Secrecy Cloaks Dodd's Release

General Arrives in Seoul As ArmyKeeps Quiet

By John K. Davis

The Army last night announced the release of Army Gen. James H. H. Dodd, from six months of detention in North Korea. The statement said the general, who had been held at the 51st Parallel for six months, had been released by the North Korean authorities.

Dodd, who is expected to leave by plane for Tokyo tomorrow, was put under house arrest in Seoul by the North Korean authorities last week. He was arrested because of his suspected military activities while stationed in South Korea.

There is no information available on Dodd's future plans. He is expected to leave for Tokyo tomorrow to attend an American military conference.

On Your Shoulders

Tomorrow students will choose their Student Congress representatives and class officers for the coming year. Voting is a duty and a privilege for students, be it in an election as big as a college balloting.

The Student Congress election is a rather advanced set of rules and powers. If the Government it sets up is not operate effectively, those elected its Congressional seats must rely on intelligence, responsibility and forethought since the Government is still in the building stages.

With the new tax going into effect there is a double reason for an intelligent choice of Congress members.

In looking over candidates, voters should know what they can do to help in the way of speeding promotion of campus events, and cooperation with student organizations and administrators. Most important of all, voters should know what they can do to help in the way of speeding promotion of campus events, and cooperation with student organizations and administrators. Most important of all, voters should know what they can do to help in the way of speeding promotion of campus events, and cooperation with student organizations and administrators. Most important of all, voters should know what they can do to help in the way of speeding promotion of campus events, and cooperation with student organizations and administrators.

The same goes for class candidates. Whether the students should choose a place in worthwhile campus activities, whether the faculty has a successful flash mob, and whether the student's money that is spent for the Congress, it and its class that will have an integral part in promoting campus activities next year.

It is to be hoped that voters will look over their candidates carefully, and more importantly, that they will put out and vote tomorrow.

Letter to the Editor

Delinquency Editorial Protested

TO THE EDITOR: It's true that a few ideas that came to mind after reading your editorial "Are We Delinquents?" that appeared in the State News, May 29.

By repeating this editorial you, the editors of the State News, are endorsing the same ideas presented in it.

The issue of the Ingham County News began to assume that delinquency means money spent on beer, and even that it is the men with the abundant amount of cash that are the delinquents on campus.

Next follows the absurd statement that the Dean of Men at MSU conducts a "shut-down" of fraternity houses each year to remove stolen property.

Now if you weren't blinded by your biased views perhaps you would have noticed the oversights in all this. To begin with, the Ingham County News presented no statistics or purposes that it was college men who stole their road mates. Secondly, they simply that it was college fraternity men, not downtown men, but fraternity men. And then they use the trite argument that the unhappy men were men with plenty of money.

But what is perhaps worse is the emphasis written by one of the editors of your paper which follows: "There it is, an other case of theft as all of us in a bad light because of the thoughtlessness and dishonestness of all." This statement shows that you have no idea what a theft is, or the few remarks made by the Ingham County News. It's high time, and you, and others as well, stopped letting people take advantage of college students.

And it is also true that when you, the editors of the State News, did away with your "rule" for college students. Not only in this article, but in many more, you have no idea as well as other slaps at fraternity members.

Fraternity houses do many concrete, constructive things in the community. And this College slaps the fraternity does not even here. If you must write about fraternities, at least be objective when you print. The good along with the bad.
