San Carlo Company to Give 'Aida' Tonight

"Aida," one of the most famous tragedies of opera, will be presented at College Auditorium at 8:15 tonight by the San Carlo opera company.

Aida is the story of the young and desirable Princess Aida, daughter of the Ethiopian king, who is captured during a war between Ethiopia and Egypt. Aida's identity is not known to her captors and she is made the slave of Amneris, jealous daughter of the Egyptian king, who is in love with a young and brilliant warrior of the Egyptian army. The warrior is a man who has fallen in love with Aida. She returns the affection but hides her love from her captors for fear of the life of her lover.

Dramatic Complications

By treachery Amneris conceals her suspicions that the king and her slave are in love and arranges it so that Radmas will be forced to marry her. When Aida's father is captured her identity is made known and the story is further complicated.

Aida is a beautiful and colorful opera in which pageants and celebrations take place when she returns to Egypt, victorious from war, but with Aida a captive.

Beauty Through Ballet

The productions are aided by ballet dancers, who help portray the scenes. The ballet is completing its 10th season with the company, is made up entirely of solo dancers, and by Lydia Arlova and Lucia Paolucci.

The opera company has traveled throughout America giving fine performances.

Russians Gain in Outer Berlin And Drive Within a Mile Of the City's Center

Two Red Armies Join Within Limits of City: World Awaits Confirmation of Junction Of Americans and Soviets Near Leipzig

LONDON, April 25 (AP)—The first White Russian and first Ukrainian armies joined inside Berlin yesterday and slashed through the burning suburbs in enveloping movements that lacked but five miles of cutting the German capital in two.

Success College Students Load Five Tons of Clothes From Local Drive

A group of raggedly dressed children and a stooped, elderly couple touring Grand River in a small truck preceded by a band aroused college students from their 8 a.m. stupor last Saturday.

A banner demanding in large letters, "What can you spare that they can wear?" explained the situation. The young people with rags flapping in the frosty breeze admitted that they were not genuine refugees but were masquerading as destitute children of the Allied nations to gain publicity for the clothing drive sponsored this month.

Results of the drive show that East Lansing has met the request for donations of old clothing successfully. College men packed and loaded more than five tons of clothing on Saturday to be shipped to New York.

The clothing drive committee, headed by Mrs. Thomas Osgood, will receive donations in the basement of Peoples church until Tuesday. Mrs. Osgood reports that the committee needs helpers to complete the necessary work, and requests college women to volunteer as menders, packers, or sorters on week days from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Peoples church.

Lee to Talk at Peace Meeting of United Americans Group

In conjunction with the San Francisco conference, the Americans United for World Organization, Inc., of Detroit are holding a meeting tonight at which Dr. S. C. Lee, head of the Institute of Foreign Studies, will be one of the guest speakers.

Each foreign lecturer's subject will be what world organization will mean to his country. The chief speaker of the evening will be Senator Harley M. Kilgore, whose topic will be "Need for International Organization."

The meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. in the Rackham building in Detroit, is sponsored by prominent Detroit industrial and religious leaders. They procured Dr. Lee's services through the Chinese News service. Lee will be one of those to attend the dinner before the meeting.

International Group Elects News Officers

Gregory Dean, Detroit freshman, was elected president of International club at a meeting held Friday night. The members voted Ciro Martinez, Havana, Cuba, junior, into the vice-presidency and chose Marilyn Miller, Dearborn Freshman, to assume duties of secretary, according to retiring president Liga Simons, Colon, Panama, senior.

Ricardo Salazar, Panama junior, will be the new treasurer. The three executive committee members chosen were: Toby Goldofsky, Detroit freshman; Frank Briggs, Manaus, Brazil, freshman, and Shirley Caswell, East Lansing junior, Miss Simons said.

The Moscow communique which disclosed these successes giving the Russians possession of fully half the area of greater Berlin also announced capture of the Schlesi-sched (Silesian) railway station in a drive within a mile of the center of the city at Unter den Linden.

The first White Russian force of Marshal G. K. Klukev simultaneously executed a great wheeling movement north and northwest of Berlin which severed one of two railroads leading to the northwest German pocket and came within two and one-half miles of the other.

Ukrainians Hit Northwest

Marshal Ivan S. Konev and Ukrainians, spearheading from the south, reached a point four miles due east of Potsdam.

Junction of the two Russian armies inside Berlin's limits completed the encirclement of a tremendous area 60 miles long and 30 miles broad, stretching clear back east and southeast to the Oder and Neisse rivers, trapping untold numbers of Germans.

Allied Junction Near

Far south of Berlin the Russians announced capture of Grossenhain, 20 miles northwest of Dresden.

The French press agency said without confirmation that a union already had been reached at Eilenburg, nine miles northeast of Leipzig, but despite this from the U.S. first army had said no hookup had yet been made.

Spanish Groups Plan Mexican Movies

La Cetrada, Spanish literary, and the foreign language department will sponsor a Mexican movie tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in Fairchild theater.

The World Takes Another Step

With the ultimate goal of preventing the recurrence of world chaos, delegates to the United Nations are assembling today in San Francisco to lay the foundation of a world security organization.

This conference alone can not effect permanent peace; this will be the first step toward an achievement which can only be brought about in time. The objective set before representatives of nations of the world in this meeting will be to set up formally the machinery for the security organization which was basically outlined at Dumbarton Oaks and further considered at Yalta.

A peace treaty for World War II will not come out of this conference, but international problems, especially when they interfere with the establishment of the security organization, will be faced by the assembly. The Polish delegation question, a pertinent issue taking precedence in the eyes of the public, will fall into this category.

Poland will be represented, if not immediately, in future planning, conferences and the world organization. Consideration of Russia in the Balkans, United States in the South Pacific, and the span of the British Empire will come later.

The public should realize that some compromises will be necessary on the behalf of all nations to set up an international program today.

Above all, the construction of a constitutional framework for the plans of Dumbarton Oaks would be a worthy result of the San Francisco conference.—J.J.

Now for a bit more local color in reviewing campus extra-curricular activities for the past few days, we find that there had been some action. Helen Freeman, Chi O, has added Bob Price's Delta Chi pin to her own, and it looks as if the Delta Chis are going to have to practice up for a serenade.

Since last Saturday night Lois Sonderquist, Dearborn freshman, has also been right in line for some serenading, too. This time it's the Phi Taus who will have to do the honors since Don Moses entrusted Lois with the safe-keeping of his pin.

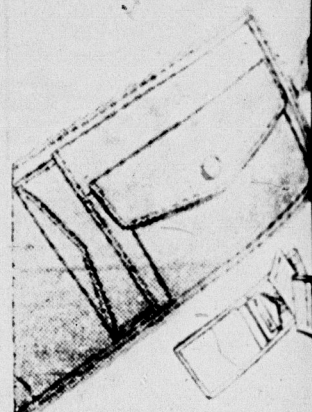

Activity with a capital "A" surrounded the Theta house Monday evening. Early in the evening there was a surprise visit from Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Johnny Harper, both State alumni. Johnny was an SAE and his Mrs. is the former Peggy Green.

Tom Ebner's change of status from a pledge to an active occupied the remainder of the evening with a huge party for everyone following initiation.

Alpha Phis were feeling pretty good about the fact that they had just initiated seven new members into their ranks the other day. Now wearing their new badges on their sweaters are freshmen Carmela Di Pietro,

Yanks Slash Across Southern Reich

U.S. Third Drives Toward Austrian Border In Advance Beyond Czechoslovakia

PARIS, April 24 (AP)—Three mighty Allied armies hammering down to destroy Hitler's rocky Alpine redoubt were slashing almost at will across southern Germany tonight within 50 to 70 miles of Munich, cradle of Nazism.

Allied headquarters, like the rest of the world, was awaiting an official announcement that American and Russian troops, last reported barely 20 miles apart between Dresden and Leipzig, had joined forces and split the Reich in two. Some correspondents here believed a preliminary junction had already been made.

The French press agency, quoting "reports from Moscow," said American and Soviet troops had met at Eilenburg, on the Mulde river nine miles northeast of Leipzig.

Ulm Falls

Ulm, second city of Wurttemberg and important communications center on the Danube, fell to the combined assault of the American seventh and French first armies.

The U. S. third army, continuing its spectacular drive southward from the boundary of Czechoslovakia, battled within eight miles of the big traffic hub of Regensburg and within 35 miles of the Austrian border. Traveling fast under a partial news blackout, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's famed armored forces were closing in relentlessly on Regensburg from three sides and slicing hourly nearer the ramparts of the enemy's southern "fortress."

Patton's 26th infantry, taking advantage of the enemy's disorganized state, seized several bridges intact across the Regan river.

Cross Danube

The seventh army's 44th division slashed across the Danube at Ehingen just southwest of Ulm after capturing that city of 60,000 with the assistance of French forces.

Fanning out along the north bank of the Danube, the 10th armored division reached Erbach, six miles southwest of Ulm. Potsingen, 36 miles north of Augsburg, was captured by the 42nd infantry division in a 10-mile thrust.

Twenty American and French infantry divisions and eight armored divisions were participating in the mighty offensive to crush the enemy's vaunted southern redoubt.

College Adds to Education Staff For Courses in Summer Session

On June 20 the regular summer quarter will begin as will the six-week session for teachers, according to Dean S. E. Crowe, director of the summer session. Six visiting teachers will be added to the Michigan State college staff for the teaching of the summer courses.

Visiting professors of education will be: Dwight Rich, newly appointed superintendent of Lansing city schools, teaching the course "High School Principalships;" Eldon Robbins, of the state board of control for vocational education, teaching "Visual Education;" and Fred Dixon, superintendent of East Lansing school, teaching "Co-curricular Activities."

Rose Dill, curriculum consultant of the Mt. Pleasant public schools; Janet C. Rees, elementary education teacher of Minkato State Teacher's college in Minnesota; and Willie Savage, supervising teacher of Michigan State Normal college, Ypsilanti, will be teaching as outside instructors in the children's demonstration school.

Seven new courses have been listed under the education curriculum for the summer, which include: "Individual Measurement and Appraisal," "Growth Analysis and Interpretation," "Adult Education," and "Problems of Elementary Education."

Completing the list are "Administration of School Personnel," "Elementary School Administration," "Guidance Workshop" and "Equipment and Furnishings in Homemaking Education." This brings the total of education courses offered to 62.

An outstanding feature of the year will be the off-campus course in child growth and development which will be conducted at the Girl Scout camp at Houghton Lake, with several teachers acting as counselors.
