Today's Campus

Trudy, The Chief

Trudy Hamilton, Bay City junior, never knew what she was in for when she volunteered as fire chief at the Alpha Phi house. She had been given implicit directions what to do in attacking fires, and Trudy's inspired sorority sisters thought it would be a valuable experience to put these directions into practice. Hardly had the cry of fire been dashed for the extinguisher. To her half-dazed mind, the lantern they had lighted looked like the real thing. It took but a moment for them to realize that the only thing that the Alpha Phis had to fear being raised, was the fire.

Gobs of Fun

Wondering if a notice in lost and found would locate three lost buddies, an Ann Arbor sailor came desperately to the State news office last night about 8. The Phi Delta sailor had come East Lansing with three other gobs who promised him they would meet him in the Union at 11:30 that afternoon.

The only possible space that could be afforded him for the next ad would be in Thursday's paper, but feeling that there must be a better way, he left to stand watch at his post again in the room.

Quick Workers

The prospective philosophers in Prof. J. M. DeHlaan's ten o'clock class in discussing evolution, were comparing man with the lower animals. While explaining an experiment performed with the DeHlaan gave out with one of his "by-the-way" gem quotations—"Kats are expert mathematicians—they multiply amazingly rapidly."

About Face, Faces

Since the beginning of the term sign reading, "Welcome," has been posted on the door of the recreation room of South Williams hall, in which eleven women are living temporarily. In the excitement of the new open house at Williams Saturday evening, the sign was forgotten. Taking the sign at its word, two gentlemen proceeded to enter, but to no avail. The open house was "closed" temporarily.

You Have a Friend?

Class discussion in Herbert Lehninger's English literature course yesterday centered for a moment on women and how they share the blame for the evils in the world. Said Weisinger: "If Adam was smart as he was supposed to be, why did he fall for Eve?" Marjorie Pearce, East Lansing sophomore, had the answer. She remarked, "Well, she was the only one he knew!"

Outnumbered

Something new in the date line. The Birmingham Senators, swallowed in astonishment Tuesday night when she was named with. "Ginna, you are a caller—in fact you have more of them!" However, it turned out that her date had brought some fraternity brothers and Ginna soon remedied the situation with help of her sorority sisters. The idea was, she said later, to get the Sigma Kappa and the Kappa Sigmas

Navy Opposes Tie With War Department

Forrestal Offers Plan In Place of Merger

Pointing at beaten Germany as a horrible example, the navy today opposed proposals for merger of war and navy departments.

"The Germans had that in Hitler, and I do not think it is a profitable example," Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal told the senate military affairs committee.

Forrestal Suggests
In place of the congressional proposals for a single department with authority over air, land and sea forces, the navy's civilian chief suggested:

1. A study of the whole field of postwar defense problems by a committee of military experts, congressmen, and leaders in science, labor, education and industry.

All organizations wishing to have their pictures in the 1946 Wolverine MUST have their contracts in today or notify the Wolverine office.

2. Creation of a national security council composed of the secretaries of state, war and navy, plus the head of a new national security resources board.

3. Retention of the present war and navy departments and many of the wartime organizations which, Forrestal said, produced coordinated efforts in military operations.

Air Department
The cabinet members offered a big chart that showed a new department of air ranking along with present war and navy departments, but Secretary Forrestal said he was not convinced that air should be given an equal place.

When Forrestal had completed his prepared arguments, most senators on the military committee made it clear by a barrage of critical questions that they still favored some plan for consolidating all armed forces under a single cabinet position.

APO, Student Council To Sponsor Pep Rally

APO and the Student council are sponsoring the pep rally which will take place at the west entrance of the Union building Friday night at 7.

Chairman "Red" Schneider, Lansing junior, has announced that backfield coach, Johnny Pingle, and Russ Reader, Spartan halfback, will be the speakers.

'The Girl Back Home' Rates High With G.I.

By PEG FARRELL

How American women compare to the ones Yank soldiers associated with while stationed throughout the world is no longer a dark secret. Michigan State college veterans when asked their opinion on said subject, gave answers that should make the morale of "those who waited" soar.

Fritz Carrier, Mason freshman, prefers American women because they know how to accentuate their feminine charms far more effectively than foreign women with the possible exception of those in Paris.

Lyle Meyers, Midland freshman, states that in an objective comparison the two are equal. However, the foreign women are harder to get acquainted with

Coeds Stage Annual Carnival Tonight

Rural Problems To Be Studied

Ralph W. Tenny, short course director, has announced that two conferences on rural problems will be held at MSC this week.

The first of these is scheduled for today and tomorrow and will be on rural electrification. The second is a conference for Michigan feed men to be held on Thursday and Friday.

From fifty to seventy-five persons are anticipated to attend the fifth annual conference on rural electrification. The conference is especially planned for field men of companies which supply electricity to farms.

The topics to be discussed are "Farming with Electricity," "Electricity at Work for You," and "Training for Rural Engineers."

One hundred persons are expected to attend the eighth annual feed men's conference. The conference will cover such topics as "Modernizing the Feed Mill," "The Relation of Soil Fertility to Nutrition of Men and Animals," and "The Influence of New Ingredients on Feeds."

Moyle to Talk On Silicones

Dr. C. L. Moyle, director of the process development laboratory of Dow Corning corporation of Midland, will address the Michigan State college section of the American Chemical society at 7:30 Tuesday evening, in the main lecture room of Kedzie chemical laboratory.

"Silicones—A New Field of Chemistry" will be the subject of Dr. Moyle's lecture. The possibilities of this new chemical field will be discussed. Due to their unusual heat stability, and their many uses, silicones have had to remain secret, but now some of the information is open to the public.

Useful in the electrical, motor, lubricating, rubber and paints and varnish industries, this new chemical substance was instrumental in allowing the United States to perfect its stratosphere plane.

Moyle received his doctorate at the University of Minnesota, and at that time he accepted the position of group leader at the Dow Chemical company. In 1944 he joined the staff of the Dow Corning corporation.

This will be the first meeting of the school year, and it will be open to the public.

Floor Show, Skit, Demonstration Booths Included in Evening's Entertainment

Demonstration hall will open its doors tonight at 7 and don a gay appearance for all MSC women as the annual Coed Carnival, sponsored by AWS activities board, gets under way. Greeting all fun-seekers at the door will be clowns and hawkers who will hand out handbills to add a true touch of carnival spirit to the evening.

Decorated booths representing women's clubs, honoraries, and interest groups will function during the evening both as a source of information about the organizations' activities and as a place of amusement.

Fortune tellers, freak shows, and demonstration booths will all be in evidence with the food booth under the management of the Home Ec club.

Floor Show

The main show of the evening will feature student entertainment with Merrill Walker, Miles sophomore, as master of ceremonies. Walker will sing two vocal selections as will Norma Lou Gregg, senior music major from Lansing. A saxophone number will be played by Marilyn Green, Detroit senior.

A short skit given by the experimental radio workshop will be in a comic vein. It is entitled "If Men Went Shopping as Women Do." Rounding out the evening's program will be the Phi Tau boogie trio.

Guests for the evening will include Pres. and Mrs. John A.

AWS meeting will be held at 5 this afternoon to avoid conflicting with the Coed Carnival tonight, according to Pres. Sue Averill, Birmingham senior.

Hannah, Mrs. Isabelle Gibson, Dean and Mrs. Stanley Crowe, Dean and Mrs. Howard C. Fisher, and Dean and Mrs. Lloyd C. Emmons.

Also Guests

Others will be Mr. and Mrs. Tom King, Prof. and Mrs. Donald O. Buell, Prof. and Mrs. Albert Applegate, Col. and Mrs. G. B. Egger, and Miss Elizabeth Corbishley.

Those present from the home economics department will be Dean Marie Dye, Miss Elizabeth Walbert, and Miss Dorothy M. Greey.

Dr. Lydia L. Lightring, Miss Dorothy Parker and Miss Elizabeth Daniels, of the women's physical education department will complete the guest list.

... Nicola Moscona ...

Korjus, Moscona To Offer Recital

Miliza Korjus and Nicola Moscona, opera stars, will be presented in a joint recital at 8:15 tomorrow evening in College auditorium, according to S. E. Crowe, dean of students.

Among other numbers, Miss Korjus will sing "Charmant Oiseau" by David, the "Gypsy and the Bird" by Benedict, which will be accompanied by Henry Bove, flutist, and selections from Strauss. Nicola Moscona will include Handel's "Thanks Be to Thee" and Mozart's aria from "Nozze di Figaro."

Miss Korjus, a native of Warsaw, toured Europe singing as an operatic soprano until she came to the United States to star in the film "Great Waltz."

Nicola Moscona, born in Greece, made his debut at the National Opera House at Athens. Shortly afterwards, the Greek government awarded him with a scholarship enabling him to continue his studies in Milan.

He made his New York debut at the Metropolitan opera, and has become one of the most versatile members of the company.

Robert Friers To Speak On Mexico Saturday

Robert Friers, adventurer and motion picture producer, will speak Saturday night in College auditorium at 8:15. Dean S. E. Crowe has announced.

The lecture will include a color-motion picture travelogue, "Mexican Holiday," which will be the topic of his talk.

and resent the methods used to do so.

Foreign women—wow! Parisians in particular say Jack Baumister, Fulton, N. Y., freshman, while Bill Poindexter, West Virginia freshman, says that despite different customs foreign women are plenty nice.

Dick Jackson, Pontiac freshman, believes "those overseas" to be a poor substitute for the women back home. If the foreign women would take a bath, says Bob La Du, Cleveland Heights, O., freshman, they'd put the American women to shame.

"The best women I knew while overseas," claims Tom Lightbody, Detroit freshman, "were the ones I wrote to back in the States."

Ed Fisher, Detroit freshman, feels that foreign women are more understanding but lack that certain something that is characteristic of American womanhood.

Jim Fraser, Webberville freshman, states that foreign women are not as cultured as the average American woman.

French and German women are versatile conversationalists says Jerry O'Malley, Grand Rapids freshman, but the American women are more refined.

Judging from the answers given, the men are glad to be back and associating with the American women once more. Or maybe it's just as well they got back when they did.

TO the Editor:
At last week's combined meeting of the faculty, Student council, and student union, fraternities were drawn into an undesirable participation in the discussion concerning the car ban ruling. I would like to point out that the viewpoints presented were purely personal opinion and not in accordance with the ideals and policies of the fraternities and of the Interfraternity council.
The topic of car ban is an individual problem and as such falls beyond the scope of authority of fraternal organizations. On behalf of the IFC and the individuals it represents, I should like to apologize to the administration and student body for any misrepresentation of the aforementioned policy.

Sincerely,
Ralph Fenstermacher,
President of IFC.

Affairs of State

By NAN TRABUE and DOTTIE LAMONT

It looks like all the excitement about student striking yesterday dissolved into thin air. Tough about that, 'cause we were hopefully planning on spending a day of leisure, and looking into this thing they call midterms. The news is piled up miles high today so without getting too morbid beforehand, here's the latest.
John Kobs, returned veteran and Phi Delt, didn't have that pin on very long after shedding the khaki, before Jayne Melers took over to place it with her Kappa key.

While taking our inquisitive little excursion round the campus, we found that excitement was brewing at the Alpha Chi house across the street. It took less than a key-hole look to see that weddings were in the offing. Kay Roosa, who left school a year ago, was married in Lansing to Bob Treanor on Saturday. Following on Sunday, Genie Libby became the bride of Lt. Ken Marshall in Lansing.

Left-handed coeds with big smiles are still indicating that jewelry isn't too hard to get, but it's getting to be like hunting for car owners around here. They're just hard to find. We nabbed one though. Seems that Alice Lodeesen, Royal Oak junior, is one of those few, with claims on Bob Seelye, SAE pledge. Another setting up her priority list good and proper is Jeanne Mosson, Lake Odessa senior, who received a ring from Quintin Metzig, last weekend when he came to campus from Oshkosh, Wis., where he has been working since graduation last year.

Mary Ziegeler, Highland Park sophomore, added a diamond to her belongings way last summer, but that's not so long ago, so the information has it that the man is Ensign Holly Nelson, stationed in

Army, Notre Dame Top Football Poll

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — Army and Notre Dame galloped to added strength in today's compilation of the Associated Press' weekly poll to determine the country's top collegiate football team, while Navy and Ohio State skidded to lower berths.
The Cadets, who have reigned since November last year without interruption, took 101 of the 112 first place votes and were not placed lower than third on any ticket.
Notre Dame, which defeated Pittsburgh Saturday by a 39 to 9 margin after a rugged first quarter moved into second place ahead of Navy, which jumped to a 20 to 6 conquest of Case Tech.

Biggest change in the standings, however, was brought about by Purdue's 35 to 12 victory over Ohio State, last year's Big Ten champion. The Boilermakers bounded from ninth to top ranking while the Buckeyes dropped from fourth to twelfth.
The University of Michigan rated 16th in the poll with 10 points.

Spartans Achieve Eighth Win Over Wayne By 27-7 Score

Hendricks Makes First Touchdown; Kick Good

Winning as expected, but with more difficulty than anticipated, the Michigan State Spartans romped around the Wayne Tartars in their eighth consecutive victory over Wayne, and their third win in a row.

Held scoreless in the entire first quarter, the Spartans came roaring back in the second to cross the paydirt twice. The drive for the first touchdown started back on the State 33.

Three successive drives by the Spartans, put the ball on the Wayne 46. This was followed by three drives by Don Hendricks, which put the ball ahead another 4 yards. A pass from Reader to Contos was good for eight yards, and Contos, still running, carried the ball to the Wayne three.

On the next play Hendricks went through center for the three yards to a touchdown. Ludwig's kick was good for the extra point.

Second Touchdown Made

The next State touchdown came after Wayne was forced to punt from their 21. Reader caught it on Wayne's 46, and kicking up his blocking went all the way for a touchdown. Reader kicked good to make the score 14.

In the third quarter, State started a march from the Wayne 10. Reverses by Contos and runs by Breslin and Gaylord brought the ball to the one-yard line. Then Breslin took the ball again and went over left guard for the try. Ludwig's attempt for the extra point was not good.

Over Again

One more touchdown came for the Spartans in the fourth quarter. From the Wayne 46, Bogart passed to Cont on the 41, who ran the ball to the 36. Bogart went around right end for five yards, and Jones scampered through left guard for another five.

Then it was Contos and Breslin again, to the 7-yard line. On handoff through left tackle, Contos went over for the touchdown. This time Malaga converted for the extra point.

Passes by Misteck to Kouvelas accounted for the Wayne touchdown. Final score: State, 27; Wayne, 7.

Coach Expects Stiff Opposition

Penalized 130 yards in the Wayne game, Spartan gridmen are due for some lecturing this week, Coach Charlie Bachman declared yesterday.

"Those 15-yard penalties against Wayne didn't affect the outcome of the game too much, but they might this week, and we're going to try to eliminate them," he said.

The coach was referring to Saturday's meeting with Marquette, which scouting reports forecast as stiff opposition.

Though Marquette lost to Great Lakes last Saturday night by a score of 37 to 27, and were defeated decisively by Wisconsin earlier in the season, the Hill-toppers are a spirited outfit and will make it tough going for State.

Lambda Chis Win First Game With Two Point Lead

In their opening game of the season the SAEs dropped a close decision to the Lambda Chis by a score of 13 to 15. In the second game played last night, the Delta Sigs took a close one from the Sigma Chis, 7 to 6.

John Struble set the ball rolling for the Lambda Chis when he fell on the ball behind the SAE goal and chalked up two points, to put the Lambda-Chis ahead.

Frank Buis scored the first touchdown of the evening on a pass and the kick following put the Lambda Chis way out in front, 9 to 0. Early in the second half the SAE attack rallied and two touchdowns followed, but they were unable to catch the fast moving Lambda Chis.

The Delta Sigs and Sigma Chis took to the field for the second game of the night bill. A long pass from Charlie Brown to Hamilton Hurst that was good for 45 yards set the ball over the goal stage for the first Delta Sig score. On the next play Phil Begley passed to Charlie Brown for the extra point.

The second half saw both teams held scoreless, but the Delta Sigs threatened in the last two minutes, when Charlie Brown passed to Ken Shultz for 42 yards, but the Sigma Chis took the ball over on downs, and the game ended with a final score of Delta Sigs, 7, Sigma Chis 6.

AFFAIRS

A quick once over of this pile of lists is good indication that the Greeks have been having a time for themselves. Wearing the X and the horseshoe of an active Chi Omega are sophomores Doris Diedrich, Grand Rapids; Fay Blakley, Gibraltar; Caroline Gray, Dearborn; Kathy Price, Cass City, and Margaret Lyons.

Juniors are Joyce Mounsey, Bluffton, Ind.; Lois Wilson, Wyandotte, and Motzie Meyers, Monroe.

Just for the variety of it all, we'll see what the male population is doing about the initiations. The ATO maltese cross is firmly lodged on the sweaters of juniors Merle Smith, Owosso; William Gaylord, Pontiac; Sam Fortino, Alma, and Bill Jackson Sterling. Others are sophomores Russel Crafts, Davidson; Richard Sirrine, Midland; and Martin Hansen, Flint.

New pledges for ATO are freshmen Alex Arnot, St. Clair Shores; Frank Stevens, Jackson; Charles Berry, Grand Rapids, and Floyd Johnson, Grand Rapids.

If this is all beginning to look like something you just got through seeing before, maybe the new officer roster at the Sigma Chi house will break the monotony. President is Bob Nuttall, Waukegan, Ill., sophomore; Darrel Couey, Detroit senior, is vice president. Fred Meyer, Fair Haven senior, is taking minutes, and the money bags are in the hands of treasurer Bob Meyers, Cheboygan junior.

TO the Editor:

Now that the initial wonder has worn off, I'd like to ask a question. Who do some of these women on campus think they are wearing freshman numerals (classes of '44 and '45 I've seen) and minor varsity letter sweaters? They can't be the female cheerleaders with those numbers.

Along a similar line, walking across campus one would think he were at some high school convention. So many frosh wearing their high school letter sweaters makes me wonder what ever happened to some of the old traditions around MSC. Not to many years ago offending freshmen were introduced to the Red Cedar—personally.

Members Sought For MSC Swimming Team

"We can use any man who has had competitive or recreational swimming experience," Charles McCaffree, Jr., swimming coach, said yesterday at the first meeting of candidates for the team.

Thus far 30 men have come out to practice, but more than a dozen of them are subject to draft.

Coach Views Prospects For Wrestling Team

With four lettermen back this year, Findley Collins, wrestling coach, has high hopes for a strong team. At a meeting to Jenison gym yesterday, Collins looked over his team prospects. "Grunt - and - groan" veterans back include Gale Mikles, Peoria, Okla., sophomore; Cliff Fletcher, Yale sophomore; Gordon Cole, Birmingham sophomore, and Hal Dachtler, Charlotte senior.

Union Board, Greek, Women's Groups Announce Weekend Entertainment

Women on campus will take the lead in making "bids" for social fun this weekend, according to the list of parties registered with the counselor of women's office yesterday.

West Mary Mayo women are inviting all men on campus to their open house affair Friday night, according to Helen Jackson, Detroit freshman, social chairman. Called the "Hollo Hock," the party will be from 8:30 to 12 p.m. with dancing, entertainment, and refreshments ready for all.

Saturday night Mason and Abbot dorms will jointly throw open their doors for "Devils Holiday," an open house event from 9 to 12, according to Doris Baird, Ionia junior, social chairman.

All men students will be welcomed to this pre-Halloween party and dancing, games, and an elaborate floorshow will be on the entertainment program.

Alpha Omicron Pi women have invited AGR men to be their guests Saturday night at a radio party from 8 to 12, according to Shirley Thorpe, Detroit sophomore, social chairman. In tune with a Halloween theme, dancing and food will provide the evening's fun.

Another Greek informal party will go on at the Kappa Kappa Gamma chapter house from 9 to 12 Saturday evening, according to Jayne Meier, Detroit senior, social chairman. Sorority members and their dates will enjoy dancing, games, and food.

Greek men will put their fingers in the social pie when Sigma Chi members entertain their dates at a radio party from 9 to 12 Saturday evening at the chapter house. Platter music and entertainment will be in the program, according to Bob Dodge, Detroit freshman, social chairman.

After the game Saturday afternoon all students are invited, stag or drag, to a coffee at the Canterbury house, 455 Abbot road, according to Helen Knapp, Rochester, N. Y., junior, of the executive board.

Union board last night announced plans for its weekly Saturday night dance which will be held from 9 to midnight in the Union ballroom, with Dick Snook and his orchestra taking care of the music. Dick Mosher, East Lansing junior, is in charge of the affair.

Because of a Union employees' party Friday, there will be no Friday Frolic, Co-chairman Jane Walcott, Fenton junior, said, until Nov. 2, when the weekly dance and game affair will be resumed.

Party-Party will not be held this week, either, Miss Walcott said, because of the Saturday football game, but will be held again on Nov. 24, when the first broadcast of "Spartan Varieties" will be presented.

Recital Will Feature Reading of New Play By Speech Teacher

A lecture-recital will be given by Mrs. Moiree Compere of the speech department tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Music auditorium.

Mrs. Compere will give an interpretative reading of the play "I Remember Mama" by John VanDruten, which is now playing on Broadway. The play is an adaptation of Kathryn Forbes' book "Mama's Bank Account."

The story concerns a Norwegian-American family and is a recollection of their life together. The locale is San Francisco in 1910.

This lecture-recital is a part of the student readings which are given from 4 to 5 p.m. in room 49 of College auditorium, three or four times a term.

These readings give students a chance to practice interpretation and also familiarizes audiences with the newer plays.

The next student reading hour will be Tuesday, Nov. 16. Ted Brink, Grand Rapids sophomore, and Dick Henderson, Detroit junior, are preparing half hour readings to be given at this time.
