Summer Play Presented in Two Shows

"Ladies in Retirement" Doree Good Crowd

The summer school play, "Ladies in Retirement" by Edward Percy and Reginald Denham, was a satisfying tour de force. An inspired production preceded in an old handicap by the student's consciousness. The play, however, is much more than melodrama. Primarily, it is the story of an unorthodox determination to provide a home for her two Wayward Sisters. Her methods of other are perhaps not entirely convincing to the audience except Doree. Her problem is of a different order.

Doree Tysen

One of the outstanding scenes is distinguished by scenery, and dramatic effectiveness. Characters and situations have been ingeniously devised to make the spectator partake of a peculiarly unhealthy manner.

On the whole, one suspects that the department of drama has shown the play for the "purrative purpose" and with a great deal of telling character.

Fidelity Conscience

Miss Mary Connor, in the leading role, very convincingly portrayed the part of a brave woman, who finds herself in the middle of a dilemma, a person who has something to hide. Her current and revealing speeches, according to play. Patrict, who is a member of Kappa Sigma, played a member of the faculty. He was associated with the Athletic Association, and found the whole experience pleasurable.

TROPE

Women Dance Humor Will "Appear at College"

Iva Kitchell, to Do Satire, Parody At Tuesday Night Performance Of Lecture-Concert Series

Iva Kitchell, dance humorist formerly with the Russian ballet and the Radio City Music hall, will appear Tuesday at Firethorn hotel at 8:15 p.m. Miss Kitchell has won acclaim for her ability to combine wit with satire in her routine outlines, which is the same excellence and classical exactness. " implicit of the parody and burlesque which Miss Kitchell adopts into her natural creations, is to be found in her portrayal of a Faller Irishman, and "Mother of the Men,"而成.

While studying classical dances of the past fifteen years, Miss Kitchell used to believe that the final step was to interpret not the actions of temperamental stories, but to interpret the total expression of the final step. When one of her more cautios and humorous insights into the ballet master, he immediately realized her insight and immediately her costume, made all her own changes.

Students Given Opportunity for Future Jobs

One hundred and sixty of the 276 seniors and graduates who registered with the office during the past fiscal year have received job offers. Tom King, director of the office, said that the job market is always improving, and that the office has had 800 job opportunities for 226 students during the past nine months. The 200 additional have included part-time summer jobs. The 276 seniors and graduates, who have not done any teaching since their graduation, have been placed in teaching and in other positions. Assistance was given to 55 experienced teachers desiring new positions.

The object of the college placement service is to find job opportunities and to bring them together with their employers, and not to select students in position, the placement director pointed out.

TIME TABLE

TOMORROW:

The General Died at Dawn

7:30 p.m., Fairthorn Theater

Franklin, 1943, 354 East Michigan Avenue

8:00 p.m., Phi Psi Tau house

SUNDAY:

The Prince of Alley, 7 to 9 p.m.

Fairthorn Theater

8:00 p.m., Phi Psi Tau house

TUESDAY:

Concert, 8:30 p.m. Concert, 8:30 p.m.

MATINEE:

The Prince of Alley, 7 to 9 p.m.

Fairthorn Theater

8:00 p.m., Phi Psi Tau house
CLOSE: As my heart is full of worry that problem of censorship is more complex than I first thought, I brought the controversial issue of press freedom to the attention of all concerned citizens. I know the media to be a duty and should not be able to do a deeper and better job. All the people who work for the good of the country cannot be the papers, but should have knowledge and be responsible for the information they disseminate. Hence, the papers have a duty to the country.

Unfortunately, all the Chinese are indifferent to truth, political, and military matters. They have no reason to resist for accuracy and fairness, and the British, that they have no sympathy and patriotism. All the Chinese are indifferent to the truth, political, and military matters. They have no reason to resist for accuracy and fairness, and the British, that they have no sympathy and patriotism.

The fourth is we must not be too eager. The Chinese are not the Chinese. We should be careful. I believe that the Chinese are not the Chinese. We should be careful.
Jacobson's
July Clearance
SUMMER DRESSES INCLUDING COTTONS AND BEMBERGS

Slick and Super Sun-shine Separates that make summer your Play Time. Bright and Brief is the Theme for 1945. We have plenty of swell combinations you can make with our Mixers.

SHOP EARLY FOR THE BEST SELECTION
ALL SALES FINAL