Men Make Excuses, But Coeds Pledge the Blood

As usual, the needs are leading the run in supporting the blood drive at M.S.C. Currently it is about 30 to 1.

Operators of the sign-up desks in the Union are instilling the "right attitude" about donating their blood. They tell people they don't get paid, and in fact, they give the vote and appearance of not doing blood.

But male students seem to shy away from donating, with remarks that they would find the blood drive "too hot". But female students are more willing to donate. They say they are not being paid and are simply giving it as a form of service.

But the drive is in its second day, and the blood isn't needed as badly as expected. The first day of the drive brought in only 20 units of blood, which is significantly lower than the expected amount.

Currently it is at a 6 to 1 ratio. If the needs continue as expected, we should have a significant blood drive at a time when the blood drive is needed. This is an urgent matter, and we should all do our part to support the effort.
