Two-Day Stand Scheduled
Symphony to Present Semi-Classic Songs
Semi-classics and musical comedy will outline the program of the Boston Pops orchestra March 17 and 18 at $1.00 in the Auditorium. Arthur Fiedler will conduct.
Dick Somer, Venezuela-born pianist, will be featured executive in the two concerts.
Since Fiedler’s first opening to the Army the general bunkers maintain winter quarters of 15*.

Vets Given First Choice On Housing
Priorities Made Effective April 1
In lieu of promissory notes, veterans will receive priorities in obtaining barracks apartments in new assignments. The application to obtain barracks apartments will be made by Fiedler, on the Housing Service of the Army. Each application will be given a number which will determine the order of the veteran in acquiring the space. The veteran who applies for a new apartment will not be refused the barracks if it is available

MSC Concert Band
Lists Ensembles
In Sunday Program
The Michigan State College Concert band, under the direction of Leonard Felkner, will present a concert March 18 at 4 p.m. in the Auditorium. The members of the program will be woodwind and brass ensemble.

Appearing in the program will be the clarinetists playing the duet of "Spring" by Kline, performed by Bernett and Phillippe. In this composition the sound qualities are placed in the bass, the quiet volume parts in the high register. The title of the concert was made by Mr. Kline, a member of the band, and is based on the silence of the bass. Members of the clarinet group are... and William Tucker.
