... Line Forming

The tendency toward monstrous proportions which the lines at the cafeteria, grill and bookstore have taken on since school started have necessitated a few rules governing behavior in the lines. Some suggested rules are: (1) any person dying in line shall immediately forfeit his position to his nearest relative; (2) nervous exhaustion, fallen arches or arthritis of the back will not be considered acceptable excuses for special admittance into the line; starvation cases, however, may be referred to the management for consideration; (3) the new hours for the opening and closing of the lines are as follows: breakfast, 2 to 4 a.m., lunch, 9 to 10 a.m. and dinner, 12 noon to midnight.

... Standard Stuff

There are two acceptable and traditional classroom expressions that college students have handed down through the ages to use during classroom lectures, according to Prof. C. C. Hamilton of the English department. Front row tactics involve the bright, glassy eyed expression of almost asleep, while the fellow in the back row has the advantage and can adopt the "eyes closed, please."

Child Theater Registration Will Start

Registration for the newly organized Children's theater will be held from 3:45 to 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday in room 149. College auditorium, according to Prof. Don Buell, director of dramatics, and Mrs. Lucia Nesom, director of speech reeducation, who will serve as faculty supervisors for the theater project.

Under the direction of Jean Granville, graduate assistant in the department, Lansing and East Lansing children in grades four through six will stage several well known children's plays for the public. "The Emperor's Clothes" has been selected tentatively as the fall term production.

MSC Graduate
Miss Granville was graduated from Michigan State college in Student activity books and identification cards will be necessary for admission to the Michigan-Michigan State game tomorrow on reduced student tickets, according to S. E. Crowe, dean of students.

June and during the summer studied under Winifred Ward, Chicago, nationally known pioneer in children's theaters.

She also observed work at the Mack and J&J Children's theater in Chicago. As an undergraduate student at MSC, Miss Granville played leads in several varsity dramatic productions.

Active In Speech
She was active in college speech and dramatic circles.

The theater has been organized to give boys and girls of the area near the college some training and experience in work with creative and imaginative drama. Paul D. Bagwell, acting head of the speech department, commented.

Term Officers Elected At Women Residences

Dorms, Off Campus Houses Cast Ballots

Slates have been approved, votes cast, and ballots tabulated for the fall term offices in women's dormitories and off-campus houses with the following results:

Presiding in South Campbell will be Marion Simms, Highland Park; vice-president is Jean Englehardt, Royal Oak; Charlotte Ladner, Birmingham, secretary; Margaret Foster, Detroit, treasurer; Mary Mackey, Cedarhurst, N. Y., social chairman; and Lorraine Mitchell, Holly, fire chief.

Tom King Starts Counselor Duties

Prof. Tom King took up duties this week as counsellor for men and director of the Serviceman's institute. This position was left vacant by the resignation of Dr. Fred T. Mitchell, who has accepted a position as president of Mississippi State college.

King has been active on campus since his appointment to the athletic department in 1933. He later won an additional appointment as head of the department of police administration in 1940, and along with his other duties he still maintains this position.

The organization of the placement office is another of his accomplishments. He organized this in 1941 for the purpose of aiding seniors in locating post-graduation jobs. The placement office also locates part time jobs for students.

Some of King's other duties include advisor to the student council, chairman of the college social committee, and president of the MSC club.

Women Attend Convocation

A mock AWS council meeting was presented to the women students who crowded College auditorium yesterday for the women's convocation.

The meeting was devised to accomplish two specific purposes. First, to acquaint the audience with the women who are representing them in the women's governing body.

Gave Actual
Secondly, the meeting provided an opportunity to illustrate the actual working of an average business meeting of the AWS council.

Sue Averill, Birmingham senior, conducted the meeting as president of AWS, and Pat Darr, Detroit junior, acted as narrator to explain the work of the council and to introduce the different council members to the audience.

Procedure Followed
Miss Averill called the meeting to order, following which announcements to be carried to housemothers were made and legislation enacted upon.

The last part of the meeting was devoted to handing example letters from women students asking for special permissions or petitioning the leniency for an offense not covered by AWS rules.

Other Results
Doris Rock, Detroit, will preside in South Williams; Lorraine Waldren, vice-president-secretary; Jayne Allmayer, Detroit, treasurer; Ardis Westman, Detroit, social chairman; and June Thomas, Bay City, fire chief.

President of North Williams is Maryrita Mulvihill, Grand Rapids; vice-president, Audrey Lathrup, Farmington; secretary, Virginia Baart, Royal Oak; treasurer, Carolyn Carton, Chicago; social chairman, Betty Lou Har- kin, Marquette; and fire chief, Annabel Richards.

Large Book Purchase Swells Michigan State Library Collection

Purchase of a 10,000 volume private library from the estate of the late Dr. R. Arlington Newman, Detroit, has increased the MSC library to well over 200,000 works, Jackson T. Towne, librarian, announced yesterday.

Poetry, drama and fiction of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries are fully represented in the collection, Towne said, and will add considerable development to the Shakespeare collection, as well as the fields of general biography and travel.

Although the collection will be temporarily stored, when it is placed on library shelves it "should serve as an effective nucleus for a browsing room arranged on a much larger scale than the one now maintained," Towne added.

Combined Pep Rally, Dance Scheduled At Union Tonight

'Spartan Spirit' Will Shine Again

The Michigan State college varsity football squad will receive a royal send-off at the pre-game pep rally and Kick-off dance which will be held at the Union starting at 7 tonight, according to Helen Fisher, Grand Haven senior

Hirohito Talks To M'Arthur In Record Call

Unceremonious Meeting Symbolizes Decline Of Jap Empire

TOKYO, Sept. 27 (AP) — Emperor Hirohito humbled the exalted position of Japan's throne today in a historic call on the foreign ruler of his broken empire, talking for 55 minutes with General MacArthur—possibly about the dark and drab future of his nation, or even abdication.

A spokesman declared that Hirohito himself solicited the meeting, which symbolized the decline of Japan from the proud and arrogant first power in Asia to a fourth-rate nation.

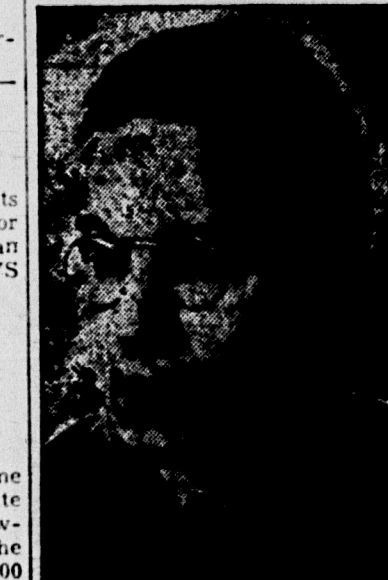

The Japanese central liaison office said that both allied headquarters and the imperial government had "reached an agreement" to seal the topic of the momentous conference in secrecy.

It was assumed, however, that they discussed problems of American occupation, and possibly abdication, which again was being rumored without any confirmation whatsoever.

Hirohito's call on MacArthur was as lacking in ceremony as it was replete with drama.

The emperor arrived at the American embassy in a dark, somewhat old automobile bearing the imperial but not painted in the imperial crest but not painted in the imperial maroon. The back curtain was drawn.

Buell's Theater Review Begins

DON BUELL

... reviewer ...

"Curtain Going Up," a 15 minute program on WKAR, will be broadcast by Don Buell, associate professor of speech and dramatics, Wednesday at 5 p.m. This is the ninth year that Buell has presented his review of theater happenings on Broadway, in Lansing and Detroit, and on MSC's campus.

Buell plans to attend several New York productions during the season and will discuss them on later programs which will be broadcast throughout the school year.

and Student council president, and Jack Breslin, Battle Creek senior and Union Board head.

Following a warm-up of song and fight yells in the semi-circular drive at the west entrance to the Union, the MSC leaders, headed by Bob Turner, Indiana sophomore, will lead a campus-touring snake-dance to a bonfire to be built across the Red Cedar.

Dance To Be At 9

The Kick-off dance will begin at 9 p.m. in the Union ballroom where Dick Snook and his orchestra will provide music for Spartan couples.

Short addresses by Pres. John A. Hannah and Coach Charley Bachman will highlight the rally. Master of ceremonies will be Red Schneider, Lansing junior.

IFC Plans Rally

The MSC Inter-Fraternity council, working with Student council co-chairman Bud Smith, Dearborn senior, has planned the rally, while June McNutt, Detroit senior, and Jim Graves, Muskegon freshman, are in charge of the Union Board dance which will close at midnight.

Student council has also scheduled a pep rally to be held next week before the Kentucky game. Tentative plans include a parade from Pennsylvania avenue to the capitol building in Lansing. Co-operating with these plans is the Lansing Downtown Coaches' association.

Faculty Announces Official MSC Rental Of Trailer Camp

The office of the dean of students announced yesterday that the college has taken over the Greenlawn trailer camp in South Lansing for use of married veterans.

The Federal Public Housing authority leased the camp to the college.

There are 50 trailers and 15 of them have already been taken by married veterans. The trailers are equipped with beds, oil heating stoves, gas range, chairs, table, ice refrigerator, and electric lights.

Those who are interested may call at the office of the dean of students.

Senior Home Ec Board Holds First Meeting

LETTERS To The Editor

All letters to the editor submitted with the intention of being published must be signed by the writer, although names will be withheld on request. No letters will be considered for publication unless the writer is known. The opinions expressed in these letters are those of the writers, and not necessarily those of the editors.

To the Editors:
Must we always be subject to the rules made by the State Board of Agriculture? Modern education promotes student government and most high schools are adopting this system today. If college isn't the time for a young man or woman to learn to stand on his or her own two feet, when will that time come? My friend and I started working and saving money for a car in our junior year of high school. But due to the war we believed it very unpatric to buy a car at that time, so before coming back to school this fall we bought ourselves the long struggled for '41 convertible, which will soon be headed for storage.

This morning when the postman brought the mail I received a letter from my father, R. S. Treebles. He is annoyed also. He says, "Are you men or are you mice?"

Carless,
James Treebles
Nicholas Guntz

To the Editors:
Well, once again the State board of agriculture has gone and done it! Now, just when driving has become a possibility for so many, the yes-man of the board have nodded their approval of a measure that ought to do more to keep students from coming to MSC than anything else. Perhaps the board of agriculture imagines that by taking away one of the few privileges left to students at State, driving on campus, that they will be big-boys—just like the Board of Regents at the U. of M.

Many students worked hard all summer to make enough money to buy cars to drive at college. Now they can not! They can not even drive around East Lansing on dates. So says the State board of agriculture, as they sit back in their expensive limousines and are effected not in the least, by their own rash doings.

Well, here's one student that's not sending his car home, that's not putting his car in dead storage, that's not going to take this foolish ruling sitting down! Now—who is going to do anything about it?

A Spartan Guerrilla

Try-outs for Student Speakers Will Begin

The Student Speakers' bureau, which is under the speech and dramatics department, is urging all students and foreign students in particular to try out immediately.

This fall starts the ninth consecutive year for the bureau which has been of great service to college organizations and outside groups.

A total of 16,000 were entertained in 200 programs last year including speeches, interpretive readings, book reviews, discussions, parliamentary drills, skits and plays by the members of this organization.

All students interested are asked to contact Irene Wade, room 137, College auditorium, Ext. 377.

In Campus Quarters

By DOTTIE LAMONT and NAN TRABUE

WE hope by Saturday morning everyone has exercised their tonsils enough so that they will be all ready for the Ann Arbor game. From the sound of plans for the pep rally there's still plenty of that old Spartan spirit left around here. Let's show it when they begin to pass the pigskin!

Before we pull out of East Lansing for that other town down the road we'll report more of what happened this summer and try to get into more recent news.

During the last part of August, Peg Carraher, Detroit June graduate, was making plans for her marriage to Lt. Robert Tracy of the army air forces. They were married Aug. 22, when he returned from service in China, and they are now living in Houston, Texas, where Lieutenant Tracy is stationed.

Helen Snyder, Alpha Phi, is not back to the house this year due to the ringing of wedding bells for her this summer in July. Bill Fish, Kappa Sig, is the particular lieutenant who came down the other side of the aisle.

From the same house comes news of what's keeping Janet Johnson in smiles these days. It seems to be another of those left hand sparklers, from Hoey Storm, Detroit sophomore. Hoey is back to the campus after serving in the marine corps.

There seem to be more lieutenants floating around in the news today. Sounds like knaki is a thing definitely of the present instead of the past. This one concerns Lt. Evert Misener, who was formerly stationed on campus in the air corps, and who presented the ring that Joan McCallough, Dearborn senior, is now wearing.

Another one? yep, so. This time in the person of Lt. Fred Post. Other half of this combination is Lynn Kelly, Pi Phi graduate of '45. The couple were married July 21 in Texas.

Things happened all of a sudden for one particular freshman here last year. Willa Mae Mitchell, no sooner got her Alpha Chi pin, than she had a diamond on her finger, and now we find she's married. The wedding was Aug. 27 to Lt. Bill Dunnagan, of the army air force.

HOW are the brainstorms? And we don't mean rainstorms! Anyway, how are ideas coming for a name for Campus Quarters? Don't forget that the deadline is next Tuesday, and we have some pretty snappy suggestions so far, but need more, so come on.

We'll leave you all to deep concentration for a while for there's more about weddings and this time it's from the Theta house. Aileen Wilson, '45, announced her engagement to Phelps Tris. Phelps attended Olivet college and Indiana university.

Joining the ranks of one-man-woman is Mary Jean Willman, KD. The diamond on her finger is indication enough of priorities on Roy Reuch, ATO.

Something besides a summer romance comes from Helene Olmstead, Alpha Xi, if the fact that she received her ring in September is any indication. The gift is from Jim Staercke, SM 3, who is just returned from overseas.

FOR PREXY'S FRESHMAN RECEPTION IN THE GAY 1890'S

To be absolutely proper, you donned your claw-hammer suit (if you owned one) and the stiffest shirt-front and collar obtainable. Fully similarly armored, grasped your perspiring palm. Matriculation was complete. You were a college student at last.

America, too, was stepping out in the 1890's. Her cities were growing, populations were spreading. Railway Express, then as now, provided her with a nation-wide shipping service, including the baggage and laundry needs of innumerable college students. Today, during the emergency, the country's shipping needs are heavily stressed. So, please do this with your baggage and home-going bundles. Pack and wrap securely, address clearly, and get them started early.

If Statistics Show Edge of Wolverines

State's Determination Spurred by Gloomy Past With U. of M.

With the all important Michigan-Michigan State game but a day away, it might be a good idea to look into the statistics and see just how the two teams match up with each other.

After looking rather gloomily through these morbid records, maybe this column should be entitled "If." The records seem to show that Michigan has an overwhelming edge on State. Here are the statistics as compiled in a column entitled "If."

-If State wins Saturday it will be Charlie Bachman's fifth victory over Michigan.

-If State wins Saturday it will be the seventh victory over Michigan in a period of thirty years.

-If State loses it will be the twenty-ninth loss over the same period of years.

-If State ties Michigan it will be the fourth tie between the two schools.

-If State wins Saturday it will be Bachman's 61st win since joining the Spartan staff.

-If State loses it will be the 3th loss for Bachman since coming to State.

-If the game is tied it will be Bachman's 22nd tie while coaching at Michigan State.

-If State wins Saturday a holiday ought to be declared for a week.

-If the game follows traditions, the spectators should see a far show between halves among the State rush and Michigan rush.

-If State wins, the State News want a piece of the goal posts.

Center Trouble for Michigan

WALTER VEZMAR, returned army veteran from Detroit, is 240 pounds of powerful threat in the opening line-up of tomorrow's game. A center, he suffered injuries with the Rangers at Anzio.

Trucks to Get Pitching Spot For Tomorrow

DETROIT, Sept. 27 (AP) — Virgil Trucks and Hal Newhouser, in that order, were the Detroit Tigers' pitching nominations today for a two-game weekend series at St. Louis following word from Trucks that the 26-year-old righthander had received his navy discharge at Norman, Okla., and was enroute to rejoin the club for which he pitched 39 victories in 1942 and 1943.

Manager Steve O'Neill said Trucks informed him he would be in St. Louis Saturday "ready to work." Whether the star hurler of Great Lakes' Bluejacket nine of 1944 actually would pitch, O'Neill said, depended upon his condition.

O'Neill May Use Trucks

The welcome reinforcement to the Tiger mound corps, however, gave O'Neill an opportunity to hold Hal Newhouser, Detroit's ace lefthander, until the Sunday windup if the Tigers don't clinch the American League pennant by winning Saturday.

"Although Hal has beaten the Browns six times already this season, we won't call on him until Sunday, if necessary," O'Neill said.

Newhouser to Rest

"He needs his three days rest and he's going to get it, even if it may mean holding our best bid till the last day of the season."

O'Neill gave his tired Tigers a day of rest today but called a practice workout for Friday before the club boards a train for St. Louis.

A FLIGHT THAT NEVER LEAVES THE GROUND

A bomber crew needs training as a team. And now those hazards which are too dangerous for air-borne drill can be duplicated on the ground. This is made possible by an electronic flight trainer perfected by Bell Telephone Laboratories' scientists for the Navy.

At remote controls the instructor follows the "flight," sets up various dangerous conditions, coordinates the crew's reactions.

Tubes glow, switches click much as they do in a telephone exchange, to duplicate such flight perils as icing, fouled fuel lines, "conked" motors. It is the science behind the telephone that here performs another new service to the Nation.

United States Plans Policy Revisions

Actions of Argentina Causes Review of U.S. Political Attitude

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (P)—The state department disclosed tonight that a general review of United States policy on Argentina is imminent because of recent political developments in that country.

The disclosure came in response to request for comment from Acting Secretary Dean Acheson on a talk made by the former ambassador to Argentina Spruille Braden.

Hastening back to this country, Braden said at a stop-over in Puerto Rico that the American nations could not sit idly by and watch the course of events in Argentina.

Argentinians Suffer

The regime there had re-imposed a state of siege and had caused the wholesale arrests of a number of leading citizens.

These actions provoked sharp comment by several members of the United States congress, who advocated the breaking of diplomatic relations and the imposition of economic sanctions.

Plans to Wait

Through a state department spokesman, Acheson sent word that he would have to consult first with President Truman, Secretary of State Byrnes who is expected in a day or so from London and with Braden before making any statement.

Three Special Ag Enterprise Courses To Be Offered This Fall to Veterans

Aimed at returning war veterans, three special training courses have been started this fall at State in agricultural enterprises.

Combining on-campus instruction and training on-the-job, the project will operate on a 12-weeks basis and run parallel to the regular college curriculum.

Offering one-year courses in forest-practice and farm equipment service and sales and also a two-year course in nursery and landscape management, the work will be on a co-operative for the college and agricultural industries of the state.

Applicants with three years of high school, an honorable discharge from the armed services or satisfactory working experience, and at least 19 years of age will be considered.

The program, announced by Ralph W. Teray, director of short courses, started Sept. 21. A joint committee representing the college and the industry planned the training program.

One term of college campus instruction will be done and three terms of work in the college forests will be added for students in the forest practice course.

For the farm equipment service and sales, the work is divided into two quarters on campus and two quarters of placement training.

QUARTERS

It looks like there is going to be at least a couple of people of the campus population who will not be in the stands at Saturday's football game. That is the date set aside by Ruth Buemeister, Pi Phi, for her marriage to Ray Fox. Sorority sister Vander Wall will be her bridesmaid.

Still another Pi Phi, Ann Deiman, was married the day of her graduation last June to Jim Wesson, army air forces. They were married in Texas.

More wedding news comes to us from the Epsilon Chi. They say Elaine Resnick was married to Lt. Seymour Flammenbaum, AEPi, who had just returned from overseas. Also Faye Sarkis, a graduate of '43, will be married this October to Al Schofield, whose home town is Long Island, N. Y.
