Okinawa Dead Passes 20,000, Nimitz States

Japanese Casualty Ratio Exceeds American By About 11 to 1

GUAM, May 17 (AP) — American casualties on fiercely contested Okinawa island total 20,950 through Monday. Japanese casualties through Tuesday were 47,543.

The ratio of Japanese killed to American slain remained about 11 to 1, with Japanese dead reported by Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz as 46,505 and American troops killed as 3,781. The Yanks captured 1,038 enemy troops.

These were the American casualties: Killed—2,771 soldiers; 1,010 marines; wounded—11,675 soldiers; 5,329 marines; missing—129 soldiers; 36 marines.

These figures were evidence of the fierceness of the fighting on the southern Okinawa line the past week, where doughboys and leathernecks are fighting desperately to smash the "little Siegfried line."

Fighting for Naha and Shuri, considered the key to cracking the Naha-Shuri-Yonabaru line extending four miles across a waist of the island, cost the American 1,097 killed in the past week alone. Total casualties for the week were 4,425.

Thus, in that seven days from May 7 to May 14, American dead were a far greater proportion of total casualties than for the full Okinawa campaign, now in its 47th day.

FAR ENOUGH

Daily Drizzle Drives Red Cedar River On Annual Rampage

There may have been a song "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More," but that number will never make the Spartan hit parade, for any good MSCer knows that along with the no-smoking tradition on campus, there will always also be the tradition of the rise of the Red Cedar.

According to the weather bureau the light occasional showers of 1/2 to 2 inches rain a day has saturated the soil to such an extent that there has been a tremendous overflow into the Red Cedar and the river has risen above ceiling inches to the total of 8 1/2 feet in East Lansing.

At Williamston-on-the-Red-Cedar, the river rose 6 feet in 30 hours and yesterday was at the point of overflowing. At Lansing the river is doing nicely at 9 1/2 foot level.

However, there is no cause for alarm, and no necessity for energetic students to make a little money on the side renting row boats for the weather bureau predicts that the peak has just about been reached. However, the Red Cedar will have to swell some to reach its All-American average of 12 feet which it held on March 15, 1918.

Hawaii will be represented by Maxine Akana, a professional dancer from Bay City. Connie Huddy and Paul Webber will sing a duet which represents India. Mrs. Fred Huddy will be their accompanist.

China will appear on the program in the form of Hung-Yun Kuo who will sing songs from China and Herman Yuch who will play the erhu. Both are from the University of Michigan. Oriental dances will be performed by Eugenia Libby.

Russia will be represented by a Chi Omega chorus consisting of Doris Diedrick, soloist, Dorothy Langley, Betty Card, Pat Barr, June Allen and Betty Lou Ruhling. Barbara Quayle will accompany them.

Freshmen on the general council are Bill Page, N. Muskegon; Nancy Wixon, Ferndale; Sue Littlefield, Eaton Rapids; John Osmer, Grand Rapids; Barbara Rice, Buffalo, N. Y.; Barbara Stover, Grosse Pointe, and Alice Springborg, Lansing.

The sophomores on the list are Joanne Frost, Oosso; Marjorie Kreher, Kenmore, N. Y.; Polly Monroe, East Lansing; and Ken Willoughby, Lansing.

The four remaining members are juniors. They are Lucille Albert, Ironwood; Anne Cowan, Detroit; Margaret Howard, Flint; and Ruth Kottel, Kalamazoo.

Two Plays Scheduled For Studio Theater Performance

Studio theater will present two one-act plays this evening at 7:15 in room 49, College auditorium.

Summer Jobs Open

Several part or full time summer jobs are available for art students with a knowledge of mechanical drawing in Ferndale, Mich.; for mathematics students with the Jam Handy Company of Detroit; and as timekeepers with the Pere Marquette Railroad Co. Students interested in any of these jobs should call the placement office, according to Tom King, director of the placement bureau.

The so-called German government of Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz was declared officially to be only a temporary stop-gap, fully controlled by the Allies while it fulfills a useful purpose.

A supreme headquarters statement said Doenitz—and certain other selected German officers—were being used only temporarily as an instrument for facilitating the surrender and disarmament of German forces and were acting under complete Allied control.

The formal statement made clear that there was no thought of recognizing Doenitz and his "Flensburg group" as a German government. So far as the Allies are concerned, Count Ludwig Schwern von Krosigk does not exist as Doenitz' foreign minister.

Germans to Govern Selves

In London Prime Minister Churchill told Commons that it was the Allied aim that the Germans should administer their country in obedience to Allied directions. The British leader added that "we have no intention of undertaking the burden of administering Germany ourselves."

Ambassador Robert Murphy, political adviser to Eisenhower, amplified the statement with the pointed observation that Count von Krosigk did not exist officially.

Krosigk a Fraud

He said that a broadcast by von Krosigk last week was wholly unauthorized and was made before the Allies seized the radio station over which several of the Doenitz group had addressed the German people. Murphy said there would be no repetition of such propaganda.

General Clay, General Eisenhower's deputy for the occupation of Germany and the main speaker at a long and heated press conference, mapping out the treatment in store for Germany, made it plain that his part of the occupation was going to be strictly military and strictly severe.

Religious Convo

A religious convocation sponsored by the Interfaith Council will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Spartan Room of the Union building. A representative from the Jewish, Catholic and Protestant faiths will be present to discuss their respective religion. Time will be allotted in the program for a question period.

Spartans At War

By BONNIE ESSERT

LT. BILL BARCLAY, '43
LT. ART UNDERWOOD, '43 . . .
recently met somewhere in Germany, and no doubt made that somewhere an historic spot—to them at any rate. While on campus both put their heads together for the State News, Bill being assistant editor and Art, advertising manager.

CAPT. ROBERT SMELTZER, '40
Apologies to this infantry captain for the lack of activity in the State News office when he dropped in last Saturday afternoon. There will probably be radical reforms if Captain Smeltzer should ever decide to work on the News again, for army life has given him a slight "stick to grind" slant. The note he left in the office after finding no one here informed the staff, "We work on Saturdays in the army—why not you?"

LT. DONALD W. POWELL . . .
recently flew his 35th combat mission as a navigator in the 2nd bomb group of the 15th air force in Italy. He has been awarded the air medal with three oak leaf clusters and the European-African and Middle Eastern theater of operations campaign ribbon with three campaign stars.

Lieutenant Powell, is a former major letter winner for orchestra activities at State.

LT. JOHN KOBBS, '45 . . .
recently maneuvered through well known stamping grounds at State while on furlough from the air force. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

LT. HARRY J. TYNDALE . . .
Even in Germany, where things are hardly normal, haystacks seldom are found parked across railroad tracks, so Lieutenant Tyndale swooped low in his P-38 Lightning to investigate. Close inspection showed it was an elaborately camouflaged locomotive. Tyndale brought his 50-calibre machine guns and 20-millimeter cannon into play to destroy his third locomotive for the day—and his first mobile haystack.

ENS. DEWEY E. BUCHER, '46 . . .
reported to the naval training station in Norfolk, Virginia, on April 9 for a course of instruction for duties aboard a destroyer of the Atlantic fleet.

LT. COL. FRANKLIN H. MACNAUGHTON, '38 has been assigned to a fast P-38 Lightning fighter unit of the 15th AAF in Italy. Since entering combat in North Africa, his unit has downed more than 550 enemy aircraft and destroyed an additional 180 on the ground.

Memorial services will be held for Pvt. Gilbert C. Stouterberg, 20, of the marine corps, Sunday at 4 p.m. at Peoples church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert N. Stouterberg, 409 South Walnut street, Lansing. Private Stouterberg, who has been missing in action at Tarawa since November 15, 1943, has been officially declared dead. Previous to being reported missing he was said to have been wounded. He was graduated from Sexton high school in January, 1943.

Home Ec Banquet Scheduled For This Evening

LETTERS

To the Editor

TO the Students:
I went to a recent Student council meeting to present a situation for consideration. There were exactly three of the 16 members present. I don't know whether we are just poorly represented in what should be our government of this college we are paying to attend or whether you, as students do not back your representatives, but I do know this:

Peace is in sight and there are a lot of fellows coming back to MSC that know what they want because they fought and many died (don't treat that word too lightly just because you have heard it a lot) for what they believed. If you are not interested in a student government (but I think you are) you at least owe it to them to support a body that will represent them to the faculty. I am sure the poor overworked faculty will welcome suggestions and policies you want to establish because after all it is your education.

Let's get back to that Student council representative and if there is too much organization on this campus for the common good of students, then let's, as a body of students, abolish some of it to where we can be heard and the faculty relieved of some of their headaches and our problems.

JOE DAVIDSON.

outhpaw slants of Frank Jeric, discharged war veteran.

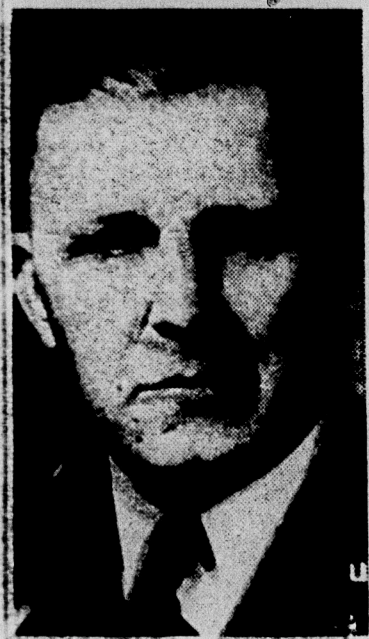

The Kobsmen split their two game series with the Bockeyes last week, losing the first game two to nothing in the twelfth inning, and winning the second three to nothing. The Spartans' record to date is five victories in eight starts, losing a pair to Indiana.

Ohio's coach plans to send Jeric against the Spartans in Friday's opener followed by Mark Wiebe on Saturday. When not pitching, Jeric and Wylie alternate first base and are two of the Bobcats' most reliable hitters.

Michigan State's Coach John Kobs plans to send either Darrell Couey or Bill Page to the mound in the first game and Keith Steffee in the second. Page was on the mound in the Ohio State defeat while Steffee pitched the shutout victory for his second triumph of the season.

Nick Gregory's five hits collected in the trip to Columbus led the Chicago second baseman as the Spartan's leading batter. His record shows eight hits in 24 times at the plate for a .363 percentage. First baseman Jack Breslin and short stop Martie Hansen are hitting for a .310 clip with nine hits in 29 appearances each. Two of Breslin's hits are home runs.

Maj. Gen. WILLIAM E. Kepner is taking command of the U.S. eighth air force, succeeding Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, who is relinquishing the command to return to Washington for a "new assignment."

Spartan Golfers Lose to Wayne On Wet Course

Michigan State was handed its second defeat by a strong Tartar team from Wayne university. Played in a drenching rain the Spartans dropped the match by a score of 11½ to 6¼.

Last May 4 the Spartans lost a similar match in Detroit to the Tartars by a score of 15½ to 5½.

It was raining so hard that special ground rules had to be enforced, and one player had to change his clothes three times.

Stan Setera, Wayne medalist ace, drew an 81 to defeat Stu Helliwell, Royal Oak sophomore who had a 94. Joe Murphy, Lansing freshman, shot a 97 to defeat Dick Roger of Wayne with 102. Bob Backus, Fenton freshman, made a 93 to defeat Malcolm Graham of Wayne who shot a 96. Leslie Lamak of Wayne went the rounds in 93 to beat Paul Cline, Owasco sophomore with 100.

Saturday the linksmen will meet the Titans of the University of Detroit on Walnut Hills in a return match. In the last match U. of D. defeated the Spartans 8½ to 5½ and with the improvement that has been shown they are given the edge over the Titans.

CSCAA to Announce All-American Team

Charles McCaffree, Jr., Michigan State's swimming coach, disclosed today that there would be an announcement made in the near future naming the All-American college swimming team of the College Swimming Coaches' Association of America.

It marks the first time the association has selected an All-American team, McCaffree said.

WPB Revokes Ban On 1,200 Items For Civilian Use

WASHINGTON, May 16 (AP)—WPB today revoked its controls on an array of civilian products ranging from golf clubs and juke boxes to house trailers, but gave manufacturers no relief to make them.

One sweeping action expurged controls on 1,200 of the commonest civilian items, while the juke box revocation also released pinball machines, coin-operated amusement devices and the so-called "one-armed bandits"—slot machines for gaming.

The war production board simultaneously predicted manufacture of 200,000 passenger cars late this year with output rising to 400,000 in the first three months of 1946 and reaching an annual rate of 2,000,000.

The automobile industry advisory committee, meeting here today, recommended the 200,000 figure for this year and Henry P. Nelson, coordinator of reconversion for the industry, said it looked like "a pretty good approach."

The omnibus order dropped from the WPB books has been a keystone of its controls for almost exactly three years. It forbade the use of iron and steel.

SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By BILL LAMBRIGHT

Dick Mineweaser, known to his teammates as Durable Dick, steps into the spotlight this issue. When you watch a State game and hear chatter on third base it will be Dick riding the opposing team. Mineweaser is the fourth batter for the Kobsmen, better known as clean-up man.

Dick is a Pontiac sophomore from St. Michaels high school, the first man from that high school to win a college letter. Mineweaser was on the all-city Catholic league team in Detroit, and played two years on the General Motors yellow bus team in the city league in 1943 and 1944.

Both years they won the city championship. In Pontiac, Dick was the director of the C and D league teams for the junior division.

In 1942 Dick won his numerals playing left end on the freshman team, and last year he won his first varsity letter at the left end position. Dick likes football and in high school he made the all-city Detroit Catholic league team.

Dick is a pre-medical student and a pledge to the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He also belongs to the Speakers Bureau of Michigan State college.

Nazis' Atrocities In Prison Camps Told By Bingay

DETROIT, May 16 (AP)—Malcolm M. Bingay, editorial director of the Detroit Free Press declared here today that "the same elements may be found in America that have made a hell out of once-prosperous Germany."

One of 18 American editors who recently returned from an army-sponsored trip to Europe, Bingay described to members of the economic club of Detroit the atrocity camps the group visited at Buchenwald and Dachau.

"There could be no exaggeration of reports of the atrocities," he said. "The suffering, the agony, the sickness, the death by beatings, by hanging, in the gas chambers—the coldly-calculated brutality, the enslavement of innocent peoples, defy description."

"Civilization's bulwarks must have been crumbling," he added, "or no such gang as this at Munich could have gotten so far with it."

Conference Delegates Work on Propositions

Delegates Make Progress on Issue Of Established Trusteeships

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16 (AP)—A United Nations' conference committee voted today to stand pat on a big-power plan for enforcing peace through a compact security council of 11 member nations.

In the process, it hammered down in rapid-fire order a host of small and middle-power proposals for more authority for themselves in this all-powerful agency of a proposed world organization.

But as the conference entered its fourth week, big and little countries were in substantial accord on most points, and the American delegation decided it was time to press for a speedy wind-up of the job of drafting a world charter.

Some progress was achieved on the biggest issue still before the conference — trusteeships — although whatever is decided about establishing guardianships for dependent or strategic areas of the world may turn out to be somewhat meaningless in individual cases.

The reason is that under present plans a country having a mandate left over from the last at the peace table after this war, or one assigned a mandate world conflict, would have the right to say whether the area should be brought under supervision of a new league.

Nevertheless, a conference committee accepted, as something on which it could go to work, an American-drafted combination of all the trusteeship ideas of the big five—France, Britain, China, Russia and the United States.

Any country, including the big five, can propose changes in it. The trusteeship system would be pegged to four fundamental points: (1) maintenance of interference of the security of the international security; (2) maintaining country; (3) social, economic and political advancement of the native populations; (4) safeguarding of the area's natural resources.

As a result of action in another committee, the composition of the security council will be what the four countries sponsoring the conference have recommended.

Navy Reveals Submarine Plot By Japs

Operations in Atlantic In Attempt to Join Germans Disclosed

WASHINGTON, May 16 (AP)—A disclosure that Japanese submarines have been operating in the Atlantic came from the navy today.

Admiral Jonas H. Ingram, commanding the Atlantic fleet, told a news conference in unfolding some of the long-held secrets of the "battle of the Atlantic" that American craft had sunk one Japanese submarine late last summer just south of Iceland.

He said it was identified by flotsam which rose to the surface after its destruction.

This was the first word that Nipponese undersea raiders had joined—or attempted to join—German U-boats in harrassing Allied shipping in the Atlantic.

A giant 1600-ton German submarine carrying three German Luftwaffe officers and aviation plans and equipment headed for Japan surrendered Sunday in the Atlantic.

Admiral Ingram revealed the U-boat's surrender today in line with a general lifting of the secrecy which has surrounded the battle of the Atlantic against submarines since the start of the war.

He told a news conference that from the time of our entry into the war "we know definitely that we sank 126 U-boats, most of them far from our shore."

Including those sunk by the British fleet, he said, the total German U-boat losses exceeded 500.

Berchtesgaden Falls to Yanks

An American soldier stands at the huge window of Adolf Hitler's main living room in his home at Berchtesgaden. The window provided a view of the Bavarian Alps in the background at the time that Hitler was king of all he surveyed. The room is now in ruins after SS troops set it on fire in a last minute action before the arrival of the Yanks.
