Korean Family Hopeful for American Citizenship

BY GENE MINTZER

Kyu Tya Lee and his family have never met Representative Joe Hayworth (R-Milw.).

But at the Hayworth's court, Lee has seen the future and it resembles the life he had in Korea.

Lee and his wife, Young Ae, have never met the congressman before, nor has he met his family. But they have met the future and it resembles the life they had in Korea.

Lee said that the congressman, Joe Hayworth, has been a help to their family. He has helped them find jobs and housing.

Lee and his family are newly arrived in the United States. They are part of a large number of South Koreans who are moving to the United States to seek better opportunities.

They are among the thousands of South Koreans who have come to the United States in recent years to take advantage of the country's economic opportunities.

Lee and his family are one of the many families who are hoping for a better future in America.

Greet Nehru in Russia

Prime Minister Nehru of India made a unparalleled and unprecedented depar ture Tuesday—complete with cheering hordes—by leaving the Soviet Union and nearing peerless victories.

The President of the United States, who had been in Moscow for some time on a private trip before setting out for the Soviet Union, was greeted by a crowd of thousands of people who lined the streets of Moscow from the time the President's plane landed until he left.
