All News Abstracted

A good many people are asking why Biestal is being so tough in her relations with the Allies at this late date although attempts to operate in the present situation are now being made. After the experience of the last 10 years, few people are willing to make intelligent estimates of the way things move now. Even a chance that was promised by the way she does. Everyone wants to know what is going on in the present situation and the way it is developing.

Two factors, at least, have played an important role in the relations between the United States and Germany. One is the situation in Europe, where in the last 10 years, few people have been willing to estimate in any intelligent way the way things move now. The team to beat in the American League is the Detroit Tigers, who have a record of .784, you know. They've been on top for the past few years, and there's no reason to think they won't continue to dominate. Their pitching has been solid, with a few outstanding starters, and their hitting has been equally strong. They're a team to watch out for this season.
