

Dormitory Time Announced By AWS and Judiciary Board

Students Are Urged to Set Clocks Up Sunday

With the adoption of a change in time for college classes, dormitory hours for women will change accordingly, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Isabelle Gonon, counselor for women, and Jean Oviatt, of AWS and Judiciary board.

Today's Campus

One Big Bang

Anyone who wandered into the chem lab and saw Professor O. M. Knudsen washing the walls should understand that it was due not only to the help shortage but because Libby Lott, Flint sophomore, had kept her flame just a little too high and blown hydrochloric acid all over the room. She was probably just carrying the torch.

Strange Fruit?

Fruit puddings were the order of the day in one food-preparation class recently, and the choice was between peaches, pears, and apricots. A large jar of beautiful round orange or apricots seemed to be the dream most popular choice and everybody waited impatiently while one coed opened the jar to place the prized fruit in her dish. It seems someone was playing magic that day, because the apricots suddenly turned out to be egg yolks, round and gold. Or could they need glasses?

Where, Oh, Where

Excerpt from lost and found—Has anybody seen two peacocks? B. and G. has long wanted to have peacocks flying around the campus, so after being hauled from Battle Creek and fed for weeks they were released—and haven't been seen since. If found, return to A. G. Clark at the Grounds building.

Junto Club Formed For English Majors

Junto, a local English club, has been recently organized on campus with M. L. Rosenthal as adviser. Membership is open to all English majors and minors as well as journalism students.

Members of the club meet for informal discussion of literary topics after presentation by faculty members of the English department.

Newly-elected officers include Betty Ann Johnson, Jackson junior, president; Esther Erickson, Jackson junior, vice-president; and Jean Carr, Detroit junior, secretary-treasurer.

Next meeting of the Junto will be held Thursday, April 12, in the faculty dining room of the Union. Prof. Ben Euwema, head of the English department, will be guest speaker.

"Pygmalion" Tryouts Scheduled Tuesday

Tryouts for the spring term play sponsored by Theta Alpha Phi dramatics honorary, are scheduled for next Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 7:15 in the Spartan room of the Union, according to Prof. Don Buell, of the dramatics department.

George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" has been selected as the play, and it affords excellent dialect parts, Buell said.

Anyone with a "good ear" has a fine chance of being selected for a part because records of the Cockney and British dialects to be used will be played at the tryouts, Buell said.

Until midnight Sunday the hour of return for women students will be slow time (CWT). At one minute after midnight Sunday, students are urged to set their clocks forward one hour to conform to East Lansing (EWT) time.

Student hours for Monday through Thursday, will be:

- Freshmen 8 p.m. CWT 9 p.m. EWT
- Upperclassmen 9 p.m. CWT 10 p.m. EWT
- Seniors 10 p.m. CWT 11 p.m. EWT

Weekend hours for all women:

- Friday and Saturday 11:30 p.m. CWT 12:30 p.m. EWT

YW Selects Slate Of Candidates For Election

Heading the slate of YWCA officers to be elected next Wednesday are juniors Barbara James, Ferndale, and Polly Flaishans, Flat Rock, who will run for president. Nominations for the four major offices were presented at Wednesday's meeting by a senior committee and were supplemented by nominations from the floor.

Betty Bolander, Lapeer junior and June Wilkinson, Jackson junior, are the candidates for vice-president, while three women will be running for the office of secretary. These are Marion Vorce, East Lansing junior.

Editor's Note: All letters submitted to the editor for printing must be signed by the person or persons who wrote them. If an anonymous name is desired, it should be included, but no letter can be printed unless signed by the writer when submitted.

ior; Margaret DeGroot, Detroit junior, and Shirley Schuhl, Royal Oak sophomore.

The treasurer's position will be held by either Jean Mosson, Lake Odessa junior, Virginia Hawkins, Detroit junior, or Beth Uehlin, Flint sophomore.

Only members who have paid their dues by Wednesday will be eligible to vote, and the polls will be open throughout the late afternoon and evening of that day, according to Joanne D'Arcy, Detroit senior and retiring president.

OUCH, IT HURTS—

Spring Has Come, Ivy Too

By BARBARA HAFFORD JONES
Although the weather at present isn't the kind that invites it, lounging beside the Red Cedar is becoming a social menace, according to those who have tried it.

Long the favorite sport of Michigan State coeds and their spring-struck swains, when there were some around, feeding the ducks, especially when one decides to sit down to do it, is liable to leave a tell-tale mark on the benevolent, if two-purposed, feeders.

Hidden Dynamite
Disregarding the signs that have been posted around some of the dormitories, coeds have already taken advantage of the spring air and found themselves covered with poison ivy.

Spring hit the Spartans early this year, but was no more cautious than the malicious ivy, which at this time is probably

Allies Rip Up Weser River Line

Yanks Roll Toward Germany's Heart In Swift Push

PARIS, April 7 (AP)—A relentless tide of Allied tanks and troops—some times sweeping ahead 40 to 60 miles—broke the Weser river line 18 miles from Hannover yesterday, all but sealed off Holland and her greatest cities, and engulfed Hamm and Wuerzburg.

A wholly unconfirmed German broadcast said U. S. third army forces, coursing far in the van of the western advance, had suddenly spurred 40 miles east into Martin Luther's birthplace of Eisleben, in Saxony 90 miles southwest of Berlin, striking with airborne tanks.

The Weser river line—only the Elbe now stands between the Allies and Berlin—was ripped to shreds by multiple British second and U. S. ninth army crossings as the U. S. first army jumped into the swelling attack with a 22-mile push to the Weser 164 miles west of Berlin.

One of the British second army's flying columns, some of which traveled 60 miles in 24 hours since breaking out on to the north German plain through the mountain passes, turned up abruptly in Diepholz, less than 35 miles south of the big German river port of Bremen.

Hamm, Germany's biggest railway center, fell with astonishing swiftness to the U. S. ninth army, which with the powerful first army, began a broad-scale attack on 125,000 or more Germans trapped in the Ruhr.

Wuerzburg, 55 miles northwest of Nuernberg—where the Nazis in their heyday held their party rallies—was captured by the U. S. seventh army.

Martin Bovey to Give Sport Lecture, Movie For Series Tonight

Martin Bovey, sportsman-photographer, will present a lecture and two colored films, "For Fishermen Only" and "Wings from the North," at 8 p.m. today in College auditorium, S. E. Crowe, dean of students, announced.

For the past five years Bovey has made canoe trips through the Ontario wilderness to remote trout streams. "For Fishermen Only" was made on a recent trip during which the party, led by Ojibway Indians, saw no other human being for 23 days. "Wings from the North" was made on the shores of the Hudson bay.

Bovey has taught English at Harvard, hunted big game in the Canadian Rockies, and has wintered in the fur posts of Manitoba.

Top AWS Post Won by Averill

Sue Averill, Birmingham junior, was elected president of AWS in the final elimination yesterday, replacing Jane Cumming, graduated Pratt-Whitney student, as head of the women's governing body on campus.

Shirley Hamelink, Lansing junior, won the office of vice-president, and Barbara Quayle, Oxford; Peggy Fox, Detroit; Barbara Christiancy, Grand Rapids; and Jean Carol McNeill, Saginaw, will act as senior representatives.

Miss Averill, Alpha Chi Omega, has been a representative to AWS for two years; she is organizations editor of the Wolverine. Vice-president of Kappa Alpha Theta, Miss Hamelink is a past president of Tower Guard and junior representative to the points limitation board.

Sophomores who were elected for next year's junior representatives are Jean Proctor, Detroit; Margaret English, Dearborn; and Peggy Frimodig, East Lansing. Lou Coolman, Dearborn, and Ruth Menke, Detroit, will be sophomore representatives.

Sorority Actives Will Plan Rushing

Appointed by PanHellenic council at its last meeting, a special committee will begin work on next year's rushing program, according to Jean McKerring, president of PanHellenic.

In previous years rules for rushing have been formulated by alumnae PanHellenic, but active PanHellenic will take over the job this year.

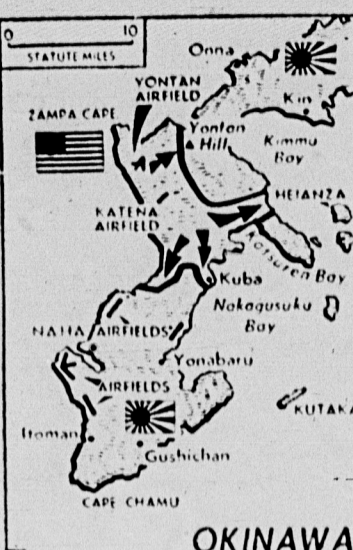

Deferred rushing in some form will be instituted since the administration has ruled that no girl may be rushed till she has been in school a term.

Second Lecture Monday For Marriage Series

Second of the marriage lecture series, sponsored annually by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will be held Monday night at 7:15 EWT or 6:15 Beaumont tower time in the music auditorium.

Dr. Carl Morrison of the Lansing children's center will speak. Admission to all lectures will be by season ticket.

Nippons Attempt Attack on Guam

Arrows indicate American drives toward Yontan hill, to the eastern coast and south to Kuba and to within six miles of Naha.

BULLETIN

GUAM, Saturday, Apr. 7 (AP)—A large force of Japanese aircraft attacked the mighty American invasion fleet off Okinawa yesterday but inflicted only minor damage. American fighters shot down at least 150 of the attacking planes.

In the Okinawa ground fighting, marines on the north end of the American line scored advances up to 5,000 yards, still finding only "small, scattered groups of the enemy," while infantrymen pressing upon the capital city of Naha at the south fought deeper into fixed defense positions. Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced today.

Campus 4-H Group Installs New Officers

Officers of the campus 4-H club were installed at the regular meeting recently. Cecil Kerr, Shelby junior and retiring president, was in charge of the installation program.

New officers are: president, Jean Montgomery, Bellaire sophomore; vice president, Bob Wilkinson, East Lansing freshman; secretary, Lucille Shisler, Bellaire freshman; treasurer, Marcia Webster, Williamston sophomore, and publicity chairman, Harriet Van Epps, Decatur freshman.

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

April 7, 1945

DEAREST JOHNNY,
I think it's about time for another letter, but I can't be too sure since we've had different standards of time every week since spring vacation. As things stand now, we'll all be trudging off to our eight o'clocks at 8 a.m. East Lansing time, while Beaumont will bong only seven times. The psychological effect is sure to be terrible.

Your feminine friends have been acting like charter members of the League of Women Voters all week, since they had pre-primary, primary and final AWS elections from Monday to Friday.

It seems we're finally going to have a Mardi Gras again, although the dance has been put off since fall term. The date is May 12, so see if you and Blood and Guts can't finish up the job and get home in time.

If you've got any extra uniforms hanging around, pack 'em and send them home. We're all going to be clearing out our old things this month and giving them to the clothing drive, an all-out project sponsored by Henry Kaiser, the ship building man. If he does as well with clothes as he does with ships, lots of the half-naked people in foreign occupied countries will want him for their pin-up boy. They're so desperate over there—as you probably know—that we at home are practically going into a striptease act this month.

Incidentally, don't hope to find any of your civilian clothes in the closet when you get home, because I've already written your mother and she's promised to send all your things your dad isn't wearing.

There must be plenty of students with a yearning toward marriage—at least the crowd at the first lecture indicated that. Dr. Robert Foster spoke on the psychological adjustments in marriage. Of course, I was there and now all I need is someone to psychologically adjust with.

In the mood,
PEG

What You Spare, They Can Wear

Frequently, all important dispatches of beach-head landings or stories of liberation have overshadowed truly sensational stories. Such was the case with a report issued from the White House of September last when the nation's thoughts were focused on forces in Normandy.

Now, eight months later the country is looking into the President's unheralded report. It was: "Millions of people do not have enough clothes to keep them warm . . . in occupied Europe almost as many people have died from exposure due to lack of adequate clothing as have died from starvation."

Five years ago, when Nazis or Japs invaded millions of homes, they robbed everything from innocent victims except the clothes they happened to be wearing. Looms and textile mills cannot pour forth shirts and sweaters when an enslaved country pours munitions into Hitler's Reich.

In the five harsh, horror-filled years which have passed since then, the garments of the oppressed millions wore thinner and thinner. They were patched and re-patched, turned and turned again, and often reinforced with old paper, straw or other waste for want of other material.

In a Belgian family there was but one usable shirt in a family of seven. It was shared in turn by both sexes and all sizes. The health of many millions has been seriously affected by the lack of adequate clothing. Tuberculosis, typhus and other diseases have spread already among them. In Greece the price for shoes is $220 a pair. In occupied France two-piece suits have been known to bring $275, shirts $28 each, and shoes up to $35.

You, in your blessed well-being, can turn away from these garments according to the whims and dictates of fashion. The liberated areas and our allies are not concerned with fashion. They won't mind if the coat is a bit too long or the flare of the skirt is last season's. They need your cast-off garments in order to survive.

Your closet is littered with skirts, trousers and shirts that are too small but are kept around because once in a blue moon we wear a certain tie or skirt for it to harmonize with. Is that frayed suit worth $275 or that shirt $28 to you? Remember these figures the next time you step in your closet.—B.T.E.

To the Editor:

I protest against the nasty, un-American attitude taken in yesterday's editorial. Your stand on the question is without foundation and greatly inaccurate.

In an informal poll I found that the ducks were overwhelmingly in favor of increased vis-

We welcome visitors who wish to state here that they have my person been visited by a fraternity man. In fact, I had more trouble with the mentioned drake.

Indiana Wins Baseball Opener, 15-3

MSC Errors, Wild Pitches Add to Spartan Loss

BLOOMINGTON, IND., April 6 (AP)—Indiana university's veteran baseball team took advantage of four Michigan State errors, six bases on balls and six wild pitches and added 14 hits to defeat the Spartans, 15 to 3, in the Hoosier opener today.

The Crimson spotted the Spartans to a pair of runs in the first inning, tied the count in the second and then pounded across five more tallies in the second. Michigan State's only other run was scored in the ninth. Indiana led for four in the fourth. Al Kurlovsky, Indiana first baseman, and catcher E. Cohen faced the hitters with three outs to go.

Russians Drive Into Vienna With Two Armored Armies

IFC Athletics Will Resume This Spring

After more than a year's layoff, Inter-Fraternity athletes will again have a chance to start unlimbering the old soupbones and get ready for the familiar "Play ball." Assistant athletic director, Lyman Frimodig announced yesterday that an IFC softball league was being formed, with games to start as soon as the weather will permit.

Frimodig also said that an independent league is in the offing if there is enough interest shown. Entries for it should be turned in to the athletic department on or before Friday. Complete rosters should be included with the entries. If there is an independent league, the champions of the two leagues will play for the campus title.

In the past years the inter-fraternity league played baseball, and the independents played softball, but because of the scarcity of equipment, both leagues will be balloon-ballers.

There will be a few differences from the regulation softball, one of which is that each team will be limited to nine men instead of 10.

IFC entries already posted are as follows: Alpha Gamma Rho, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Chi, Delta Sigma Phi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Tau, Psi Upsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu and Theta Chi with FarmHouse a probable entry and Alpha Epsilon Pi not accounted for at the time.

Frimodig said that the manpower situation last year would not allow an intra-mural program to operate. He added that after a fairly successful basketball program, he had high hopes for this term's activities.

LONDON, Saturday, April 7 (AP)—Russian shock troops drove up against the southern and southeastern limits of Vienna last night on a 10-mile front and the Vienna radio reported just before midnight that violent street fighting was raging in the city proper.

As the Russians approached the city radio station — they were less than a mile away on Thursday night — the Nazi controlled transmitter interrupted a program of patriotic music to report Soviet assault teams wedging into the southern metropolitan districts to threaten the Austrian capital's gas and power supplies.

The roar of guns was heard in the background, but the Germans claimed that Red army tommygunners had been thrown back.

Moscow's nightly war bulletin revealed that a mass of Russian armor from two armies had driven up to the city limits.
