Social Events Light Campus On Weekend

Students who do not follow the team to Pittsburgh this weekend will find that several social activities have been planned to fill their idle moments. These include three radio parties, one open house, a dance, and a formal dance. Alpha Xi Delta women will entertain their dates at a radio party from 8 to 12 Friday night at the chapter house, while Farm House men will play melodies from 9 to 12 for their dates at the house. Wells annex residents will also hold a radio party from 9 to 12. North hall women residents will throw open their doors from 10 to 11:30 to men students on campus, according to Constance Bradley, Pleasant Ridge freshman social chairman.

Union board will begin its series of Saturday afternoon teas, called "Party-Party" this week in the Union ballroom from 10 to 11:30. A closed formal dance, sponsored by the ASTR units on campus, will be held in the Union ballroom Saturday from 9 to 11 p.m. Dick Snooks and his band will provide the music. Patrons will be Capt. and Mrs. R. W. Ford and Lt. and Mrs. Milton H. Benson. The dance is a farewell feature on the part of Company F for Company F which is leaving campus shortly.

Czechoslovakian Diplomat Visits Campus

By M. D. SMERLING

Under the auspices of the Institute of International Education, Dr. Stefan Osusky, Czechoslovakian statesman and diplomat, arrived on the Michigan State college campus Monday for a four-day stay.

Born in the town of Bro-va, western Slovakia, on March 31, 1889, Dr. Osusky attended the local public school until the age of 12, when he went to study for a year in a grammar school. This was followed by four years in the Lyceum Bratislava, which was under Austrian rule.

Because he could not continue his education as a student of his parentage and as he was unwilling to assume a magyrian nationality, Dr. Osusky came to the

Educator Expects To See Increase In Vet Students

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP) — More than 2,000,000 returning war veterans probably will go back to school.

That estimate was made today by Dr. Francis J. Brown, consultant for the American Council on Education.

He says surveys indicate that as many as 15 percent of all veterans will want some kind of additional education. This will include everything from on-the-job training to a postgraduate college course.

Less than two veterans out of 100 are going to school now. Many observers have cited this in contending that the veteran is cold shouldering the school house.

The council has just completed a survey of 100 colleges. These report their enrollment of veterans is almost three times what it was last year—from 11,200 students to 29,000.

Another survey has shown that the present discharge age is around 25. Even among these men, Brown says, about eight percent want more schooling. As the discharge rate lowers, he thinks this percentage will shoot up.

The chief problem of most colleges is housing. Only eight percent of the 100 colleges queried had enough housing space. The chief shortage is apartments for the married G I's.

Pierre Laval Condemned to Death For Betrayal of France to Nazis

PARIS, Oct. 9 (AP) — Swarthy, white-tied Pierre Laval — the butcher's son whose nimble brain carried him up to the head of his nation and down at last to a traitor's dungeon — was condemned tonight to die before a firing squad for betraying France.

The 62-year-old Vichy premier, who headed his government twice in peacetime and once again when he led it into a honeymoon with Nazi Germany, heard the verdict in a dungeon beneath his trial courtroom, his attorney said, and calmly commented:

"It was what I expected all along."

A jury of 24, plus three judges who also voted, deliberated but an hour and two minutes before convicting Laval of intelligence

Lieutenant Governor To Speak at Meeting

Teams Square Off To Break Deadlock In World Series

CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (AP) — With only one day of rest, Hank Borowy will haul his sagging muscles to the hill tomorrow and try to pitch the Chicago Cubs to victory over the Detroit Tigers in the seventh and deciding game of the 1945 world series.

Manager Charlie Grimm, his curving corps shot to pieces in yesterday's hectic struggle that saw his club win to 8 to 7 in 12 innings to deadlock the classic, had little choice other than to call a man on the slender right-hander who already had appeared in three games and had racked up two victories.

Hopes Pinned on Newhouser

For the Tigers it will, of course, be left-handed Hal Newhouser, the famous "invalid" who forgot his pain long enough on Sunday to elbow an 8 to 4 win in his second try at the Bruins. There was never a doubt that Hal would be the man in whom the Tigers would pin their ultimate faith if the play-off went down to the final day.

As to infirmities of the flesh, it will be about a stand-off when the two aces square off for the third time in the series. While Borowy will be a weary young man from trying to pitch the Cubs to the championship almost unaided, Newhouser will go to the mound with his left shoulder shot full of narcotic to deaden the pain of a "lump" which lately has made every throw a misery.

Tigers Get Odds

The odds on the final game were 2 to 3 in favor of the Tigers. With interest at fever heat here after yesterday's heroic duel, which probably was the greatest spectators' game in world series history, the final was a sell-out before noon. Fans shivered in line all night before the gates of Wrigley field to be on hand when the ticket sale began early in the morning. The forecast was for dry and somewhat warmer weather than the 50-degree chill which numbed the bones yesterday.

The Cubs' fighting comeback to square the series after it had appeared lost has filled Chicago with a tremendous pride in Grimm's fleet young charges.

One hundred and eighty students tried out last week and approximately 100 will be called back tonight, according to Paul Geisenhof of the speech department. Letters will be sent to the winners of the final auditions.

The next Studio theater meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 18. Pat Beechler, Charlotte senior, and Sue Averill, Birmingham senior, are planning one-act plays to be presented at this meeting.

Affairs of State

By NAN TRARIE and DOTTIE LAMONT

Were you so happy about all the news that has been coming out of our way that we could start a pep rally of our own — and there's plenty of paper in our mail box to start a headline with.

Word from the Alpha Xi house of four marriages occurring this summer is first on our list. The brides are the former Marjorie Wierner, Betty McDonald, Betty Kirt and Doris Griffiths. Other brides of these combinations are Lou Curtis, Seamus 1st Class Carl Lewis, Photographers Mike 1st Class Bob Chase, and Laird, Bob Crable.

A freshman here last year, Herb Gale, Detroit, came back to this town to be married a few weeks ago. Her husband is Jack Goodner, also from Detroit, who served in the Third army overseas for ten months.

Don Sachel, Farmhouse, has returned from honeymoon to honeymoon in the past month. Don was a lieutenant in the army and was recently married to Lt. Clara Nissen, Tri Sigma from Merrillville college. He is now back on campus and his wife will join him when she receives her discharge.

Still shaking the rice from herself following a September 25th wedding, Nan Wickness, Chi O, will be traveling from Grand Rapids in the very near future to see her Greek sisters on campus. The receipt of the event leads us to believe that the printer's ink isn't even dry yet, but we make out the other half to be Dodge Donald Powers, of the same town.

There's nothing like going to extremes, so we're digging into our archives for this one. It concerns a wedding very last spring, involving Shirl Truines, Phi Psi, and Enslin Chi, and the commentary goes that she married Paul Gussow.

A short stop at the Sigma Kappa house would be enough to convince the perpetual skeptic that there must be some "goins on" and Joanne Taylor, '44, and Marge Rowland, '46, are the culprits. Both are flashing lovely new diamonds from F-4 Clifton J. Bennett, from M. L. T. and formerly stationed on campus, and Emory H. F. "Doc" I. Carr, '46 respectively. If you have that all straight, more of these two is that Clifton is in A. A. F. at Alamogordo, New Mexico, and Doc is a naval aviator at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Now that we have the marriages out of the way for the day we can proceed down the line to engagements. So hold your breath, and we'll begin with Amy Seaton who announced to her Delta Zeta sisters that she and M-Sgt. Bill Golden have come to an agreement and sealed it with an engagement ring. Bill is from Chicago.

These Farmhouse men are busy busy these days it seems. Heard that Governor Dean has presented Helen March, Delta Zeta, with a decoration for her third finger, left hand.

Pat Larkin and Doris Kinsler are competing with each other for attention in the ACP house since their recent acquisitions. They are both wearing sparkles, and Pat's is from Harold Beck, from Detroit, whose Doris received hers from Laird, Bill Reeves, who hails from Newark, N. J.

Noticed that Marybelen Clark is now increased in only one inch, and he appears to be Pfc. Donald Paris, her fiance. Sally Lendon, Charlotte, Ariz., sophomore, is in the same boat and her fiance is Bill Newhard, Sigma Chi from Indiana. Bill is in the army air forces stationed in Colorado.

Surprise pinning of the week is that of IPC president, Ralph Fennemaucher, Hudson junior, who attached his Theta Chi pin to that of Chi O Jane Taylor, Grand Rapids sophomore. Monday afternoon. The place? None other than the most romantic of spots along the East Cedar river.

Jerry Johnson, Kappa, is now among those pinned. Hers is from Keith Mangles, a Phi Delta from the U. of M. Keith was discharged from the service this summer.

An SAE pin from Toledo university found its way to this campus a while ago and its possessor is Lorena Ayling, Gamma Phi. Former owner of the pin is Richard Beck. Two strictly local "pinned people" are Pat Seaton, Kappa Delta, and Ed MacFarland, ATO, as end the day's collection.

Five men are flaunting the people pin of Theta Chi as of Monday night, according to President Bob Butler, Fenton junior. New pledges include: Jim Caulfield, Toledo, O., sophomore; Earl Elbert Edmund, III, freshman, Lynn Ferguson, Grand Rapids sophomore, Jim Smith, Detroit freshman, and Dick Taylor, Grosse Pointe Farms freshman.

To the Editor:
Perhaps your ill-will is not properly aimed. Of course, great foresight has been shown by the administration in turning over all dormitory facilities to the women's housing office without any consideration for the men returning to our campus (but then, too, we women must be placed so that the vigilant eye can guard without too much difficulty).
Understanding is a word of our State Board members are not even too holy enthusiastic over appropriations for veterans' housing projects now when actually their enthusiasm should have prompted organization of housing facilities, and of providing same before veterans began to return.

It's probably this negligence to which the men object rather than that they desire "deference." Even the Government's institute can't move too rapidly if the State Board of Agriculture is

Heavy Backfield to Start Against Pittsburgh Team

Spartan Eleven to Leave by Train Friday for University of Pittsburgh Battle

With one victory to their credit, the Spartan eleven began practice yesterday in preparation for the coming game with the University of Pittsburgh this Saturday. Head Coach Charlie Bachman will start a backfield combination against Pitt that will average 144 pounds more than the one that started the season.

In an effort to get the most speed out of the most weight, Coach Bachman has again shifted his backfield, and a likely combination for Saturday's game is one that will put Dominic Contos at quarterback, Steve Contos at halfback, Steve Contos and Ross Neider at the halfbacks and Jack Breslin in the fullback spot.

The changes have been to the advantage in both speed and weight, with 175-pound Conti replacing 150-pound Bill Siler at the quarterback post. In the left halfback slot will be Steve Contos, 182-pound freshman from Toledo, who has come up to meet expectations as a ball player. He has replaced Don Frensch, former winner from last year.

Ross Neider, who has scored State's only touchdown this season, weighs 195 pounds and is a sure to start Saturday in place of the injured Bob Ludwig. Frensch, who was injured in the Kentucky game, has returned to camp and will probably finish the season in the fullback spot.

The present combination of backs averages 196 pounds, compared with the average of 172 at the beginning of the season.

Yesterday's practice time was taken up with various running plays, despite the apparent passing prowess of the Spartans. In an effort to build up an offensive attack, Bachman has been using several plays that Kentucky failed against State.

Several possible changes may also affect the Spartan forward line. Bill Pagel of Blissfield has been moved temporarily from tackle to center. Pagel weighs 235 pounds. Leroy Gunderson, who turned in a fine performance in the Kentucky game, has also been featured at end in place of Tom Barbas in recent practices.

The Spartans will take the train Friday morning for Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh rolled over their first opponent 52 to 0 in their first game.

WALTER ECKBERG... Kappa Sig. returned from 18 months duty in the Pacific for 30-day leave this summer. Walter left State for the navy in 1943. His wife is the former Mary Reinking, who returned to State after he went overseas and graduated last term, 1944.

Pass Catcher

LEROY GUNDERSON, a towering end for the Spartans, has shown much promise as a pass catcher, and as a defensive end. He appeared in the Kentucky tilt and is expected to see action in Saturday's game with the Pittsburgh Panthers.

Secretary of War Requests Rigid Control of Atom Bomb

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP) — The backlash of Hiroshima's death bomb rolled through Congress today with these mixed results:

1. The House military committee heard a demand for legislation that would "prevent the President from going to a conference in a few months and trading off this (atomic bomb) secret."

2. A Senate committee was advised by Dr. Harlow Shapley, Harvard university astronomer, that "it is selfish, and perhaps dangerous," to conceal a secret that "can be of value to the whole world."

3. C. F. Kettering, noted inventor, told the same Senate committee he was confident the United States can keep up with the march of science.

Top witnesses before the House committee were Secretary of War Patterson and Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, commander of the huge Manhattan district organization that produced the Hiroshima holocaust.

Several committee members declared bluntly that they wanted a law—not President Truman's word alone—that the atom bomb will be kept secret from the world.

Secretary Patterson told the committee that the proposed commission representing all phases of the country's life is necessary because no one individual should have such responsibility. Even the winning of the war seems minor, he said, compared to the importance of full control over the power of the atom.

Don't even hold my tongue, debating issues longly, stalling over appropriation, and so forth. This may be a learning curve but that acute angle doesn't solve a thing. It certainly is moving slowly.

It was most inconsiderate of my Senator to make such a statement as you quoted, wasn't it? We must not let the "outside" world know what really goes on within the walls of this institution. However, one can't expect men already sick and tired of military red tape and regulations, to accept the situations and alternatives of our administration the way most of our students do. Perhaps they'll come around in time. I hope not.

The "lesson" was most interesting. Tuck this in the back of the lesson book. It's just one more.
