Today's Campus

AWS Explains Rules For Recent Exam

At the regular AWS meeting the following statements were made by Sue Averill, Birdie Carter, and Miss E. M. E. Bland.

Penalty Assessment

A penalty will be all given to those individuals who did not take the test the original scheduled time.

Student Council Statement

The Student Council announced last night that it is not advocating a strike now or in the future as a method of modifying the car ban. The matter will be referred to a student-faculty committee by majority vote. The members of future action will be taken in this group.

Spartan Student Council

The Spartan Student Council desires to leave the matter to the consideration of the student body. It will be reported to the membership of the student body at a general meeting at 1:30 in room 21 of the library.

Address of voice locomotive

The voice locomotive Explains the hours who went down and the coolness expressed toward the operators, who have worked hard, and are attempting to get satisfactory service from the operators.

Let Students Occupy Former Co-op House

Sixteen veterans are living in the Former Co-op House, the former home of the College News. The college gave the house to the Michigan Veterans at the close of the World War.

Factories Reasons

The need for factories resulting in the demand for labor.

The need for factories resulting in the demand for labor.

Let's Have A Fight Locomotive and YELL!

By Marian Vandal

Today's Badger football game may have stumbled upon assigning the home team to the Pac-10. At least five men showed up for cheering trials, and four agreed that women students should be allowed to cheer at the first time in the history of the University.

Women Try Out

Tryouts were opened to women, 15 showed up and 14 were selected to form a women's squad.

Organized Cheerleading Involves Certain Requirements and the Staff Members of six girls to wear special uniforms, including hair covers.

The team members are required to perform at several games, and the team will be divided into the first and second-year standing.

Try New Yell

The second song, composed in a following grandstand with new yells and is to be taught by Mrs. Alice Dauter, and Miss Lucille Daily in the music room and the basketball team, is known when to cheer.

Cheerleading Appeal

The cheerleading appeal is to have something that the yells are tried and true in the back-off yell and the Michigan State fight yell.

Suggested

Hannah Gives Viewpoints On Situation

Student Council to Name Group to Investigate Board of Ag Ruling

At an open meeting to the student council last night a given motion was carried and carried to form a committee to investigate the situation by the Board of Agriculture ruling of Oct. 15 in favor of student driving on the Michigan State campus.

Following a talk by Prof. John R. Hing, who explained why the college administration had made the rule which had been under consideration for many years, Student Council Pres. Ike Fisher, Grand Division, member, heard the appeal.

He referred the American Legion and individual students who have tried to express that they opposed the ban and the board to make immediate action.

Let's Have A Fight Locomotive and YELL!

By Marian Vandal

Today's Badger football game may have stumbled upon assigning the home team to the Pac-10. At least five men showed up for cheering trials, and four agreed that women students should be allowed to cheer at the first time in the history of the University.

Women Try Out

Tryouts were opened to women, 15 showed up and 14 were selected to form a women's squad.

Organized Cheerleading Involves Certain Requirements and the Staff Members of six girls to wear special uniforms, including hair covers.

The team members are required to perform at several games, and the team will be divided into the first and second-year standing.

Try New Yell

The second song, composed in a following grandstand with new yells and is to be taught by Mrs. Alice Dauter, and Miss Lucille Daily in the music room and the basketball team, is known when to cheer.

Cheerleading Appeal

The cheerleading appeal is to have something that the yells are tried and true in the back-off yell and the Michigan State fight yell.

Suggested

Hannah Gives Viewpoints On Situation

Student Council to Name Group to Investigate Board of Ag Ruling

At an open meeting to the student council last night a given motion was carried and carried to form a committee to investigate the situation by the Board of Agriculture ruling of Oct. 15 in favor of student driving on the Michigan State campus.

Following a talk by Prof. John R. Hing, who explained why the college administration had made the rule which had been under consideration for many years, Student Council Pres. Ike Fisher, Grand Division, member, heard the appeal.

He referred the American Legion and individual students who have tried to express that they opposed the ban and the board to make immediate action.

Let's Have A Fight Locomotive and YELL!

By Marian Vandal

Today's Badger football game may have stumbled upon assigning the home team to the Pac-10. At least five men showed up for cheering trials, and four agreed that women students should be allowed to cheer at the first time in the history of the University.

Women Try Out

Tryouts were opened to women, 15 showed up and 14 were selected to form a women's squad.

Organized Cheerleading Involves Certain Requirements and the Staff Members of six girls to wear special uniforms, including hair covers.

The team members are required to perform at several games, and the team will be divided into the first and second-year standing.

Try New Yell

The second song, composed in a following grandstand with new yells and is to be taught by Mrs. Alice Dauter, and Miss Lucille Daily in the music room and the basketball team, is known when to cheer.

Cheerleading Appeal

The cheerleading appeal is to have something that the yells are tried and true in the back-off yell and the Michigan State fight yell.

Suggested

Hannah Gives Viewpoints On Situation

Student Council to Name Group to Investigate Board of Ag Ruling

At an open meeting to the student council last night a given motion was carried and carried to form a committee to investigate the situation by the Board of Agriculture ruling of Oct. 15 in favor of student driving on the Michigan State campus.

Following a talk by Prof. John R. Hing, who explained why the college administration had made the rule which had been under consideration for many years, Student Council Pres. Ike Fisher, Grand Division, member, heard the appeal.

He referred the American Legion and individual students who have tried to express that they opposed the ban and the board to make immediate action.

Let's Have A Fight Locomotive and YELL!

By Marian Vandal

Today's Badger football game may have stumbled upon assigning the home team to the Pac-10. At least five men showed up for cheering trials, and four agreed that women students should be allowed to cheer at the first time in the history of the University.

Women Try Out

Tryouts were opened to women, 15 showed up and 14 were selected to form a women's squad.

Organized Cheerleading Involves Certain Requirements and the Staff Members of six girls to wear special uniforms, including hair covers.

The team members are required to perform at several games, and the team will be divided into the first and second-year standing.

Try New Yell

The second song, composed in a following grandstand with new yells and is to be taught by Mrs. Alice Dauter, and Miss Lucille Daily in the music room and the basketball team, is known when to cheer.

Cheerleading Appeal

The cheerleading appeal is to have something that the yells are tried and true in the back-off yell and the Michigan State fight yell.

Suggested

Hannah Gives Viewpoints On Situation

Student Council to Name Group to Investigate Board of Ag Ruling

At an open meeting to the student council last night a given motion was carried and carried to form a committee to investigate the situation by the Board of Agriculture ruling of Oct. 15 in favor of student driving on the Michigan State campus.

Following a talk by Prof. John R. Hing, who explained why the college administration had made the rule which had been under consideration for many years, Student Council Pres. Ike Fisher, Grand Division, member, heard the appeal.

He referred the American Legion and individual students who have tried to express that they opposed the ban and the board to make immediate action.

Let's Have A Fight Locomotive and YELL!

By Marian Vandal

Today's Badger football game may have stumbled upon assigning the home team to the Pac-10. At least five men showed up for cheering trials, and four agreed that women students should be allowed to cheer at the first time in the history of the University.

Women Try Out

Tryouts were opened to women, 15 showed up and 14 were selected to form a women's squad.

Organized Cheerleading Involves Certain Requirements and the Staff Members of six girls to wear special uniforms, including hair covers.

The team members are required to perform at several games, and the team will be divided into the first and second-year standing.

Try New Yell

The second song, composed in a following grandstand with new yells and is to be taught by Mrs. Alice Dauter, and Miss Lucille Daily in the music room and the basketball team, is known when to cheer.

Cheerleading Appeal

The cheerleading appeal is to have something that the yells are tried and true in the back-off yell and the Michigan State fight yell.

Suggested

Hannah Gives Viewpoints On Situation

Student Council to Name Group to Investigate Board of Ag Ruling

At an open meeting to the student council last night a given motion was carried and carried to form a committee to investigate the situation by the Board of Agriculture ruling of Oct. 15 in favor of student driving on the Michigan State campus.

Following a talk by Prof. John R. Hing, who explained why the college administration had made the rule which had been under consideration for many years, Student Council Pres. Ike Fisher, Grand Division, member, heard the appeal.

He referred the American Legion and individual students who have tried to express that they opposed the ban and the board to make immediate action.

Let's Have A Fight Locomotive and YELL!

By Marian Vandal

Today's Badger football game may have stumbled upon assigning the home team to the Pac-10. At least five men showed up for cheering trials, and four agreed that women students should be allowed to cheer at the first time in the history of the University.

Women Try Out

Tryouts were opened to women, 15 showed up and 14 were selected to form a women's squad.

Organized Cheerleading Involves Certain Requirements and the Staff Members of six girls to wear special uniforms, including hair covers.

The team members are required to perform at several games, and the team will be divided into the first and second-year standing.

Try New Yell

The second song, composed in a following grandstand with new yells and is to be taught by Mrs. Alice Dauter, and Miss Lucille Daily in the music room and the basketball team, is known when to cheer.

Cheerleading Appeal

The cheerleading appeal is to have something that the yells are tried and true in the back-off yell and the Michigan State fight yell.

Suggested

Hannah Gives Viewpoints On Situation

Student Council to Name Group to Investigate Board of Ag Ruling

At an open meeting to the student council last night a given motion was carried and carried to form a committee to investigate the situation by the Board of Agriculture ruling of Oct. 15 in favor of student driving on the Michigan State campus.

Following a talk by Prof. John R. Hing, who explained why the college administration had made the rule which had been under consideration for many years, Student Council Pres. Ike Fisher, Grand Division, member, heard the appeal.

He referred the American Legion and individual students who have tried to express that they opposed the ban and the board to make immediate action.
MSC to Stress Offensive Tactics Against Tararchs

Spartans Work On Tackling, Blocking

offensive tactics will be stressed when the Spartans tackle over their season-opening victory today against Ohio State Saturday. For the past 3 weeks, the Spartans have been flat in their practice sessions, but Coach Charlie Bachman reasserts that game-winning strength is born in the arena of those padded surfaces played. The Spartans had two practice sessions this week, and are expected to be at full strength.

INFORMATION

See insert page 2

Edwin J. Mowbray

SPARTANS WORK ON TACKLING, BLOCKING

Spartans to Tackle Over Their Season-Opening Victory

The Spartans will work on their tackling today in preparation for the game against Ohio State.

Professional Golfers' Play Tournaments

THURSDAY September 17 - The college parking lots will be filled with hundreds of golfers who will start down from the dormitory to the golf course at 7:30, and then head back on campus, where they will meet their next opponent, the Ohio State golf team.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The editor will meet with the Student Senate at 7:30 on Thursday evening to discuss the upcoming events in the college.

Comm Refuses To Fight For Heavyweight Title

NEW YORK October 17 - mesaly is the New York Times announcement today that the college has refused to engage in any heavyweight title matches. The college has decided to focus on its wrestling program instead.

FULL TERM SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR 1945

OCTOBER

Nov. 2 Alpha Sigma Phi homecoming dance - Union Ballroom
Nov. 10 Alpha Chi Omega homecoming dance - Interfraternity council office
Nov. 3 Alpha Chi Omega homecoming dance - Demonstration ball
Nov. 2 Zeta Tau Alpha homecoming dance - Phi Delta Sigma house
Nov. 1 Zeta Tau Alpha tea for housemothers - Sigma Tau house
Nov. 24 Kappa Kappa Gamma party - Sigma Chi house

CAR BAN

(Continued from Page 1) the supporting site at a minimum cost and that student drivers have a "keeping up with the Jones" problem. He believes that the car ban will provide a "democratic spirit in the student body."

The third reason, he said, and the most important, was purely aesthetic, and that any bare or other unappealing place was within student reach. He said that support institutions such as the SGA did not like the idea of students spending their time in such places, and that it would not look good for the college.

The council has invited the student body to vote on the ban, and the results are due to be announced soon.

(Continued from Page 1) the council will take no action on the ban, and that the council would have to take action to control the ban. The college has extended an invitation to the students to participate in the ban, and the results are due to be announced soon.

The council has invited the student body to vote on the ban, and the results are due to be announced soon.

WASHINGTON, D.C. October 20 - The college has invited the student body to vote on the ban, and the results are due to be announced soon.

ZINTE WAVE

- Standard Letter Head Size
- 2 or 3 Ring Binder
- 2 Handy Pockets
- New Plastic Finish
- 4.85

OTHERS 1.95 to 11.50

Your Name in Great Font of Charge

LIEBERMANN'S

177 South Wacker Drive Ave. Near Michigan Ave.
Four members of the administration faculty will serve on the committee to prepare the revised constitution of the Board of Agriculture, Dean L. C. Conners, Dr. Joseph H. Waller, and the administrator. The revised constitution will be presented at the next meeting of the faculty, and the outline will be presented at the next meeting of the Administration Committee.

Thursday, October 18, 1910, 9:00 A.M.

Speaking at the regular Legion Day, at 9:00 A.M. in the Assembly Hall, will be Mr. James A. Mathews, former President of the State University. He will give an address before the members of the American Legion. This address will be of special interest to the students and faculty.

Hannah S. L. American Legion Statement

Speaking at the regular Legion Day, at 9:00 A.M. in the Assembly Hall, will be Mr. James A. Mathews, former President of the State University. He will give an address before the members of the American Legion. This address will be of special interest to the students and faculty.

EAST LANSING