Today's Campus

Who Can Tell?

It wasn't Tommy at all! Yesterday's State News printed in Today's Campus that according to reports from various reliable sources Tom Harmon was seen on campus. Later that same day, however, a mysterious voice over the phone informed us that it wasn't Tommy at all but Lt. Col. Nick Novosel, who graduated from State in 1940, and that he returned to campus to review old familiar sights after being liberated from a German hospital. The voice said his friend Nick, who was mistaken for Harmon, looks identical to the football player.

What's Buzzin'

Loving cup for the most "imaginative coeds of '45" should without a question go to two little black garbed French enthusiasts, who at the French club, Le Tricolore, buzzed out in the roles of "three French and a half flies each". They were portraying roles in "Sept d'un Coup" — the story of the little tailor who swats seven flies with one blow. In an American's words, they probably also portrayed the first fly shortage in the history of our country.

A Fella Named Robin

Does anyone know relations or owner of a cute little thing some people go so far as to call a dog? His favorite hangout is the vicinity of the girls' gym, and his favorite delight is playing Robin Hood and giving people grey hair. On the archery field recently Miss Parker was seen pleading, coaxing, bribing and demanding the dog to leave her marksmen alone, but 'twas all in vain. Finally in desperation she took "Robin Hood" over to the gym, gave him a ball to play with and tied him in a downstairs office. The woe of it is that in the scurry, what she used to tie him up with, was a wax string of an archer's bow — and the harder he pulled the tighter it tied him there. The ball is all chewed up, it's gettin' dark in there, and does anyone know the combination to a square knot?

Another Mistake

Apologies go to Mary Alice Kingsbury, East Lansing senior who was so ignored by the State News Wednesday in the Green Splash initiation story. The intentions were purely honorable and the said newspaper didn't wish to place a damper on the co-ed's talents. Mary Alice is well remembered as the comic element in "Alice in Wonderland", and deserves, for her strenuous activity in the pageant, special mention.

Okinawa Fray Nears End As Yanks Push On

GUAM, June 8 (AP) — American forces on Okinawa rushed the rebuilding of newly-won Naha airfield and put Naha harbor to use today as Tokyo's press and radio acknowledged that the "final end" of the Okinawa battle was in sight.

The sixth marine division, which seized the airfield, drove on southeastward towards a junction with the first marine division, aimed at finally cutting off the Oroku peninsula overlooking the anchorage and thus stopping the Japanese shellfire which still could reach both field and harbor.

Remnants of the Japanese garrison there were resisting fiercely, despite loss of many of their best six and eight-inch artillery pieces.

Others of the defense force, now estimated to number no more than 15,000 fighting men, had been driven into last-stand positions on the Yaeju-Dake escarpment, a series of ridges and hills running east and west across the southern tip of Okinawa.

The seventh and 96th infantry divisions were hammering at the eastern and central sections of the escarpment, which is as much as 450 feet high in places, while the first and sixth marines were getting into position to assault the western section.

The all too familiar heavy rain and deep mud continued to hamper operations, so that supplies had to be sent forward by hand, by parachute and by amphibious vessels.

The tenor of American communications and field dispatches agreed, however, that the ultimate conquest of Okinawa could not be far away.

Regular Press Conference Reveals Appointments; President Approves House Passage of Bretton Woods

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—President Truman, in a fast moving news conference today, vetoed a "big five" meeting sought by France to explore the dynamite-laden middle eastern question.

Requiem Will Be Presented Here Sunday

The Lansing Inter-church chorus, under the direction of Dr. William Kimmel, of the music department, will sing the "Requiem" by Johannes Brahms at the Peoples church Sunday, June 10, at 3:30 p.m.

The Student Christian union and the choir of Peoples church will sponsor the concert and the organist will be Dr. Gomer L. Jones, assistant music professor here.

The "Requiem" was also sung as a part of the memorial service given in Lansing last month.

Of the three best known Requiems, Brahms' has the most profound appeal at the present time. He composed it as an expression of "a deep and private grief," occasioned by his mother's death.

The special concert is planned by the Student Christian union and the choir of Peoples church, and it will be the last musical hour of this college year.

Anchor Girls Put Into MSC Port At Pledging Today

Beta Xi chapter of Delta Gamma will pledge 18 women at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home of alumna Mrs. J. W. Knapp in Lansing. The U. of M. chapter of Delta Gamma will be present at the time to officiate at the ceremony. Following the pledging ceremony, the new pledges and U. of M. members will be honored at a tea.

Houghton Forms Public Relations Division

HOUGHTON, Mich., June 7 (AP)—Lisle A. Rose, professor of languages at Michigan College of Mining and Technology, will become head July 1 of the newly formed public relations division of the college. His appointment was announced by Dr. Grover C. Dillman, president.

However, he unfolded further plans for the forthcoming "big three" meeting on world affairs with Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin, saying it would be held within 40 days. The president said he saw no need for bringing other powers in on this discussion.

Asked about a "big five" meeting to settle the French dispute with Syria, the president said he would not favor it and thought the difficulty would be worked out on a lower level basis.

The president said he had not seen a note delivered by French Ambassador Henri Bonnet inviting the U.S., Britain, Russia and China to a conference on the Near East but reiterated that he did not believe a five-power meeting would be necessary.

Correspondents crowded into the oval room for the president's conference were bombarded with a swift series of announcements.

Speaking so swiftly that newsmen had difficulty following him, the president topped his disclosures by an unexpected appointment of Gen. Omar N. Bradley to replace Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines as administrator of veterans affairs.

He made this change, the president asserted, simply on his belief that a veteran of this war should handle affairs of veterans of the same engagements. He would not have been very happy, as a World War I veteran, if a Spanish-American war veteran had been in control during the last two decades or more, he said.

The president, attired in a dark blue suit because of the unusual chill in Washington, started his meeting by congratulating the House upon its 345

France Asks Powers To Settle Syrian Fate

PARIS, June 7 (AP) — The French government today formally invited the governments of the United States, Britain, Russia and China to participate with France in a five-power conference on the explosive middle Eastern question.

An authoritative informant said that instructions were sent to French embassies in the four capitals concerned to present the five-power invitations along with a short statement of France's reasons.

French hopes of British acceptance were slim after Prime Minister Churchill's statement two days ago that such a conference would "certainly cause a great delay and require very careful consideration on many grounds."

In Campus Quarters

By DOTTIE LA MONT and NAN TRABUE

WELL, this is it for this term, so draw up a chair and get a good line on what's what with your bosom buddies before they venture into the big world for the summer. And to make the seniors happy, here's lots of good luck—all yours for the asking. Grab ahold of it, and watch those pick-pockets!

That same kind of luck came to Betty Rigg, Alpha Xi, who has of late been sporting a ring. The object of her affection is Bob Chase from Wabash college, who is a photographer's mate 2 c in the navy.

That same happy gleam has taken permanent residence in the eyes of Beth Uehlin, Flint sophomore, who is making big plans for a wedding in July. Right now her diamond is the center of interest from Pvt. Lamar Eskelson, stationed at Scott Field, Ill.

If that chair you just pulled up hasn't broken down yet, then bring it up a little closer 'cause here come the weddings. Lynn Drummond, Kappa '45, placed herself in just that category last weekend, by becoming Mrs. John Barnett. John is a lieutenant in the marine corps.

Around June 18th, Jo Woodruff, Zeta Tau Alpha, will be hoping for lots of sunshine. Reason is the fact that she is to become a Mrs. then and her husband will be Tech. Sgt. Howard English. The couple will be married in the home of the bride-to-be in Wyandotte.

A premium on ceremonies is non-existent even though there is a war on, and Bob Brezney, SAE, is proving it. Graduation at Fort Benning, Ga., will precede his wedding on the 14th and 16th of June respectively. The better half (according to the females) is Fel Dembowski, 47.

Sounds of wedding bells promise to drown out most of the cheers of graduating seniors in this month of brides and graduates. Betty Simpson, Alpha Gam, is one of the lucky ones. She is to be married to Lt. Ken Tysen, former Spartan and Delta Chi.

A sorority sister of Betty's Jackie Bullen, has decided that graduation is too far away and she is to be married in the very near future also. Perhaps the fact that her fiance, Lt. Lee Walton, army air forces, has just returned from overseas has something to do with her decision.

We've decided that these boys just back from overseas must tell a pretty convincing story, because Betty Oles, Alpha Phi, and Lt. Bob Wiegand are another couple planning to middle-aisle it soon. Lieutenant Wiegand has been with the 15th air force in Italy.

Jean Oviatt, Alpha Chi, has an exciting weekend ahead of her since her plans include graduation Saturday and her wedding Sunday. Husband-to-be is Jack Draper, graduate of Albion college. They plan to make their home in Lansing.

There is much excitement at the Kappa house these days over the prospect of orange blossoms and wedding rings for Marion McCain. She will marry Lt. Richard Mac Craken, who was stationed here on campus at one time.

After a long period of silence, the Lambda Chis are coming back into circulation. They're really beginning with a "bang," too, if this new impressive list of pledges is any indication. They are sophomores Al Dufur, Utica; George Mitchner, East Lansing; and Phil Bruce, Escanaba.

Spartans At War

By BONNIE ESSERT

PFC. JOHN O'MEARA . . . '45, has been liberated from a German prison camp after he was reported as missing some weeks ago. He is now in Le Havre awaiting transport home. Private O'Meara was a music major while on campus.

LT. C. K. BERG . . . a bombardier, is now instructing in Texas, and is expecting to be shipped out soon on a B-29. While at State Lieutenant Berg was an art major.

HELEN WILLIAMS, S 1/e . . . '46, recently visited the campus while on leave. She is stationed now in Jacksonville, Florida, at a meteorology school.

JERRY KENNY, S 1/e . . . sports editor of the State News before entering the service, was on campus for a visit last week while on leave following boot camp. Among the historic sights he saw while on campus was the State News office, in which he found a typewriter and banged out some copy — just for old time's sake.

SGT. ORVILLE PRICE . . . '38, who is now with General Eisenhower's staff in Germany, writes that the General is an "easy-to-get-along-with" person and enjoyable to work for. Sergeant Price is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Buell Looks for Talent for July Custer Show

Don Buell, director of Spartan entertainment shows, is sending out an SOS for summer performers, persons with any kind of talent, for the show which will go to Fort Custer and Percy Jones hospital early in July.

Started two years ago, Buell's troupes have made the journey to Battle Creek to sing, dance, and amuse the men stationed at Custer and those men recuperating at the camp hospital and at Percy Jones.

The shows have been sponsored by the Red Cross. Buell, associate professor of speech and dramatics, has been director of the shows since their conception.

LETTERS

To the Editor

TO the Editor:
 Almost nightly I have noticed a group of foreign looking men gathered in front of Byrnes' drug store. It is not the congregation of these men that I object to, but it is the language which they speak—Spanish.

I have always been of the opinion that students who come to American colleges come here to study the customs and activities as well as specific subjects, and in the process of doing so, learn the language of the country that they are in.

Public feeling toward these foreign students would improve greatly in my opinion if these men would adopt a more socialable attitude both toward their own kin, and toward the rest of the people in general.

It has come to my attention that these Spanish speaking persons excommunicate their fellow men who will not speak their native language, either in their company or in any one else's.

If these foreigners are so eliquish that they insult their own kind and act in contrast to popular conception, whether right or wrong, it is the opinion of this student that they should not be a part of MSC.

Chinese Units Retake Air Base at Liachow, Report Unconfirmed

CHUNGKING, June 6 (AP)—American and Chinese reports said tonight that veteran Chinese troops today recaptured the big former American bomber base city of Liachow in south China. There was no confirmation from the Chinese high command.

The reports, if true, meant that one of the most important Japanese bases in China had been recaptured after seven months of Japanese occupation.

The Chinese high command reported that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's armies were advancing on Liachow on a 180-mile arc from the north, west and south, but was silent on the exact position of Chinese troops moving toward the Kwangsi province rail hub.

General Patton's Return Welcomed By Crowds Nearing Million Mark

BOSTON, June 7 (AP)—Swash-buckling General George S. Patton, Jr., came home today to the screaming welcome of three-quarters of a million people, whose enthusiasm knocked out all reception time schedules.

It was a continual din from the moment he jumped from a huge army transport plane straight into the arms of his waiting wife.

Army public relations officials estimated the welcoming crowds that lined the 20 mile route from Bedford airport to Boston at 750,000 and the estimates of unofficial observers hit the million mark.

Just as his record of achievement as head of the invincible third army read "ahead of schedule" for almost every operation he undertook, so Patton's transport plane touched the Bedford runway 20 minutes before it was slated to arrive.

He had been away two and one-half years and as he doffed his helmet and kissed Mrs. Patton, she said quickly:

"Oh, I'm so glad to have you back."

Russian Plan of German Occupation

Shaded area indicates German territory which will be occupied by Russian troops, according to a Tass agency report broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded by the Soviet monitor in London. Allied zones have not been defined other than that the British will be in the northwest, French in the west, and Americans in the southwest. A still undefined area of "Greater Berlin" will be jointly occupied.

Toledoan Takes Lead in Canada's PGA Golf Meet

MONTREAL, June 7 (AP)—Byron Nelson, Toledo's champion par-buster, set a new Islesmere golf course record today by blasting out a nine-under-par 63 to gain a six-stroke edge in the first round of the $10,000 Canadian PGA open. The previous record of 65 was held by Tom Horne of Islesmere, Que.

Nelson's closest rivals, Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Sanford, Me., and Jimmy Hines, Chicago, finished six strokes off the pace set by Nelson as they carded 69's.

A crowd of more than 8,000 witnessed the opening round which was marked by the absence of Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Snead did not reach Montreal in time to compete.

Stan Horne, Islesmere's home club pro, finished atop the Canadian entries by carding a two-under-par 70.

Sigma Nu Defeats ATO

Sigma Nu walked away with the Interfraternity soft ball championship by whitewashing ATO 6-0 last night.

Superforts Hit Osaka Arsenal, Munitions Dump

GUAM, June 7 (AP)—High explosive bombs dropped by American Superfortresses along with some 3,000 tons of gasoline jelly incendiaries scattered raging fires through the arsenal and munitions making area of Osaka today.

Not a single Japanese plane challenged the B-29s. It was the second raid in a week by 450 B-29s from the Marianas on Japan's number one industrial city.

The terrific effect of the combined high explosive and incendiary attack was indicated in Japanese reports.

Fire fighters were driven to underground shelters by the explosives, Tokyo radio said, and then the incendiaries turned the target area into an inferno.

The high explosives were aimed particularly at the steel and cement Osaka arsenal, one of the largest in Japan. Ignited ammunition plants in the city probably added to the blazing ruins.

Tokyo said the raid continued through three hours, starting at 10 a.m. (9 p.m. Wednesday, U.S. eastern war time).

Why the Boys Buy Cancel World War I Debts, Asks Dewey

The United Seamen's Service chose RAE CALDWELL (above), of Baldwin, N. Y., as Miss War Bond Spirit.

NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey called tonight for cancellation of World War I debts and early settlement of lend-lease obligations arising out of this war.

He also urged, in a speech prepared for a War Finance committee dinner, that the United States take the lead in reducing tariffs and accept the Bretton Woods proposals, despite "imperfections," as a step toward solving postwar economic problems.

"The 25-year old foreign government debts to the United States arising from World War I will never be paid because they cannot be paid," Dewey said. "We should be honest and intelligent enough to say so officially—and cancel them."

"Along with this should be an immediate repeal of the Lend-Lease act, which forbids the loans to governments in default of these debts."

Urging that efforts be made once to settle lend-lease obligations, the 1944 Republican presidential candidate said he may well be that we should have to cancel a major part of the financial obligations.

"We are entitled to ask in return that our partners should fully live up to the other part of their obligations by eliminating barriers to commerce and promoting the betterment of worldwide economics and social relations, as well as the cause of freedom of the individual for which this war is being fought."

Dewey said the United States not only should lower its tariffs but also should "initiate a world conference for general tariff reductions" and should seek with Great Britain, "the immediate stabilization of the all-important dollar-sterling rate."

7th War Loan Will End on June 30

WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—Individual purchases of bonds in the Seventh War Loan drive attained 67 per cent of the quota today for a total of $4,662,000,000. The individual purchase goal is $7,000,000,000.

The new figures were announced by the treasury's War Finance division shortly after Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau had disclosed war expenditures for the month of May.

"The Japanese people are being asked by their leaders to make a desperate effort to avert defeat; we are more fortunate in that we are being asked for means to achieve victory," Morgenthau added, in a statement.
