The World at Eastertime

There won't be the usual Easter this year. There hasn't been for four years. Some people on the home front are getting a little discouraged, and the men on the fighting front are worse than discouraged. They are tired and dazed and trying not to remember just how long it has been since they were able to worship in the church of their choice with their families. The Easter parade to them is a shuffling, pack laden march, and the Easter bonnet is the camouflaged steel helmet of their buddies.

But the men, if possible, will take time off for prayer tomorrow, prayer is all they have left. It is ironical to think of prayer on a bloody battlefield on a day when God seems so far away, but the men will pray, and their prayers will be for their loved ones, hoping that they too, on this day of April 1, Easter 1945, will be praying for a day when... "our lives were not in vain."

Today's Campus

... Calling Philip

Prof. Anders Orbeck of the English department became a little confused the other day while he was attempting to explain to his class in mythology just how that subject was related to literature written in more recent times. "Most authors refer to the classical myths at some time in their career," he averred. "Take the works of Philip Morris for instance." (The gentleman to whom he meant to refer was William Morris.)

News in Brief

GUAM, Saturday, March 31 (AP)—Heavy warships of the U. S. Pacific fleet and carrier planes continued their heavy bombardment of the Ryukyus Friday, carrying their assault into the eighth straight day.

With the U. S. ninth army, Mar. 30 (AP)—Three different groups of German soldiers tried to surrender today to a couple of American pilots from the U. S. 3rd tactical air command, but the airmen couldn't find a place to land and accept the offer.

"We were too low on gasoline to hang around long enough to load our ground troops to the spot," said Lt. Donald N. Botsford, Racine, Wis.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 30 (AP)—United States submarines have sunk 13 more enemy vessels, including a large aircraft carrier, 2 destroyers and 2 escort vessels, in Pacific waters, the navy announced today.

Non-combatant vessels included in the latest toll were three medium cargo vessels, a large tanker, a medium cargo transport, and a small cargo vessel.

MANILA, Saturday Mar. 31 (AP)—The U. S. 40th division of the eighth army landed Thursday on Negros island in the central Philippines, headquarters reported today. Brushing aside enemy resistance on the west coast near Bago, the Yanks faced 14 miles inland, captured Bacolod airstrip and approached the outskirts of the capital city of Bacolod.

Easter Daybreak Service Planned For Tomorrow

The Easter daybreak service "Christus Victor" will feature Elaine Baker, Bay City sophomore, and the student Vesper choir under the direction of Dr. William Sur as part of the early morning program.

The service will be held in the Peoples church sanctuary at 7:15 a.m. CWT. Miss Baker will sing "Hosana" by Jules Grainger. Sibclius' Anthem, "O Morn of Beauty" will be sung by the choir.

LuElla Price, Lansing junior, is in charge of the program committee. "I Am the Cross" by William Stilger will be read by Maxine Finkbeiner, Middleville freshman. Darrell Cook, East Lansing sophomore, will read "Christus Victor."

The annual Easter daybreak service is a part of the year's program of the student religious council.

Easter Social List Includes Union Dance, Party-Party

Alpha Xi Trio to Make Debut on 'Varieties'

Ushering in a social Eastertide for students remaining on campus this weekend will be two Union board sponsored dances held in the Union ballroom today.

First Party-party of spring term will be held this afternoon from 3 to 5 with music provided by Dick Snook and his band. Still planned, on its wartime theme of "Is You Is or Is You Ain't" with or without a date, Party-party welcomes both-stag servicemen and students for its dance program, according to Marty Kelly, Kalamazoo senior.

New Trio Group
"Spartan Varieties" will be broadcast during the intermission from 4 to 4:30, according to Larry Frymire, program director for WKAR. A brand new trio of Alpha Xi Delta women will make their debut before the "mike" and house audience, singing "Some of These Days," "Stormy Weather," and "Accentuate the Positive."

The new songbirds are Marge McQueary, Lansing freshman, Joyce Johnson, Detroit junior, and Leah Jan Tuttle, Lansing senior.

U.S. Forces Race Forward to Trap 40,000 Nazi Troops in Ruhr Area

Russians Take Danzig; Start Austria Push

Ukrainian Armies Open New Offensives; Reds Threaten Vienna

LONDON, March 30 (AP)—Russian troops invaded Austria tonight as two new Soviet offensive drives toward Vienna and Italy erupted in Hungary and southern Slovakia and Red army troops far to the north captured the big Baltic port of Danzig, hoisting the flag of the "Polish staff" over the former free city.

Moscow's nightly communique announced that Marshal Fedor I. Tolbukhin's third Ukrainian army had entered Austria—seven years after that country was annexed to Adolf Hitler's greater Reich—after crossing the frontier north of captured Koszeg, 52 miles south of Vienna.

Earlier, Marshal Stalin had announced that the second and third Ukrainian armies, on the north and south banks of the Danube, had opened two powerful new offensives.

On the Danube's north bank, Russian columns burst 31 miles across southern Hungary in the 42-mile gap between the lake and the Drava river.

They also drove to within nine miles of the Yugoslav border by taking Nagyatal, 72 miles northeast of Zagreb, puppet Croat capital.

First, Third Armies Cross Eder River, Only 182 Miles South of Berlin as British Turn Toward Hamburg

Seventh Army Forces Capture Heidelberg, Continue Through Black Forest District

PARIS, March 30 (AP)—U.S. first and third army tanks drove 20 to 21 miles toward Berlin today, crossing the Eder river only 182 miles southwest of the capital as racing American columns to the north tightened a steel noose around 40,000 crack German troops in the falling Ruhr.

Marriage Series To Open April 1; Tickets Ready

Tickets for the spring term marriage lectures will be available to seniors at a special table to be located in the lower lounge of the Union on Monday and Tuesday, 8 a.m. through 5 p.m., according to chairman Aileen Wilson, Grosse Pointe.

Third year medical biology students, and underclassmen intending to be married but who will not be on campus next spring term, are eligible to apply for lecture tickets. Presentation of identification cards will be necessary, Miss Wilson said.

The first lecture in the series, which is sponsored annually by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will be Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. in the Union ballroom.

Dr. Robert Foster of the Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit will discuss psychological adjustments necessary in marriage. There will be time for questions and informal discussion following the lecture.

The remaining lectures in the series will be presented on Monday, April 9; Thursday, April 12, and Monday, April 15. These will be concerned with the biological, sociological and religious aspects of marriage. Speakers for these talks will be announced later.

SOUNDS GOOD

German Officer Calls Nazi Line Disorganized

With the U. S. third army in Germany, March 29, (delayed), (AP)—A high ranking German officer who was captured by Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's third army troops said today that there is not any organized line of defense between you and Berlin.

"There is not any organized system of government left in Germany," the officer declared. "When you reach Berlin the whole situation will quickly dissolve."

(Censorship did not permit disclosure of the officer's identity and 23 words at the start of the dispatch were censored).

The captured officers, extremely military in bearing, asserted that only hastily organized areas of defense such as the one he set up—and which proved futile—remained before the onrushing Americans.

Five Allied armies were slashing so swiftly through collapsed resistance that reports trailed far behind events and the cloak of a news blackout shrouded possibly even more stunning blows.

The U. S. ninth army was racing across the northern fringes of the Ruhr toward a junction with the north-bound armored columns of the U. S. first army and they last were reported about 65 miles apart.

Head for Hamburg

Three armored divisions of the British second army, gaining 15 miles overnight far beyond the Rhine, were reported unofficially to be striking for the north German ports of Hamburg, Bremen and Wilhelmshaven, all of which were blasted by more than 2,300 American planes.

Westward, Canadian and British forces had cut back into Holland, possibly to seal off the V-bomb coast.

On the south end of the front, the U. S. seventh army captured the ancient university city of Heidelberg and pressed on east along the Neckar river valley, cutting in behind the Black forest toward the Bavarian alps, where the Nazis may be brought to bay.

Nearing Kassel

The U. S. first and third army in mile-eating strides toward the capital were 16 miles or less from the big locomotive-manufacturing center of Kassel by admittedly belated accounts.

The first army's seventh armored division, jumping off from positions north of Frankfurt-on-the-main, reeled on 20 miles, forded across the Eder and entered Fritzlar, 182 miles southwest of Berlin and 16 miles from Kassel.

Simultaneously, the sixth armored division of the third army roared 21 miles along the same general route to the vicinity of Treysa, 15 miles to the south which the first army's ninth armored division already had reached.

LT. THOMAS BEK
pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress of the 95th bombardment group, has been awarded the third oak leaf cluster to the air medal for meritorious achievement while participating in eighth air force bombing attacks on vital German industrial targets, and on Nazi airfields, supply dumps and run emplacements in conjunction with advances by Allied ground forces on the continent. Lieutenant Bek is a member of the Fortress group which led the first American bombing attack on targets in Berlin.

Film About GI Joe Will Open Series

First on the spring term adventure series, which gets underway this evening at 8:15 in College auditorium, will be Col. Edwin H. Cooper's movies of American GI Joes fighting and playing on the various war fronts the world over.

Colonel Cooper made his 22,000 foot, air-color film during a recent traveling expedition during which he visited England, Italy, North Africa, Egypt, Palestine, Iran, India, Burma, and China. In all, Colonel Cooper covered a distance of 32,000 miles from the time he left America until his return.

Himself a retired United States army officer, Colonel Cooper is a veteran front line cameraman of two years. During the first World War he won both the Distinguished Service cross and the silver star. The letter award was made as the result of bravery in action and for bringing in wounded soldiers from No Man's land.

Colonel Cooper is replacing Vyvan Donner, originally scheduled to appear this evening whose lecture tour has been cancelled.

Kobsmen Wield Bats, Balls, Mitts In Preparation for Busy Season

The baseball practice field down by the field house is literally ringing with base hits and fly balls, as Coach John Kobs whips the Spartan mitmen into shape for the coming season. The team starts its competition with the University of Indiana on April 6-7.

Up until yesterday the weather has been good for practice. The team has taken advantage of it. Despite the far reaching legend of Uncle Sam and inability because of scholarship, Kobs has made marked progress with the team. The experienced material that has returned has been placed in the positions that will best strengthen the nine men.

The coming game with the Hoosiers will give Coach Kobs a good view of the strength of the team and it will enable him to make the necessary shifts in the lineup.

The Indiana nine has not displayed its strength and the sweat test at Bloomington will prove to be a good one. There are several other games scheduled that will also be filled with hot and flying cleats.

The lineup as it looks today is somewhat like this: Jack Kobs, Battle Creek junior, a player who held a batting average of .311 last year, is being used as first base while Darrel Jones, Detroit junior, and Mercedes Young, Elwood, Ind., sophomore, are slated to pitch.

Other promising pitchers are: Frank Frankel, Detroit freshman; Bill Page, North Muskegon freshman, and Southpaw

Howell Wilson, Flint freshman. On the receiving end of it will be catchers: Don Brown, discharged seabee from Battle Creek, and Nick Loulakis, Pontiac sophomore, who also double as a fielder.

Other Batmen

The other spots on the diamond infield are being filled by Nick Gregory, freshman serviceman from Chicago, at second; Martin Hansen, Flint freshman, will be holding down the shortstop position, and standing on third will be Dick Mineveaser, Pontiac sophomore.

Leading outfield candidates include Rudy Castellani, Lansing freshman; Thomas Calt, Evanston, Ill., freshman and Robert Reault, Detroit freshman.

Stettinius Quizzed On California Convo

WASHINGTON, Mar. 30 (AP)—Turning aside a barrage of questions, secretary Stettinius insisted today the hot "multiple vote" issue has not dimmed his confidence in the success of the San Francisco conference.

Reporters fired 48 questions at him, most of them dealing with a secret agreement made at Yalta and disclosed yesterday. Under this the United States will back Russia's demand for three votes in the assembly of the world organization to be set up at San Francisco, and in turn will seek three votes for itself. The British commonwealth will have six.

The secretary of state licked his lips and grinned repeatedly as the questions rolled off at a news conference attended by 65 reporters. To most of them, he said he couldn't answer now—come back next week.

Bombers Drop 4,000 Tons On U-Boat Yards

LONDON, March 31 (AP)—A strong force of RAF Mosquitos attacked Berlin again last night after the mightiest American aerial force sent aloft this year—more than 2,300 bombers and fighters—showered 4,000 tons of bombs in daylight attacks on five U-boat yards in Germany's largest north sea ports of Bremen, Hamburg and Wilhelmshaven.

German radio alarms logged bombers over most parts of northwestern Germany last night but the only definite target announced by the British Air Ministry was Berlin which was attacked for the 38th night in the last 39 nights.

The greatest U. S. attack of the war on enemy naval installations yesterday strangled chances of the crumbling German army of getting seaborne supplies and reinforcements. It also dealt a massive blow against the Nazis' spring submarine plan.

There was an indication—due no confirmation—that the attack by more than 1,400 Flying Fortresses and Liberators and a screening clod of 900 fighters of the U. S. eighth force was timed to catch large units of the German navy anchoring at Wilhelmshaven.

MAJ. CLARENCE ECKERT . . .

'41, has been assigned to the army air forces flying training command headquarters, Randolph Field, Texas, with duties in the materiel division. A veteran of 28 months overseas duty, Major Eckert served in Hawaii, Australia, New Guinea, and the Philippine Islands as a pilot and air engineer for the fifth bomber command. Prior to entering the service, he was an engineer and draftsman in Toledo, Ohio.
