Jejuite Delinquency
Exploits of Few Hurt Majority

Many words have been written and spoken concerning the national problem of juvenile delinquency. The daily reports of New York City authorities, the innumerable case histories, the literature on the subject, the daily headlines in the newspapers, and the constant references to the Juvenile Court and the Juvenile Court Clinic have created an awareness that the problem exists. However, there is a need for more information about the problem, and it is essential that the public be made aware of the facts as they exist today.

Juvenile delinquency is but one part of the problem of youth. The problem is much more complex, and it is essential that the public be made aware of the facts as they exist today. The public must be made aware of the facts as they exist today.
