Student Talent Show Honors Program Tops Music Series

By LYNN SHEPARD

The University Symphony Orchestra's Sunday afternoon concert performance in Fairchild Theatre undoubtedly surpassed all previous offerings in the Music Department Series this year.

This is not to suggest that other series concerts have been noticeable inferior, but simply to say that the magnitude of Sunday's concert was singularly outstanding.

The Honors Concert, an annual affair, revealed three definitely promising young MSU musicians, besides providing a thoroughly enjoyable treatment of Brahms' "Symphony No. 2 in D major, op. 73" by Louis Spohler Jr.'s Symphony Orchestra.

The concert opened with pianist Lisa Takacs, a Youngstown, Ohio, grad student, playing the majestic and often dynamic "Concerto No. 3 in E flat major, op. 72 ("Emperor") by Beethoven.

Miss Takacs demonstrated a masterful blending and tonal shading of the "Concerto," bringing out the rich, melodic overtones, while always maintaining her arpeggio and scale-wise efficiency.

The second number, a grave "Elegy for Oboe, Horns and Strings," by Durand sophomore Jon Polifrone, showed promise on the aesthetic level. The somber strains of this generally despairing theme created an eerie strain in dissonance.

C. T. Griffes' mystical "Poem for Flute and Orchestra" is evidently quite popular among flutists. It was performed two weeks ago in the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia program and again Sunday. Oscar Sandstedt, Flint

13 Houses Approve Greek Row

Stipulations Set For Reservations

Thirteen fraternities and sororities indicated an interest in immediately joining the proposed fraternity-sorority row Friday night at a meeting of administrative officials and Greek officers, according to John Henderson, assistant director of student affairs.

Greek row will be located on a 35-acre plot on Harrison Road near Mt. Hope owned by the University. The land has been divided into 26 lots of approximately one acre each.

To reserve a lot a fraternity or sorority must post a $1,000 bond with Philip J. May, controller and treasurer.

The Greek organizations will finance one-third of the total cost of the house and lot. The University will then underwrite loans for the rest of the money and agree to take over the house and pay the balance on the loan if the mortgage is in default, he said.

Lots will be leased for a 50-year period. The University will own the lots, but the individual fraternities and sororities will pay for the price of the actual investment plus the cost of all improvements and street repairs.

Each fraternity and sorority will design their own house but the administration requires that all houses be approved.

Refuses Withdrawal From Line

Spokesman Sits Lack of Guarantees

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Israel stood firm on occupied territory Sunday despite a UN General Assembly resolution calling a sixth time for its withdrawal behind the Egypt-Israel armistice line.

An Israeli foreign minister spokesman in Jerusalem said the cabinet took its firm stand because "no guarantees have been obtained yet for definite stoppage of Egypt's belligerency and sea blockade of Israel."

Israel also stuck to its own plan for peace in the Gaza strip and on the Gulf of Aqaba in the closing UN Secretary General face of a second resolution on Dag Hammarskjold's rival plan.

Hammarskjold sent Egypt and Israel copies of both resolutions, adopted late Saturday night. But he was understood to be marking time on steps to carry out his plan until Israel withdraws.

An informed Arab source said he believes Egypt eventually will accept Hammarskjold's suggestion that UN observers be stationed on the Gulf of Aqaba to prevent clashes.

This would forestall, at least temporarily, the renewal of Egypt's blockade of Israeli shipping there. Israel demands that its shipping not be intercepted before pulling its troops from the western shore of the gulf.

Israeli troops were still in the Gaza strip and in the Sharm El Sheikh area on the Gulf of Aqaba, where Egyptian coastal guns long prevented shipping from passing between the Red Sea and Israel's Port of Eilat.

It was problematical whether they would pull out. Before voting against the first resolution and abstaining on the second last night, Israeli Ambassador Abba S. Eban said Israel still stood by its Jan. 23 proposals that it be allowed to go on running the Gaza strip and that UN forces guard freedom of navigation in the Gulf of Aqaba.

But Israeli circles hailed passage of the two resolutions together as a clear victory.

Aud to Become Sea Fantasy

Final decorating plans for the 1957 J-Hop, to be held Friday and Saturday, have been completed.

Following the modern, abstract theme "Liquatus," the decorating committee will seek to transform the Aud to an "under-the-sea" fantasy. Liquatus is a Latin word meaning water.

"decorating" coffee hour Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 in the Aud, during which Bob O'Hara WJIM disk jockey, will interview Turk Murphy.

Murphy and his jazz band are slated as intermission entertainment both Friday and Saturday evenings.

Juniors who attend the coffee hour will also hear some of Murphy's well-known music, and will be interviewed informally by O'Hara.

The entire afternoon's interviews will be taped by O'Hara and played back on his Friday night radio show.

Saturday. Altice for the dance has been set as formal Friday and semi-formal on Saturday.

Last year's J-Hop followed the theme of "Fantasia" with Les Elmer's orchestra providing the music.

This year's was carried out with spot glass, fiber glass peeling, soft lights and a lowered ceiling. Abstract forms of musical instruments covered out the "Fantasia" theme further with mobiles representing instruments suspended from the center of the "sky."

At last year's dance, semi-formal night was Friday and formal on Saturday. This has been changed this year.

Guard Delegates To Meet With Ike

Leaders to Give Reasons For Basic Training Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four representatives of the National Guard Assn. will present to President Eisenhower today the Guard's arguments against requiring its new enlistees to take six months of basic training.

Controversy over a recent Pentagon decision to impose this requirement led Secretary of Defense Wilson to make his most famous remark of last week about National Guard enlistments being "a sort of socialistic draft desisting business" during the Korean war.

Mr. Gen. E. A. Walsh, president of the Guard Association, will refer to the Wilson row in seeking the appointment for association leaders to meet with Eisenhower.

It thus seemed unlikely the subject would come up at today's White House meeting unless Eisenhower himself raises the point.

Walsh has said Wilson's remarks made in testimony before the House Armed Services Committee was "a damn lie." Eisenhower told a news conference yesterday that Wilson's statement was "unwise," although he backed the defense secretary's contention that Guard enlistees 17 to 18½ years old ought to get six months basic training instead of the present 11 weeks.

Walsh said Friday his controversial statement was intended as criticism "of a system that tends to perpetuate" what he called the Guard's "low standard of training and readiness."

The Pentagon proposes to bolster the Guard's training by making all new enlistees serve six months on active duty.

Walsh said the Guard delegation will argue before Eisenhower that the Guard has even less chance of success than the Army in selling a six-month training program to youths 17 to 18½ years of age.

The Association accepts the program for older enlistees.

A House subcommittee sets out today (10 a.m.) to find out why so many young men apparently prefer to take a chance on being drafted rather than join reserve programs.

Pentagon witnesses will be the first to appear before the armed services subcommittee headed by Sen. Overton Brooks (D-La.).

The Guard Association will testify later in the week.

We are for a basic training program," Walsh told a reporter.

The only thing we don't buy is the six months' training for 17-18½ years old... six months is too long."

To enforce such a requirement would jeopardize the enlistments needed to keep the Guard at full strength, he said. And he pointed to the record of the Army's similar reserve program as evidence of this.

Blood Drive Registration Starts Today

Registration for the winter term all-university blood drive begins today in the Union course.

Students may register through Friday to give blood during the drive to be held Feb. 11-13. The drive is being sponsored by Men's Union and AWS in conjunction with the Red Cross.

The goal of the drive is to beat the record set by Stanford University of 4,629 pints. This is the national record achieved in blood drives in any college or university campus.

Trophies will be awarded to the highest percentage of students giving blood in fraternities, societies, men's dorms, women's dorms and men's co-ops.

Co-chairmen of the drive are Dean Vane, Royal Oak sophomore of Men's Union and Leslie Covington, Detroit junior of AWS.

Publicity chairman is Stan Star, Fredonia, N.Y., junior, and Roger Cudim, Birmingham sophomore, is personnel chairman.

Chairmanship Position Open

Career Carny Petitioning Starts

Petitioning for the chairmanship of the 1957 Career Carnival to be held next fall term, will open today and continue through Feb. 15.

Nominations may be obtained at the Union Desk or at the Placement Bureau and may be turned in at the front desk of the Placement Bureau, located in Morrill Hall.

Sub-chairmen will be needed to fill the jobs of publicity chairman, executive-secretary, staging director and banquet director. Many of these positions will be filled by those who petition for the chairmanship, said Dick Herrmann, Lansing senior.

According to Herrmann, director of the 1956 carnival, the chairman will be responsible for organizing the annual event. He will pick a theme, set up committees and direct the operation of the project to be held about the fourth week of fall term.

Career Carnival, designed to give students information about vocational opportunities in business, industry and education, is the only event of its kind at and sponsored by a university.

The student-vocational information service will include displays of state, federal and national organizations. This year the 80 participating companies occupied the entire second floor of the Union and even more organizations are expected to send displays next fall.

The carnival is not designed to be a recruiting center for occupations. It is an informational giving service where students may obtain first hand facts relating to vocations and find out the type of training necessary to fill various posts within a company.

Career Carnival is sponsored and advised by the MSU Placement Bureau.

Viewers are invited to write income tax problems, the most in questions about particular pertinent of which will be discussed on the final program.

In connection with this same topic WKAR-TV's "Controversy" will present a discussion titled "What Is Wrong With Our Income Tax" this evening at 8:30.

French Film Set Tonight In Fairchild

A Jean Paul Sartre story is the basis for the French film, "The Proud and the Beautiful," to be shown today and Tuesday in Fairchild theater. "On the Twelfth Day," an English short, is the extra feature.

The films, sponsored by the Foreign Film Series, will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. on both evenings.

"The Proud and the Beautiful," filmed on location in Vera Cruz, is the tale of two people who instead of climbing upward to a happy ending, spiral downward through horrors and personal degradations that lead to inner peace—their happy ending.

The film stars Michele Morgan and Gerald Philips.

"On the Twelfth Day" is a color short illustrating an ancient folk song. The film won honors at the Venice and Edinburgh Film Festivals and was given a Royal Command Performance in London.

Cagers Stop 'Cats In 77-63 Victory

Four Men in Two Figures Plus Rebounding Did Trick

Proving that its two past upset victories weren't flukes, Michigan State's basketball squad evened up everything Saturday night by beating Northwestern, 77-63.

The Spartans are now 3-3 in the Big 10 and 7-7 overall. They are still tied for sixth with Minnesota but are now only one-half game out of third.

Four men hit in double figures Saturday to help State gain its third straight conference triumph. Capt. George Ferguson and Bill Anderson each netted 16, while Larry Hostetler was the back with 13 and John Green scored 11.

Green played only half the game as he mounted up four personal fouls in the first eight minutes and had to leave court because substitute for him.

Anderson was a replacement for Jack O'Connell who sprained his ankle early in the game and was used only sparingly.

Rebounding once again played an important part in the Spartan victory as State controlled the boards, 46-27, over the Wildcats.

High man for Northwestern was center Joe Ninkovic with 20 points, 10 of them down the block. The Wildcats' other leading scorer, Nick Martin, was held to a mere six points by Ferguson's defensive work.

State now has a week off before meeting Illinois Saturday afternoon in a 15 game at Johnson Fieldhouse.

Shot Put Record Set By Michigan's Owen

By HAL BAILEMAN
State News Managing Editor

Michigan's Dave Owen set a new American record in the shot put and Michigan won four out of five events at the 34th annual Michigan State Relays at Jackson.

The Michigan State won two events plus several places in the other events.

The 10 champion Michigan Central Collegiate titles were shared while Ohio State picked up two titles with Glenn Davis, two wins and Central Michigan, Wayne and Loyola of Chicago each one.

Owen, Big 10 shot put king, broke with a tremendous heave of 58' 10 1/2" to easily set the old American record of 57' 5 1/2" set by Kansas' Bill Nelso at the Relays last year.

Owen's record will be listed as a new American record.

Michigan State's swimming team returned to its winning ways Saturday, by dunking Purdue, 22-33, for its fourth straight victory in five attempts.

Coach Chuck McCaffrey's tankers were in complete command from start to finish as they capped seven of the nine individual events and both relays.

The Spartans started fast by taking the opening 400-yard medley relay with Tom Nichols, Paul Keinke, Tom Kuzans and Paul Parrish swimming their way home in 5:52.

John Stenlund and Tom Nichols took the winning relay by placing one-two in the 200-yard freestyle as the Don Patterson and Larry Ellis in the 400-yard freestyle, who was injured at Ohio State last week, seemed to act to splash his way to victory in the 200-yard freestyle medley.

Sophomore Dean Taylor received his first win in dual meet competition in the 440-yard freestyle. Taylor posted an impressive 4:55.7.

The Boilermakers' only firsts were recorded by Walt Everman in the 200-yard backstroke and Dick Raabli in diving.

Winning the 177 pound and heavy weight matches provided the margin of victory as the wrestler defeated a stubborn Purdue team, 19-11, Saturday at Lafayette, Ind.

After the first six matches the score was 19-11. Larry Ferguson's Lansing center, captured the 177-pound class, even by pinning Jim Henley of Purdue to 4:01.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

Planning for growth, Joe Hunt (left) talks with Jim Robinson (center), District Construction Foreman, and O. D. Frisbie, Supervising Repair Foreman. In Joe's district alone, 600 new telephones are put into service every month.

"I'll take a growing company"

70,000 telephones to keep in operation... $20,000,000 worth of telephone company property to watch over... 160 people to supervise - these are some of the salient facts about Joe Hunt's present job with Southwestern Bell. He's a District Plant Superintendent at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

"It's a man-sized job," says Joe, who graduated from Oklahoma A. & M. in 1949 as an E.E. "And it's the kind of job I was looking for when I joined the telephone company."

"I wanted an engineering career that would lead to management responsibilities. Moreover, I wanted that career to be in a growing company, because growth creates real opportunities to get ahead."

"But to take advantage of opportunities as they come along, you must have sound training and experience. The telephone company sees that you get plenty of both. Really useful training, and experience that gives you know-how and confidence. Then, when bigger jobs come your way, you're equipped to handle them."

"If I had it to do all over again, I'd make the same decision about where to find a career. Now - as then - I'll take a growing company."

Joe Hunt is with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Interesting career opportunities exist in other Bell Telephone Companies, and in Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. Your placement officer can give you more information about these companies.
