... Black Magic

And then there is the poor GI who saw too much black before his eyes and wrote his MSC co-ed that black lace unmentionables would be the order of the doughboy day when they were wed. The girl countered with a neat little package and a note, "This is the first of my collection." Enclosed were a pair of black gym boomers."

... Silent Appreciation

In his foreign studies class, Dr. Carlos Teran gave Martha Kelly, Kalamazoo senior, a poem to read to the class. After an expectant pause, Teran repeated his request. "Oh," breathed Miss Kelly, "I thought I was to read it to myself."

Billion Mark Reached In War Bond Sales

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Treasury Secretary Morgenthau said today "the American people have taken V-E day in their stride."

Fears that the people as a whole might decide the V-E meant the war was about won have proved to be groundless," the secretary said in a statement.

He based this on word he said he received from war finance committee chairmen throughout the country who have reported not only on results in the 7th war loan drive but also on the people's general attitude toward the war effort.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Seniors to Sign Up For Annual Picnic Today — 9 a.m.—5 p.m.

All senior wishing to attend the class picnic on Wednesday, June 6, must sign up today and tomorrow at a desk in the lower lounge of the Union. Those who signed previously must do so again because of a mixup in senior class finances, according to co-chairman Shirley Logan, Detroit.

A charge of 55 cents will be made for the picnic and will cover the cost of a box lunch and a coke to be given to each person attending. The event will be held at Pinetum and will feature a variety show, community singing, and bonfires, Miss Logan added.

Today is the day for seniors to wear caps and gowns to classes and it will be the last Wednesday to observe the tradition, as classes will not meet next Wednesday which is Memorial day. Mac Cropsey, senior class president, announced.

Any senior who ordered name cards may pick them up today from 2 to 5 p.m. in the lower lounge of the Union, Cropsey added.

Prof's Emmons, Lee To Represent MSC At Conference

A conference on education of foreign students is being held in the Union today from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. under the auspices of the Department of Public Instruction.

Representatives from Michigan colleges, universities, industry, and other agencies will be present. Attendance has been limited to 30 members to encourage the maximum amount of participation of all.

Dean Lloyd C. Emmons, School of Science and Arts, Dr. S. C. Lee, professor in the Institute of foreign studies, and Arthur J. Clark, professor of chemistry, will represent Michigan State.

As chairman, Emmons will open the meeting and introduce Dr. E. C. Elliott, superintendent of public instruction, who will talk on the "Importance of Education of Foreign Students."

During the luncheon, Malcolm Bingay of the Detroit Free Press will give his observation made during his recent trip to Europe. In the afternoon, Miss Sarah E. Grollman and Dr. Esson M. Gale, both from the International Center of the University of Michigan, will lecture.

The participants have chosen topics to discuss during the conference, and some of the more important ones are finance, legal problems, and the teaching of English to those with language difficulties.

Summer Schedules Ready

Summer school schedules of courses are now available in the registrar's office or the dean of students' office. Students who plan to attend the summer session should pick up the schedules as they will not be in the registration envelopes, according to Kermit Smith, assistant registrar.

Britain, U. S. Fight to Keep Pacific Isles

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22 (AP)—With Britain and the United States leading the fight, a proposal which would have placed some strategic Pacific islands automatically under the international rule in a new world organization, was blocked today at the United Nations conference.

Turned down in a committee considering trusteeships for dependent and strategic areas of the world, was an Egyptian amendment which would have placed mandates from the last world war under supervision of a new league.

Would Include Marshalls

That would have covered such islands as the Marshalls, Marianas and Carolines, mandated to Japan after the last conflict and snatched from her in this one at the cost of American lives and blood.

The United States, above all else in a trusteeship system, wants to make sure that she can control Pacific bases which the army and navy consider vital to the maintenance of peace in the Pacific.

Stassen Argues for U.S.

The Egyptian amendment, which got only six affirmative votes, would have upset the whole trusteeship theory which the committee has been considering—that areas should be placed under jurisdiction of the world organization only by consent of the powers possessing the mandated territories.

Lee Will Act as Guest Speaker at Banquet

Acting as a guest speaker, Dr. S. C. Lee, professor in the Institute of foreign studies, will accompany Glen O. Stewart, director of alumni relations, to a MSC alumni banquet being held in Midland tonight.

In view of the fact that more Chinese students are coming to study in Michigan next year, Lee's subject will be "Sino-American cooperation and economic development in post-war China."

Bidu Sayao Scheduled for Concert Program Tonight

As the last number of the current lecture-concert series, Bidu Sayao, Brazilian coloratura soprano of the Metropolitan opera association, will appear at College auditorium at 8:15 tonight. Dean S. E. Crowe, chairman of the lecture-concert, world adventure series committee, announced.

Miss Sayao first won fame in her native country Brazil and in Europe where she sang at the Paris Opera Comique, the Rome Royal Opera and Milan's La Scala. Toscanini introduced her to New York as his soloist in Debussy's "Blessed Damosel."

After gaining wide acclaim for her performance with the Philharmonic Symphony in 1936, Miss Sayao joined the present company with which she is affiliated.

Among Miss Sayo's numbers will be "Violetta" by Scariatti, "Ah, fors e lui" from "Traviata" by Verdi and "Chanson Triste" by Duparo.

Publications Row To Honor Staffs

Members of the three MSC student publications will meet tonight at 6 in the main dining room of the Union for their annual publications banquet. Awards for service on the State News, Wolverine and MSC Veterinarian will be made by advisers to the respective groups.

Introduction will be made of new staff heads after which they will in turn announce members of their organizations for the following year. Invitations for the affair have been sent to Pres. and Mrs. John A. Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wilkins, Dean and Mrs. L. C. Emmons, Dr. and Mrs. Fred T. Mitchell, Mrs. Isabelle Gonon, and Col. and Mrs. Dorsey Rodney.

Others invited were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Alleman, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Chapman, and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Cairy.

Approximately 85 persons are expected to attend. Vaudeville acts and an "Ode to Publications" will comprise the entertainment.

Art Honorary Pledges

Beta Alpha Sigma, art honorary pledged eight new members to its organization Monday night. Dorothy and Doris Renz, East Lansing sophomores; Lynn Lyle, Birmingham sophomore; Joan Morgan, East Lansing junior; Betty Behrens, Dearborn sophomore; Marge Johnson, Saginaw junior; Helen Gower, East Lansing junior, and Billie Smith, Lincoln Park sophomore, were women chosen.

Spring term officers are Lucille Albert, Ironwood junior, president; Jean Phillips, Detroit junior, vice-president; Mary Clark, Grand Rapids junior, secretary; Mary Alice Kingsbury, East Lansing junior, treasurer; Elaine Blasius, Highland Park sophomore, publicity chairman.

"If the weather doesn't impede us I think we will break the Jap resistance soon," said Maj. Gen. Roy Geiger, commander of the third amphibious marine corps' sixth and first divisions at the front.

The Yanks will "capture this island in the comparatively near future," said Vice Adm. Richmond K. Turner, commander of naval forces around the island.

Island Is Air Base Already

Turner said Okinawa, three-fourths in American hands, already is a base for aerial attacks on southern Japan, only 325 miles to the north, and on Formosa and enemy air bases in the Ryukyus.

The American drive along the sulphuric four-mile southern Okinawa battleline put the Yanks closer to Shuri town and castle, central key to the Japanese defense, while advances were made Monday on both flanks, headquarters said yesterday.

Thirty-five Japanese planes dived in for low level attacks on American ships off Okinawa on Sunday evening, damaging five light U. S. units. Only nine of the Nipponese aircraft escaped destruction.

500-Men Counterattack

A furious 500-man Japanese counterattack Sunday night on Sugar Loaf hill, west coast height on the Okinawa line, was turned back by sixth division marines who had secured the crest after 11 bloody attacks.

Then the leathernecks pushed 200 yards south of Sugar Loaf Monday, winning a limestone ridge on their right flank to dominate the Asato river, which flows through Naha, Okinawa capital city, front reports said.

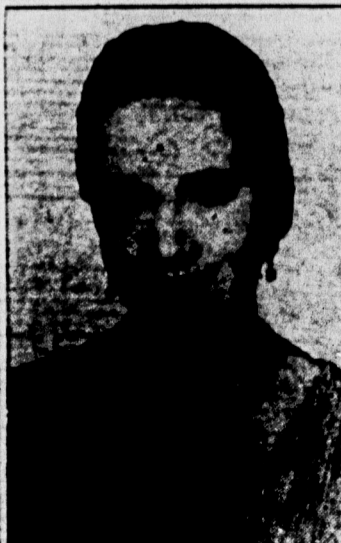

Another marine surge in this area took the devildogs to the crest of Half Moon hill, but Japanese command of a nearby height kept the Americans from cleaning up the reverse slopes of the hill.

Japs Wear U.S. Uniforms

Some of the Japanese in the charge up Sugar Loaf hill wore American marine uniforms and carried U. S. weapons. The enemy left 200 dead on the hillside. Marine losses also were heavy.

On one slope were the bodies of 30 marines and 15 Japanese, and Pfc. Paul R. Hunter, Lake Worth, Fla., commented: "That's the first time I've ever seen a hill with more marine bodies than Jap bodies."

While the Japanese resistance remained bitter and they continued to throw forward their reckless charges in attempts to hold or retrieve hill positions, Admiral Turner said the enemy's courage was "the courage of desperation."

In Campus Quarters

By DOTTIE LA MONT and NAN TRABUE

THERE'S nothing like a crystal ball to solve all difficulties, and what could be better than to have a preview of some of these pre-exam tests that the profs are so wild about. Such fortune telling isn't to be had and anyway no one ever believes in anything they say.

Anything but a prediction is the marriage of Rosemary de-Beaubien, Alpha Chi, who left for Quantic last weekend to be married today to Lt. Jim Jackson, marine corps. The ceremony is to follow his graduation exercises. Travelling to the same destination is sorority sister Jane Walcott, who is in the wedding party.

These returned vets back from various parts of the service are not wasting any time, some of them getting back to the books and some placing their long awaited priorities on the coeds. A shining example is Gus Lanier, returned from air corps service, who has followed suit on both of these pretty good ideas. Ann Hess, Hammond, Ind., freshman, is wearing a ring and anxiously awaiting his return to school.

More of the same is what Elaine Smith, Delta Zeta pledge is telling friends who has the evidence on her third-finger-left-hand. The token of engagement is from Jerry Keyworth who is back to stay after service in Italy.

There are a certain triumphant three over at the ATO house that came through with the necessary point averages and now are pledges no more. Those proudly displaying their active pins are Jerry Cole, East Lansing sophomore; Keith Steffe, Sturgis sophomore, and Ben Hudenko, Wyandotte junior.

If you'll look carefully next time you see Dorothy Jo Bailey, Romeo junior; Tay Yager, Detroit junior, and Mary Kyte, Coldwater freshman, you'll notice a new Kappa key on each of their sweaters. They have been owners of these pins since Saturday when initiation took place.

It seems as though a couple of house parties were on the docket this past weekend. For instance, many of the Thetas trekked out to Burg Poag's farm near Saginaw for a bit of the country life. Everyone had the time of their lives barn-dancing, milking cows (honest!), and riding tractors.

Chi O Rusty Graff helped several co-eds to have one of the best times of their lives in the same weekend. It seems as though she also has a farm, hers being near Romeo; and there weiner roasts, horse-back riding, and a bit of swimming for the brave ones were the order of the day.

State Will Meet Tartars Saturday

Coach Kobs Changes Lineup As Result of Gregory's Injury

Coach John Kobs will send the Spartan nine against the Tartars of Wayne university on the college diamond at 4:10 p.m. Saturday. If the varsity field is not in good enough condition, the game will be played on Scyamore field, Lansing. With a drying wind blowing across the field, Kobs hopes that the field will be ready.

There will be several changes in the Spartan line-up as a result of Nick Gregory's injury. In the first game of Saturday's double-header, Gregory's thumb was broken when he tried to make a put-out at second base. Vanar Kostegian, second string third baseman, will take over third base, while either Dick Mineweaser or Nick Loulakis will be placed on third.

Couey to Pitch

Darrell Couey will be the starting pitcher, and Bill Page will be held in reserve in case of trouble. This leaves Keith Steffee and Norman McCormick for the two game series with the University of Detroit this weekend.

Spartans to Play 7 More

Having split their two game series with Indiana, 11-4, 8-7, the Spartans have seven more games remaining in their season. One of these will be played for the benefit of the veterans at Percy Jones hospital at Camp Custer on June 4.

The game may be moved to Scyamore field because of the condition of the college diamond. Scyamore is located on South Pennsylvania avenue, to the left of Michigan avenue.

Men Over 30 Will Be Deferred From Draft

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—A definite blanket deferment of men 30 and over who remain in "useful" jobs was ordered today by selective service.

This liberalized policy, effective at once, results from the narrowing of the war to one front. Draft Director Lewis B. Hershey announced at a news conference.

He disclosed that the draft call will be cut about 25 per cent to 90,000 men a month beginning in July.

SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By BILL LAMBRIGHT

THE spotlight shines on Bob Price, captain of the Spartan track team. Price paces the distant runners for the team. At the State Intercollegiate Track meet he took first place in the two mile and second in the mile run. In the spring of 1944 he won his numerals on the track team. Bob was fourth in the two mile run in the National Collegiate Athletic Association meet held in Milwaukee.

Price won his numerals on the cross country team in the fall of 1943 and last season came in seventh in the National Collegiate Athletic Association cross country run.

In high school Bob played football and basketball, too, but his outstanding sport was track. He ran the half mile in high school and in his sophomore year was runner-up in the State meet. Then two years in a row he took first in the state high school meet.

Bob participates in many other activities around the campus. He is a member of the varsity club, treasurer of Delta Chi fraternity and also represents the Delta Chis on the Inter-Fraternity council. Bob is the arts and science representative to the student council.

Home Ec Department Starts Newspaper

Plans to publish a newspaper next fall for the Home Economics department are now under way. The paper, which will be mimeographed, although future printing may be possible, will contain information about the Home Economics club and departmental news, as well as feature articles.

Social Calendar Lists Parties, Saturday International Show

Although world news must be keeping everyone busy, the weekend's social events will demand some time out. One bright spot of the week is the Publications banquet. Slated for this evening, the main dining room of the Union at 6.

BIG SISTERS

Plans for Big Sister activities for next fall are already underway and will include dormitory parties, a Dean's tea, and the annual candlelight ceremony.

Two training meetings for these girls will be scheduled this term. The first will be held on Thursday, May 31, in the Music auditorium. Mrs. Isabelle Gonon, counselor for women, will speak on the responsibility of a Big Sister, according to Miss Satterly.

Doug Hird, Farmington junior, will be master of ceremonies. Awards and announcements of new staff members for the State News, Wolverine, and MSC Veterinarian will be made at this annual affair. Approximately 85 persons are expected to attend the dinner.

The final senior dance will be held tonight in the Union ballroom from 8:30 to 11:30. Patrons will be Prof. and Mrs. Stuart Gallacher and Prof. and Mrs. Gordon Dahlgren.

The Lutheran Student Club will honor seniors at a banquet Thursday evening at 6:15 in the Blue Room of Hunt's Food Shop. A testimonial dinner for the student members of the chorus is being planned at the same time. Other guests include Prof. and Mrs. Byron Good, Dr. J. Erey and Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Young.

Friday Student club is having a "Graduate Goodbye" party from 8:30 to 11 p.m. The group will play host to their patrons, Prof. and Mrs. Walter Reeding, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards and guests.

Spartan Netmen To Face Tartars At Wayne Game

The Spartan net-men face a heavy schedule this week, weather permitting. Today Charlie Ball's tennis squad will meet the Tartars of Wayne on their home courts. This is the Spartans' third attempt to meet Wayne this season, having previously been rained out. The Tartars have chalked up one victory from University of Detroit.

Thursday the net squad moves over on the courts of University of Detroit for their second meet of the week. The Titans have also been handicapped by the weather, having had two of their scheduled meets rained off although they did have the opportunity to rally with Wayne.

In the present line up for State Coach Ball announced that Harvey Hunyday, Grosse Pointe junior, will play the number one position; Dick Young, Rockford freshman, taking second position; John McGrath, Pontiac freshman, manning third place; Ben Porter, Grand Rapids sophomore, in fourth position, while Bill Coleman, Grand Rapids senior, Bob Ballard, Pontiac sophomore, and Willy Drudge, Detroit freshman, will take the fifth, sixth and seventh spots.

Stated for pairs in doubles are Harvey Hunyday and Dick Young in the number one position; Ben Porter and Bill Coleman in the number two spot; while John McGrath and Bob Ballard will man the number three spot. Both matches will consist of six sets of singles and three of doubles. Last week the Spartans were victorious over U. of D., winning by a score of 5-1.

"INFORMATION" is doing a war-job too

...and she needs your help!

Three out of every five calls to Information are for numbers listed in the telephone directory.

That means that close to 1,000 hours of operator and switchboard time are used up daily in Michigan answering needless calls. That precious time still cannot be spared on the war-busy telephone system.

HERE'S HOW YOU COLLEGE MEN AND WOMEN CAN HELP

1. Please look in the directory for the number you want.
2. If it is not listed, and you MUST call Information, jot it down so it will be handy next time.
