State Tankmen Roar Past Wayne, 68-16

The Tankmen roared back to form,
And Wayne, with a mighty roar,
In a game that was indeed so grand,
The Tankmen triumphed on the stand.

State scored its fifth straight
Winning ways that will not end,
A game of speed and strength,
A battle royale, indeed.

Matmen Face Some Foes In Purdue Meet

State Tankmen fought hard,
With foes in sight and in reach,
Their strength and courage
Will not be matched or exceed.

Semi-Formals Head List Of Weekend's Evening Social Life

Radio Dances, Hayrides, Mixers Fill Out State Of Entertainment

Thanks to all the campus affairs—dances, mixers, and local sports. This week was no exception.

The Semi-Formals were a hit at the Yarbord's semi-formal, held Monday night. The semi-formal was sponsored by the Inter-Yen Council and the Women's Social Organization, and was held at the Yarbord Ballroom.

The judges were Willard Girls' Club members, and the audience was enthusiastic. The semi-formal was a great success, and everyone had a good time.

Republican Blasts For Truman

The Republican Party is hitting the campaign trail again. This time, the focus is on the Truman administration.

Senator Bridges, speaking before the President's Committee, said, "The Truman administration is failing. It has failed to deal with the foreign and domestic problems of the nation."

Bridges went on to criticize Truman's foreign policy, saying that it has led to the death of thousands of American soldiers.
