Eck Announces Frosh Elections Set for Nov. 24

Congress Ruling Delays Vote on Committee for Council

Eighth Army Headquarters—U.S. Army group—supported by tanks, artillery and waves of helicopters—will initiate an aerial and ground attack tomorrow to relieve the 7th Infantry Division, sieged in a mountainous pocket, yesterday in a summary of plans announced to the Associated Press.

The attack, aimed at the north of the pocket, was to be supported by tanks and artillery, with the 7th Infantry Division expected to move in later to rescue the trapped soldiers. The operation is expected to last several days, with heavy losses anticipated.

Tough Job Ahead

When Winston Churchill's new government took office he became the third Prime Minister in Britain within a month.

The job he must now do is by no means an easy one.
The victory in the General Election was won by the Conservative Party which in turn is a party of the right.

Mr. Churchill who has been out of power for five years under Attlee has now the task of bringing Britain back to the standard of living it enjoyed before the war.

The job is not an easy one. It must be done as soon as possible.

With the increased cost of living and the double taxation, it will not be an easy task.

Mr. Churchill is not only the Prime Minister but the leader of the party which he represents.

He must now do what he was elected to do, which is to bring Britain back to the standard of living it enjoyed before the war.

The job is not an easy one. It must be done as soon as possible.
Notre Dame Poses as Toughest Opponent

The Spartans will face their toughest battle for an athletic season Saturday, when they host the powerful Irish of Notre Dame in a battle that has the gamblers spotting both.

The Irish have been a strong football team for years, and their reputation has been well-earned. Their defense is tough, and their offense is capable of putting points on the board. Notre Dame is a team to be respected, and the Spartans will have to play their best to come out on top.

The game will be a test of both teams' abilities, and it will be interesting to see which one will come out on top. The Spartans are confident, and they believe they have what it takes to win.

The atmosphere at Michigan State will be electric, and the fans will be cheering for their team to the fullest extent. TheIrish will be a formidable foe, but the Spartans are up for the challenge.
