majority of those taking it had not the full amount of work.

The students were asked at the beginning of the six-hour test, administered in three hour periods on Friday, Dec. 15, and Saturday, Dec. 16, to list what grade they felt themselves of making.

In the event that the desired marks were not attained no score was recorded and the students did not receive the nine credits.

Of the 169 students who took the exam, 122 received credit under this setup.

WJAR Presents Concert

A concert over WJAR Sunday afternoon from 2 to 2:30 will present Professor Roy Underwood, pianist, and Professor Romeo Tata, violist. Their selections will be three movements from Greig's Sonata in C Minor. Both men are of the music department.

it would make you want to do something for the Red Cross yourself.

After we are able to get up and are allowed to go out of the ward, we can go to the recreation building where there are two movies a day and a different one each day. There is a large game room with piano, pool tables, etc., all maintained by the Red Cross ladies.

At least once a week they have large parties where many of the well known entertainers from the show world come from Chicago to help make the fellows happier. Some of the few that I saw were Barrie Wood, Patsy Kelly, Eddie Oliver and orchestra, and Phil Baker of "Take It or Leave It."

There is an enormous library, lounges, music room with all the up to date records, auditorium, and a service room where telegrams, calls to home, and rooms for a patients' parents to stay in when he is on the serious list.

All this is run and maintained by the Red Cross. On top of it all bowling alleys, table tennis, and a canteen which is maintained by the government.

As far as actual medical services are concerned, the Red Cross maintains the blood bank for those of us who needed transfusions.

On the compound there is one major Red Cross building, besides the rec hall, in which there are shops for all types of occupational therapy. These shops maintain a staff for teaching languages, painting and art work of all types, wood and metal crafts, and for securing gratis tickets for entertainment all over the Chicago and Milwaukee areas for those fellows well enough to go.

Another service of the organization is the station wagons and cars that drove us to the football games, each with a Red Cross driver. These Red Cross people come to work at 7 a.m. and leave at 9 p.m., seven days a week. It's a job they love and we love them for it.

Your one or two hours a week, no matter what you spend them doing to help the Red Cross, will be gratefully accepted. They are contributions to us who have to spend time in the military hospitals, and to those in action who will yet need the help of the Red Cross.

Personally, I will make donations to that organization for the remainder of my life.
