Soviet Union Expels Two U. S. Officers

Took Illegal Pictures, Reds Say

Yanks Charge Pair Attacked

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union Thursday expelled two more U. S. military attaches, accusing them of taking pictures of "a building of defense significance."

The action followed a Leningrad incident in which both men were attacked, the U. S. Embassy said.

Marine Corps Capt. Paul R. Uffelman, 31, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Navy Lt. William S. Lewis of Guthrie, Okla., were ordered excluded from the Soviet Union at once.

The expulsion of Uffelman and Lewis, which appeared to be a further retaliation for the arrest of alleged Soviet spies in the United States and the deportation of Soviet diplomats, was in answer to a strong U. S. protest.

The United States charged the two naval attaches were attacked by a crowd in civilian clothes in Leningrad on Jan. 25, and were detained in the Leningrad police station in violation of their diplomatic immunity. The State Department said the two attaches were in an "open area" where cameras are permitted.

U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen was called to the Foreign Ministry Thursday and notified that his protest had been received and that both men were ordered to leave the Soviet Union.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko said the two attaches had attempted to photograph a defense building—which he did not identify—had struck Soviet citizens who attempted to question them and had refused to identify themselves to Leningrad police officers.

The version was in sharp contrast to the American Embassy's complaint.

In his protest Bohlen gave this account: Both men were walking along a street when a Russian attempted to see the camera Lewis was wearing around his neck while another Russian nearby set up the cry, "spies, spies."

During a scuffle, other Russians tried to grab Uffelman's briefcase, and seized Lewis' camera.

A militia captain arrived but made no effort to restrain the Russians attacking the two officers.

The militia officer refused to recognize the Americans' diplomatic credentials issued by the Soviet government and insisted they accompany him and the other participants in the incident to the police station.

There Uffelman and Lewis refused to enter until a Lt. Colonel of the militia told them he was prepared to use force.

The two Americans entered the police station under protest. They demanded the return of Lewis' camera and refused to sign a report of the incident that the police had prepared.

The two Americans were detained an hour and a half. The militia retained the film but returned Lewis' camera with the neck chain broken.

BULLETIN

Suspect Caught

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police last night caught a man who they claimed said he was the "phantom sniper" who has been terrorizing Detroit's northern suburbs since before Christmas.

The man, who officers said identified himself as Gary Addison Taylor, 24, of Southfield Township, was cornered by state, city and Oakland County police cars shortly after three women and several homes had been shot at.

He had a .22 caliber rifle in his car, police said.

According to Royal Oak Patrolmen Howard Lester and Joseph Linville, who took part in the capture of Taylor, he admitted firing the shots dating back to Dec. 22 when a Royal Oak girl was shot in the back as she walked down the street.

Week-Long Campaign

Student to Donate Blood On TV for Annual Drive

By LOIS ANDERSON

A student donor will give blood on WJIM-TV Monday demonstrating the ease of contributing blood to the annual blood drive, sponsored next week by Men's Union and AWS.

Lansing Red Cross officials will officiate on Country House Party Lane at 2 p.m. with Gloria B. Cavanaugh and Howard Finch.

Four hundred have signed up so far to give blood. It is hoped there will be 600 registrants by tomorrow.

Although the blood drive starts Monday, students and faculty may register all next week in the Union concourse.

Hours of the blood drive will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday. Thursday the donation headquarters, located on the fourth floor of the Union, will be open from 2-8 p.m. to allow those to give blood who otherwise would not get a chance.

The Lansing Red Cross Regional Blood Center is in charge of taking the blood. The whole process, including a physical examination, takes about 45 minutes.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served to those who give blood. Four prizes will be given to blood donors by East Lansing merchants.

Traveling trophies are also being awarded to the fraternities, men's dorms, women's dorms and men's co-ops who have the highest percentage of persons contributing blood.

Phi Delta Theta is contributing the trophy for the fraternities and AWS is giving the trophy for the men's dorms, women's dorms, and men's co-ops.

Last winter term the winner included men's co-ops, Ellsworth House; women's dorms, West Mayo; men's dorms, Butterfield.

VA Insurance Policy Holders Get New Forms

The Veterans Administration has been sending new insurance premium billings to GI policy holders in the Michigan area which will save $350,000 a year and give better service, they have announced.

The VA said the new premium billing system involves the use of punched cards which policy holders will return with their checks in special envelopes supplied by VA for that purpose.

GI policy holders who still have the old billings should continue to use them until their supply is exhausted. At that time, the VA insurance office handling their accounts will send them a year's supply of new notices.

Congress Election Results Announced

Vacancies Still Reported In Married Housing District

Eight winners and a tie resulted from the Student Congress final elections held Thursday, according to Jan Cooper, elections commissioner.

Carolyn Kowalik, Detroit junior, and Deborah Schimmel, Springfield, Mass., sophomore, tied for sorority representative.

Other final results are: John Andervont, Bethesda, Md., junior—West Shaw; Marilyn Geasler, Lake freshman—East Mayo; Janice Heinrichs, Grosse Pointe Woods freshman—West Yakeley; Gloria Donati, Mount Vernon, N.Y., freshman—East Landon; George Greig, Detroit freshman—Bailey.

The two fraternity seats went to Russ Ingraham, Clinton sophomore and Phil Hough, Detroit sophomore.

Ingraham is a Phi Kappa Sigma and Hough is a Delta Sigma Phi.

Daniel Myers, Ypsilanti senior, took the men's co-op seat. Only three votes were cast for this position.

Those automatically seated are:

The three East Lansing vacancies were filled by Barrie Allen, New York junior; Donald Becker, East Lansing junior; and James Benham, Totton, N.C., sophomore.

Two vacancies still exist in married housing, according to Miss Cooper. Appointments of interested students living in married housing will be made by Student Congress.

The convicts gave up just before dawn. About 500 of the prison's 618 inmates were involved.

A meeting of the board of corrections, governing body of the prison, was called Thursday afternoon.

The riot flared up during dinner Wednesday night in an argument between a convict and guard Lt. M. L. Coleman. As other convicts joined in, Coleman was knifed in the stomach but was dragged out of the prisoner area as it was sealed off from the administrative section. He was reported in fair condition at a Salt Lake City hospital.

Prisoners' demands included an inmate council, repeal of the indeterminate sentence law, more outside camps, better food preparation, an inmate newspaper and radio program, and elimination of "the error of secrecy about the operation about the prison."

Both Wiest and Miss Reeder have been active outside of their major fields. Wiest as a member of senior council and Alpha Delta Sigma, advertising honorary for men, and Miss Reeder as secretary of J-Hop decorations and president of her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta.

ASUC Judiciary Seats Bob Romal

Bob Romal was seated as senior justice of the All-University Judiciary Thursday night without controversy and exercised full authority in the meeting, according to Bill Rees, chief justice of the court.

Rees said no question of eligibility had been brought to the court, despite Wednesday night's stormy Congress session at which petitioning for the job had been called unconstitutional.

The varied group of drawings by art students has been loaned to MSU art department in return for a small student show of MSU work which is now on display at the Texas institution.

Prisoners Surrender After Riot

List Grievances With Governor

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP)—Guards armed with riot guns moved into Utah's strife-torn prison Thursday and put under lock and key approximately 500 convicts who surrendered after a 12-hour spree of violence.

The defiant convicts, armed with captured guns, had held as many as 27 hostages at one time, and seized most of the prison Wednesday night. They held it until shortly before dawn.

They gave up in response to Gov. Clyde's promise to an impartial investigation of 43 grievances.

They released the hostages, turned their arms over to prison authorities and went into their cells.

The prisoners first insisted that Clyde bargain with them on the grievances as a condition of releasing their 27 hostages.

Chase told the convicts he wouldn't even consider their complaints until all hostages were freed.

For Annual J-Hop

Aquatic Scenes Adorn Aud

Modern mobile fish, a giant sea-horse and blue-green lighting will set the scene in the Aud on Friday and Saturday nights for the 1957 issue of MSU's J-Hop, called Liqueur.

Dancing to the music of Les Brown and "His Band of New Stars" will start at 9 both nights. Hours for coeds have been extended to 4 a.m. after Friday's Hop and to 3 a.m. following Saturday's dance.

Favors, still secret, will not be given out at the door of the Aud as in past years, according to Nancy Seydler and John Rogers, co-chairmen of the dance. They will be available an hour after the dance begins in rooms 124 and 128 of the Aud.

UB Provides Ride System For Students

Students going to Florida during spring vacation will find an easier and more convenient method of arranging for rides and riders by using Union Board's new ride system.

The system will employ a large map of Florida posted in the Union Board office.

Students needing rides will fill out a form listing name, address, telephone number and destination. This information will then be transferred to a small slip of paper and pinned onto the map at the proper town.

Those students wishing riders may come into the office and get these names. It will be up to them to contact the people going to their destination and to make final arrangements.

Permanent rides, such as those going every week or the first week of the month, will continue to be listed on the revolving wheel in the UB office. Students may sign up for weekly rides on a clip board at the main desk.

Michigan Art Works In Union Exhibition

A group of some 24 works of art by eight Michigan artists constitutes the new exhibition in the Union Gallery. Represented in the group are painters, sculptors, ceramists and print-makers.

The show opens today and will run through February 27.

A coffee hour has been planned by the J-Hop decorating committee and will be held in the Aud from 3 to 5 today. Bob O'Hara, WJIM disc jockey, will be present to interview Turk Murphy and juniors attending the hour.

O'Hara plans to record the afternoon's proceedings and play them back over his evening radio show.

NEWS IN BRIEF

U. S., Poland to Trade

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States announced Thursday it will open negotiations with Communist Poland soon on that country's proposal to borrow American dollars and buy American goods. The idea is to shore up Poland's newly won independence of Russia. Lincoln White, State Department press officer, said the Polish government has been invited to hold the economic talks in Washington and has accepted. He said he thought the negotiations would start soon. Other sources said the United States was ready to begin them early next week.

Diplomat's Death Revealed

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—The Soviet government cleared up a major mystery Thursday by acknowledging that missing Swedish diplomat Raoul Wallenberg died at Soviet Secret Police Headquarters in Moscow 10 years ago. The Russian admission—with a belated expression of regret—came after 12 years of straight-faced Soviet denials of any knowledge of Wallenberg's fate. It cast blame for the cover-up on a former Stalin police official, now dead.

Israeli Condemnation Planned

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The powerful Asian-African group of 27 UN members is drawing up a resolution to condemn and punish Israel for refusal to withdraw from Egypt. It would impose economic, financial restrictions—called sanctions—on the Israelis, and military. A spokesman disclosed this course after a brief Asian-African session Thursday. The group hopes to present the resolution Monday in the 80-nation General Assembly.

Mistreatment Charges Renewed

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP)—A young recruit who is a central figure in a new investigation of charges of mistreatment of recruits at the Parris Island Marine Training Base, said tonight, "It looks like I've started something I didn't want to start." Pvt. David Lee Porter of Hartford, Vt., added in a telephone conversation with a reporter, "I'm up to my neck in this thing and I wish I weren't." He refused to elaborate, however, on the charges he and several other recruits have brought against drill instructors, accusing them of mistreatment.

Reds Approve Peace Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union agreed Thursday to resume disarmament talks in London March 11, but suggested that the meeting be at the foreign ministers level. The meeting would be in accordance with a recommendation adopted unanimously by the General Assembly last month, calling for new discussions by the five-nation UN disarmament Subcommittee. This body consists of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada.

Deprive Adult Rights

Unrealistic Rule Harsh Restriction on Students

Reprinted below is an editorial from the Ohio State Lantern which very well sets forth the student opinion at Michigan State about the new rule.

There exists at MSU a rule that, in effect, bars coeds from men's living units—particularly from off-campus housing.

Several students have been suspended for violations of that rule in the past week. Others are in the administrative mill about the matter right now.

The rule is an unrealistic rule in general and sudden emphasis on it has only pointed up its lack of realism.

To concern with the Lantern, does a rule of this sort really make any great difference in the moral fiber of the school's coeds? Is this type of harsh restriction healthy for a student body that will, in from one to five years, become "adults" in the cold cruel world?

It sure will be lonely after graduation when there's no one there to lead us by the hand down the road of life.

To be realistic about the situation, the rule is really not much of a hindrance to those few who are bent on immoral acts. It is, rather, a harsh penalty for those many students who are denied the whole, some fun that they could and should have.

Is it not better for several couples to gather for an evening of records, dancing, a bull session and such than to force a furtive gathering in a hiding place—or even an evening of "wholesome, healthy" entertainment in a car parked on a dark, lonely road?

Since it does little to hinder the overt lawbreakers and penalizes the wholesome masses, is the rule sensible?

Would it not be more realistic to set up a system of weekend night privileges that allowed the many to benefit without harsh restrictions?

Why couldn't fraternity houses and men's dorms be opened on Friday and Saturday night in such a manner as to allow fun without hurting anyone?

At one Eastern school coeds are allowed into men's dorm rooms on Friday and Saturday nights under the stipulation that the door be open and the light on.

Other schools allow fraternities to hold informal parties or gatherings on weekend nights without a formalized system of regimentation with chaperons hovering about to stop what no one wants to do in the first place.

In short, why aren't the coeds allowed to have the rights that adulthood should bring? Why not bring the campus situation to the level of the "outside" world, where these very same girls will be thrust in a short time? That thrust is liable to be painful with no one to forbid or to lead by the hand.

Insult to Womanhood

From the Ohio State Lantern

When you reach the age of 21, you can vote, run for office, be sued, get married without your parents' consent, buy hard liquor, do just about anything you like. You're considered an adult.

That is, you can unless you happen to be a college woman. In that case, you're considered a child and treated as such. You have to sign in and out and account for your every move.

We realize that we'll probably be accused of encouraging anarchy, immorality and what-have-you by so much as questioning the traditional "hours" system set up for dormitories and University living units. But we think it's useless, anachronous, and an insult to every woman student.

In the preface to WSGA's "Things We Live By," the purpose of the system is stated to be "to encourage good living with high ideals among all Ohio State coeds." But does it encourage good living and high ideals to tell the coed in essence, that she doesn't know what's good for her and isn't capable of taking care of herself, therefore she must do as she's told?

Now we realize that it may not be a good thing to give free rein to a freshman away from home for the first time. But how about juniors and seniors, many of whom live away from home during the summer, most of whom are treated like fairly intelligent adults when they are at home, and almost all of whom will be completely on their own when they graduate?

Does WSGA really think that giving Ohio State women strict hours to live by will encourage a higher moral fiber among the women? If so, it must be assuming that the girls are a much worse lot than we think they are. There also seems to be some kind of witchcraft which turns a good girl into a bad girl at the stroke of midnight, and which conversely insures that all girls are good before the witching hour.

The ruling is also unfair in that dorm girls are policed, whereas town girls are answerable only to themselves and their parents. And we've found that most parents are willing to give their daughters as much freedom as they've shown themselves capable of handling. Why shouldn't a dorm resident be allowed to bring a note from Mamma saying that Mamma trusted her daughter to use her own judgment?

If daughter showed by staying out late night after night, Mamma could be notified of the matter and take steps to set daughter straight. It's more a matter between Mamma and daughter than between daughter and the University, anyway.

Maybe it's ridiculous to suggest that college women should be treated as adults. Maybe they aren't capable of behaving as adults. Maybe to do away with hours would result in anarchy and immorality. Maybe it's technically impossible to leave dorms open or to issue residents keys.

But we're glad we never had to live in a dorm. It's nice to be treated as an adult.

International Club Is for U. S. and Foreign Students

To the Editor:

The International Club is for all students on campus, including American students.

It has been brought to my attention and to the attention of many foreign students, that the American students on campus would like to participate in the International Club but they are afraid to do so because the International Club is for foreign students.

As president of the International Club and on behalf of the foreign students at MSU, I would like to invite the American students to come to the Club and meet us and give us a chance to meet them.

The Club meets on Fridays at 8 p.m. in 31 Union. There is usually a very short business meeting followed by social activity of the evening, a movie or slides about a foreign country or the United States. Following this there is dancing in the same room, coffee and cookies in the center for those who like to sit and discuss the latest world developments with a student from the specific area. Some sit and enjoy music from Italy, France, Austria, Brazil, or the Middle East, etc.

Again we say the International Club is for all MSU students since they are all international students coming from the United States or some other country. At MSU we have students from 63 countries and the chance to meet you is given at the International Center and the International Club.

Solutions

To the Editor:

After long consideration and deliberation, a number of our contemporaries and ourselves have finally arrived at a number of solutions for the present "problem" of women students accepting invitations to men's residences.

Solution 1: At 7 p.m. in the evening to 8 a.m. in the morning on weekdays, and from 6 p.m. Friday until 8 a.m. Monday, chain all the men's students to the sitting room of their respective house mothers. This way a house mother would always be present.

Solution 2: Encourage each individual instead of congregating with others where there is "safety" in numbers, to go off by themselves in autos and have personal parties, parked off by the side of lonely roads.

Solution 3: The method suggested in George Orwell's 1984 also would be quite effective.

Solution 4: Move the women students 139 miles away to Bad Axe as they moved the women of the University of North Carolina to Greensboro.

We are in complete agreement with the present policy of stimulating the students' fertile brains for newer and undiscovered secret rendezvous rather than the stimulation of high moral conduct among the future offenders. We feel that this policy will lead to our graduates having more intuition and a more greatly developed imagination.

To prove this it has been rumored that a MSU graduate originally planned and suggested the SECRET rendezvous for the Valtia Agreement.

Spartan Speaks

To the Editor:

My name is Sparty and there are some things I would like to say.

I don't stand cold and alone by the Red Cedar as you may think. I live in every dorm, fraternity and sorority house, each married housing unit, even beyond East Lansing, in every place where MSU is mentioned and wherever enthusiasm and nostalgia are found.

I can be no more a part of this school than you allow yourselves to be, for we are one and the same. We are the traditions of the past and the unlimited future, yet our sureness is made up of days and weeks of interest and loyalty.

I am much more than the spirit of athletics. Yet in them we have a great opportunity to show others in a positive way what we are and what we stand proudly for.

This Saturday I need your support. Three of our athletic teams are home to us. Perhaps my point is clear—so is your part in Saturday's activities. Our swimming team is one of the best in the conference with only one loss. Do you know that one of the relay teams has broken a world record? And what is more remarkable, three of the four men are sophomores. This squad will profit by your attendance Saturday.

The gymnastic team is home also—a fine squad, but as good as they are, the "Leas" and "Browns" could be better with some vocal support.

If basketball is your sport, Saturday is your opportunity to see a good team become great. To do that, it takes more than five men playing good ball, but a combination of good coaching, player skill and desire and the participation of some 14,000 "I believe in this team" fans.

This team is unique. They came back to win when the hill to the top was the steepest. They deserve the backing that only you can give. Thousands of fellow Spartans will be watching on TV Saturday when this team takes the floor against one of the best—Illinois.

I can't believe what some people are saying, that we aren't interested in all of MSU's many phases. That it is too "Joe College," to support and cheer the teams that make up you and me.

No, I believe in us more than that! I think we'll pack the gym, the swimming pool and the field-house Saturday and when the fight song rings out, we'll stand together, not out of tradition, but as a salute to them and ourselves for we are the real MSU!

Make Your Letter

To the Editor:

In your classes you have heard many times the philosophy of what has made America great. To sum it up it would seem to me that one of the outstanding features of our greatness would be our eagerness to excel, to co-operate and work together, to be religious and ever mindful of the other fellow with the realization that you must be a friend to have friends. For a great number of years here we have had the motto of "The difference between good and great is a little extra effort" and sometime, somehow or other it caught on with our football teams. In this democracy of ours you can be anything or get anything you want providing you are willing to pay the price to earn it. The American Red Cross Blood Program is another example of our Democracy where people voluntarily give a little of their time and blood to save many lives of people who would be unable to live if it were not for this program. Everyone likes to be healthy and without health there is very little to enjoy.

We have a lot of young men at Michigan State University who pay the price in work and effort to make their letters. You can make your letter by donating blood to the American Red Cross.

Seven Coeds Seek Tiara Of Miss MSU at J-Hop

The identity of Miss MSU will be revealed during the intermission of tonight's J-Hop. The seven finalists will appear on the stage and one will be crowned by Jan Kwaizer, Miss MSU of 1956. The queen is selected by Blue Key, men's service honorary, on the basis of beauty and personality.

The queen of campus queens will be one of these coeds: Lee Stacey, 5'4" junior from Whitchita, Kansas, is majoring in special education. She likes Italian spaghetti, fried chicken, water skiing, horse back riding, swimming, dancing and tennis. Her most disliked activity: polishing shoes. She is a member of Sigma Kappa.

Sally Novak is an elementary education major from Grosse Pointe. A Pi Beta Phi, Miss Novak likes skiing, swimming, dancing, chocolate ice cream, steak and good music. She is 5'5", blonde and a junior.

Sandra J. Karalash from Dearborn is a sophomore in art education. Miss Karalash is 5'5" and has light brown hair. She prefers classical music, modern jazz, bowling, water skiing and art.

Barbara M. Haughwout, a radio and TV speech major, is a junior from Wayne. A Kappa Kappa Gamma, she has brown hair and is 5'3". Her likes are singing, music, stage plays, skiing and meat.

Lea Ferguson likes lemons in everything, outdoor sports, art as a hobby and music. From Skokie, Ill., she is a junior in elementary education. A Pi Beta Phi, she is 5'6" and a brunette.

Patriarche's Merger Idea Receives Jolt

The proposed merger of a section of Lansing township with East Lansing met a setback at the February meeting of the county board of supervisors. The board defeated a motion by John Patriarche, East Lansing city manager, to approve the petition asking for the merger.

Acceptance of the petition is dependent on when the board last considered a merger of the area to Lansing. If the petition was considered by the board within two years new petitions must be circulated.

State law requires that introduction of a motion to merge submitted within two years of a previous motion be accompanied by signatures on the petitions of 33 per cent of the registered property owning voters.

The present petitions have only one per cent of the registered property-owning voters which is legal only if the interval has been longer than two years.

The area affected by the merger includes part of the Brody group not already included in East Lansing, Spartan Village, Frandor Center and the Frandor and Red Cedar golf courses.

Phi Epsilon Kappa Sets Meet for Sunday

Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's national professional physical education fraternity, will hold an open meeting Sunday evening at 7:30 in 35 Union.

According to Bruce Noble, East Lansing grad student, the guest speaker will be Harry Grabner, representative from the district including Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Indiana. Grabner, who this year attended the Australian Olympics, will show slides of the event and of his trip.

Denise Donmoyer, Ferndale freshman, is majoring in speech correction. She has light brown hair and is 5'6". A Kappa Kappa Gamma, she favors semi-classical music, calypso, steak, shrimp and sports.

Kathy Arnold, a Kappa Alpha Theta, is a junior from Battle Creek and a major in elementary education. She is 5'4", has brown hair and likes to swim, swim and dance.

Miss MSU will represent the Queen of Queens

Miss MSU Named By Blue Key Tonight

Which one will it be? This question will be heard all over campus until the veil is lifted Friday evening at the J-Hop. The wondering students are referring to the crowning of Miss MSU.

During the intermission, Jan Kwasner, Miss MSU of 1956, will crown the queen with a tiara, presented by Blue Key, which the new Miss MSU will be able to keep. A throne is being used in the ceremony for the first time and local merchants will present "lucky girl" with awards and certificates for clothing.

Miss MSU is the representative sent to the Big 10 contest. She will also represent the school as the unofficial hostess for all events in the coming year.

Other social activities on campus this weekend are also centered around the J-Hop. The Delta Zeta's and the Alpha Epsilon Pi's are both holding breakfasts after the J-Hop tonight from 2-4 p.m. for members and their dates.

A post J-Hop record dance will be held by the Alpha Epsilon Pi's Saturday evening from 9-12 at the house. The records will feature the music of Les Brown and decorations will consist of musical notes and record albums.

Saturday afternoon an open house is being planned after the basketball game for Les Brown, Turk Murphy and the J-Hop Committee members. Turk Murphy is scheduled to tour the campus and fraternity houses this weekend. Our guests of honor will get a touch of campus life by eating at fraternity and sorority houses.

The Zeta Tau Alpha's will hold their annual Valentine dinner at their chapter house on Sunday.

Co-chairmen of the J-Hop, Johnny Rogers and Nancy Sydlar, put the finishing touches on the decorations for tonight's dance.

Thinclads to Appear In AAU Competition

Forty-four Michigan State trackmen will compete today in the Michigan AAU championships at Yost Fieldhouse in Ann Arbor.

Twenty-six will compete for the varsity with the other 18, all freshmen, unattached entries.

Most of the varsity entries will compete in only one event because of the scheduled home dual meet Monday with Kansas. The top two events for Michigan State will be the two-mile and distance medley relays, the same events the Spartans won at the MSU Relays last weekend.

Head Coach Kaff Schladerman will use the quartet of Forday Kennedy, Ted Tetzlaff, Selwyn Jones and Dave Lean in the two-mile relay while the distance medley team will consist of Ken Daboe, Henry Kennedy, Gay Denslow and Terry Block.

The top entry for the Spartans will be Lean, who will only run in the relay. In the individual events, freshman Willie Atterberry is the top man.

Atterberry, an alternate on the U.S. Olympic team, will compete in the open 600 and 1,000-yard runs and will be the man to beat in both races.

The Spartan sprint medley team will be Tom Flynn, Bob Elliott, Bruce Lillyblad and Ron Wheeler while the mile relay will be picked from Bruce Kyburz, Henry Kennedy, Daboe, Dave Grissom and Flynn.

Elliott, George Ward and freshman Ken Miller are slated for the broad jump with freshman Roy Podolil, Brian Castle and Don Marsh entered in the novice 300-yard dash.

Lillyblad, Elliott and Glenn Barget are the varsity entries in the 60-yard dash with freshmen Charlie Bond and Pat Ryan running unattached. Entered in the novice mile are freshmen Tony Smith, Jim Horan, Arvid Lindholm and Jack Crowell.

Smith along with freshmen Bob Lake and Dave Coombs will compete in the novice 800-yard run while State's varsity entries in the 65-yard high and low hurdles will be Kelly Thompson and Roy Bates with freshmen Mike Kleinhaus and Bill Breckenbeck competing unattached.

Freshmen Castle and Al Waddles are listed for the novice 600 with Ward and freshman DeLand Davis entered in the high jump. Kleinhaus, Frank Melwold and Lee Ekstrom are unattached entries in the pole vault and George Best and Tom Lampel are competing for the varsity.

Sam Elowitz, Ron Lustik and Dick Muesig are listed for the shot put and Ron Wheeler is the only Spartan in the open mile. Besides Atterberry, Roy Hughes and Sam Harris will run in the open 600 with Jerry Muskal the only Spartan in the open 1,000.

Meet Set for 1:30 Spartans Host Hoosiers In Big 10 Tank Action

By JERRY ROBBINS
State News Sports Editor

Michigan State's swimming team takes to the Big 10 waterways again Saturday when it plays host to Indiana. The meet is scheduled to get underway at 1:30 in Jensen Pool.

The Spartans will be looking for their fifth dual meet win in six starts this season. In addition, Coach Chuck McCaffrey's men will be out to average a 47-46 loss to the Hoosiers last year.

The meet changes in as one of the biggest tests for the Spartans to date. Although Indiana fell to unbeaten Ohio State last week, 58-47, the Hoosiers are loaded with speedsters.

Such headline stars as Sonny Tanabe, Bill Wooten, Tom Lord, Barry Yap and Bob Gates provide the Indiana tankers with a powerful punch.

Tanabe paced first in the individual medley and 300-yard freestyle against the Bucks and Wooten corralled two events in the distance events.

In an attempt to keep his team on the winning trail, McCaffrey plans to start Don Nichols, Paul Reinke, Rog Harmon, Tom Kwassy and either Don Patterson or Frank Parrish in the opening 400-yard medley relay.

Capt. Jim Clemens, Denny Baker and Les Lobauch are expected to get the call in the distance races and Larry Ellis, Ken Gest, Parrish and Patterson to handle the sprint assignments.

Wally Douder and Long are expected to go in the individual medley and Harmon and Kwassy appear as good bet in the butterfly event.

In the breaststroke, the ever-reliable Paul Reinke will go for the Spartans and he will be teamed with Dee Edington.

Such stars as Clark Schell and George Hogenhyde are also expected to be present.

Spartans Try for First Division Berth

Michigan State's high-flying basketball team will have its first opportunity to move into the Big 10 first division Saturday afternoon when the Spartans entertain the University of Illinois at 2:30 in Jenison Fieldhouse.

The game will be regionally televised but will be blacked out in the Lansing-East Lansing area.

State will be shooting for its fourth straight conference victory against three setbacks. If the Spartans win, they will be at least in a tie for fifth and possibly as high as third.

Illinois will be playing its first game without its leading scorer, George Bon-Salle. The big center was recently declared ineligible for scholastic difficulties after compiling a 19.5 point average in six conference games.

Capt. George Ferguson will start. Coach Fordy Anderson will start Capt. George Ferguson, Larry Hedden, John Green, Jack Quiggle and either Pat Wilson or Bob Anderegg.

Wilson has been a real spark-plug for the Spartans but hasn't delivered too much in the scoring column. Anderegg has been a big boom to State in both scoring (he has a 9.7 conference average) and rebounding.

Illinois Coach Harry Combes said he won't decide on Bon-Salle's replacement until just before game time, but guesses it will be Ted Calazza, a 6'7" junior who has filled in for Bon-Salle so far this season.

If Calazza does start, he will be supported by veterans Harry Schmidt, Don Ohi, Hiles Stout and sophomore Roger Taylor—all four of whom are hitting in double figures, all except Taylor are among the Big 10 top 10 scorers.

This will be a real tough one, Anderson commented, but if our shooting, defensive play and rebounding match up to our last three performances we should take it.

Doors will open at 1 Saturday afternoon, with a freshman game taking place then.

Fencing Squad To Compete in Triangular Tilt

Sporting a three win, no loss mark for the current season, the Michigan State fencing team will make its second road trip of the campaign when they travel to Chicago to meet the University of Illinois and the University of Chicago in the latter's gym, Saturday.

Coach Charles Schmitter has indicated he will start undefeated George Thomas as the No. 1 man in the sabre. Once beaten Darrald McCalla and John Kasky will fence in the second and third spots, respectively.

The foil will find Ed Hildebrandt dueling in the first position, while Harold Simonds will be No. 2 and Forrest Mark No. 3. Capt. Norman Winger will be the No. 1 Spartan foiler in the spec. Following him will be Warner Johnson, in the second spot, while Ed Kotlar will be number three. All three fencers have identical 5-4 marks for the season.

"We've shown up very well this season and the boys are constantly improving and gaining the much needed confidence that it takes to win a title," stated Coach Schmitter.

Unbeaten Gymnasts Host Illinois in Saturday Meet

The Michigan State gymnastic team will put its undefeated record on the line this Saturday at Jenison Field House. The opposition will be Illinois, the National champion. This meet will be the toughest yet encountered by Coach Szypula's gymnasts.

Szypula says, "If we repeat our Minnesota performance, we have a good chance to win."

The gymnasts have three wins this season. The victories were over Navy Pier, Ohio State and Minnesota. All were badly beaten, the closest an opponent has come was Ohio State, which the Spartans defeated by a score of 69-42.

Leading the Spartans in total points scored is Don Leas. In hot pursuit of scoring honors are Cal Girard and Roland Brown. In the Minnesota match they scored 15 and 12 points respectively.

Illini's under the direction of Coach Charles Pond is the 1956 National and Big 10 champions. Pond is in his ninth year as coach.

Joe Picks 'em

By JOE HOFFMAN

Purdue at Iowa: Boiler-makers were heading strong till the Michigan upset Monday. Hawks have tapered off into eighth place. A victory and first place for PURDUE.

Minnesota at Michigan: The Gophers easily defeated the Wolves at Minneapolis last week, but home court makes Michigan much tougher. Wolves are up but educated guess says MINNESOTA.

Ohio State at Indiana: Take your pick. The Bucks have dropped two straight after winning their first six. Indiana is one of the 100's strongest teams with big Archie Dees leading all scorers. Bucks topple further — INDIANA.

Wrestlers Face Iowa Teachers

Iowa State Teachers wrestling squad will play host to the Michigan State team at Cedar Falls this Saturday in a dual meet.

State will be gunning for its sixth win against a team that had won 15 straight meets until Minnesota bumped them off a few weeks ago.

Earlier this season Fendley Collins' wrestlers knocked off Minnesota in a quadrangler meet.

Despite injuries, State is sporting its strongest team in the last few years and will enter the meet with five victories, one more than last season.

Making the trip for State will be Don Strout at 123 pounds, Jerry Hoke at 139 pounds, Eugene Wiley at 137 pounds, Norm Gilliat at 147 pounds, Walt Jones in the 152 pound class, Jim Ferguson at 167 pounds, LeRoy Fladeth at 177 pounds and in the heavyweight division will be Ken Madow.
