... Snow Use

If Santa Claus would cut his beard, MSC's football squad could no doubt use him—that is if the weather in future games is anything similar to last Saturday's clash with Missouri. Anyhow a laugh at the weather man was accomplished when MSC cheerleaders, Bob Turner, Lapel, Ed. Junior, and Don Fuller, River Edge, N. J. sophomore, helped lead the crowd in a little song entitled "Jingle Bells."

... Stormy Weather

Notice the improvement in the weather lately? Joe Beye, Detroit senior, specialist in applied meteorology and weatherman de- have, has finally improved the machinery he has been using in a series of experiments intended to control the weather in the East Lansing area. Un- believe it now his machinery design has balked somewhat, hence the poor weather. On one occasion his valves got stuck during an experiment and it came a severe storm. Joe has to think what would have happened had he not been able, finally, to locate the trouble.

... The Little Woman

Coeds on the second floor of Abbott hall were host to an un- announced masculine visitor from Wisconsin Saturday evening. The young homecoming celebra- tor strolled through the rear door of the dormitory and made his way to the second floor, "just making for the woman," he said.

... Stamp Stump

After playing volleyball Thurs- day night, Margie Livingston, Detroit freshman, emerged from the Women's gym to find it pour- ing rain. War habits made her think of her new saddle shoes, for which she had given a stamp. Off came her shoes and Margie paddled home in her bare feet. Someone ought to tell her that the war's over and shoes are free—any- how they don't take a stamp.

... Apple For Teacher

In his lecture of Saturday night, Professor Sorokin defined the much abused word "profes- sor" as: "Machinery that pro- duces air waves and paper."

Preview For Cleveland Orchestra To Be Given

The Cleveland orchestra will appear in College auditorium next Tuesday night on the con- cert-lecture series. A preview of the program will be presented by Gomer Jones, assistant pro- fessor of music at Michigan State college, at 4 p.m. Sunday in the College auditorium. The preview is open to the public and there will be no charge.

Negro Artist Thrills MSC Audience

The magnificent bass-baritone of Paul Robeson, great Negro singer, drew more applause from the Michigan State audience at Col- lege auditorium last night than any other concert artist who has performed thus far this term. The heartwarming voice that has moved audiences in all the cap- itals of Europe, claimed an en- thusiastic, never ending applause from the packed house.

Compositions which best dis- played the deep sonority of Robeson's voice were "Deep River," "Ole Man River," "I Still Suits Me," and "The Battle of Jerico."

Lawrence Brown, pianist and accompanist for Robeson, joined the singer in several famous se- lections which were used as en- cores. Notable among these were "Little David," "Great Gittin' up Morning," which was arranged by Brown, and "The Hammer Song."

Sang Mozart Classic

More classical music which the great American Negro artist presented included Mozart's "O Isis and Osiris" and the "Las- ciamenti Morire" by Monteverdi. "It Was a Lover and His Lass," by Roger Quilter from a play by Shakespeare, demonstrated the versatility of Robeson's reper- toire.

William Schatzkammer was co- artist on the program and played with artistic finesse the Chopin "Polonaise in A flat major," which has gained popularity in a more modernized version. His second well-known selection was the "Little Fugue" by Bach.

Pianist on Program

His rendition of "Four Rus- sian Folk songs" by Liadoff-Si- loti was most charming, while his Debussy selection of "Reflets Dans L'eau" demonstrated a light, airy touch.

In a brief speech following his scheduled concert, Robeson thanked his audience for their reception, then concluded the program with "Ballad for Amer- icans" and a reading from "Oth- ello." —B. W.

Cleveland Orchestra Presented Tuesday

The Cleveland orchestra will present a concert Tuesday night at College auditorium at 8:15. Dean S. E. Crowe has announced.

The orchestra was formed 28 years ago and gave its first con- cert in Gray's army in Clevel- and in December, 1918. Nikolai Sokoloff was the first conductor and since then the orchestra has had only two other permanent conductors. The present con- ductor of the orchestra is Erich Leinsdorf.

In 1941 the orchestra added to its activities a series of world broadcasts which made it pos- sible for not only North Amer- icans to hear the program but also Central and South America, Europe, Africa and the Pacific war front.

Good Relationships Between Russia, United States Important In Halting Future War, Sorokin Says

By MORTON SMERLING

"Good relations between Rus- sia and the United States is the most important single factor of preventing another world war," Dr. Pitirim Alandrovitch Sorokin, professor of sociology at Harvard college, told his listen- ers in a capacity-filled Music auditorium Saturday night.

Analyzing Russian foreign pol- icy, Dr. Sorokin said that recent Soviet demands have been "more modest than those of Britain and the United States." "The United States," he said, "work a one- way Monroe doctrine." We feel justified in seeking oil conces- sions in the Near East at Rus- sia's back door, but how would we react, the speaker asked, if Russia were to become interested in Mexican oil?

Russia's Two Phases

From 1917 to the present, Dr. Sorokin viewed revolutionary Russia as having passed through two phases: "the destructive phase, when all living values and institutions were wiped out; and the constructive phase, when liv- ing trends, cultural values and social institutions, temporarily put out of commission, returned to 'grow and press the system in power.'"

"The Soviet government now glorifies all great events and works of Russian history regard- less of origin," he stated. In ad- dition, religion is once more rec- ognized by the state, the family has become more stable and stronger than ever before, and divorce has been made virtually impossible for 95 per cent of the people.

Little Communism Left

"Essentially, there remains practically nothing of commun- ism in Russia," Dr. Sorokin maintained, particularly in re- gard to its foreign policy. "To- day Russia's aggressive, imperi- alistic foreign policy is merely a return to her traditional, sov- ereign, foreign policy of pre- communist days, and is no in- vention of Mr. Stalin." All that remains of communism is a na- tionalized system of economy and a distasteful government, he said.

Kappas, AGRs Take Homecoming Honors for Original Decorations

Kappa Alpha Theta

Prewar events were back in force this year at the annual homecoming celebration last weekend. Evidence was shown in the form of decorations dis- played by fraternities and sor- orities.

Alpha Gamma Rho placed first for the fraternities. Their display consisted of a huge Spar- tan holding a sword in one hand and a small, slightly bat- tered tiger in the other. A sign on the side read, "They had to be shown."

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Delta Chi placed second and third, re- spectively.

Kappa Kappa Gamma walked off with the PanHellenic cup for their theme of an open book en- titled "Little Black Sambo." On one page, tigers were pictured running around the trunk of a tree and underneath were the words, "The Tigers roar." On the opposite page Little Black Sam- bo was shown picking up num- bers off the ground and the words read, "But—State picks up the score."

Along the left hand side of the book, signs were placed indicat- ing Michigan, Kentucky, Wayne, and Marquette. The right hand side of the book held names of the teams yet to be played.

Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta Zeta placed second and third for the sororities.

Despite the somewhat unfavor- able weather, some 14,000 fans attended the clash between State and Missouri university that took place on Macklin field Saturday afternoon.

The dance sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega Saturday night drew a tremendous crowd of students and alumni. During the intermis- sion local talent was displayed and a door prize was given.

Russ Reader, outstanding State player, was awarded a jug at this time for his grid perform- ance against the Missouri Tigers.

Drummond Visits Home Ec Group

Dr. Laura Drummond, national president of Omicron Nu, visited the Alpha chapter of the home economics honorary at Michigan State college last week end.

On Saturday Dr. Drummond visited the national offices of Omicron Nu which are located here. She was guest at a faculty dinner Saturday night and at a dinner with Omicron Nu faculty members at the home of Dean Marie Dye on Sunday. Yesterday Dr. Drummond visited with members of the active chapter here.

Because of war time restric- tions which prevented a national conclave, Dr. Drummond is mak- ing a month's tour to visit Omicron Nu chapters throughout the country.

Truman Hits Solemn Note At Meeting

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—While white-collar pick- ets paraded outside the la- bor-management conference today, President Truman gravely warned delegates they must find a formula for industrial peace among themselves or else the people of the United States will find the answer "some place else."

The President did not raise his voice when he made this state- ment at the conclusion of his talk, but no one present missed the implications as he called on leaders of labor and industry to "furnish a broad and permanent foundation for industrial peace and progress."

The President set the task of the conference which got away smoothly with only the parading pickets adding a discordant note. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of Amer- ica, walked through the picket line twice to attend the morning and afternoon sessions and Wil- liam Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, passed through once.

Pickets Protest

The pickets appeared on Con- stitution avenue shortly before the conference convened, protest- ing that independent unions had not been invited to the con- ference.

They carried signs which read: "30,000,000 workers ignored by Labor department," "The man from Independence, Mo., forgot the independent unions," "We challenge Green, Murray and Lewis to cross this picket line."

The pickets laid down their signs, however, when the presi- dential party approached and there was no lines across Tru- man's path.

Wages and Hours

The highly explosive question of wages and hours was injected into the conference both by CIO President Philip Murray and Secretary of Commerce Wallace in their addresses while Green— siding with the views of man- agement delegates — asserted "the introduction of other con- troversial subjects such as wag- es, full employment and legisla- tion for consideration of this conference would make failure of the conference a foregone conclusion."

Murray declared "American workers have joined in a crusade for a very simple objective—the restoration of a human standard of living."

"Strong segments of the Amer- ican employer group have, to put it mildly, not been receptive to the workers dilemma—the dilem- ma of shrinking wages and rising living costs," he said.

Identification cards may be obtained at the administration building, S. E. Crowe has an- nounced.

Affairs of State

By NAN TRABUE and DOTTIE LAMONT

HO-hum-m-m, we're having a hard time keeping awake in classes today after the strenuous homecoming weekend just past. 'Twas good to see all the alums return to their alma mater for a while, and 'twas wonderful to see our Spartans tackle the Tigers.

Along the line of nice things happening around here, we find that Margaret Coulter, Flint senior, has received a ring from Cpl. Russell Stout, of Detroit. Russell attends General Motors Tech in Flint.

Then, showing they weren't a bit superstitious Char Nevil, Elm-hurst, Ill., sophomore, and F O Bob Cox decided to become engaged on Halloween. Bob is stationed at Lowry Field in Colorado.

Another coed on our engaged list for today is Pat Delahunte, Grand Rapids junior. Cause of her happy smiles and diamond ring is A S Ralph Sholenski, naval ROTC now stationed at Columbia university.

Jeanne Willard, Jackson sophomore, is in the same one-man-only status, but with different indications in the way of a Phi Delt pin. Former possessor of said piece of jewelry is Chuck Lentz, from St. Louis.

Another Phi Delt pin is looming into view on the sweater of Peg Schaeffer, who graduated last year. Donor is Bill Lambert, and before Spartan brother fraternity fellows wonder if there's a "yahoodi" in the crowd, we might add that Bill is from the University of Michigan.

The latest angle roundabout is that the Psi U's had election of officers, resulting in top position as president in the hands of Lee Grant. Joe Beye is taking care of the corresponding in capacity of secretary, and Bob Byerly has

Spartans Gain Revenge Over Missouri Triumph Last Year

Tigers Defeated in 14 - 7* Rout by State Before 14,000 Spectators

The Spartans continued on their victory road Saturday, having defeated the power-laden University of Missouri Tigers in a 14 to 7 rout, that saw the Spartans take revenge for the upset they suffered at the hands of the southern team last year.

Before a crowd of 14,000 fans, and part of the time in a driving snowstorm, the Spartans scored in the third and fourth quarters. The touchdowns were made by Don Hendricks, fullback, and Gus Reader, halfback.

The game opened with the snow blowing in from the northwest, and Missouri elected to kick off to State, following the pass. Jim Kekernis, 330-pound tackle, booted to Steve Contos in the nine, and he returned the ball to the 22, where he was covered by Engelberger.

On the second play of the game, Breslin quick-kicked to the Missouri 41. On the Missouri punting play, quarterback backer, Bob Lamsties, recovered in the Missouri 42.

On the next four plays Fullback Breslin carried the ball for first down. On the next play Reader's pass to Huey was intercepted by O'Connell on the Missouri 25, and was downed immediately by Huey.

Breslin Makes First Down

Four tries at the Spartan line netted the Tigers nothing, and Brown punted out of bounds on the State 31. Reader's pass, intended for Barbias, was incomplete, and on the second down Breslin drove to the State 41 for first down. Three more plays netted only one yard and Breslin punted out of bounds on the Missouri 48.

Late in the first period the Spartans started a drive that in over into the second quarter, after reaching the Missouri yard line, the attack faltered and Missouri took over on downs.

The following Missouri punt was short and went out of bounds on the Missouri 31. Here another State drive started pushing the pigskin to the 14, where the drive stalled. Again the Tiger took over on downs.

The half ended with the ball on the State 19, following a punt. Tiger quarterback Brown, at a fifteen yard penalty for clipping.

Missouri Kicks Off

Again Missouri took the kick to State, and it was first Breslin put the ball ahead again and ten to go on the Spartan 20. Two consecutive drives other ten yards. Failing to make any yardage on the next three plays, Breslin punted to Brown on the Missouri 18.

From the 18, Missouri drove to the midfield stripe, but the team was forced to punt after their attack bogged down. As Quarterback Brown attempted to punt the ball, Warren Huey, State's right end, blocked the kick and the ball rolled 20 yards before Nick Zeigler, the other State end, fell on it.

Spartans Pass

Taking full advantage of the situation, the Spartans passed and ran the ball down to the Tiger two-yard line. On the next play Don Hendricks, fullback, plunged the needed two yards for the first State score. Malaga's try for the extra point was good and State led 7 to 0.

In less than five minutes the score was all tied up at 7 to 7.

Mazza kicked off to him on the 11-yard line, and here the Tigers started to roll straight down the field in four consecutive first downs, the Missourians drove over the Spartan goal to tie the score.

Reader Takes Kick

Reader took Missouri's return kick on the seven and was finally run out of bounds on the State 31. The third quarter ended with the Spartans driving toward the Tiger goal with the ball on the Missouri 40.

Reader passed to Huey on the 31, and a smash by Breslin brought the ball to the 26. The highlight of the game came on the next play when Reader scheduled to throw a forward pass, could not find a receiver and skirted his own end, twisting and plunging the 26 yards for the second State touchdown. Again Malaga's attempt was good and State led 14 to 7.

In the final minutes, Missouri took to the air, but to no avail, as the State pass defense was airtight and after a fourth pass was incomplete, State took over on the Tiger 17. The game ended with the Spartans on the Missouri nine, with a possible third score in sight.

Union Board Lists Weekend Dances

Union board's weekend activities will include the regular Saturday night dance featuring Gene Devine's orchestra, and Friday Frolic, it was announced following a meeting of the executive board last night.

The dance Saturday will be from 9 p.m. to midnight in the Union ballroom. Dick Mosher, chairman, revealed it will be an all-college date affair.

Friday Frolic will be held on the third floor of the Union from 8:30 to 11:30, and will offer games and dancing to records, according to Chairmen June McNutt and Jim Graves. This regular feature of Union board is open to all students who may attend with or without dates.

The executive committee also announced plans for the monthly dinner for all sub-committee, which will be held Tuesday at 6 p.m. on the sunporch of the Union. The executive committee will meet as usual at 5 p.m. to discuss plans for the following week.

Muskegon Band Displays Interesting Marching Program Between Halves

The excitement of the mighty* Spartan-Tiger clash last Saturday was further augmented by the outstanding show that was put on between halves of the game.

As the gun sounded the end of the first half, the 14,000 spectators, many of which were alumni, beheld a colorful sight. The 128-piece marching band from Muskegon marched onto the field in bright red uniforms.

The band welcomed the Missouri Tigers with the playing of the "Missouri Waltz" and the remaining part of the program was built around World War II and the Michigan State college men who took part in the conflict.

The members of the band formed December 7 and accompanied the formation with "Remember Pearl Harbor" and May 7 was then spelled out to the music of "Victory Polka." With the formation of August 14, denoting V-J day, the band broke into the strains of "When the Lights Go On Again All Over the World." A large white banner was unfolded on the field with a red border and a solitary gold star, while the band formed 274, the number of State men who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II. The program was terminated with the playing of the Alma Mater.

SPARTAN PLAYERS

By ART ROSS

Flying 'Z' Offense Strengthened By Quarterback Glenn Johnson

A newly created offensive system such as the flying "Z" employed by State, requires an exceptionally able quarterback to direct the team's strategy. Such a quarterback is Glenn Johnson, the 185-pounder from Grosse Ile, who has been handling the signal calling duties for the Spartans this fall.

Air Corps Veteran

Recently discharged from the army air corps, Johnson also played under Coach Charles Bachman in '42. However, he was unfamiliar with the new style of offense because Bachman did not begin perfecting it until the season of 1943 when he was working with the Camp Grant squad.

Glenn received his discharge the week before the opening game with Michigan, and consequently he was used sparingly in that contest. Since that time however, he has rated the first string quarterback spot, and a good deal of the success of the Spartans may be accredited to him.

It is Johnson's task to size up the defensive team's weak spots and direct his team's attack accordingly. How well he has performed this job is verified by the squad's encouraging comeback record of four victories and a tie in five games.

Blocker and Tackler
Glenn is a solid blocker and a sure tackler, and seems to have the necessary confidence of his teammates. Probably taken out and put back in the ball game (in order to review strategy with his coach) more than any other player, he gets in a lot more running than he needs this way.

Campus Organizations Reveal Plans For All-out Weekend Social Fling

By KATHIE MULL

Plans are already underway for a big social weekend to mark the Great Lakes game. An exchange dinner, hayride, radio parties, open houses, a picnic, and Union board's open date dance top the list of festive activities scheduled for State students.

Sigma Chi fraternity will start exchange dinner for the Alpha the social ball rolling with an Phis Thursday night from 5:45 to 7:30 at the chapter house. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Staack have been named as patrons.

Friday night the Delta Chis will entertain their dates on a hayride, followed by a radio party at the house, according to Don Cole, Pontiac sophomore, social chairman. The affair will be from 7 to 11:30 p.m.

Hard Times Hop

Student club has planned an informal "hard times" party for Friday from 8 to 11:30 p.m. at Peoples church. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Haack will be patrons, according to Maxine Finkbeiner, Middleville sophomore, social chairman.

Authority On Book Design To Lecture

Victor Hamner, noted painter and topographer on the faculty of Wells college, will lecture tonight at 8 o'clock in the Music auditorium. He is the second speaker to be brought to the campus by the MSC art department, according to Howard Church, head of the department.

Hamner's lecture will climax here at State, National Art week held from Nov. 1 to 7 each year. He will discuss "The Graphic Arts."

International Authority

An internationally recognized authority on fine printing and book design, Hamner has added a volume of his to the "Fifty Books of the Year" exhibition. It has been termed one of the finest printed books of the time.

Hamner's lecture will climax, press in Florence, Italy, where he designed and cut his own type for the books which have won him world fame.

A current example of his workmanship may be noted in the publication "The Three Cornered Hat" which he designed. A former student, Fritz Kredel, illustrated it with wood cuts.

Reception Held

An informal reception will be held in the art gallery of the Music building following the lecture. Visitors at that time may view "The Graphic Arts Exhibit" featured this month in the gallery. The special display of fine books, arranged by Prof. Charles Pollock, artist-member of the art department, will be shown beginning this evening and lasting till November 25.

Hamner's talk will be open to the public. Members of the campus organization, Friends of the Library, will be special guests.

GREAT LAKES GREYHOUND LINES

HIS SHIP'S IN!

WHEN our boys come home, there's always a rush of Long Distance calls to many parts of the country. They mean a lot, those calls to home.

Oftentimes they're delayed because the wires are crowded, and that's because we still lack circuits. Over two million miles of new circuits are being added by the Bell System just as fast as they can be built. But it will take time.

So, please make none but necessary Long Distance calls in the evening. That's when many service men are using the lines.
