A Case of Realistic Thinking

The Big 10 'New Look'

In a meeting held at Michigan State on Monday, the President of the student body of the Ill was absent, noted to fill the role of the President's resignation and substitute for it by Student Body President.

This vote was more than just a change of name; it was a complete revolution prompted by the last week, and it was the result of non-compliance.

A letter was sent to the President of the Michigan Student Association, asking them to form a new council.

The new council will be a separate entity, remaining body, and no action is being taken to bind upon member schools.

The new council is a new organization, with no constitution, subject to approval by the President, and the president shall have complete control over important facts. They are a group of students, elected leaders at their schools, but without the power to decide policy for all the students.

Under the new, tentative constitution, the president has attempted to form an association to return to their original purposes. These purposes are stated simply in Article One of the constitution.

Williams Tells Plans for Road Safety in State

In the Associated Press:

Michigan State Police Tuesday announced a new traffic safety program starting Dec. 1 under which motorists will be asked to dispose of their trash on the highway. The announcement came after a meeting Tuesday in Lansing between a Michigan State Police official and a number of local highway officials.

Land-Grant

Land-Grant Institutions

Brief Historical Facts Noted

Michigan State University, The of Massachusetts and Manual Railway Institute "Woodchuck" were among the institutions surveyed for the report of the American Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities. The survey was conducted by the American Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities.

Following are brief facts about the land-grant institutions:

Michigan State University:
- Founded in 1855 as Michigan Agricultural College.
- Became Michigan State University in 1955.
- Land-grant status since 1862.
- Home to the East Lansing campus.
- Offers a wide range of academic programs.
- Known for its research and community outreach.

Massachusetts Agricultural College:
- Founded in 1863.
- Became Massachusetts Agricultural College in 1948.
- Land-grant status since 1862.
- Known for its agricultural programs and research.

Manual Railway Institute:
- Founded in 1856.
- Became Manual Railway Institute in 1903.
- Known for its engineering programs.

In addition to these institutions, the report notes the rapid expansion of land-grant institutions in the United States, with the number increasing from 12 in 1862 to 201 in 1956. The report also highlights the significant role these institutions played in the development of the United States, particularly in terms of agriculture, engineering, and scientific research.
