Stalin Question

The news of Stalin's illness has rocked the world and set off a series of speculations as to the effects of the situation.

The first thing we must say is that "Comrade Stalin" has actually taken a leave of absence from the leadership of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. This leave has been medically prescribed for a period of two months.

The second thing we must say is that the absence of Comrade Stalin from the leadership of the Party and the Government will not be a hindrance to the work of the Party and the Government. The Party and the Government will continue to work efficiently and effectively.

Van Fleet Suggests Extension of Draft

General Urges 36-36 Month Service To ‘Better Prepare Our Boys’

WASHINGTON—Gen. James A. Van Fleet told Con- gress Wednesday he does not believe the Soviets are interested now in a “shooting war” and said only a military victory can end the fighting in Korea.

The former Eighth Army commander also urged that the draft be extended from 24 to 36 months “to better prepare our boys to live through combat, to prepare them more and better training.”
