Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

May I utilize the facilities of the State Town to protest crookery in the S.W.C.A. and to inform the people of the area of the extent of this plot in our city?

It is known that the S.W.C.A. has been a frequent source of annoyance to the public. In the past, they have operated under the guise of a legitimate business, but have been involved in a great deal of crookery. Their activities include the sale of bootleg alcohol, gambling, and prostitution. They have also been involved in the daily operations of a brothel.

I urge the people of the area to be aware of this problem and to support the actions of the S.W.C.A. in order to rid our community of this evil. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

MILL-INCIDENT ACTION

By KEITH MILLER

In their injury-riddled season, Spartan football coaches told their players to be the ball carriers to their attackers. "As far back as my memory goes," Coach Larry Farmer told his team, "quarterbacks have been hit on the head and knee, and if you're not careful, you'll be in trouble." Farmer, a former football star himself, said he was impressed with the way his team handled the situation. "They're not going to let anything happen to them," he said. "We're going to make sure they're protected." Farmer's words were echoed by several other coaches, who stated that their teams would be more than happy to protect their quarterbacks at all costs.
