Clark, Former State Student, Describes Study at Bairritz

This letter was recently received from S/Sgt. James Clark, '43, pre-med student, who was a member of the State freshman cross-country and boxing teams.

"You called this place a 'GI' university, which it isn't. 'GI' means drab, uncomfortable, pointless, stupid, congested, agitating, exhausting and degenerating and the Bairritz American university here is just the opposite of that.

"All of us who came here were surprised to find that, unlike the ASTR flop that the army bungled so marvelously and thoroughly, the army serves us as an administrative and service function, and except for uniforms and drawing our pay, we hardly know we are in the army.

"A wide variety of courses are offered at all levels of study — freshman, sophomore, junior, senior and graduate work.

"The instructors are from colleges and universities all over America and are of both civilian and military status. These instructors must have been carefully selected because all the students agree they are excellent presenting the class work.

"The course is for eight weeks only, and each student takes three classes of his own choosing. The classes meet five times a week and the rest of the time is the student's own.

"The school is located on the Atlantic about 20 miles from the Spanish border. Bairritz, with its beautiful beach and mountain background has long been the most exclusive resort spot of all Europe.

"There was no large school or college here, so the university has been set up in the casinos, villas and resort hotels; and now roulette wheels and gambling tables are book racks in the library; the banquet hall in Empress Eugenie's palace is the lecture hall for sociology classes—though the murals there are

Today's Campus

Good to the Last

Kitchen boys had a gay time as the Kappa house chasing frisky lobsters around the kitchen at night. It was a cracking story however, when they were finally broiled and served to the coeds. You need where they got them? Mrs. Fredson, housemother's, son pressed them from Massachusetts.

More Foise

We long for the day when the icicles will ground all the coeds on bicycles; and leave all the walks 'round the campus for those of us who feel like cramps. Till then we'll pretend that we lay sick and avoid cyclists berserk and pray winter grounds all the coeds on wheels so ruthlessly now run us down by the heels.

Truman Moves to Curb Strike Wave

Steelman Appointed Special Assistant To President for Strike Mediation; Truman Plans Big Labor Convo

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — President Truman today moved to curb the postwar strike wave by appointing a trouble shooter and by arranging to broadcast a new wage-price policy to the nation next Tuesday at 10 p.m., eastern standard time.

Pep Rally Tonight To Feature Special Surprise Band

Heralding the game with Marquette Saturday afternoon, students of Michigan State college will send their team off to victory with a pep rally tonight at 7 at the west entrance of the Union, according to Red Schneider, Lansing junior, chairman.

A special surprise, which should be of great interest to the women students in particular, is Applications from men students for transfer to ward B. Wells hall, will be accepted immediately from students living in rooms in Lansing. The most needy cases will be acted upon. The East Lansing student will remain in their present rooms. Applications may be secured at the office of the dean of students.

planned. Cheering and songs will be led by the Spartan cheerleaders, and to add to the pep, the college's 60-piece band will play, under the direction of Leonard Falcone.

Johnny Pingle, State's backfield coach, will speak, as will halfback Russ Reader, Dearborn sophomore. Representing the students, Maryita Mulvihill, Grand Rapids senior, will urge student support of the team.

Ex-Servicemen Polled To Find Vacancies In Veterans Programs

LANSING, Oct. 25 (AP)—Governor Kelly and officials of war veterans' organizations agreed today to poll discharged servicemen, their widows and children to find gaps in federal and state veterans' programs and to determine whether the time is ripe to decide on the uses for a $50,000,000 post-war veterans' fund.

Kelly said 10,000 veterans of World War II and about the same number of World War I veterans would be sent questionnaires to test service sentiment toward government programs concerning education, job placement, housing, rehabilitation and similar subjects.

"With about 100,000 veterans back home in Michigan now," Kelly said, "we agreed that sufficient were available that a survey would be helpful."

Kelly said the veterans would be asked to list their ideas as to whether the time had come to decide the future of the state's $50,000,000 veterans' fund, but he said, "the leaders of the veterans' groups think we should be in no hurry to get the final answer on this phase of the problem.

Their answers on gaps in the present program may give us a partial answer to uses for the fund because they may point to place where we could supplement the federal programs. But the main thing we are interested in now is to find out how the veterans regard the immediate program."

Weekend Party Schedule Shows Full Calendar

Sixteen social events, including hayrides, open houses, radio parties, and dances, have been planned to erase mid-term blues.

First on tonight's fun parade will be West Mary Mayo's term party, titled "Halo' Hop," from 8:30 to 12 and open to all men on campus.

In addition to dancing, cokes, and games, there will be a special entertainment feature, the "Spartan Calendar," enumerating significant months in the college woman's life, according to social chairman Helen Jackson, Detroit freshman. Patrons will be Mr. and Mrs. Gomer L. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thompson.

Robinson House Party

Robinson house women residents will entertain invited guests from 8 to 12 p.m., at a Halloween party, according to Polly Hanson, Wollaston, Mass., sophomore, social chairman. Dr. and Mrs. Walter Fee and Prof. and Mrs. Fritz Herzog will be patrons.

Shaw house has plans for a radio party from 8:30 to 12 tonight, according to Marilyn Dinkel, Conklin junior, social chairman. Veterans living in Audex house have been invited to attend in addition to others, and patrons will be Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Knittle and Prof. and Mrs. Leo A. Haak.

Lecture, Color Film Scheduled for Show

Robert Friers, motion picture producer and adventurer, will present a color travelogue film tomorrow night at 8:15 in College auditorium, S. E. Crowe, dean of students, announced.

The motion picture is titled "Mexican Holiday" and shows bull fights, native dances, Paricutin volcano and Mexican landscapes. Friers will narrate during the films, telling of his experiences and describing the people and scenery of that country.

Friers has made several expeditions to Mexico, Central and South America and is recognized as an authority on those places.

Phil Spitalny Gives Stirring Concert To MSC Crowd

Phil Spitalny and his all-girl orchestra last night put on one of the most stirring presentations seen in College auditorium this term.

In the past Spitalny has been noted for his very original arrangements and he did an excellent job again this time.

One of the more outstanding pieces was Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," followed by the "Holiday for Strings," featuring Evelyn, her violin, and the other violinists of the group.

Gloria Fin carried away the singing lead when she sang "The Bell Song" by Delibes and "The Indian Love Call."

Phyllis Clendening did a fast job on her trumpet portion of the program.

The women presented a varied program of American classics; popular American tunes, and a little "Boogie Woogie." —M. W.

Cheerful Earful

WKAR Program Greet the Dawn

"The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise" introduces Larry Frymire, program director of WKAR, as director of the "Dawn Salute" program. The broadcast presents recorded music from 7:30 to 8 a.m. Monday through Saturday.

Playing popular records, "Dawn Salute" aids in brightening the morning for many State students.

Shows Date Back to '36

The show was first started in 1936 as a request program. Under the direction of Ron Heath, then assistant to the dean of men, the broadcast was changed to an hour program and remained that way until 1943.

At one time the idea of honoring a different city each Friday was devised and on that day the people in that city sent their requests to the program.

Casual Comedy Added

Later a note of informality was introduced and a student played piano selections during the program. Don Buell, head of the speech and dramatics department, appeared on the program as a Swedish janitor who cleaned the studio every morning.

Many humorous requests have been received by the program. Some have been: the request of a man for "Seven Years With the Wrong Woman" for his seventh wedding anniversary, another wanted "The Wreck of the Altuna" for his wife's birthday, and a mother requested "Boogie Woogie" for her two year old son.

Had to Cease Dedications

When the United States entered the war, the office of censorship stopped radio stations from dedicating numbers or playing special requests. Since then "Dawn Salute" has attempted to play popular records they believe would be enjoyed by everyone.

Their listening audience consists of many high school students and people in surrounding cities, as well as State students.

LETTERS To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE — All letters to the editor submitted with the intention of being published, must be signed by the writer. If he does not want his name to appear with the letter, it must be indicated. No letters will be considered for publication unless the writer is known. The opinions expressed are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the editors.

To the Editor:
This is a plea based on desperate need.

I have spent every available minute for the past seven weeks searching every place in a twenty mile radius of the college for decent living quarters for my family. I have advertised; offered a reward. In all this time I have had the choice of a number of places—none of which I would wish on my worst enemy.

The single exception, a livable, pleasant house quite adequate to our needs, I lost through the kindly offices of a real estate salesman, who managed to get it for his brother-in-law, a married man without children, who, when urged by the owner to find a smaller place, indicated his intention to block off two bedrooms he would not need. I call attention to this, for the day before it happened the association of Lansing real estate men were reported in sizable headlines in the State Journal to be urging landlords to rent to people with children.

In the meantime my two small children, Mrs. Aldus and I are enjoying the privilege of living in a ramshackle, unheatable, drafty barn of a summer cottage on Lake Lansing. There are only shingles between us and the cold sky; there are cracks between doors and frames that can be seen through. The little sheet steel stove (into which I dump a cord of wood a week) in combination with plywood walls and a rickety chimney, affords us the pleasant reassurance that we can keep warm on one side at a time with only the slight discomfort of knowing we are in a fire trap.

There is a toilet, in an unheated room off the rear porch; there is no bathtub. Drinking water I fetch from the village pump (when it isn't broken down). There is an old electric range, partly functional. This charming residence is ours till really cold weather forces us out, for a mere fifty dollars a month plus utilities and heat, a total of about $75.

I am a stranger here. I can only make inquiries from people who are strangers to me. I can continue to join the rat-race at the State Journal every possible day at three o'clock. I can advertise. I can make inquiries from real estate men. As a matter of fact, I have done these things for seven weeks, and am doing them now. But there is only one way to get a place to live—and that is through the efforts of friends and acquaintances who watch for available houses or apartments. But I am a stranger here.

I wish to extend a sincere invitation to administration, faculty and students alike to visit us any reasonably cold evening at our present quarters located about three blocks north of the amusement park, four houses north of the village pump at Lake Lansing. Those who come will be wise to have overcoats, a fire extinguisher, a rat trap for our little friend who samples such food as he can reach every night, an interest in how the other half lives—and we hope, a genuine desire to help us find the quarters we so desperately need.

In the meantime I hope my students will be generous if I seem somewhat erratic at times in my classroom duties.

This is a plea in our very real need. My extension is 498.

P. J. Aldus,
Instructor of Written and Spoken English.

Mad As Hopps

By JANICE HOPPS

REMINDS me of the time I woke up dreaming of sunny Michigan and seeing the liquid sun of California. It looks like the weather man got his geography transposed, or the western rains decided to move eastward for the season.

Or maybe the weather man and I are in the same boat, and he hasn't an alarm clock either. As soon as we figure out the schedule, we should be able to make a ten o'clock class between the second and third shower every morning. If Jacksonville, Texas, weather is like this, they can afford to levy a luxury tax on bathtubs, as they're reported to be doing. Bathtubs are no longer a necessity in East Lansing's perpetual puddle.

Enough criticism of the weather. Another criticism that recurs just about as often on this campus is especially close to my heart since it concerns the Snews, a term used by Snewsers in referring to this four-page sheet.

Compare the State News to the majority of other college newspapers and our publication is criticized because "it isn't funny enough." And because of the humor deficit, lots of readers find it dull.

In passing, humor and brightness are not synonymous terms, according to Webster. Since the State News isn't trying to take over the position formerly held by our brother-in-exile, the Spartan, it isn't trying to make the words humor and brightness synonymous. In our opinion news can have life to it without the aid of Bob Hope's 1,000 funniest, although we don't claim to have the liveliest news in the business.

I think our peculiar phobia about humor has a sound basis. Is it consistent to plead for adult treatment and then be disappointed in a paper that contains news instead of funnies? College students consider themselves men and women, and Michigan Staters have been ready to fight for that recognition all fall.

In recognition of the adult status of students, the State News is published for adult readers. If we thought Spartans wouldn't understand the significance of straight news, we might possibly revert to a paper of high school caliber. But as long as Michigan State houses college students, the news will be presented at a college level of understanding. At least, that's a worthy ambition.

For humor, glance at Today's Campus, letters to the editor, the servicemen's letter, and above all the errors. Some of the funniest things printed are misprints, while most of the funniest things aren't fit to print.

Scotts Businessman Dies in MSC Union

H. R. White, Scotts, Michigan, businessman, died yesterday morning in the Union. White apparently died of a heart attack.

White was on campus as a guest speaker at the two-day Feedmen's conference. He had the attack shortly before he was to speak at 11 a.m.

White and his son operated the White Sales corporation in Scotts, selling elevator and machine shop equipment.

He is survived by his wife and son, both of Scotts.

Students must show their activity books with their seat reservations at all football games, according to L. L. Frimodig, assistant athletic director. Coupon No. 8 will be torn out for the Marquette game this Saturday, and students should enter only at gate 4 at the north end of the stadium.

Those who are unable to obtain seat reservations at the athletic office in Jenison gym before 11:30 tomorrow morning should exchange their coupons at booth No. 1 at the stadium.

"We can list this stuff from a previous emergency as surplus war material, Major—I believe adequate counter-measures for this weapon have been developed!"

Sic Semper Tyrannis!

International justice was dealt out again this week. Vidkun Quisling, Norway's arch traitor, met his end before a firing squad, after his pleas for mercy before the highest tribunal of his country went unavailing.

In a three-week trial the prosecution had accused of conferring with Hitler and other German officials months before the invasion, urging them to such a He was also held responsible for the deportations and oppressions by the Nazis of hundreds of his countrymen that led to their deaths.

Quisling's defense was that he acted solely in the interests of Norway. Often during his trial he referred himself as "saviour of Scandinavia" and "martyr of Norway." But his treacherous conduct left no doubt of guilt.

The name of Quisling is unique among the war criminals in that it will be remembered, not because of the man by virtue of some strange philologic phenomenon that incorporated Quisling in our vocabulary as a synonym for traitor.

He rests in infamy.

Navy Leaves Western

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Oct. 25 (AP) — Although Western Michigan college's navy V-12 unit has left the campus, four of the Broncos' sailor athletes stayed behind today on leave for Western's Saturday football encounter here against Great Lakes.

Hilton Foster and Bill Perrin, quarterbacks; A. T. Billespie, fullback, and Jack McCullagh, end, all are expected to see action against the Bluejackets, Foster and Billespie as starters.

Marquette, State Get Equal Strength Rating

Bachman Gives Spartan 11 Stiff Workout on Blocking Practice; Calls Elbow Blocking Inferior

Despite the fact that the Spartans and Marquette are rated equal in strength, Coach Charlie Bachman is taking no chances on State losing, and is giving the Spartans even a stiff workout in all the branches of football.

"These boys of ours must learn to block with their shoulders, and not their elbows," Bachman states. "Elbow blocking, besides being ineffective, is illegal, and cost us nearly 140 yards in penalties last week against Wayne. We are playing a much stronger team this week and we can't afford to lose ground on penalties."

Ludwig Returns

Although the team was boosted to its original strength with the return of Bob Ludwig, freshman passing and running star; Contos, who was visiting his draftboard, and Dick Massuch, versatile end for the Spartans, the daily practice drills have been lacking in accuracy and percussion, and Bachman went as far as to say that the team looked "like a sour, sour outfit."

There was a reason behind all of the lax efforts, midterm exams. Last year at the same time State played Missouri and the team spirit was in a similar position, but on the day of the game, enthusiasm was at its peak.

Line-up Changes Predicted

With the appearance of Ludwig and Massuch back on the field, there may be some changes in the starting line-up. Massuch, out of action for the Wayne game, is finally regaining his strength in the lame leg, and in practice has been shifting between end and center, and he may appear in either of these spots Saturday.

Ludwig has been out of the past three State games with a knee injury. Meanwhile Marquette has been pushing their practice attacks and their head coach, Tom Stidham, stated that they "were as ready as they ever will be."

Truman To Back Up Full Employment Bill Despite Difficulty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — President Truman renewed and emphasized his support for the "full employment" bill today after hearing from two influential congressmen that it would be hard to pass the measure.

He got his report from Chairman Manasco (D., Ala.) and Rep. Whittington (D., Miss.) of the house expenditures committee.

He had called the two congressmen in to talk over the administration bill, which has been bogged down since the senate passed it in amended form a month ago.

At a news conference later, Mr. Truman told reporters he is very anxious that the measure be brought out of committee and passed as soon as possible. He said he is for it with everything he has.

In response to a query, he said the congressmen had not told him it would be impossible to pass the bill without amendments; they told him it would be difficult.

Score Board

When State faces Marquette this Saturday, it will be the eleventh meeting of the two teams. The State-Marquette series was inaugurated in 1933 and was continued up until 1942 when State dropped intercollegiate football. In the ten previous games State has won five and has also been defeated in five. The last game in '42 going to Marquette, 28 to 7.

Previous scores are:

| | Marquette | State |
|------|-----------|-------|
| 1933 | 0 | 6 |
| 1934 | 7 | 13 |
| 1935 | 13 | 7 |
| 1936 | 13 | 7 |
| 1937 | 7 | 21 |
| 1938 | 14 | 20 |
| 1939 | 17 | 14 |
| 1940 | 7 | 6 |
| 1941 | 7 | 13 |
| 1942 | 28 | 7 |

Last year when State resumed competitive football it was late in the year, thus making it impossible to place Marquette on the schedule. However, this year Marquette is again on the list of Spartan opponents. And all pre-game dope figures this to be another exciting classic in the long and colorful series between the two schools.

Secretary of State Reveals Negotiation Over Jap Control

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — Secretary of State Byrnes indicated tonight that the United States has been conducting negotiations with Russia over the question of setting up an allied control council to run Japan.

A state department statement issued with the secretary's authority and in clarification of a comment which Byrnes made at his press conference yesterday spoke of "recent diplomatic exchanges" on this subject.

The department said that these exchanges "indicate" that Russia is not now insisting on a unanimity rule on making decisions for the proposed council which Byrnes is known to oppose vigorously.

Some authorities saw in this development possibility that a compromise over the control council issue may be worked out which would restore a greater degree of harmony among the allied powers concerned with Japan's future.

However, Russia still has not sent word that she will definitely have a representative at the meeting of the allied advisory commission on Japan next Tuesday.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

International club will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 followed by informal entertainment at International Center at which everyone is welcome, according to President Gregory Dean, Detroit junior.

Spartan Basketball Team Gets Good Pre-Season Practice Show

By MOE WALKER

Spartan basketball stock for the 1945-46 season has taken a rosy pre-season hue with the announcement by Coach Ben F. Van Alstyne of the return to college of Dudley P. Jones, holder of the MSC individual scoring record for a single game.

Formula Revised For Release Of Air Force Pilots

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — The army air force today returned to its own formula for releasing pilots, navigators and bombardiers, which had been superseded by one covering the entire army.

All of those officers within the continental limits, with 44 points or more and two years of service automatically are declared surplus and eligible for release, it was announced by Brig. Gen. Charles F. Born, in charge of separations.

Exceptions are personnel of the air transport command, the army airways communications system and the weather service assigned to foreign service.

In addition, other commissioned air crew personnel with the same qualifications and officers with less than 44 points but with two years or more of active service are declared eligible for release if their services are no longer needed and they have not formally elected to remain in the service.

John Lintol Gets Back On Wolverine Squad

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 25 (AP) — With letterman John Lintol, Detroit guard, back on the University of Michigan's football travelling squad for the Wolverines' Saturday clash with Illinois at Champaign, Michigan will be at top strength for the first time since upset by Indiana Sept. 22.

Lintol, injured in the Indiana game, engaged only in light drills for three weeks following the Hoosier tussle.

Jones, an East Chicago junior, has completed three years of service with the merchant marine and plans to re-enter State for the winter term, Jan. 3.

On Feb. 11, 1942, the last year he played, Jones scored 25 points against the University of Michigan to set the individual scoring record while leading the Spartans to a 57 to 34 victory over the Wolverines. He completed the 1942 season by scoring 118 points to rank third, next to Joe Gerard and Chet Aubuchon, as leading Spartan scorer.

Coach Van Alstyne stated that the turnout for the first meeting of candidates was very good, numbering among the fifties. He has plans to start three of his last year's veterans, Joe Beyer, who will play guard; Sam Fortinto, forward, and Bill Brall, at center.

In addition to Jones, two more ex-servicemen have shown up for practice, they are Albert Pepler, former guard, and Oliver White, forward.

Butter Reduced To Eight Points

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — Butter, margarine, lard, shortening and oils go down to eight points a pound Sunday.

The OPA, announcing the reduction from 12 points, said also today that current ration values will be maintained through December 1 on the better cuts of beef, veal and lamb and on all lean pork.

All meats now ration-free will continue so during November. The only revision of the meat point chart is assignment of lower ration values for six fat pork cuts and barbecued pork.

SOCIAL

Both Concord house and Precinct 7 of Mason hall will take their dates on hayrides tonight, according to social chairmen Elizabeth Chapin, Grand Rapids freshman, and Jackie Frost, Detroit freshman.

Concord women will party from 8:30 to 12 p.m. with refreshments and entertainment in the house after the ride. The Mason hall shindig will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. with dancing and refreshments in the smoker afterwards.

Invited Patrons

Prof. and Mrs. Charles H. Pesterfield and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Goerner will be patrons at Concord house, and Prof. and Mrs. J. W. McGrath and Miss Lois Newman and guest will be patrons at Mason's hayride.

Saturday after the game Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega and Canterbury house will have open house programs. Sigma Nus and ATO men are invited guests at both Alpha Chi Omega and Chi Omega chapter houses from 4 to 6 p.m., according to social chairman, Sue Averill, Birmingham senior, and Shirley Trump, Franklin Village senior.

All students on campus will be welcomed at Canterbury house for a coffee, according to Helen Knapp, Rochester, N. Y., junior, of the executive board.

Spartan Christian Fellowship is throwing a mixer party from 6 to 12 Saturday night, according to Lillian Donaldson, Detroit sophomore, social chairman.

Mason-Abbott Open House

Big open house of tomorrow night will be at Mason and Abbott where some 900 women will be waiting to greet men students on campus, according to social chairman, Doris Baird, Ionia junior. Dancing, ping pong, bridge, and a special floorshow will provide the fun.

Union board will sponsor its weekly date dance from 9 to 12 in the Union ballroom tomorrow night, Dick Mosher, East Lansing junior, declared.

Members of Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Kappa Kappa Gamma will entertain their dates and special guests at the respective houses tomorrow night also.

Hillel foundation is throwing a "Mystery Mixer" from 8:15 to 12 p.m. tomorrow at the Sharkey Zedek in Lansing, according to Ralph Pluskin, social chairman.

LETTER

more suitable for lectures in anatomy; and chem lab is practiced in the kitchen of a swanky hotel.

"The 'campus' is most extensive and is composed of bars, side-walk cafes, the village streets filled with everything from ox-carts to lovely girls on bicycles, the beach knee deep with sun tanned bodies and terraced garden slopes and rocky walks along the cliffs at the ocean's edge.

"Student activities include a daily newspaper, broadcasting station, theater group with Broadway and Hollywood directors to aid in the production of such plays as 'Front Page,' 'You Can't Take it With You,' 'Time of Your Life' and 'Boy Meets Girl,' and athletics on an individual and intramural basis, since there is no one to compete against.

"Some of the men picked out a team of ex-collegiate basketball stars and defeated a professional French team by a lopsided score, as did a group of our track men with less than a week of training. Now the French won't schedule us, except in exhibition tennis matches where their two ex-olympic champs have been able to beat our men easily. Most of the students make full use of the tennis, badminton and handball courts, and the golf course is always busy when they can get golf balls.

"The students here number about 3,200, a drop of about 800 high pointers from the start of the term, and this includes about 90 WACs and nurses and several hundreds officers of all ranks.

"We are told that the schools at home are interested in what the veterans who will return to studies will be like, but for the most part I can't see much difference from other students. They average a little older in age, and I wouldn't advise any varsity man to slap a little green pot on a combat vet's head and tell him to 'wear it or else.' The varsity teams might lose some good men that way.

"I should have mentioned that our chief interest is mail. We are also interested in getting home and would gladly change a dozen of these French dolls, complete with minute quantities of bathing suits, for an American coed in sweater, skirt and bobby socks; and a whole truckload of wine and cognac for a malted milk or coke.

"I have great hopes of being home in about two months and perhaps I shall enroll at MSC for the last term before entering pre-med school at U. of M. Yesterday was the State and Michigan game and I am anxious to hear the results. Wish I could have been there."
