Here It Is,

Pledges to Porpoise, men's swimming honorary, have been working hard to get their names published in the State News, which is one of the BOB RAMSEY pledge duties. It seems that after considering hoisting laundry on the poles and suicide and actual-ly being thrown into the women's pool during "Alice in Wonderland," there is still one pledge who hasn't made the headlines yet. To the left he will find his name in big bold letters.

Like A Scarecrow

Two MSC sophomores, Jackie Potter, Lima, Ohio, and Alice Wood, Pontiac, have found a way to keep the rain off their heads. Both coeds are wearing four inch brim waterproof straw hats. Who said there were no more farmers at State?

Clothes Horse

"Don't ever borrow clothes," says Ann Kaplan, Detroit junior, "it just doesn't pay." In an attempt to sport something new and different while home this weekend, Ann was quite stallin' satisfied when her friends showered her with compliments — in fact she enjoyed it so much that she claimed the jacket as her own and even went so far as to tell them where she had purchased it and in what colors it was available. It all ended up with Ann being obligated to take orders for such jackets but where she'll ever find them she doesn't know.

Publications Row To Reveal Staffs On Banquet Night

Staff members of MSC publications will hold their annual banquet Wednesday, May 23, in the dining room of the Union.

Walter Heckel, Detroit junior, and Elaine Seastrom, Geneva, Ill., will announce the new staff members for the State News with Dorothy and Doris Engstedt, Lansing juniors, announcing those for the Wolverine. Brownie Fayetteville, Afton junior, and Harry Blair, Ellettsville, Ind., junior, will announce the new MSC Veterinarian appointments.

Albert Applegate, Associate Prof. Kuykendall, and Associate Prof. Clyde Cairy, faculty advisers for the State News, Wolverine and Veterinarian, respectively, will present silver and gold keys for outstanding work on the various publications.

Thomas Hird, Farmington, will preside as toastmaster and Sui Foo, St. Johns, is in charge of the program. Reutner is chairman of arrangements.

Wayne Loses Wright

Lorenzo Wright, Wayne university star track freshman who picked up top individual honors in the State Intercollegiate track meet Saturday, has probably run his last track meet for the Tartars.

Captain David L. Holmes announced that Wright is due to be inducted into the armed forces on May 23.

SHAEF Orders That Kennedy Return Home

Supreme Headquarters Calls Matter Closed After AP Apology

PARIS, May 14 (AP) — Supreme headquarters discredited Edward Kennedy of the Associated Press today on a charge of breach of confidence in breaking prematurely the story of Germany signing terms of unconditional surrender and ordered him to leave May 17 for the United States.

Morton P. Gudebrod of the Associated Press also was discredited for taking "an active part in the premature release of a news story" and ordered to return to the United States, but was granted an extension beyond May 17 by Brig. Gen. Frank Allen, Jr., chief of public relations.

Gudebrod is ill with pneumonia and is not expected to be discharged from a hospital for two weeks.

Allen noted in a statement that "the Associated Press has published its profound regrets for distribution of the story in advance of its authorization."

"With this statement," Allen said, "this regrettable incident is considered as closed by supreme headquarters."

After supreme headquarters announced the decision, Kennedy issued this statement:

"My conscience is clear of this matter. I did what I considered to be my duty and informed SHAEF public relations in advance that I intended to do it. I am fully responsible for the action of Morton Gudebrod in this matter, as he acted under my instructions."

Home Ecs to Hear Talk on Mexico At Annual Dinner

Mexico will be featured in a talk by Mrs. Mabelle Ehlers, professor and head of institution administration, on the program of the Home Economics spring banquet to be held Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Union ballroom, according to Barbara Myr, Tonawanda, N. Y., junior.

Mrs. Ehlers spent the month of January in Mexico and will relate some of her experiences of the trip. Patricia Basley, Trenton junior, will give some of the highlights of the Home Economics Province workshop held in Chicago. It was attended by representatives from colleges in Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

The banquet is an annual affair for all home economics and Basic College students interested in home economics.

Tickets will be sold at the booth in the Home Economics building from 8 a.m. until noon today for the benefit of those who failed to purchase tickets during the previously scheduled sale.

Second Senior Dance Will Be Tomorrow

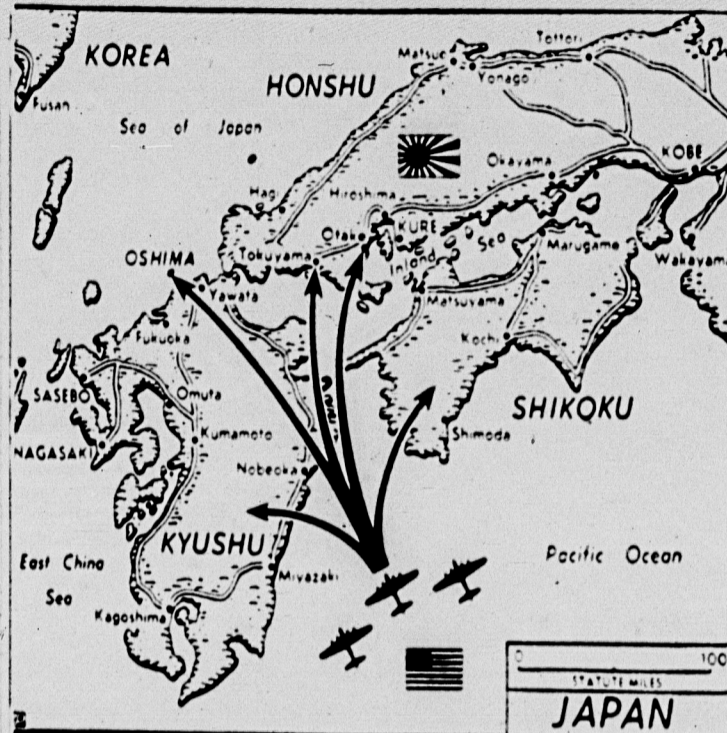

Continuing the list of senior activities for spring term, the second of three senior dances will be held in the Union ballroom from 8:30 to 11:30 tomorrow evening.

Featuring the music of Gene Devine and his band, the dance will be informal, and all senior students and upperclassmen are invited to come, with or without dates. No admission will be charged.

The last senior dance of the year will be held May 23.

Okinawa Yanks Take Airstrip

Superfortresses Hit Jap Oil Bases

A record fleet of American Superfortresses bombed Japanese oil installations at Otake, Tokuyama, and Oshima. Airfields on Kyushu and Shikoku were also blasted.

Infantry Seizes 2,400 Yards of East Coast

GUAM, May 15 (AP) — American doughboys, sweeping ahead 2,400 yards on the east coast of embattled Okinawa, captured the Yonabaru airstrip yesterday.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz' communique today reported also that the 96th infantry division's 383rd regiment completed capture of Conical Hill, important height before the fortress city of Shuri.

Yanks still were at the edge of the business district of the blasted Naha, capital of the Ryukyu island.

All Still Fighting

Still fighting still was in progress all along the Okinawa line. The 2,400-yard surge by the 96th was the only sizable advance. Doughboys and marines in other sectors gained only 100 to 200 yards.

Japanese aircraft again probed on the American invasion fleet off Okinawa Sunday evening, causing some damage to two light surface units. Twenty-five enemy planes were shot down, eight of them by destroyers' guns.

Enemy aircraft bombed installations ashore on Okinawa Monday but failed to cause material damage.

U. S. carrier task forces were attacked by Japanese planes on Monday, and one ship was reported damaged. Twenty-one Japanese planes were shot down in this raid.

Third Airdrome Captured

Yonabaru airfield was the third major airdrome on the Okinawa mainland seized by the Yanks. They took the Katsuy and Yontan fields shortly after the April 1 invasion. Later a large airdrome on Island No. 1 was secured.

A prime objective of the southward push is the Naha airdrome, about two miles south of Naha. This is the largest airdrome in the entire Ryukyu chain.

Heavy gunfire by ships of the Pacific fleet and bombing and strafing attacks on enemy positions by carrier and land-based planes closely supported the ground operations.

Since Okinawa was invaded, the tenth army has captured and destroyed 386 enemy guns of 100 millimeter caliber or larger.

Music, Dramatics Departments, Orchesis Plan Free Production

Orchesis, in cooperation with the music and dramatic departments, will present a musical and dramatic production free of charge Saturday in College auditorium at 8:15 p.m., according to Marie Angove, Northville senior and president of Orchesis.

Egger Says ASTP Will Not Disband

The Army Specialized Training Program unit will not be disbanded or decreased as a result of Germany's surrender, according to Col. Governor B. Egger, professor of military science and tactics. Instead, the number of men in the divisions is expected to increase. This probably will occur early next fall.

Colonel Egger also said that the secret orders that were to be disbanded by him on V-E day, included the point system for servicemen which has received a great deal of publicity since the surrender of Germany was signed.

MSC Band to Present Spring Program of Concert Music

Presenting a program of light music appropriate to spring, the MSC band will be heard Wednesday night at 8 in the bandshell. According to conductor Leonard Falcone, associate professor of music, the concert will be held in College auditorium in case of bad weather, but will not be postponed.

The program will open with the national anthem, followed by Bellini's overture to the opera "Norma." "Inglesina," concert march depicting a little English girl by Belle Case, comes next, with Strauss' "Voices of Spring" as the third number.

Soloist on the program will be Professor Falcone. His euphonium solo, "Fantasie Original" by Picchi, will be accompanied by Roy Underwood, music department head.

The Spanish march, "Apparito Roca" by Texidor, will be followed by Kern's "Show Boat," a direct contrast to most concert music.

The program will begin with the orchestra, under the direction of Alexander Schuster, professor of music, playing "Nocturne" and "Scherzo" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn.

Members of Orchesis will then dance to a suite of dances in antique style entitled "Le Suite du Roy." This suite of five dances was composed by Evangeline Lehman, wife of Maurice Dumont, professor of music at State.

The orchestra will play a short introduction followed by the dances. The first dance will be "Minuet" in French court style and danced by Winifred Jennens, Detroit sophomore, and Marilyn Burley, East Lansing junior.

Mary Babcock, Detroit sophomore; Jeanette Kuroly, Wyandotte freshman; and Shirley Marzean, Grand Ledge freshman, will enact the French peasant dance entitled "Bouree."

"Perpetues," a modern style dance will be portrayed by Miss Angove and Miss Jennens. The mood will then change to that of wood nymphs with the piece "Sylvestre" danced by Detroit freshmen Betty Rypson, Barbara Reid, and Ivo Jo Rabold, Barbara Christianity, Grand Rapids junior, and Marion Burley.

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

May 15, 1945

DEAREST JOHNNY,
 Our biggest news this week is the Mardi Gras queen who was crowned Friday with all due pomp and circumstance at College auditorium. Twenty-three other candidates comprised the court of honor with cherubs from the nursery school to top the whole thing. Blue Barron's band played for the dance, but had transportation troubles and didn't arrive until late, so the college fathers nodded their assent to 2 a.m. permission. Incidentally, I should mention the queen by name, now that the excitement is over—it's June Conklin, Zeta Tau Alpha's candidate, and a mighty nice queen, too. All the proceeds, you know, will go to the Spartan Victory Loan fund.

Thursday night was the annual swingout for seniors, and with the exception of a little confusion about the color of tassels and occasional tripping over the arches, all went well. Even the weatherman gave us his blessing, which is something really rare these days. Uncle John gave the group his last formal farewell message and alumni officers were elected. Our first reunion is in 1950. Do you suppose I should make hotel reservations now?

Somehow V-E day just came to my mind, and I know it should have had top billing in this letter. Perhaps it's because we've had so many false alarms that the real day seemed less of a celebration. The college had a convocation Tuesday morning in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion, but according to the papers, you Parisians weren't quite so solemn. What excites me now is the prospect of furloughs. I hope you've been chalking up lots of points. But you know, the fellows with wives will get priority for home visits. Now aren't you sorry you didn't take my advice.

The publications board last week announced the appointments of Janice Hoppe, Marion Heckel, and Leone Seastrom as State News manager, editor, and advertising manager, respectively. So a year from now you'll see three more people with gray hairs.

One of the most novel presentations I've seen in a long time is "Alice in Wonderland," Green Splash's baby. The group knocked themselves out doing an underwater version of Lewis Carroll's Alice. Some of the things the swimmers did sound like Believe It or Not.

I was so encouraged when I saw the smooth, easy way the swimmers went through their paces, that I decided to take some swimming lessons. I jumped in the pool for my first lesson and the next thing I saw was a palm tree.

McKibbin Heads Library Friends For New Term

Addressing more than 180 members and special guests of the Library at their annual dinner in the Union ballroom Friday night, Dr. Randolph Adams, director of the William I. Clements library in Ann Arbor, outlined the basis on which they could most effectively help the college library.

Dr. Adams urged the assembled group, whose main duty is to help the library grow, to specialize in collecting materials in one field and make the collection the best in the country. It is the Friends' job, he stated, to help the library decide these fields of specialization, and acquire in these fields rare books and manuscripts for which the library cannot use its funds.

Jackson Towne, secretary, reported that through Friends' efforts, 980 rare books and manuscripts have been added to the rare book room.

At the conclusion of the dinner, election of officers for the coming year took place with the same members being reelected to their respective positions. Dr. Clifford McKibbin, president; Dr. W. O. Hedrick, Dr. W. C. Bagley, and Glen Stewart, vice-presidents; C. O. Wilkins, treasurer and Towne, secretary.

EVERYDAY, Monday through Friday, WKAR presents five minutes of the news of Michigan taken from the wires of Press Association. This feature of interest to all Michigan students is on the air at 11:55 a.m.

Wednesday at 3:45 p.m. Campus Vignettes will dramatize another story about college life. This week's program will give the story of a returned veteran.

Curtain Going Up with Prof. Don Buell, director of dramatics, will preview the stage production "The Masque of the Red Death" Thursday at 5 p.m. The show, to be presented in College auditorium Saturday, is being sponsored by the departments of speech and dramatics, art and music. Brother B has promised to give a sneak look at what's to trot the boards Saturday evening.

Each Friday Jacqueline Bullen offers a quarter hour of songs. She is accompanied at the piano by Yvonne Behler. A varied program ranging from the classical to popular is promised by Miss Bullen to those who tune in at 870 kilocycles on Friday at 1:15 p.m.

Saturday at 5 p.m. the Spanish honorary, Sigma Delta Pi, will present the third in a series of four dramatic quarter hours about the life and legend that is South America. The program is done in cooperation with WKAR.

This week's offering will tell some interesting facts and stories about the George Washington of South America, Simon Bolivar. All times mentioned are central war time.

Spartans Lose Track Meet

Western Michigan Tallies Up 68½* While State Teams Score 57½

In the 29th running of the State Intercollegiate Track meet the Spartans bowed to a stronger Western Michigan team, consisting of 16 navy trainees and six civilians.

State took four first places and tied for one for a score of 57½ against Western Michigan's score of 68½.

Bob O'Leary, Portsmouth, N. H., freshman; Bill Mas-
Detroit junior; and Bob Belding, took firsts in the 440 yard dash, the 880 event, and the two-mile run, respectively. Ray Beckord, Sioux City, Iowa sophomore, tied with Billy Moore of Western Michigan for first in the high jump.

The Spartans formidable relay team, consisting of Lee Pickering, Bloomfield Hills freshman; Wayne Finkbeiner, Hastings sophomore, and Bill Maskill won the relay event. This is the same relay team that took fourth place in the Drake relays four weeks ago.

Beckord High Spartan

Ray Beckord was high point man for State, tying for first in the high jump, second in the 120 yard hurdles event and third in the 220 low hurdles for a total of 24 points. State's points were divided between a number of men while the other teams were comprised of individual stars. The Spartans took a great total of second and third places. Among the standouts were Bob O'Leary's third place in the 220 dash, Bill Maskill's second in the 440 dash, and Bob Beckord's second in the one mile

Jack McClain, Danville, Ind., senior, was outstanding in the field events, taking a first place in the shot put with a heave of 42.3¾. He also won a second place in the discus throw. Leroy Gunderson, Lapeer sophomore, vaulted 12 feet for a second place in the pole vault, a surprising feature, as he had only done 11 feet in practice. Leroy also captured a third place in the javelin throwing event. Wayne Finkbeiner took a tie for third place in the high jump, and a fourth in the broad jump.

Wright High in Meet

Lorenzo Wright of Wayne University was the individual star of the meet, capturing 18 of the Detroit school's 26 points. Wright took three first places, the 100 yard dash, the 220 dash, and the broad jump. He also took a second place in the 220 low hurdles. William Porter of Western Michigan was next in individual honors with 13 points to his credit. Billy Moore also of West Michigan was third with 11 points. Porter and Moore are two of four naval trainees who accounted for 39¾ of Kalamazoo's 68½ points.

At the Drake relays Moore won distinction by vaulting 14 feet, 1 16 of an inch short of the

Lansing Will Accept 'Safest City' Award At Banquet Tonight

At an banquet in the Union tonight, Dr. Forrest E. Long of the National Safety Council of Chicago, Ill., will present the city of Lansing with the grand award for safest driving. The 1944 award, for which 1,300 cities competed, will be accepted by Mayor Ralph W. Crego.

With Paul Martin of the State Journal presiding, Police Chief J. F. O'Brien will also be present. Both A. J. Hager and Robert C. Benson, past-president and president respectively, of the local safety council, will speak.

Pat Fisher, senior music major from Evanston, Ill., will sing, accompanied by Mary Goodell, Lansing freshman. Fred Patton, professor of music will lead community singing.

Ohio Golfers Defeat State In Triangular

Saturday the Michigan State golf team dropped the only triangular meet of the season to Ohio State and the University of Detroit, losing to Ohio State by a score of 12-0 and to U. of D. 6½ to 5½.

Joe Baker of the Buckeyes was top man with a 74. Bud Cline, Owosso sophomore, drew another 74 to match him. Stu Hellwell, Royal Oak sophomore, was two up and two to go in the meet, lost both holes against Detroit.

Six Varsity Teams Look Forward To Weekend of Sports Events

State's athletic teams will confine the major portion of the week's engagements to weekend tilts. Six events will take place in all, with the baseball game against the nine from the University of Ohio taking the spotlight.

The two game series scheduled with Ohio U. will be the fourth attempt of the Spartan squad to open their home season, the previous three games being rained out. The games will be split up with one on Friday and Saturday.

Golf with Wayne University will be the first on the list here Wednesday at 2 p.m. on the Walnut Hills course. The golfers will go to work again on Saturday against the Titans of the University of Detroit.

Another U. of D. team of tennis players will arrive in East Lansing on Saturday to play MSC's netmen along with the golf match.

Track Team Takes Trip

Track team members will journey to Bloomington, Ind. where they will compete against the University of Indiana in a dual meet. A 13 man squad will make the jaunt.

Although losing the first game by the heartbreaking score of two to one in the twelfth inning, the Spartans returned to shut out the Ohio team by due to nothing.

Page Defeated

Bill Page, Muskegon freshman, who worked on the mound in the first game, was defeated in the ninth inning when with two out and a man on second, the following batter singled scoring the man on base.

Keith Steffee, Sturgis junior, repeated his pitching performance of the six to two game with Wayne university, and shut out the Buckeyes three to nothing.

Helping on the editorial staff of August's college issue of "Mademoiselle" magazine will be Rosemary Howland, senior from Detroit. Miss Howland earned this distinction after two years' work on the college board for the magazine.

To be one of the lucky 14 women chosen for the staff, a college woman must work on trial assignments throughout the year. These assignments may include short stories, articles, criticisms or copy writing. Appointments are based on grades earned on these assignments.

Miss Howland will leave for New York city in June to start work on the college issue under the direction of the regular magazine staff. With the other 14 women she will decide what styles will be shown for next year's freshmen.

On campus she is a journalism major, a member of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary, and a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Billy Moore is National AAU champion, and came in first in the Drake relays. Roy Gunderson of State was second in the event with his vault of 12 feet.

State Loses 100-yd. Dash

Both Michigan State and Western Michigan scored in 14 of the 15 events. Western Michigan failed to score only in the shot put, while Michigan State failed to score in the 100 yard dash.

Wayne university took third with 26 points. Alma had seven and one half. Central Michigan three, and Albion two and one half. Hillsdale's three entries were blanked. This is the Bronco's third winning of the classic, and the first win since 1930.

Department Plans Earlier Time for Speech Banquet

The time of the fifth annual speech banquet, which will be given Friday evening, May 25, in the Union ballroom, has been changed from 6:30 to 6 p.m., according to Sue Averill, Birmingham junior, and general chairman of the affair. Regardless of the time printed on tickets and stated in previous publicity, the banquet will begin at 6 p.m.

Miss Averill stressed the fact that the banquet is to be open to the entire campus, and that tickets are now available at the Union desk, speech office, and dormitory desks, as well as from ticket committee members.

The speech banquet climaxes the year's activities for the department, and at that time the annual awards will be made to students outstanding in radio, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and poetry and prose reading. In addition to that, a special program of entertainment is being planned under the direction of Lois Banzet, East Lansing junior.

Radio Workshop Play Centers Around Life For College Co-eds

"But wait 'til you see Glenna," a short story by Gladys Taber, adapted for radio by Maxine Eyestone, Lansing senior, will be presented on the MSC Radio Workshop today at 4:30 p.m. over WKAR.

It is the story of a beautiful and glamorous college co-ed who constantly tries to secure dates for her unattractive roommate.

Directed by Shirley Caswell, East Lansing junior, this play will be presented by a cast consisting of Joan Carter, Kalamazoo junior; Lois Banzet, East Lansing junior; Dick Henderson, Detroit sophomore; Bob Kamins, Lansing senior; Dave Lang, Port Huron special student; Floramae Fisher, Detroit junior; and Leah Jane Tuttle, East Lansing graduate student.

Sound effects for the production will be under the direction of Miss Fisher while Miss Tuttle is in charge of the music.

Graduate Will Read 'Black Boy' Today

Richard Wright's book, "Black Boy" will be read by James Harvey, graduate assistant in the speech department, this afternoon at 4, room 49, College auditorium, on the Reading Hour.

"Black Boy" is the story of Negroes living in Chicago written by the author of "Native Son."

Harvey came to State after several successful years in Davison to complete work on his master's degree. At present he is enrolled in an interpretive reading seminar course from Morrice Compere, director of the Reading hour.

'Friendly Enemy' Policy Rebuked By Eisenhower

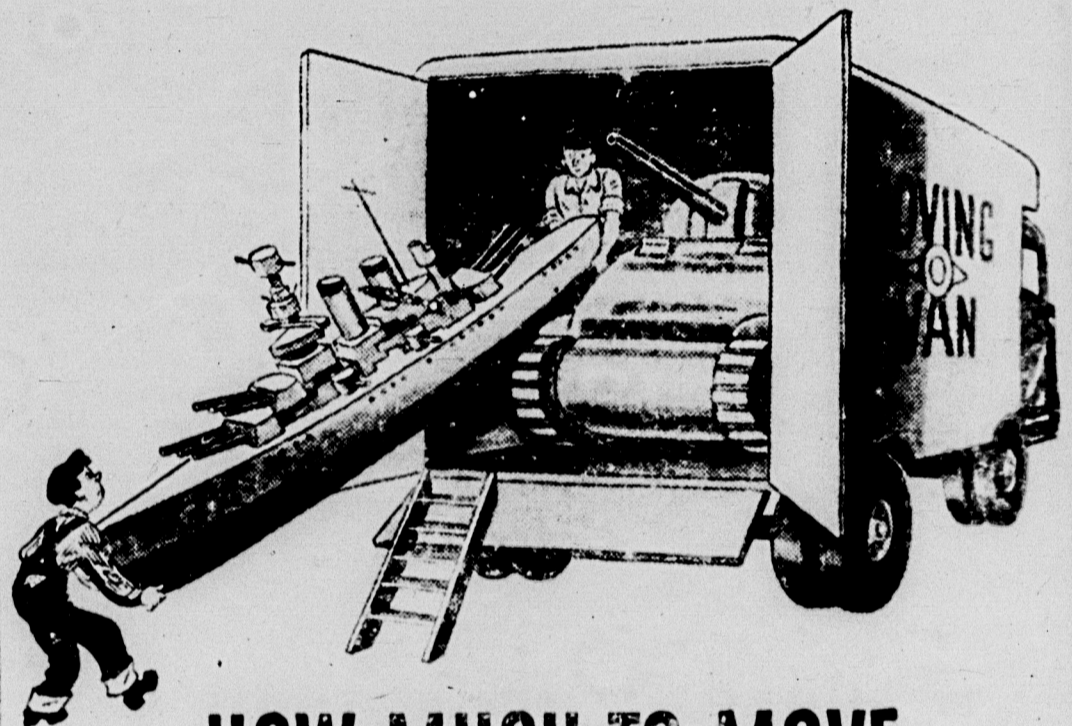

LONDON, May 14.—Eisenhower cracked sharply on senior American officers for their reports on the treatment of high German prisoners today after the press expressed hot anger at the "sheer impudence" of Nazi leaders and German officers since Germany's fall.

"We have got to be very careful, they are very careful, they are getting away with it again," Eisenhower said.

"My attention has been set to press reports of a senior United States officer treating captured Nazi German officials on a 'friendly enemy' basis. Any such has been in direct violation of my express and long standing orders."

"Drastic measures are set in motion to assure that these errors are not repeated."

"Moreover," Eisenhower continued, "any past actions of this nature are by no means indicative of the attitude of the army, but are the result of judgment of individuals who will be promptly and definitely disapproved."

HOW MUCH TO MOVE A WAR?

AS soon as we can, we'll bring to bear on the Japs all the additional might we've been using against Germany.

What will it cost, this Moving Day of War?

Estimate it in these terms: The job of moving millions of men from one front to another. Thousands of ships to carry the supplies of battle. Swarms of new-type aircraft to blast the path into enemy territory.

You can get an idea of the cost from the fact that Uncle Sam needs 7 billions from us in the mighty Seventh War Loan—now!

The Seventh War Loan will call for the greatest bond-buying we have ever done.

If you have an income—whether from work, land, or capital—you have a quota in the 7th War Loan. Be sure to make it!
