One axample to prove this theory is Betty Fenwick Delta Zeta, who repeated her vows to Ens. Vern William on the last day of April. The newly-weds are now on their way to San Francisco.

The Spartan thinclads are the defending champions of the title won for the 17th time in 1943, the last time that the meet was held. The Spartans have entered 16 men to defend the title.

Western Michigan is the favorite in the meet because of the navy men located on its campus. Led by Moore, the Broncos have filed the largest entry list, 27 men, providing 59 entries. Pianist Jean Wahl, Battle Creek, and violinist Delores Klu-koski, Grand Rapids, will be presented in a senior recital to-right at 8 in the music auditorium.

Miss Wahl, pupil of Prof. Maurice Dumesnil, has been studying piano for 14 years. Coming here as a transfer stu-dent, she formerly studied un-der Hugh Beggs at Mac Murray college.

Miss Klukoski is a pupil of Romeo Tata, music professor, and is concert mistress of the MSC symphony orchestra.

The opening number of the concert will be Beethoven's "So-nata, Op. 24," in which both vio-lin and piano are equally prom-inent. The spring-like composi-tion body of the spring-like composition begins with a fast movement, followed by the slow ex-pressive second. The third movement is gay, with the melodious strains of the fourth for an ending.

Miss Klukoski's group of se lections will begin with Lalo's "Andante." Boulanger's "Nocturne," her second number, is both modern and impressionistic. "Malaguena" by De Sarasate, completes her part. Both her first and last pieces have a distinctive Spanish character.

"Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" from Bach's "Chorale from Con-tata No. 147" will be Miss Wahl's first number. Rachmaninoff's 'Revolutionary" "Prelude in G sharp minor, Op. 32, No. 12" will be followed by "Rhapsody. Op. 79, No. 2" by Brahms.
