Some Quack Racket

Dick Kvittek, Chicago freshman and formerly a carefree man about town, is now a man with responsibilities and problems. As an aftermath of last Saturday's slaughter, he is now the proud and happy owner of an exceptionally fine white duck going by the name of Lucretia. Dick, so the story goes, got sick and tired of being asked by his friends in a kidding manner, "Where are your ducks?" After the game he spent the entire night remedying the situation. Now when you ask Dick where his ducks are, he TELLS you.

Well, Naturally

Herbert Beeskow, assistant professor of botany, gave out with a gem extracted from one of his students' themes recently that has stimulated the intellect of his better students. The essay requirement was to write on "where he came from." The first thing the student did was to ask his mother and she replied that his parents, his grandparents, and he, himself, were deposited on the earth by the stork. The first line of his essay read as follows: For the past three generations there have been no natural births in our family.

Physicists, Chem Teachers Join MSC Faculty

Miss Ethel Chapin Morgan and Fred W. Cartland, instructors in physics, and Dr. John Pitha, instructor in chemistry, have arrived at Michigan State college to take up their teaching positions.

Mrs. Morgan has been an instructor in physics at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind., for the past year. Before that time she taught at Ohio university, Athens, Ohio, and Brevard college, Brevard, N. C. Mrs. Morgan has degrees from the University of Chattanooga and the University of North Carolina.

Cartland was associated with the University of California division of war research in San Diego, Calif. from 1943 to 1945, previously having been an assistant professor of electrical engineering at Michigan College of Mining and Technology. He holds degrees from Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa., and the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

Pitha comes to Michigan State from Brooklyn Polytechnic institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., where he has been working on a naval research laboratory sub-contract for the past two years. He taught there for three years and took his B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. from that institution. Dr. Pitha has traveled in Europe and done graduate work at the University of Minnesota.

This is an opportunity for every student to display his loyalty towards the football team. Starting today through Friday every student is asked to collect bits of wood to put on the Victory fire located by the tennis courts near Demonstration hall. If every student throws on a piece of wood, the fire should carry enough heat to really make it "hot" for the Kentucky eleven.

Succeeds Fahy

Governor J. Howard McGrath, of Rhode Island, was appointed solicitor general of the Justice department Sept. 28 by President Truman. He succeeds Charles Fahy who resigned.

Students Receive Slight Injuries In Bus Accident

Ten MSC students received slight injuries Saturday evening when a bus returning from the Michigan State-Michigan game in Ann Arbor struck a tree about four and one-half miles south of Okemos.

The bus, driven by Dorr M. Cliffin, Lansing, skidded out of control after catching the left rear fender of a truck. The truck came from a driveway on the highway in the path of the bus and the driver, trying to avoid the truck, pulled out, but because of an on-coming car he swerved back and caught the truck. With the impact the wheels of the bus locked and skidded into the tree.

Seven of the ten students received treatment at the hospital. Madelyn Hunter, Midland; Virginia Hayden, Midland; Carol Engelbrecht, Mt. Clemens; Marion Summerville, Ferndale, and Corrine Hahn, St. Joseph, were treated for leg injuries; and Marilyn Logsdon for a shoulder injury.

All the students were released Sunday.

Osgood Speaks on Bomb

Dr. Thomas H. Osgood, head of the Michigan State college physics department, will speak on "The Atomic Bomb" at the State College club luncheon meeting Wednesday noon in the Union building.

Dr. Osgood is the co-author of "An Outline of Atomic Physics," a book published in 1933 and revised in 1937. Dr. Paul A. Herbert is program chairman.

Open House, Radio Party Slated On Weekend's Social Calendar

An open house and two radio parties are chalked up on this weekend's social calendar.

North and South Campbell dormitories are having a joint open house Friday night from 8:30 until 11:30. It will be informal and all men students on campus are invited to attend. There will be music for dancing and refreshments will be served. Virginia French, Niles sophomore, and Mary Mackey, Battle

Five Programs Scheduled By Music Staff

First Concert Stars
Joseph Schuster,
Noted Cellist

The winter series of concerts sponsored by the MSC department of music will include five attractions this year, according to Roy L. Underwood, head of the music department.

The series will open November 20 with a concert by the noted cellist, Joseph Schuster, who is a native of Russia, and a cousin of Alexander Scaster, professor of music and director of the college orchestra here. Following a period of study in Leningrad, Schuster was first cellist for 5 years with the Berlin Philharmonic orchestra, and for many years first cellist with the New York Philharmonic orchestra.

Star of Opera
Suzanne Sten, mezzo-soprano star of opera, radio, and concert stage, will perform on November 30. Miss Sten has sung with many of the great symphony orchestras and was a star of the opera in Prague.

The Budapest string quartet will return to the campus for a third visit on January 28. Life magazine described the quartet as superlative interpreters of chamber music.

Fourth number in the series, February 11, will be Alexander Schneider, violinist, and Ralph Kirkpatrick, harpsichordist, in a program of sonatas. Schneider was a member of the Budapest quartet for 12 years and Kirkpatrick is known as America's most eminent performer on the harpsichord. They are on their second tour of the United States.

Malcuzyński Listed
The final number in the series will feature Witold Malcuzyński, pianist, on February 18. Malcuzyński completed his studies at the Warsaw conservatory in 1936. After escaping the German invasion in both Poland and France, he arrived in New York in 1942. He made his debut in Carnegie hall before a capacity audience and was immediately acclaimed one of the finest pianists of the present day.

Professor Underwood announced that old subscribers to the series may renew their seats up to October 6, after which the remainder of the seats will be open to the general public.

Creek sophomore, are co-chairmen for the open house.

Friday night Theta Chi and pledges will escort their dates to Fairchild theater, where their radio party will take place. The couples will dance to the latest records from 9 until 12.

Also giving a radio party are the Phi Kappa Tau's. Their party will be Saturday night and dancing and entertainment are planned for their guests.

Farce 'Blithe Spirit' As Year's
First Dramatic Production

The cast for the fall term play, Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" has been announced by Don Buell, director of the production.

The characters are: Edith, the Cockney maid, Barbara Hafford Jones, senior from Glen Rock, N. J.; Ruth Condomine, the second wife, Patricia Beechler, senior from Charlotte, and Charles Condomine, the husband, Robert Huber, sophomore from Cincinnati. Other Roles

Others in the cast are: Dr. Bradman, a friend, John McCaugha, senior from St. Charles; Mrs. Bradman, his wife, Lois Robinson, senior from Cincinnati, Ohio; Madame Arcati, spiritualist, Dorothy Blake, sophomore from Dearborn; and Elvira Condomine, the first wife, Lois Banzel, senior from East Lansing.

The action takes place in the Condomine home in Kent, England. The story is an improbable farce in three acts, involving Charles Condomine, his second wife, Ruth, and his first wife, Elvira.

Ghostly Rendition
Ruth gives a dinner party after which Madame Arcati conducts a seance in which Elvira appears to haunt her husband. Throughout the play her ghost is the disturbing factor to the rest of the characters.

C. H. Nickle, assistant professor of speech, is in charge of settings.

Eight Million To Be Jobless by Spring

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP) — Eight million workers may be out of jobs by next spring.

That's the prediction made by reconversion Director John W. Snyder today. He said that while he is "firmly optimistic" about the future he considers a period of "high unemployment" inevitable because:

1. "It takes time for industry to turn around—to stop work on munitions and retool for work on peacetime products."
2. It will be impossible to find jobs at the proposed million-a-month demobilization rate.

WKAR to Start Program Series

Professor Chester L. Allen, head of Michigan State college civil engineering department, will present a new series of radio programs, "Biographical Blueprints of Famous Engineers." The program will be heard at 4 p.m. on Tuesday during October and November, beginning today over WKAR.

Leonardo deVinci, Benjamin Franklin, Guglielmo Marconi, and Eli Whitney are among the noted engineers who will be discussed. The personal characteristics of each man rather than his achievements will be emphasized. Incidents from each scientist's life will be dramatized by MSC students.

Hannah Discusses MSC

President John Hannah was guest speaker at Canterbury house, Episcopal student's campus center, Sunday evening at their first informal meeting of the season.

The progressive history of Michigan State college, as the first land-grant college in the United States was his subject.

LETTERS . . . . To The Editor

TO the Editor:
When I was five my mama took my "kiddie" car away from me. Made me pretty darn mad too. Now I'm twenty and someone is trying the same stunt. The difference is that my mama had a good reason. Of course I'm just an infant yet. I haven't any sense of responsibility or any other characteristic that certain people—obviously seem to think is lacking in college students.
A no driving on campus rule is fair enough; but seems to me it's going just a little too far to tell a guy he can't drive home on a week end or go down to Lansing and back or even drive his date to the dance in the rain.
A lot of us guys have worked hard to earn enough to have the convenience of a car, and here's one Joe that's not giving up without knowing a good reason why.
Irresponsible Me.

TO the Editor:

us. We were adults capable of choosing our career and of making our own decisions. Well, we are making our decision! We want to be able to have cars.

You don't have to be over 26 or married to know how to drive a car competently, and—if it's a question of morals—lack of cars will certainly not stand in anyone's way.

Furthermore, any fellow will agree that there's nothing sweeter than forcing your date to take an invigorating two mile hike to a formal dance on one of our typical rainy nights.

This past weekend should indicate what things are going to be like around here. Students lining the roads to hitch-hike, overcrowded buses and cars—accidents! If we could have our own cars we wouldn't have to hitch-hike or jam into the few available buses and cars.

If they're going to insist on treating us like two-year olds and won't allow us to have cars—we want an intelligent reason, and we want it now!

Kay and Chris.

Testimonial Dinner Held Friday Evening To Honor Botanist

A testimonial dinner was given in the East Room of Hotel Olds Friday evening honoring Dr. Ernst A. Bessey, retiring head of the college botany department. More than 50 persons attended the dinner, which was sponsored by the national fraternity, SemBot.

Principal speaker was Dr. H. H. Bartlett, head of the University of Michigan botany department. Dr. Bartlett paid tribute to Dr. Bessey for his long and illustrious career as a teacher, research man and administrator. Guests of honor included Dr. Richard deZeeuw, Dr. H. T. Darlington, and Dr. R. P. Hibbard, who are also retiring from the college botany department after many years of service. A bound volume, containing letters from more than 200 men and women scattered throughout the world, who have known and worked with Dr. Bessey during his 35 years' association with Michigan State, was presented to Dr. Bessey.

Members of the committee on arrangements were H. C. Bees-kow, chairman, Dr. C. G. Barr, Mrs. F. C. Strong, and Mrs. Ray Nelson.

In Campus Quarters

By DOTTIE LAMONT and NAN TRABUE

RAIN is just one of those things that is connected with East Lansing. Sometimes we wonder why the Board of Agriculture doesn't rule it out. We're hoping, however, the puddles don't turn to floods and wash out the suggestions for a new name to put at the top of this cupid column. Don't forget this is the last day for all entries to be brought to the State News office, and winner will be selected tonight.

Back to vital statistics. Ginny Labblitt, Gamma Phi, '45, marked an important date on her calendar in June when she became Mrs. Mickey McGuire. Mickey hails from U. of M. and the couple were married in Royal Oak.

Yvonne Jones, another Gamma Phi, filed for the same rank as her sorority sister the following month. "I do's" were exchanged with Rudolph Pessel, who is still waking with reveille and retiring with taps in the army.

The old excuse for the rapid jewelry turnover used to be the war, but we can't think of what to put the responsibility on now. Could be that the fellows are returning to their old stamping grounds as is the case of Lt. Bob Drake, '42, who was married on Sept. 15 to Peg Bradbury, Chi O of '45.

Bringing the big "O" in Chi O, up to immediate attention, reminds us of Eddie Halloday's new theme song—"Oh, My Man." That ring she is wearing that adds sparkle to any kind of singing is from Stark Shelby, Kappa Sig from U. of Florida.

Right here we'd like to put in something about some good old-fashioned pinnings. They have been forced into the background these last few weeks with the flourishing of diamonds, but seem to be coming more into their own as the term progresses.

Heading the list we find that Mary Lake, Gamma Phi, received a FarmHouse fraternity pin from "Howie" De Wolfe, who graduated from State last June.

Then Phyllis Smith, Bellaire sophomore, agrees that she's true to the "Knights of the Sword and Shield" as her Phi Delt pin now proves. Former owner of the pin is Dick Whelan, who attends MIT in Boston.

We're still hearing more and more news of engagements which have taken place during the summer. Right after the end of spring term, Barb Coulter, Grandville senior, promised Cpl. Bill Greeninger of the army air forces that she'd wear his ring. Bill was in the class of '46 and is now stationed at Hamilton field, Calif.

About a month later, Jeanette Ewing, Zeta Tau Alpha, became engaged to Jerry Bradley, who is from Pasadena, Calif. At present the merchant marines are taking up most of Bill's time in Honolulu, where he is stationed.

The Sigma Kappas tell us that Barbara Van Stone is also wearing a ring on her third finger left hand. Her fiance is F/O Donald Mattern, from Barbara's hometown, Detroit.

Two more people from the same home town decided to join the ranks and consequently we have a bit of Grand Rapids news. Helen Van Hartsveldt, Chi O, has a ring from Cpl. John Bigford, who is in the twelfth air force.

Another June engagement that concerned the Gamma Phis especially was that of Margery Merriam. She left their house last June with a diploma and next thing they knew, she had added a diamond ring to her collection of valued possessions. Larry Arnold, U. S. army, is her "intended."

Two illustrious alums who were married not so long ago are Shirley Simmons, Kappa, and Ens. Dick Kleppe, Sigma Nu. The wedding took place in August.

One month later, Betty Gross, Mt. Clemens junior, was married to Cpl. Joseph Klooster, who had

Truman Attends Supreme Court Opening

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP) — President Truman made history today by dropping in on the opening of the supreme court's new term to see his appointee, Harold H. Burton, become a member.

Court attaches said he was the first chief executive ever to appear in the courtroom while he held office.

Stocky, 57-year-old Burton, Republican senator from Ohio until his appointment, repeated the oath in a clear voice.

He succeeds Owen J. Roberts who retired in July after 15 years as associate justice. His presence forms an eight-man court. Justice Jackson is in Europe as U. S. counsel prosecuting war criminals.

Spartans Suffer 40-0 Trouncing By Wolverines

Season's Opener Marks States' Worst Loss to U. of M. in 19 Years

By JACK KENNY

Coach Charlie Bachman and the Spartan eleven opened their 1945 football season by receiving their worst defeat in 19 years at the hand of Fritz Crisler's Wolverines, with a score of 40-0.

Using an entirely different team than played against Indiana last weekend, Crisler had coached the eleven to a smooth functioning machine that scored six touchdowns on the Spartans. Their first touchdown came after only six minutes of play.

State Kicks Off

State opened the game by kicking off to their 19-yard line. Dworsky, freshman fullback for Michigan, returned the ball to the 29. A 15 yard penalty holding forced the Wolverines to kick after they had made a first down on their own yard line.

Students are reminded to change their coupon number for the Kentucky game Saturday according to class standing as was done last week. Reservations must be made in this way for all home games, as well as away-games.

Michigan's kick went to the Spartan six-yard line, and after failing to gain any ground, fullback Jack Breslin punted to the 40. Four more plays found the pigskin on the Spartan 16, the Wolverines in possession. The ball was over the goal in four more plays, and Michigan led 7-0.

Michigan Scores Again

The first quarter ended with Michigan on the Spartan 27. On the opening play of the second quarter, a 26-yard pass put the ball over the pay stripe, and Michigan led 14-0.

On the return kick the Spartans got rolling for the first and second time. Breslin returned the ball 17 yards to the Spartan 31. Ludwig chucked a pass to Dick Massuch for 17 more yards, and another 24-yard pass ruled complete because of interference. Five more yards put the ball on the Wolverine 23-yard line, but the ball went over Michigan on downs. From then on it was Michigan's ball game, the Wolverines drove 98 yards in 12 plays for their third touchdown.

Five minutes after the half, Michigan was ahead by another ten points. In the final minute he tried a desperate pass from the nine-yard line that backfired, and Michigan scored on the interception.

Bachman Changes Lineup

After 16 weeks of doodling on the practice field, Coach Bachman has finally decided to make some needed changes. Walt Vezmar will be shifted from center to tackle. According to Bachman, Vezmar was the only bright spot in the sieve-like defense of the Spartans at Michigan.

Other changes in the team will see Kent Esbaugh, former tackle, at quarterback, and fullback Milford Jones at halfback.

Despite the excellent defense game played by fullback Jack Breslin and halfback Steve Contes, State could not hold the Maize and Blue but is expected to do better against some school not so well gifted in coaching. The revised team will have an opportunity to prove itself in Saturday's game with Kentucky.

High School Bands To Play for Home Football Games

Football fans will have to wait for another year before witnessing State's fine military band, but martial music on parade will prevail this fall at Spartan home games just the same.

Leonard V. Falcone, director of the MSC band, has arranged the appearance of several of the states' outstanding high school bands to play at Macklin stadium. At this Saturday's game with Kentucky, the Battle Creek high school band will appear.

On Oct. 20, when State plays Wayne university, the Jackson high school band will march. Grand Rapids South will be the guest at the Marquette game, Oct. 27, and on Nov. 3, the Muskegon high school band will play between halves of the Missouri game. Nov. 10 will see the Flint Central band perform as State plays Great Lakes. For the final home game with Penn State, the Lansing Sexton and Eastern bands will be featured.

In line with the schedule, plans are underway through alumni and civic groups, to designate special days at Macklin field honoring the city whose band appears.

Butch Prepares for the Kick-Off

Four-year old Jerry (Butch) Hartman, dressed up in Michigan State football gear, is ready for the kickoff. His father, with the navy in the Pacific, is on leave from the college photographic laboratory.

Student Council Plans Giant Rally on Eve Of Kentucky Game

Enthusiasm already has hit Michigan State in preparation for the clash on Macklin field with the Kentucky eleven Saturday. The student council working in cooperation with the Downtown Coaches association has appointed Red Schneider, Lansing junior, to lead in the preparations for a pep rally Friday night.

The tennis courts by Demonstration hall will be the scene of the rally, which will include a bonfire, the honorable Harry F. Kelly, governor of Michigan, as principle speaker, and members of the team. According to Red, a new style of gathering wood for the fire will be used. Each student is asked to throw a piece of wood on the Victory fire. The bonfire will start today and will be built up until Friday night.

Baseball News Names Outstanding Players

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1 (AP)—Tommy Holmes, Boston Braves outfielder, and Eddie Mayo, second baseman of the Detroit Tigers, are 1945's valuable players in the major leagues in selections announced today by the Sporting News, national baseball weekly.

Continuing the special awards for pitchers inaugurated last year, the Sporting News chose Hank Borowy of the Chicago Cubs and for the second successive year Hal Newhouser of the American League's Detroit Tigers.

In 48 years of football, State has enjoyed two undefeated seasons. Those occurred in 1913 when the Spartans won seven games, and in 1909, when their record was six games won and two tied. MSC experienced 12 seasons when it's football team lost but one game each year.

MacArthur's Investigators Trail Jap Loot

Schools and Religion To Undergo Reforms Against Militarism

TOKYO, Oct. 1 (AP) — American investigators set out today on the trail of the treasure which Japan looted from conquered lands, and also delved into the state religion of Shintoism which was used to foster fanaticism and wars.

In Tokyo's "wall street" the great bank of Japan was closed. Army authorities declared it could reopen tomorrow if its officials quit stalling and helped track down the stolen riches of Asia.

Gold Marked for Siam

In the vaults of this bank troops found gold and gold stocks ear-marked for Siam and Indo-China.

It was not immediately clear whether this gold belonged to the Japanese or had been seized from those formerly Japanese-controlled countries.

No trace was found in their records of the wealth removed by the Japanese from the Philippines and the East Indies.
