Attempts To Separate
Allied Block

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia took a step Sunday toward rejection of the terms and conditions set by the Western Powers for a top-level Big Four conference this month,.

An editorial in Pravda bitterly attacking those terms as they had been set up by the United States would, also suggested to experts here that the Moscow Union is trying to drive a wedge between the United States on one hand and Britain and France on the other.

The implications of the Pravda editorial are that the American leaders are trying to separate the American leaders from the American leaders.

Tuneful Gaylords Spark Recent ‘All-Star Revue’

The nationally-known trio, "The Gaylords," stole the show hands down at the "Centennial International All-Star Revue" Saturday night in the Auditorium.

In addition to their hour-long, intelligent renditions of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," and other favorites, the three brought a "pace" to the show, with "Moon and Penny Polka" and other numbers which were heard for the first time and delighted the audience.

On the whole, Saturday night's "entertainment" was highly entertaining, and wisely held as an "addition to the program.

One hour earlier, a young matron with "Gospelladder, WAVE" and "The Classics of September Song," "Moon and Penny," presented "Four Moments" and "Guns, Groom, Clock," in a touch, bright manner and doing considerable justice.

Another vocal, Bob Conre, showed his way effectively through "The Rhythm and the Wheel," "Love Me, Leave Me," and "The Camellias." The high-school singers sang for only music, a fact which was not judged by their vocalism, and placed at second.

Other first-rate performers were "The Cavaliers," "Graduate Chorus," "Graduate Chorus," and "The Lancers." The Lancers.
