Judiciary Hands Down First Drinking Decision

Recommendation by the All-College Judiciary to curb alcohol and four counts involving a student drinking has not the effect yesterday by Tony King, dean of students.

King approved the recommendation of Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity when the group was cited in a series of violations in its weekly social programs. The group was the first to be cited.

They were handed down by the students who will be continued until June 23. The fraternity members were apprehended last night when a campus police officer informal charges they had been drinking.

Drinking a repeat of similar violations over the past few weeks, the fraternity vowed to stop the violation at the earliest possible date.

On the other hand, a group of students interested in starting a student union, held meetings yesterday to discuss ideas for establishing a student union on the campus.

Junior's Voice:
Keep Up With Student Affairs

It is important for students to stay informed about college news and events. Students can stay informed by attending campus events, reading the college newspaper, and joining student organizations. The college newspaper is a great source of information about what is happening on campus.

More Consent

The University of Michigan Lecture Committee issued its annual report on campus speaking privileges this year on Monday. The report is a response to the growing complaints of students about the lack of opportunities for public speaking on campus.

Letter To The Editor: Coed Fears IFC Plan Won't Help

To the Editor:

As a member of the Interfraternity Council (IFC), I would like to address the concerns mentioned in your recent editorial regarding the proposed coed fraternity plan. I believe that the IFC is working hard to ensure a fair and inclusive environment for all students.

Sprin Dorm Raids Sweep Universities Across the Nation
Near-Riots Seen on Nine Campuses Monday Night

Sprin madness swept another batch of college campuses Monday night, turning thousands of feverish young men into baying, brawling raiders. Nearly a dozen schools without riots or near-riots at the end of the dormitory in search of vandalism. It was the biggest outbreak yet in the nation's history of college spending and was led by the Ann Arbor, Mich. campus of the University of Michigan. And not all of Michigan's colleges were immune to the outbreak. As the surf of protesters flared and the police were called out on their own campuses and heard their own campus police. Sophomores and freshmen college students were given a thorough drubbing.

Aid Benefits Fail to Pass

WASHINGTON (AP)--A proposal to increase federal aid for veterans to $5.5 billion was thwarted Monday night when a New York senator blocked a provision which would have increased the amount of aid given to veterans from $5.5 billion to $7 billion. The bill was defeated on a voice vote by 158 to 46, with 12 votes cast in favor of the measure.
