... These Modern

Backstage hecklers after Tuesday evening's concert found conductor Leinsdorf perspiring and somewhat tired but very good natured. When presented with a modern style, fluid drive pen with which to sign autographs, he examined it quickly and then asked, in his Austrian accent, "Is this one of those ball bearings that writes 200 miles without stopping?" Finding the combination to the pen, he issued forth autographs, answered questions and joked liberally with admirers before returning the "ball bearing" to its owner.

... My Room, Goon

A pretty mad soldier man was seen storming out of Abbott hall the other day muttering the words "tain't right, tain't that's all." He refused to believe the old facts that a woman had taken over the room he had in his MSC college days, and after finally realizing the truth in it, was ready to do anything about it. Anything might mean anything in this case so the coed in room 51 better pack up quick and prepare for an invader—he was mad.

... On The Ball

"The little Pooch" that mascots modern dance class for coeds, as added an incentive and rushed up on his own personal culture in the gym this term. The other day he proved he wasn't quite as dumb as he looks, and now is known as "Recht treuer, A-1."

At a class recently attended he sniffed the gym thoroughly and appeared with a tennis ball. The dancers at the pointer's point and now consider his worth in a thorough light.

Two Travel Films Listed On Series

Two programs will be presented next week as a part of the world adventure series, according to Dean S. E. Crowe.

Deane Dickason, authority on eastern affairs, will give a lecture and film, "Lovely Bali Day," Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. College auditorium.

"We Live in Alaska," a technical movie photographed by Al Robinson, will be presented in the College auditorium as the second program of the week next Saturday night at 8:15.

Dickason, editor, author, photographer, and foreign correspondent, has traveled extensively for the world. His picture, which was filmed in technicolor before Pearl Harbor, reveals beautiful scenery and fascinating people of Bali as they live.

Seven years of exploration in Alaska give Robinson material in which he can speak with authority about Alaska, long thought of as a land of ice, snow, and igloos.

Interest in Alaska, a vital part of America, has grown because of the wartime activity there. "We Live in Alaska" means all Americans—Alaskan pioneers, the GIs, construction workers on war projects, the government colony on Matanuska, and the Robinson family as a typical Alaskan family. Many extensive wildlife sequences are also included.

Council Reveals Final Election Plans

Porpoise to Honor Queen Candidates At Party Tonight

Candidates for queen of Aquatic Victory parade of 1945, which is being sponsored by Porpoise, men's national swimming honorary, will be entertained at a splash party in the Women's gymnasium from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight.

Candidates have been selected from the various women's organizations on campus, dormitories, and sororities. The queen of the Victory Parade of 1945, who will be presented Nov. 30, will be elected following a tea Nov. 24, to be given in honor of the candidates.

The complete list of candidates for swim queen include the following:

Kappa Alpha Theta, Carol Brown; Pi Beta Phi, Mary Jane Vosburgh; Mason hall, Nancy Buckingham; Mary Mayo annex, Pat Mulligan; North Sarah Williams, Vera Louise Closs; East Mayo hall, Pat Palmer; Chi Omega, June Allen; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Josephine Johnson; Kappa Delta, Gloria Leimbach and Ethel Louise Boetzhold; Zeta Tau Alpha, Audrey Vincent and Marilyn Sexton; Concord house, Helen Bates; Delta Gamma Mu, Mary Kyte; West Mayo, Norma Maxwell, and Town Girls club, Betty Lou Ruhling.

Nobel Prize Presented

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 15 (AP)—Prof. Otto Hahn, German authority on radio-activity and the atom, has been awarded the 1944 Nobel peace prize in chemistry for his discovery of a method to break the heavy atom nucleus, it was announced today.

The 1945 prize went to Artturi Wirtanen, Finnish biochemist, for his discoveries relating to agricultural and food chemistry.

Rules Permit No Changes In Ballot

Primary elections for junior and senior class officers will take place Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the lower deck of the Union, according to election co-chairmen Bud Smith, Dearborn senior, and Dale Brown, Sebawaing junior. All voters will be required to have their identification cards at the polls, the chairmen stated.

Other rules governing the election were also disclosed by Student council. Votes will not be in order of preference and voters may cast only one vote for each office. The two candidates receiving the highest votes for each office will run in the final election which is slated for early December.

Classification

Rules for the election specify that all students with from 92 to 142 credits are considered juniors and all those having 142 or more will vote as seniors. Veterinarians will vote in their class in vet school.

All candidates who wish to display pictures at the polls must turn them in to Smith today.

Prof. Fred Patton of the Michigan State college music department, will retire from the college in December rather than resign, as was erroneously reported in the Wednesday issue of the State News.

Rules are limited to three by five inches. Other campaign literature must also be submitted for approval today and may be left at the Union desk in Smith's name.

Candidate Rules

Contrary to practices in other years, candidates may not petition to run for any office other than the one for which they were nominated, Brown said. Anyone wishing to withdraw from the ballot must do so in writing today.

All women candidates are required to contact Points Limitation board before the election and, if overpointed, indicate what activity they will be willing to forfeit if elected, according to Gayle Oviatt, Washington, D. C., junior.

Final lists of eligible candidates will not be available until tomorrow, according to Brown.

Truman, Attlee Release Atomic Bomb Secrets

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—President Truman and the leaders of Britain and Canada today offered the secrets of atomic force to Russia and the rest of the world on two main conditions.

Those conditions are:

1. That nations which get the atomic secrets must equally share their own scientific secrets now and in the future, when other new and terrible weapons of mass destruction may be invented.

2. That the United Nations devise and establish world-wide means of inspecting atomic plants in all countries to help prevent the use of the atom for war purposes.

The conditions were set forth in a sweeping declaration on atomic policy issued at the White House today by Mr. Truman, Prime Minister Attlee of Great Britain and Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada. This said the atomic bomb and other terrible weapons can be completely controlled only by banishing "the scourge of war from the earth" and it called for building up the United Nations to that end.

A short time before, the declaration had been cabled to the foreign minister of Russia, France and China—all permanent members of the United Nations security council—by Secretary of State Byrnes.

Russia is the only other nation in the world today regarded by American officials as having the industrial and natural resources capable of atomic developments and diplomats said that the pronouncement in effect puts the issue of atomic secrecy now squarely up to Moscow.

Journalism Honorary Pledges Nine Women

Nine women students were pledged to Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalism honorary, last night, according to Jeanette Nixon, Royal Oak senior, president.

The pledges are Bette Cahill, Detroit junior; Toni Ebner, Grosse Pointe park senior; Wilma Fredrick, senior, Jean Jarvis, junior, both of Detroit, and Margaret Johnson, Lansing junior.

Others are Thais Lucas, Berrien Springs junior; Kathleen Mull, Lansing junior; Barbara Tuttle, Adrian junior, and Meta Willis, Spring Lake senior.

Chinese Move For Positions In Shantung

Russian Troops Restore Partial Sovereignty In Manchuria

CHUNGKING, Nov. 15 (AP)—Partial Chinese sovereignty over Manchuria was restored by the Russians today as both sides in China's civil war maneuvered for position in strategic Shantung province to the south.

An official dispatch said the Russians turned over postal and telegraphic services at the Manchurian capital of Changchun to Chinese authorities, whose troops still are blocked from the long Japanese-dominated area by Chinese communists.

Russia Gets Privileges

The official account added that under the agreement — one of those sought by Chungking in its attempts to reoccupy Manchuria ahead of the communists — the Russians would be allowed to use the facilities until they withdraw, probably some time next month.

There still was no word of the outcome of Russian-Chinese negotiations for permission to fly nationalist troops to Changchun. But while the Manchurian situation took a more favorable nationalist turn, the Chinese communists struck swiftly in the rich coastal province of Shantung.

Associated Press correspondent, Richard Bergholz, reported they ripped up sections of the railway leading into the interior in an attempt to seal thousands of nationalist troops landing from the sea at the big port of Tsingtao.

Communists Get Tipper

Troops returning from Shantung's capital of Tsinan, told Bergholz the city was under virtual siege, with communists controlling routes leading into the city and the population and garrison running short of food.

Observers in Chungking believed the ultimate communist objective was to seize control of the Yangtze west of Hankow and prevent nationalist troops from using that mighty stream for transportation.

That America was sending 1,000 tanks to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek; that America would train 10,000 men for China's air force, and that 100 American-manned tanks were heading for Shanhaikwan, fortress guarding the southern entrance to Manchuria, reportedly captured by nationalist troops.

Night Classes Planned For Winter Term

Michigan State college will hold night classes and noon-hour classes beginning with the winter term in January because of overcrowded classrooms, Pres. John A. Hannah announced yesterday.

Pres. Hannah said that there were not enough classrooms available to hold all classes with a regular day schedule because of the increased enrollment and the conversion of some classrooms into laboratories during the war.

'Blithe Spirit' Gets First Showing Tonight

Curtain will go up tonight at promptly 8:15 for "Blithe Spirit's" opening night. The evening will feature not only the promising play but added attractions with Larry Frymire conducting first-nighter interviews in the lobby which will be transmitted into the theater from 7:55 to 8:10 p.m.

Speech Major coeds starting the style of formals for opening nights and Joyce Deisch playing organ selections between acts, and before and after the play.

The play, which will be presented tonight and tomorrow night in Fairchild theater under the direction of Don Buell, is an improbable farce in three acts. Settings are under Prof. Cecil H. Nickle, who has had charge of the set construction for term plays at MSC for 14 years.

Advance tickets should be picked up before going to the theater.

International Students Day

Tomorrow at the Charles university in Prague, Czechoslovakia, an International Students' Conference is being held to discuss the problems of students insuring continuation of the basic freedoms and a secure future all over the world.

Many of the delegates have come directly from the Third World Youth conference, held in London from Oct. 31 to Nov. 9, where delegations from all the democratic countries have been formulating a program to realize the greatest opportunities for youth in a peaceful world.

A delegation representing thirty organizations from the United States attended this conference. The conference taking place in Prague tomorrow is of special significance as it is the scene of one of the first major instances of fascist brutality toward students in occupied countries.

On Nov. 17, 1939, shortly after the sell-out at Munich, and before they had had time to learn better, the students at Charles university held a demonstration to protest the murder of two of their leaders by the storm troopers occupying the town. In answer to the protest, the storm troopers turned machine guns on the demonstrators and massacred 137 students.

Some students managed to escape, and eventually reached London. In 1941, the Czechoslovakian students met with other refugees and students from the English universities and agreed to designate Nov. 17 as International Students' day.

On this day the students of the world pay honor to those who suffered under the tide of fascism and on this day they prepare to build a wall of international solidarity so strong and high that no other such tide will ever be able to overflow it.

WELL, looks like Indian summer has left us again and old man winter is once more upon us. But, the old guy has by no means dampened the heart of that busy, little character, Cupid. He is still pulling away on that bow of his and piercing many hearts around this vicinity.

The first mark Mr. Cupid makes is right into the heart of Glen Dora Loew, Chi Omega, who was recently pinned to Bill Harrison, Kappa Sig. Bill is stationed with the air corps in South America.

It seems that Margaret Dahin, Lansing Alpha Omicron Pi, is still shaking the rice out. She and L. Roger Hendrick were married a few weeks ago. Roger is a former MSC Delta Sig.

Barbara Kantz, Ferndale freshman, is trying to dust the starlight out of her eyes, the reason being that sparkler on her third finger, left hand. Dick Kaltz, of the army engineers is the lucky man.

These freshmen seem to be doing all right for themselves. Marilyn Adams, from East Lansing, recently received a Phi Delt pin from Craig Britton, NROTC. Craig was just home on an eight-day furlough.

Leaving the romantic side and taking up the topic of pledgings and initiations it seems that the Greek letter groups have been on the busy side.

Three pledge pins were turned in at the Alpha Phi house and the outcome was a trio of happy newly initiated individuals. Joining the active status were Jane Hite, Birmingham sophomore; Patty Page, Lansing sophomore, and Betty Skimin, Grosse Pointe senior.

HEADS GOT TOGETHER

RESULT: MORE TRANSCONTINENTAL TELEPHONE CIRCUITS

With wire scarce and wartime calls increasing telephone engineers made existing pairs of long distance wires carry nearly four times as many calls as before. This was done through installation of additional carrier equipment, requiring closer spacing of the wires on the line and transpositions at shorter intervals.

Three pairs on the Southern Transcontinental Route were rearranged, and in a 430-mile section this had to be done while keeping the urgent needed wires in service all the time. To do this new tools and new methods had to be devised in the laboratories and on the job.

This is another among many examples of Bell System teamwork and engineering skill maintained telephone service under wartime conditions.

Star Players Give Penn State Big Edge on MSC

Tepsic, Guadalcanal Veteran, Leads Lions

Despite the possibility that every one of State's regulars will be ready for action, the Spartans will go into tomorrow's game as decided underdogs against the powerful Lions of Penn State. Rated third in the east behind only Army and Navy, the Lions will bring a team with an impressive record of five wins against one defeat. The lone defeat came at the hands of Navy 28-0.

Leading the team will be Guadalcanal veteran Joe Tepsic, leading scorer and all around backfield threat. Another returned serviceman, handyman Ralph Ventresco, alternates for both Tepsic and fullback Bellas to spark the team's aerial attack.

Recently voted the lineman of the week is Marino Marchi, a 220-pound senior who teams with Johnny Nolan, a 210-pound navy trainee, at the tackles. At left guard may be Mike Garbinski, who held the position in 1940 before he was summoned as the first Penn State regular to enter the service.

In the State camp, emphasis is being placed on strengthening the line to stop Penn State's assortment of spinner plays and off tackle smashes. Although several men are suffering from minor injuries, the line should take the field Saturday at close to its top strength. Coach John Pingel, who scouted Penn State's last two games, has warned the linemen that they must play "heads-up" football if they are to stop the off tackle slants of Tepsic.

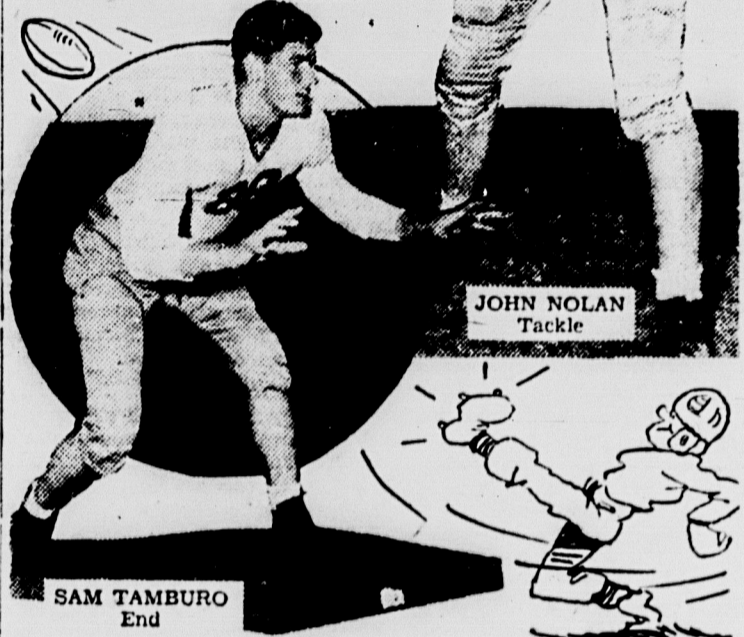

The State backfield on the other hand is a case of question marks. Johnson, Contos, Reader, and Breslin are all expected to start, but how much action they will see is uncertain. All but Johnson have missed at least one day of practice this week because of injuries, and the first hard jolt might be enough to cut short their performance Saturday.

One big change in the Spartan backfield has been the shift of quarterback Dominic Conti to the left half position. Previously Bob Ludwig of Muskegon has been left as understudy for Reader; but Bob's right thumb, broken in the Michigan game, is still proving troublesome. This makes Lud-

T Play Threatens Wolverines In Coming Clash

ANN ARBOR, Nov 15 (AP)—The teasing T-formation once more will be pestering University of Michigan's football team when the Wolverine eleven collides with the Purdue Boilermakers here Saturday.

Both teams, with records of three wins in four conference contests, will be out to remain in the Big Ten title race and as such are expected to give little and take much in the way of scoring opportunities.

The Wolverines first ran into the "T" to a great extent in the Army contest which the cadets seized, 28 to 7. Then after a week's rest because of an open date, Michigan tangled with Illinois and had plenty of trouble until the fourth quarter when the Wolverines pushed across three quick scores for a 19 to 0 win.

Last week Navy really gave Head Coach H.O. (Fritz) Cusler's charges the T-formation business to the tune of a 33 to 7 trouncing.

ATOs Swamp Phi Deltis 33 - 13 In Fraternity Football Semi-Finals

In a game played under the lights at practice field, a crowd of two hundred and fifty people saw Alpha Tau Omega fight its way into the playoff finals last night by defeating Phi Delta Theta, 33 to 13.

Sparked by Keith Steffee, ATO scored three times in the second quarter and once each in the third and fourth quarters. Never seriously threatened by the Phi Deltis, the ATO basketball type offense scored at will. The Phi Delt attack was lead by Art Nolan and Bill Merchant. The final and championship game of the IFC football season will be played Monday night between Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Nu. The game which starts at 7:30 p.m., will be played under the lights at the practice field.

State Runner Victim of Odd War Incident

The Spartan entry in the seventh annual running of the NCAA cross country run here Saturday, will be led by Walter Mack, a veteran of the Pacific war who says that he is alive simply because he did the wrong thing at the right time.

A varsity letter winner in cross country, the 25-year-old Buffalo, N. Y., junior now has a longitudinal scar on the bottom of his right foot caused by a Jap machine gun bullet for having jumped rather than "hitting the deck" as expected by the gunner. The scar begins at the heel and extends the length of the foot.

Walt was a pharmacist mate first class with the first marine division on New Britain. His harrowing experience in January, 1944, occurred as he accompanied an advance patrol towards a Japanese stronghold.

"Our advance passed a Jap pill box which we thought was knocked out by bombardment of our mates," Walt explains. "There were 42 in the patrol."

"We approached a ridge on a clearing in the jungle about 50 feet beyond the box, when machine gun fire suddenly opened up behind us. Thinking that we'd hit the deck, the Jap directed his fire at our feet. We scattered—in a hurry by leaping over the ridge. Had we dropped to the ground it would have been curtains for all of us."

Walt and one of his team mates were the only ones injured. The Jap got his for keeps shortly after, Walt assures.

One of the four lettermen on this year's squad, he holds freshman indoor track records in the half and the mile run and the varsity three mile cross country record which he set before entering the service in 1942.

Strangely enough, Walt is much more comfortable running four and five miles than he is standing in the cafeteria line which moves at a snail's pace.

"Something about the injury when I'm not moving causes pain similar to that of a dull tooth ache, and feels as if I were walking with a wrinkle in my sock."

HILLEL COUNSELORSHIP

Hillel will have as guest speaker at their meeting Sunday, Dr. Karel Hujer of the physics department. His topic of the evening will be "Cultural Parallels of World Civilization."

CANTERBURY CLUB

Plans are being made for a home-cooked Thanksgiving dinner for those students of the Episcopal church and their guests who cannot go home. Reservation must be in by Tuesday. Costs will be shared.

There will be the usual coffee served at the Canterbury house after the game Saturday.

"Mason Merry-Go-Round, and the sun porch will be decorated as the Tunnel of Love.

The grill will be open for refreshments, and couples will dance to the music of Rosemary Howland and her orchestra, according to Doris Baird, Ionia junior, chairman. Dr. and Mrs. Lucas and Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Shirley will act as chaperons.

Joint Party Planned

The occupants of Benson and Potter houses have planned a joint party for tonight. A juke box will supply the music for dancing and a floor show has been planned which will be comprised of a skit and singing.

The party will be held in the Faculty dining room, according to Connie Baur, Bay Port sophomore. Dr. Harrison and Professor and Mrs. Arnold Williams have been invited to act as chaperons.

The Alpha Omicron Pis will hold a house warming tonight from 8 to 12 p.m. All men on campus are invited to attend. Dancing, refreshments, and entertainment have been planned for the guests, according to Doris Baguley, Lansing senior. Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Knittel will be chaperons for the house warming.

Sigma Kappa Semi-formal

For Saturday night a semi-formal party has been planned by the Sigma Kappas from 9 to 12 p.m. at the chapter house. The motif of the party is a night club featuring Dick Snook's orchestra and the Sigma Swingers, vocal trio, according to Dee Dearing, Pontiac senior, chairman. Members of the Forestry Club will also hold their term party tomorrow night. The dance will take place at the Forestry cabin.

Sunday afternoon the Zeta Tau Alphas will give a tea for house mothers, and the Alpha Gamma Rhoes have been invited to have Sunday night lunch with the Alpha Gamma Deltas.

The Pi Phi are making plans for a father's day Saturday and fathers are to be guests at the Penn-State game, and for dinner at the house. After dinner there will be an evening program.

Le Tricolore to Show French Film

Le Tricolore, French honorary, in conjunction with the Foreign Language department, will present a film based on the life of Beethoven entitled "La Vie at les Amours de Beethoven" Monday night at 8, at Fairchild Theater.

Abel Gance in his scenario has depicted the inspiration of some of the artist's most famous works, including the myth-en-shrouded Moonlight Sonata and the Funeral March from the Eroica Symphony. The intensity of the scene in which the master first becomes totally deaf is unforgettable, and Harry Baur, one of the finest of French character actors, interprets the role of the moody genius with great sensitivity. There will be no charge for admission. The film will be in French with English titles.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

TO the Editor: I am sure that State News readers will be interested to know that my appeal some weeks ago for aid in finding a home for my family had a warm and immediate response. The generous interest of students, faculty and townspeople not only brought us several available places, but helped restore our faith in human kindness, worn somewhat thin in the preceding weeks.

People have told me that my letter gave them enjoyable reading; that I was indeed "smart;" that the response was directly the result of it. But I know that no letter would have done any good were it not for the genuine concern for others that is in most people's hearts. My writing merely served to acquaint others with our plight; had they known it before we would have been helped before.

We wish to extend our sincerest appreciation, not only to Mrs. Paul D. Bagwell for finding us the house we are now occupying, but also to the many students, faculty members and townspeople who made efforts to find us decent quarters. We should like to thank them individually, but many remained anonymous.

And this very anonymity gives us new cheer, for it is a token that we are among friendly people, even when we can't call them by name.

Paul J. Aldus, Instructor in written and spoken English.

AFFAIRS

Another note on the same subject caught our attention from the Zeta Tau Alphas and Maxine Bottoms, Battle Creek junior, has something in the line of a new pledge pin.

Time out for another initiation at the Alpha Gam house has put six coeds on the active level. Taking this in their stride were Rita Makoski, Grand Rapids junior; Jean Peterson, Chicago sophomore; Alice Rutherford, Detroit sophomore; Patricia Bullis, Hudson sophomore; Beverly Sedwick, Ann Arbor freshman, and Margaret Foster, Detroit sophomore.
