Fourteen Years Experience Behind Set Director of Play

Falling Pictures, Vases, Create Staging Problem For Setting Director Nickle, Assistants; Many Students on Construction Crews

By JILL LIPPERT

Cecil H. Nickle, assistant professor of speech, who has charge of settings for the term play, "Blithe Spirit," has been doing this work at Michigan State for 14 years. The set for "Blithe Spirit" will be a living room with grey-green walls and a sloping ceiling. Prof. Nickle announced. Construction of the set itself will not be particularly hard, but one problem has come up. In one scene, vases, pictures, curtains, etc., are supposed to fall from their place to the floor. Each piece of furniture will require a different device to make it fall, Nickle pointed out.

Construction Crew

Compere to Read Broadway Play

Mrs. Moiree Compere, of the speech department, will give an interpretative reading of the play "I Remember Mama" by John VanDruthen, in the Music auditorium at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Forensic Conclave Offered to Frosh By Pi Kappa Delta

A forensic conclave will be held for freshmen tonight at 7:15 in the Union ballroom, sponsored by the members of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic honorary.

The different divisions of forensics: debate, oratory, discussion, extempore speaking, after dinner speaking, and interpretation, will be explained by members of the speech department in charge of these divisions. B. J. Knittel, forensic director, announced. All freshmen interested in one or more of the above activities are invited to attend, he added.

Pauline Moehlman, Muskegon Heights junior and president of Pi Kappa Delta, will be in charge of the conclave. Doris Guth, Ovid senior, will arrange the program, and Phil Hesby, Muskegon senior, will have charge of the refreshments.

News in Brief

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP) — New automobiles soon to go on sale will not be rationed, the government announced today.

The OPA and the war production board, in a joint statement, said that with nearly 24,000,000 cars now on the road, and new production under way, "There is no longer danger of a general breakdown of the automotive transportation system."

The agencies added that as new production pick up, newer and better used cars will also become increasingly available.

Labor Problems Take Truman's Attention

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (AP) — President Truman today cancelled his out-of-town trips for more than a month ahead and pored into the problems of labor strife, wages and prices during reconversion.

The troubles that tied him to his White House desk were typified a few hours later by calls for big new strike votes and a statement from President Philip Murray that industry is staging a "sit-down strike" against the unions' wage demands.

Students Voice Opinion On Plan For Compulsory Military Training

The question of compulsory military training, as proposed by President Truman was placed before students yesterday in the form of a student opinion poll. The results, although including opinions pro and con, show that many students choose the middle path and accept only part of the proposed program.

Joe Davidson, Channing, Tex., senior, had this to say: "I don't see any sense in it, but if they are going to have a program it should be voluntary. I think a program emphasizing studying rather than military training would be better."

Al Doufour, Utica junior, said "Due to scientific advances it (compulsory training) is a necessity to prevent aggression."

Gus Lanier, Hammond freshman, commented "It makes it hard for the fellows who want to go to college by taking their mind away from studying for too long a time."

Virginia Anastassoff, Lansing freshman, thought "It's a good thing if they get them right after high school."

Peter Cole, Grand Rapids sophomore, was for the training measure, saying, "It's a good thing. We have united nations but we need a strong army to back it up."

Max Hibbard, Lansing sophomore, remarked, "It would be all right for an organization in high school or one similar to the national guard, but the proposed organization is likely to develop a military clique comparable to Argentina's."

Zigmond Kavleski, Iron River junior, commented, "It would discipline them, mature them, and teach them how to live with men. In general it would prepare them for college more quickly than civilian life."

Student opinion seemed to be almost evenly divided on the question, although most who were opposed to the measure agreed they would accept it if they thought it would prevent future aggression.

Homecoming to Reflect Past State Traditions

Decorations and Dance To Be Featured

Paul Robeson Concert Student Tickets Go Within Two Hours

Within two hours Monday morning the 2,000 tickets allotted to students for the Paul Robeson concert to be held at the college on Nov. 5 were gone. At eight o'clock the line of students waiting with coupons extended out of the door of the administration building, down the walk half-way the distance to the library. Some students held more than 50 coupon books.

S. E. Crowe, director of the lecture-concert series, stated that he is endeavoring to get Robeson for a second night, but the prospects are not encouraging.

"I wish that tickets could be made available to more students," Crowe said, "but the unexpected enrollment following V-J day has upset this year's arrangements."

Next year's schedule will be more suitably arranged, he asserted.

Two Home Ec Groups Complete Elections For Coming Term

Two of the home economics major groups have just completed their fall elections.

Results of the vocational majors' election are as follows: Jeanne Mosson, Lake Odessa senior, president; Pat Murphy, Grand Haven junior, vice-president, and Peggy Den Herder, Zeeland junior, secretary-treasurer.

Officers elected by the textile, clothing and related arts majors include Jean Strath, Detroit junior, chairman; Gayle Oviatt, Washington, D. C., junior, vice-president, and Bobbie Needles, Flint senior, corresponding secretary.

Jean Ross, Gross Pointe senior, was elected secretary-treasurer; Martha Christiancy, Grand Rapids junior, publicity chairman; Donna Austin, Fenton senior, membership chairman; Jackie Taylor, Pickford junior, social chairman; Betty Lavine, Sparta senior, program chairman, and Tomiko Inouye, Detroit junior, student-faculty representative.

Food and nutrition majors will hold their election later this week.

Red Cross To Sponsor Blood Plasma Clinic

The American Red Cross chapter at 426 S. Washington street, will hold a blood plasma clinic for civilians for two weeks, from Nov. 5 to 16. Hospitals have a great need for the plasma and are asking for 600 donors.

Appointments may be made by phone from 9 to 4 through Friday. All who are interested are urged to call 4-7461.

Age qualifications for the donors are from 18 to 50. However, those between the ages of 18 to 21 must have parents' written consent. All donors must weigh over 115 pounds and be in general good health. No heavy meal should be consumed four hours previous to the donation.

The program is being run by the Michigan Department of Health in cooperation with the American Red Cross and the Junior Service league.

The plasma is to be used free of charge for the civilians in Ingham county.

Silberer Gives Recital

Howard Silberer, MSC instructor of piano, gave a recital at North Park college, Chicago, Ill., last Saturday evening. Silberer was instructor at North Park college for several years previous to his induction into the armed services.

Taking on the aspect of a pre-war event, this year's Homecoming will be the biggest State has seen in recent celebrations.

Last year, with no awards offered, the fraternities and sororities nevertheless, showed a good deal of spirit in putting forth an effort to make the campus appear as it had in by-gone days. This weekend the colorful themes will be back vieing for the cups given to the winners by the Interfraternity council for the fraternities and PanHellenic for the sororities.

Decoration Limit

These decorations must be up by 10 a.m. on Saturday, and must not exceed the cost of $5, according to Bob Nuttall, Waukegan, Ill., sophomore, decoration chairman. The judging committee will be made up of two representatives from PanHellenic, two from the Interfraternity council, and one from the staff of the art department.

The winners of the decorations will be announced between halves of the game Saturday afternoon, and the cups will be awarded at the Homecoming dance that night.

The annual Homecoming dance, which is to be informal, will take place in the ballroom and main dining room of the Union building from 9 to 12 p.m.

Gene Devine To Play

The dance, again this week, is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity. Gene Devine will provide the music and a program of entertainment is being planned for the intermission. During this time, local talent will be displayed, and a door prize will be awarded.

Proceeds from the dance will be added to an already established memorial fund, and the entire sum donated to the college to be used in constructing a new Union building memorial.

Communist Fighting Centers on Railway South of Peiping

CHUNGKING, Oct. 29 (AP) — Communist troops have cut 100 miles of the great Peiping-Hankow railway—life line for government forces hastening toward stormy North China's undeclared civil war zone—official dispatches reported today.

The communists struck south of Peiping, cutting rails, blowing up bridges, destroying stations and burning railway stock on the railway northward from the Red-held town of Tzehsien.

Government sources admitted the movement of troops was seriously hampered, for with the acute shortage of labor and materials it will take time to get this vital traffic artery functioning again.

Despite temporary loss of the railroad, semi-official dispatches said central government troops were moving northward out of Peiping along the railway to Manchuria's Mukden to take "defensive positions" along the Great Wall.

TO the Editor:
After three years of absence from State, I am glad to see that we still have that "ole Spartan spirit" at the football games. But what about the American spirit? Are we Spartans too busy to stop when the national anthem is played and the flag is raised?
Come on, Spartans, get on the ball, men die for that flag.

Affairs of State

By NAN TRABUE and DOTTIE LAMONT

ALONG with headlines of strikes, helicopters, civil wars, and foreign policy declarations, we can't compete in importance, but we have lots of news to make headlines in the heartbreak column this week.

Jean Ross, Theta, and George Souther, ATO, announced their engagement last week at the Theta house just about an hour after the event took place. In perfect timing, the ATOs were there to serenade Jean as the party began.

Then a very few days later Shirley Symmonds began wearing the five-armed star of Sigma Nu beside her Kappa key. Owner of the Sigma Nu pin (until last week) was Gil Haley.

Zeta Tau Alphas found some unexpected visitors on their doorstep the other day. They were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Becker. Mrs. Becker is the former Kathleen Johnson and she stopped to see her sorority sisters before going on to Truax Field, Wis., with her husband who is stationed there with the army air forces.

The SAEs haven't exactly watched the world go by without doing something about it, if the initiation list is any indication. Wearing the active pin are freshmen George Henry, Edmore; Bob Bremmer, Traverse City; Don Thaden, East Lansing, and sophomores Bob Lamssies, South Haven; Ray Meagher, Flint; Don Viges, Lansing, and Don Simons, Hudson. Others are Ray Wells, Auburn, N. Y., and Ray Howard, Detroit senior.

There are such things as pledges still around. They have not all gone active, and the Sigma Chi has eight of them to prove it. Freshmen are Floyd Cassidy, Gladstone, Bob Mitchell, Bluefield, Va.; Henry Sheridan, Manistee; Tina Barbas, Detroit; Dick Postiff, Ferndale, Don Willis, Gladstone; Bill Richards, Lansing, and Jimmy Ross, Detroit sophomore.

Five new actives are now sporting Theta Chi pins upon their initiation into the fraternity. They are: Tom Langdon, Carson City freshman; Don Cusatt, Albion freshman; Florian Lukowski, Bay City senior; Don Dumouchelle, Detroit freshman, and Tom Smollett, Howell junior. Transfer student from the University of Maryland, Joe Fielder, sophomore, has also joined. See AFFAIRS, Page 3

Various Groups Plan Activities For Annual Homecoming Festivities

Homecoming weekend is a big social time at State, so as usual various groups are planning the many affairs which will fill it.

Foremost of the events is the annual Homecoming dance which Alpha Phi Omega is sponsoring. It will be held Saturday night in the Union ballroom, according to Russel Scovill, Lansing junior.

Taft co-op will have their term party this Friday night, according to Chairman Maxine Finkbeiner, Middleville sophomore. Also planned for Friday night is the party which the Delta Zetas are giving in honor of their pledges. Toni Procissi, Flint junior, is in charge of that affair.

Harold Dachtler, Charlotte senior, has reported that a hay ride and dance are being planned by the members of Elsworth house for the same night.

The Kappa Alpha Thetas have invited their parents down to join them at Saturday's game. Dinner and entertainment are also being planned for them, according to Marge Striffler, East Lansing junior.

Saturday the Kappa Sigs will have a get-together in the Union from 7 to 9 p.m.

A novel Halloween party is being planned by the Zeta Tau Alphas. It will take place at the WAA cabin. The girls will leave for the cabin Saturday afternoon and will return Sunday afternoon.

Beta Alpha Sigma Holds New Member Dinner

Beta Alpha Sigma, with its culture, and floriculture honorary, held its initiation dinner, Hunt's last Wednesday evening.

The seven students who are now members are Doris and Dorothy Renz, juniors from East Lansing; Betty Behrens, Dearborn junior, and Marjorie Adams, Saginaw senior. The other three initiates are Isabel Smith, Birmingham junior; Joan Morgan, East Lansing senior, and Helen Gover, East Lansing senior.

MSC, Visitors Fight to Tie In Freak Game

End Heavy Scoring Gets Two Touchdowns For Battling Spartans

For the first time in 14 years of football between State and Marquette, these two teams battled to a 13 to 13 tie on the College field Saturday. All of the scoring was done in the last twenty minutes of play.

Spartan hopes rose early in the first quarter, as Gagliardo, Marquette left halfback, fumbled on his own 57, and the ball was recovered by tackle Kent Esbaugh. With Reader, Contos, and Breslin running and passing the ball, the Green and White surged to the nine-yard line. Then the ball went over to Marquette.

After three plays netted only three yards, Marquette punted to their own 35. Another Spartan drive started, but failed to get past the 19-yard line, and Marquette took the ball on downs.

At this point the Hilltoppers started to prowl, and after five downs Marquette had the ball on the State 45-yard line. Successive plays put the ball on the 11, where Teik, Marquette fullback, punted out of bounds on the Spartan 18. Penalized 15 yards for holding, Breslin punted out from behind his own goal and after one incomplete pass by Marquette the half ended.

A fumble by State's fullback, Jack Breslin, set up the first Marquette touchdown. Fumbling on his own 16, the ball was recovered by Paiesse for Marquette. On the next play Hickey, Marquette halfback, ran to the State six. On the fourth down Hickey again passed to Kaminski, Marquette left end, for the score. The conversion attempt was made, and Marquette took the lead 6 to 0, as the third quarter ended.

The following fourth quarter saw both teams ahead and behind and finally finish in a tie. This time it was a Marquette fumble that sparked State's first score. Glasener, Marquette halfback, fumbled on his own 31, and Esbaugh recovered for State. After making a first down on the Marquette 8, Reader went off the field and crossed the goal kicking up Malaga's kick for a tie.

Spartan Players — Fackles Walt Vezmar, Kent Esbaugh Add Strength to Spartan Squad

... WALT VEZMAR ...

Two of the biggest reasons for the fine record accumulated by the Spartan football squad so far this season, are the two stalwart tackles of the Spartan line, Walt Vezmar and Kent Esbaugh. Both of these boys have been towers of strength at their respective positions.

Vezmar is a 240-pounder, hailing from Detroit's Northeastern high school where he earned all-city and all-state honors before entering the army in 1942. This 20-year-old stands 5' 11" in height and is surprisingly agile for his size. Evidence of this fact is that Walt led his team mates down the field under punts on a good many occasions.

Vezmar was a Ranger in the service and received the purple heart for injuries gotten on the Anzio beachhead. He also participated in the North African campaign and the drive across the Mediterranean.

Walt played center in high school and was originally slated to alternate at that spot for the Spartans, but since starting Tackle Danny Goldsmith has been side-lined with a leg injury, he has been operating in the left tackle port. His recovery of a Marquette fumble set up one of State's touchdowns last Saturday.

Kent Esbaugh of Grand Rapids South high school, is another powerfully built lad who has been his share of service as a tackle in games to date this year.

Initiation took place a few weekends ago at the AGR house, resulting in six new actives. They are sophomores, John Shields, Kingston; Don Miller, Olivet; Robert Keene, Burlington; Don Fuller, River Edge Manor, N. J.; Gale Mikeles, Shiatook, Okla., and Tom Billig, Dearborn.

Findley Collins, wrestling coach on campus, was initiated last weekend as honorary member of AGR.

Tourist, Resort Industry Topic Of Conference

Professor R. J. Baldwin has announced that the County Agricultural Agent school is conducting a four-day program starting last Saturday and extending until Wednesday, at the Conservation Training school at Higgins Lake, near Roscommon.

The first two days of the conference will be devoted to a conservation of Michigan State college's new responsibilities in connection with the tourist and resort industry. The last two days will be spent in considering the problems of non-agricultural lands of northern Michigan.

Those expected to attend are the county agricultural agents serving the 47 northern counties, several members of the Michigan State faculty and a few additional guests.

Those of the faculty who will be present are: Dean E. L. Anthony of the school of agriculture; Dean Marie Dye, of the school of home economics; C. V. Ballard, leader of the county agricultural agents, and Professor L. R. Schoemann, director of the conservation institute.

Territories, States, Foreign Countries Represented Here

A survey on the civilian enrollment of 5,281 students at MSC has been made by Robert S. Linton, registrar. It was found that 80 Michigan counties, 39 other states, the District of Columbia, two United States territories, and 15 foreign countries are represented at MSC.

There are 103 short course students and 325 army trainees receiving instruction besides the 1,793 men and 3,488 women enrolled as regular students in the college. This brings the total enrollment for the fall quarter to 5,709.

Wayne county leads all other Michigan counties with 1,056 students enrolled. Ingham takes second place with 882, and Oakland is third with 364. New York ranks first among other states with 146 students registered.

The 15 foreign countries represented are Brazil, Canada, China, Columbia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ecuador, E. Salvador, Haiti, India, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, and Peru. Hawaii and Puerto Rico are the two U. S. territories represented.

Of the total enrollment only 643 of the civilian students are out-of-state residents.

Concert Series Stars Paul Robeson With the Voice that 'Just Grewed'

By CAROLL BESEMER

Paul Robeson, Monday night's lecture-concert series guest artist, is one of the few singers whose voice had little formal training. It "just grewed." Discovery of his ability was made by accident.

It was during Robeson's studies at Columbia that the public first heard the voice that was to become one of the best known in the world. He was taking post graduate work in law at the time.

Stars as Brutus

Robeson was living next to the YMCA in Harlem. When a substitute was needed to take a part in a play being given, he was easy prey. During the play, scouts for "Emperor Jones" asked him to take the part of Brutus Jones.

In the play Brutus Jones was lost in the jungle and was supposed to whistle to keep up his spirits. Since Robeson's whistle, as is stated, "wasn't anything to write home about," it was decided he should sing a spiritual instead. The result was tremendous.

Tours Abroad

Two years later, in 1925, he made his first appearance as a professional concert singer in a recital held in New York's Greenwich village. He soon went abroad where he toured European capitals. He returned in 1939 after playing the role of Othello in London.

Robeson is the son of a Princeton, N. J., preacher. He attended Rutgers university on a scholarship where he made the highest marks since the founding of the institution.

He was class orator plus a 4-letter man chosen by Walter Camp as All-American end on the football team for 1917-18. He was also pronounced "the perfect type of college man."

In his junior year he won Phi Beta Kappa and was graduated from Rutgers as class valedictorian.

SPORTS

the extra point was good and State took the lead, 7 to 6.

State kicked off again to Marquette, and after reaching their own 45, Quinsey passed to Pallesse who took the ball on the 26 and crossed the goal untouched. This time Marquette's kick was good and Marquette led, 13 to 7.

Marquette Took Ball Again

On the return kick off, Russ Reader returned the ball 61 yards to the Marquette 39, but the Spartan attack bogged down and Marquette took over on downs.

After three plays Marquette attempted to kick but Hendricks rushed straight through the Hilltoppers line to block the kick and End Tino Barbas picked up the ball and crossed the goal for the second State touchdown within eight minutes.

This time, Malaga's kick for the extra point was blocked and the score stood Marquette 13, State 13.

Veteran of 38 Months Service Assumes Position in Union

By TOM NORTHWAY

Ray D. Lamphear, veteran of 38 months service in the army overseas, has returned to MSC and assumed the position of assistant manager in charge of services at the Union Memorial building.

Previous to his leave of absence, Lamphear was manager of North hall dormitory from 1938 until 1942. He graduated from Michigan with the class of '33, after majoring in hotel administration.

Serves As Major

As a major in the quartermaster corps, Lamphear spent two years on Oahu island in the Hawaiian group and 14 months as base quartermaster on Kwajalein in the Marshalls. Soon after the army invaded the latter, Lamphear and other staff officers took charge of distributing supplies on the island and southern sector of Kwajalein atoll.

Lamphear stated that he met many military and entertainment personages who stopped over at Kwajalein and stayed as guests of the island commander.

Meets Admirals

These included Admirals Nimitz and Halsey, and General Buckner, who was later killed in enemy action. Pres. Osmena of the Philippines, who stayed on the island several times, once autographed a one-peso note to Lamphear.

In his new position at MSC Lamphear will assist E. G. Fager, Union manager, and will give banquets and conferences to be held in the building. He also serves as an advisor to the Board.
