Sparks Are Careless; They Will Be Careless

Events of this nonsense. No one is going to believe who has not made a mob-cried violence and throwing abandon remarks at anyone who isn't on the right side of the controversy.

It is noteworthy that for the first time in many years, Michigan State students are rising to their bookish-looking chairs and defending their opinions. They are doing so in a twice.

Students are the car to be defended. Students picture themselves getting into a dance in which they are thrust as taxicabs. They wonder why they are urged to stay on a campus that is often voding entertainment and recreational farances.

The college, on the other hand, is worried about campus and student morals.

Lois Fisher's statement that the rule does not ban cars entirely has been ignored by the majority of the grippers.

Michiagran State is not the first, the second or the third college to ban cars. Other places have found a way to provide for adequate transportation.

Students at MSC want to know what they are, to do, and they have a right that is, given to them by the highest power in the land, the F. P. Phis by Emancipation act.

Student council will hold a special meeting at 8 tonight in the Spartan room to discuss the car is, with Pres. John A. Han-neman, 4. C. Brown, Dean of stident, Mrs. Isabelle Guerin, Dean of Women, and R. J. Stannard, register, member for men.

Public security officers are probably arranged to be present in the Spartan room to be able to keep in order.

Experienced Cast Begins Rehearsals

As 'Blithe Spirit'. Gets Underway

"Blithe Spirit," the fall term play, is "in great production stages," according to Don Burtl, director of the play which will be presented November 16 and 17 in the Student theater. The cast is being rehearsed.

All of the cast have experienced stage and dramatic activities. Patricia Days, senior, who is cast as Ruth Conndon, the second wife, was Elsa in "Peggy" last year. She has also played in the production of "The Importance of Being Earnest" and "42 Guin-

Pierre Laval

Exeuted As

Suicide Fails

PARIS. Oct. 15 (AP) — The stormy political career of Pierre Laval, thirteenth premier of France, ended in a dramatic end today when he was shot as a traitor after trying unsuccessfully to commit suicide.

Before he was led to the execution ground, Laval attempted to cheat the firing squad by taking poison, but in this, as in other things, the head of government in the Vichy regime failed.

Four hours later, in the courtyard at Fresnes prison, his life ended by a pistol shot through the temple after he had been brought to his knees by a volley from an execution squad of 15.

Just before the volley was fired, Laval, condemned for intelligence with the enemy and endangering the security of the state, turned to the judge of the high court of justice which had tried him.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I am

LETTERS . . . . To the Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE—All letters to the editor will be printed on the assumption of being public. If he does not wish his name to appear, he must say so in writing. If the letter is believed to be libellous, a copy must be submitted before it is published. In every instance, all comments expressed are those of the individual writer and not necessarily held by the editors.

To the Editor:

Your last issue's comment on the October 23rd issue of the Michigan State News, we believe, had us thinking that we were the only ones who were interested in the turn of events in the world which refer to the MSCSU Est 47.

Now as you know, the majority of the students here are seventeen to twenty years of age. However, we would like to report that each one of us here enrolled in the army before the thousands of enlistments and were under the impression that we would be combat duty within a year.

We joined with the intention of fighting in the war to preserve such things as education and decent institutions such as Michigan State College. Please remember that we were here under orders, and although most of us would wish to be elsewhere, we are doing our duty and in the end we know the ATRP will be the only entity left standing in the army of the United States; a fact of which we are deeply proud.

We feel that the 이것은 returned veter-nans, who we respect, and who are back for a longer training and are not in favor of any kind of military organization. If the editors of the Michigan State News is only a good thing for the return of veterans, the best thing we can do is to enlist those services in the army.

Signed on behalf of Company A, 1C, Cadet Battalion Major; Barbara M. McPherson, Cadet Captain; C. L. Turner, Cadet Lt. Col. A.; Jack Faxon, Cadet Lt. Co. A.; and Cadet Lt. Co. A. -

State Captures 12-7 Victory To Defeat Near Big Ten Pitt

In one of the biggest college football games so far this year, the Michigan State Spartan band triumphed the Pittsburgh Panthers on Saturday by a score of 12-7.

Complete breaking the highly rated Panthers, the Spartans made their most complete victory in the first two quarters, according to the officials. The Panthers scored, and was one of the reasons for the loss of the game. The Michigan State will appear in future games.

Brady Sullivan Leaves Spartan Grid Squad; Makes No Comment

Charlie Bachman, Spartan football coach, has accepted the resignation of Brady Sullivan, the captain of the school's junior varsity football team. The Spartans now have a new captain.

According to the coach, Sullivan walked off the field in practice Thursday before the Pitt game, and as a result his name was not entered to be turned into the game. He did not make the trip with the team.

As to whether he has quit or not, Sullivan and Bachman have no comment.

Wolverine Pictures of Scenes of Canadian Landscape

One of the first exhibits to be featured in the second floor corridor of the art studios this year is a group of large silk-screen prints that are reproductions of original oil paintings by Canadian artists. This show is part of the larger exhibit of oil paintings by Canadian artists that will be shown in the Music building art gallery this month.

The subject matter is varied, but includes primarily scenes of Canadian landcscapes by well known artists of that country.

There is also an exhibit of the student's work from the campus. Students from all parts of the country have contributed to the exhibit.

Faculty Members, To Investigate Soil Fertility

A trip to Barry county is being made today by several department heads and staff members at the request of Harold Foster, county agent, and the directors of the Barry county soil conservation department. Eighty thousand acres of land in Barry county have agricultural possibilities but at the present time because of the depletion of soil fertility and erosion it is not contributing much agriculturally, according to Foster. The purpose of the trip is to determine the best uses of this type of land.

Department heads making the trip are E. P. Anthony, department of agriculture; Roy Becker, farm crops; E. E. Miller, soil scientist; George Brown, animal husbandry; G. M. Trout, dairy; R. V. Gurner, agriculture experimenter; M. E. Hill, forest management; H. B. Tukev, horticulture; Professor Farrell, agriculture engineering; P. A. Herzen, soils; J. W. Zink, agronomy; and C. P. Loeving, sociology and entomology.
